Overview

New Moon Monday January 23rd 2:40 AM EST

The manner in which self esteem is connected to and dependant on beliefs related to social distinction plays out during an Aquarius Moon cycle. Self confidence dependant upon social outcomes is a form of external validation, an individual's sense of self admiration is determined by the perceived or apparent actions of others. Challenges in this regard are turned to opportunity when the individual is able to trust and follow their feelings when difficulties arise and flesh out the correlating beliefs which have perhaps become buried within their identities.

Confusion about social distinction and the need or quality of relationship boundaries have both been prevalent lately as indicated by Saturn in Libra and Neptune in Aquarius. A trine between Saturn and Neptune raises the incidents of these issues as a merging between partnership and public experiences surfaces, there are beliefs which are in some manner needing to be questioned. Social ideals spring to the surface infiltrating partnerships. Take for example the relationship between a sheriff and deputy who are paid to protect the public. Here the protocol between these two is challenged, redefined, or restated, when ideas as to who and what defines good guys and the bad guys becomes unclear. Applying this same energy dynamic more specifically to one's self, some ongoing relationship with a friend or associate is seemingly challenged because ideals unconsciously accepted by one or both as being absolute begins to define or redefine the partnership harmony. Turmoil exists when individuals in a partnership feel the need to design relationship boundaries to a nebulous or delusionary social distinction belief. The reason they would do this is because their identity is in question and it is perhaps easier, or less emotionally involved, to question some social standard or a partnership purpose than to throw their self esteem under the bus. Saturn will transit Libra from October 2010 to October 2012, the Neptune Aquarius transit began in 1998 yet ends this Moon cycle as Neptune will ingress Pisces. The trine between Saturn and Neptune began mid December 2011 and remains in place during the current new Moon phase. Within the fourteen year transit of Neptune in Aquarius a process of dissolving social elitism and social distinction has occurred, many social beliefs were fleshed out, the Saturn Neptune trine is like the final showdown. The value of one's social beliefs have been in some manner called to be increasingly realistic, no more gliding along with half hearted "I'm not involved" social comprehension. The role of religion, of political power, private clubs, social tiers, economic classes, and many more, all frozen and displayed such that in very realistic Saturn terms their value can be assessed. Their weight upon one's day to day dependable personal identity and their friendships either increases or decreases depending upon the foundational beliefs which govern and determine one's personal sense of sovereignty and stability. The Moon's nodal axis transit through Sagittarius and Gemini indicates a grand opportunity for any individual to bust a crippled mind lost in devalued social distinction and move with Jupiter, Sagittarius ruling planet, through Taurus building a foundation which is in perfect harmony with both their self admiration identity and their social place.

With all three earth signs experiencing prominent transits, Taurus transited by Jupiter, Virgo by Mars, and Capricorn by Pluto, dynamics related to foundational security and comfort are prevalent. The Aquarius Moon cycle will bring these dynamics to social relevancy. Security issues related to some change in public dynamics will be related to Pluto in Capricorn. Here it is for one to focus firstly on domestic duties as opposed to social concerns. Social comprehension will rise once home and family are duly considered and prioritized.

Courage to expressive oneself socially is on the rise as indicated by Uranus, Aquarius ruling planet, now in Aries (March 11th 2011 - March 6th 2019). Mars, Aries ruling planet, will be unburdened by Uranus in Aries allowing individual impulses to be acted upon. Mars which will be retrograde in Virgo shortly after the new Moon (January 23rd 7:55 PM) indicates a reiterating or return to recent analytical activities. These analytical activities will include the rationalizing of relationships. This occurs on a mental landscape of shattered ideals as indicated by the Moon's south node transiting Gemini. The Moon's north node transiting Sagittarius offers a viable means to increase individualized stability. Jupiter, Sagittarius ruling planet, is currently transiting Taurus indicating an expanding sense of comfort and security. Expanding foundational security occurs through a willingness to clean up one's dialogue. Sloppy dialogue either internalized or outwardly communicated indicates a lack of foundation. Such dialogue is turned to value when the individual allows occurrences of such to lead them to hidden or unresolved beliefs and associated thinking patterns which have been allowed to infiltrate mental focus. Typically the challenge here is in one's resistance to letting go of some identity. Identity is connected with Aquarius as opposite zodiac sign Leo depicts the energy of one's self admiration which either complements or opposes one's social energy or Aquarius influence. One's Leo affiliation is like their social seed. Whatever manner of valuing self is chosen, whatever identity has been assumed by the individual, the quality of this identity, this seed, is testified to by the quality of social resonance it prevails to. The bold rise of individualized social expression can be in response to some delayed or canceled past action as indicated by retrograde Mars. Saturn going retrograde February 7th will also bring up some past or delayed expressions where the rules regarding relationship are reactivated. A clarity in communication is called for by strict Saturn yet this demand may also be questioned when relationship rules imply a social distinction rejected by an assumed social identity of another.

The extended trine connecting Saturn and Neptune (since December 24th 2011) will move some relationship challenges into resolution. Saturn which has moved into the final degree of Libra will turn back, retrograde, and not ingress Scorpio until October 2012. Neptune on the other hand will ingress Pisces and break away from it's trine with Saturn. Some relationships may have had the individuals involved attempting to sort things out, come to terms, yet the final outcome may manifest as a parting of the ways as some choose to maintain Saturn type rules while others foray into the boundless zone of Neptune in Pisces. In an attempt to create some seriousness the opposite may have occurred. A realization that something is not as real as one has been assuming and acting occurs after a good effort of wanting to make it right and it just wouldn't go. Upon letting go a wonderful thing begins to happen. Many ideas as to what reality is may have for years been automatically considered real in a rather unknowing fashion and have now recently been busted down by these powerful relationship dynamics. Dramas typically follow major personal revaluations acting as a sort of graduation or finalization confirming the integration of the realization. Some past relationship stipulation may return such that a completion can be made.

An increasing acceptance as to the value and practicality of imagining parallels an increasing awareness as to the nature of thought. Thought creates. Each individual is born as an artist, their canvas alive and ready for vision thought and imagining. This Aquarius Moon cycle can facilitate a grand opening of the mind. It is in the use of one's imaging that limitation can be lessened and alternate versions of experiences reached. Aquarius as an air sign stretches the function of the mind beyond typical routine with brilliance and invention. The valuing of one's imagining as a mapping mechanism can fuel interest in visualization ceremony and mediation. Artistic type expressions can also be brought to a matured practicality where the beyond is played with and made real as a creative expression. The joining of people occurs as some fascination is mutually reached, a common ground energy matrix implied and chosen. Imagining is fun, it is the temple of the child within. Socially facilitated it is a fun fest, a very powerful game changer. Uranus, Aquarius ruling planet is now in Aries (May 2010 - May 2018), indicating individual participation in social imagining. Neptune will ingress Pisces this Moon cycle (Friday February 3rd 2:04 PM). Neptune as ruler of Pisces means no boundaries. The last time Neptune was in Pisces was 1848, at that time Neptune was not known or had not been discovered reducing its social significance. This current Neptune Pisces ingress occurs at a time when humanity has become ripened to fantasy. The deal for humanity as individuals is to accept the responsibility for past imagining, to accept all challenges as if they were chosen by the individual. Such a stance implies the individual is a creative force here on planet Earth. In terms of practical responsibility consider that everything an individual is responsible in a solid world is the result of some past imagining. Specifically these challenges call the individual to examine their authority, the precision of such concern dictated by the emotional response of a specific challenge. In some cases impounded imagining is freed from a prison of opinion and definition which had been regulated by a separation paradigm. Neptune's no boundary policy prevails as the ending of separation. Mentally beliefs related to separation exclude the individual from the social fun fest which is breaking free Uranian style. The hardened veneer of social separation may survive as a nostalgic reminder to humanity yet the separation paradigm's strangle hold over imagining will continue to be lessened by Pluto's Capricorn transit. The playful nature of opposite sign Cancer will simply choose fun. Cancer as a domestic sign feels beyond the boundary of reason and will choose family and nurturing. From the perspective of respecting and being responsible the consideration and acknowledging of Mother Earth will circuit playfulness to galactic proportions, Aquarian heights. The nurturing quality associated with having fun is tuned into, prevailing as an Aquarian paradise.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aquarius the focus will be on ideals and invention which support social well being. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing visions of freedom and all the opportunities and inspirations which spring from utopian focus. Such envisioned delights bring forward a feeling about one's self admiration. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of how self admiration is related to public interaction is observed. Those born under the Sun sign Aquarius have a natural propensity to self admiration harmonized with social ideals. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of limitation which are qualified by social distinction. Not to exclude others as we all have Aquarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aquarius propensity for idealism. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public good will of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience social ideals ...

Capricorn: by how I observe and accept all who I come in contact with.

Sagittarius: by how I accept what others think and say without judgment.

Scorpio: by accepting the way I feel about myself relative to my social involvement.

Libra: by allowing myself to be filled with joy and inspiration as I embrace social freedom.

Virgo: by being discerning as to what is and what is not a personal responsibility.

Leo: by recognizing how my partnerships align me with new social potentials.

Cancer: by allowing these ideals to be creatively supported by my partnership experiences.

Gemini: by trusting and accepting new ways of being involved with humanity and the planet.

Taurus: through my dedication to the public, through my career.

Aries: by allowing my spontaneous self to be publicly involved.

Pisces: by being a member of the greatest social club of all, by accepting my inclusion within the symbiosis of Mother Earth.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Monday January 23rd - New Moon in Aquarius 2:40 AM

Mars retrograde Monday January 23rd 7:55 PM

Dealing with social foundation becomes high tone in this Aquarius Moon cycle and begins immediately here in the new Moon phase. A call to order may occur at some point during the cycle as the effect of not having things in a congruent practical order is felt. Visions of order can color outcomes and begins with a feeling sense where by the individual holds the space for what they would prefer to experience in their community. Leadership as the by-product of holding and responding to mutually accepted values occurs as the longing for harmony and fairness challenges what has come to be known as unreliable and ineffective social boundaries and associated methods. Social difficulties trigger passion and memory within the individual who is reminded of their vision, potentially bringing them to a point of reinventing their identity via actions. The rationalizations behind some unpopular social situation may have been chewed over endlessly with no prevailing agreeable solutions. The unpopular acceptance of disagreeable boundaries may well be coming to some type of end. The revealing of hidden boundaries, some affecting individuals locally and some affecting community, are fuel to the spark igniting reform. New social foundations are coming together now and so it is interesting to see who is acknowledging this and who is acting as if it is not so. There is great joy in social sharing which becomes increasingly magnified and powerful as more feel and entertain to it's presence. This expanding power can threaten long time existing social power structures defaulting in a showdown. The rise of fantasy as an acceptable manner to live and experience life also continues and will rise further as if the fun of actively imagining is too irresistible and addictive to ignore. On the horizon is a new way of rationalizing significance, it is the manner in which the individual understands and measures significance which will ultimately be their gateway to future experiences as 2012 unveils it's mystery and magic.

02 Wednesday January 25th - Moon enters Pisces 4:12 AM*Mercury ingress Aquarius Friday January 27th 1:13 PM*

Coming to terms with social foundations based on notions which are not satisfactorily qualified is a necessary precursor to acquiring a reliable steady individualized foundation. The individual having acquired a sense of sovereignty absent of a need to have it externally qualified is able to navigate diverse values and concerns of public and friends without falling into storms of worry and distress. Once one's history of denial has become known to them their ability to move from judgment to discernment quickens. Their emotional sensitivity is then able to identify reality layers related to these past experiences. From a perspective it's not as if the person changes, it's more like an expanded self awareness rises and stretches via correlating insight, they become more themselves. In a few days Neptune will ingress Pisces (Friday February 3rd) transiting there for thirteen years, fantasy will become more finely integrated. As such it is important to accept fantasy as a way of experiencing reality. Are not all realities fantasies? Depending on how one would answer this delineates their future. Now as the Moon transits Pisces the quality of fantasy and delusion are fleshed out. Social understandings are especially prominent as they either extend from one's sense of personal comfort or challenge it. In terms of interacting with others this can be a good time to simply be a good listener, to be supportive by allowing others to experience what they need.

03 Friday January 27th - Moon enters Aries 1:29 PM

Something one was involved with a few months ago, which was unfortunately terminated, may reappear. This could for example be spurred on by an interest in shared resources and become evident by the bold actions and talk of some individuals. A need to make some move or take some action can prompt sudden dialogue however it may appear that what is being said is not quite up to date. Is there any real new news here? The manner in which partnership arrangements are understood is evident as implied by the expression. This can all be started by the Moon's transit though Aries which can prompt concern that something needs to be done right now. It may simply be a matter of someone wanting to be more involved socially and so they move on an impulse which in some way has enough sound reason to be allowed expression. Either way picking up where one left off, as if a desire was left unfulfilled, may return one to a past or recent partnership arrangement, as if time has skipped back. The difference now may be the injection of a rather brilliant piece of wisdom, an effective adjustment governing a partnership dividend for example redefines a previously stalled arrangement. More importantly a break in the action may also have allowed an individual to become more self aware. A staunch realization that self trust leads to better and clearer awareness in partnership arrangements may have occurred.

04 Monday January 30th - Moon enters Taurus 1:29 AM

Missions to expand one's security is currently a popular dynamic as indicated by Jupiter's transit through Taurus (June 4th 2011 - June 11th 2012). As related to this Aquarius Moon cycle this dynamic takes on a personal concern, especially now as the Moon transits Taurus. Core beliefs related to security will drive the expansion scenario. The manner in which these beliefs are anchored in personal sovereignty is directly related to any current move toward successful outcome. If there are long time beliefs which govern one's thinking and communicating where personal sovereignty is not prioritized then these mental patterns or formulas will have the individual cycling endlessly through the same old same old. The Moon in Taurus will flesh out, with precision, the needle in the haystack, as in a long time self corrupting agenda. Taurus related dynamics can be unwilling to move and this being a good thing about Taurus can also be a difficult thing. If some security agenda has been discovered as no longer effective it is best to make steps toward some form of resolution. A testimonial of one's advancing foundational security and personal sovereignty is their evolving ability to tune into etheric broadcasts. Taurus as an earth sign brings into resonance a shared harmonic which connects all living Earth creatures, such is the most basic attribute of Taurus energy. Security issues will as such be related to an interruption of this signal.

05 Wednesday February 1st - Moon enters Gemini 2:16 PM

Neptune ingress Pisces Friday February 3rd 2:04 PM

Some inspiring new way to increase one's public involvement may occur. Changes in how excitement is moved toward shared experience affects communication, a previous hesitation for example may be broken through. Or something which was a turn off loses its hold as opportunity is supported by an inspired idea. Also indicated is a constraint on some partnership is loosened due to diverging interest. The ability to accept one's desire as valuable without being discouraged by those who may deem it inappropriate or nutty allows one's personal command and intention to reach out and find common interest. The match up between what one is giving and what another wants to receive may not be ideal however the meeting of such is no coincidence. The discernment which is excised signals a rise in one's clarity. From here an expanded field can be viewed and as such an increase in effective communication occurs. The buzz of words alone may no longer be enough to sustain interest as many begin to value a more personal experience of involvement. Communication however when used to plan and schedule events which when mutually supported has a satisfying result is another matter. One's astute ability to know and feel the difference between such types of communication will serve them well as the Moon transits Gemini.

06 Saturday February 4th - Moon enters Cancer 1:05 AM

Domestic concerns linked to creating social relevancy can be brought to the surface now as the Moon transits Cancer. Methods of being domestically responsible are made known by the bold actions which the associated belief qualifies. Thundering changes which have affected one's affiliation with social standards reverberate through these beliefs and ultimately affect how family is protected. This is going to be an ongoing process and so now is a good time to pay particular attention to that which seems to demand domestic attention. There could be a deeper issue which is ripe to be discovered. Social rules and boundaries which have been regulated by opinion for example may be re-examined, alternate perspectives gaining acceptance. Old standards may seem forgotten or just completely absent, or a brilliant insight may negate a previously typical action. Either way some hidden boundary which has been governing a relationship may have become known, a new clarity as to what is one's individualized responsibility can now be acted upon.

07 Monday February 6th - Moon enters Leo 8:25 AM*Saturn retrograde Tuesday February 7th 9:04 AMFull Moon in Leo Tuesday February 7th 4:55 PMVenus ingress Aries Wednesday February 8th 1:02 AM*

An opportunity to move notion into actuality occurs as an individual responds to their inspiration within a community dynamic. It may seem as though some social group needs a leader. This may be so yet what may also be needed is an anchor, a sense of expanding foundation, which all can feel and share. The leadership which seeks and responds to this newly developing foundation can effectively alter the group mission or agenda in a harmonious way. An authority which has been defining and perhaps limiting interaction within a group may be forced to back off. The presence of an evolving foundation is evidenced by the quality of communication occurring. Dialogue which deals in effective facts and relevant focus has a functional simplicity which allows all involved to move together with clarity as agenda is processed. Dialogue which prevails as dead ends and reiterations of dysfunctional scenarios is evidence of unresolved issues and is not appropriate now. The type of leadership which group members experience now is tied in with each individual as the quality of their own courage and the character of their own inspiration is reflected back to them individually. The individual who agrees to admit their blind spots can ultimately affect many others as a new vision is given space, their intention to be purposeful and valuable to their community given foundation.

08 Wednesday February 8th - Moon enters Virgo 12:33 PM

The actions of some individuals may cause others to believe their social relationship is striving. Such may or may not be the case. The quality of the social relationship can however be determined by the degree of spontaneity and thus mutual participation which the actions imply. Mercury, planetary ruler to Virgo, merges with the energy of an Aquarius Sun and brings great social light to one's mental picture of being socially tuned. Mercury is also planetary ruler to Gemini and with the Moon's south node transiting Gemini automatic talk is indicated. Again the discerning factor is mutual participation in spontaneous moments. Challenges move into inspiring opportunity when delight of harmonious social interaction is intended and wisdom allowed to prevail. Pallas Athena in Aquarius signals such opportunity however a cultivated standard which has been regulating social interaction may be diced and spliced such that an elevated diplomacy can prevail. With retrograde Mars in Virgo some individuals will be prompted into action by the Moon's transit through Virgo. An action previously denied or prevented can be given a second life. The gap between then and now was recently filled with something. Most likely an advancement in self awareness has occurred giving the individual a new take on an ongoing public understanding. Perhaps the action impulse can now be supported by a reborn inspiration to be publicly involved.

09 Friday February 10th - Moon enters Libra 2:55 PM

Spontaneous moments which color and invigorate shared experiences lead to social discovery as hosted by the Sun's current transit through Aquarius. The quality and willingness to be apart of shared experiences implies and perhaps introduces the boundaries which are necessary to allow the experiences. Some previously unknown boundaries may be behind current experiences. With Saturn in Libra and Mars in Virgo, both retrograde, an individual may call upon some past belief to charge their current relationship experience. The quality of this action or impulse can be measured by the quality of the spontaneous moment it either supports or denies. Social ideals akin to Aquarius begin in relationships as an acceptance of the self admiration of their partner and self. The boundaries implied by current action will be measured against this admiration. Distortions and collisions will be indicated by feeling reactions as the Moon transits Libra. Ideally those involved will be able to reinvent their self image and take on an upgrade such that an increased allowing is embraced within themselves and reflected in their partner. Since this current partnership boundary is tied to Aquarius social ideal an altering of one's public effectiveness is at hand. A building up of steadiness anchored within the individual ultimately extends into their spontaneous partnership experiences and then into the public.

10 Sunday February 12th - Moon enters Scorpio 5:02 PM

Mercury ingress Pisces Monday February 13th 8:39 PM

The evolution of some partnerships may be held back as some decide to maintain established methods of doing business. This can cause others to simply move on. An increase in boldness affects both parties yet some will move to relive the past while others will be inspired by a new idea. One's basic belief as related to sharing values is key to what is considered inspiring. The manner in how wealth has been shared can be traced back to the belief system and paradigm which has been used to qualify behavior and decision. The sensual aspect of being human allows one to tune into etheric broadcast and become privy to information related to their human nature their sensual nature. It is this aspect of self which the Scorpio Moon reaches out to. An ability to trust one's sensual self and allow their intuition and feelings to expand their perspective leads to the piercing of paradigms which limit value sharing. This can cause a pulling back on a curtain of wealth hoarding and control while also impulsing many to become involved in a coordinated advancing global agenda of respect and acceptance. The crushing defeat of that which was considered unsinkable prevails in the individual as an unavoidable reality check, where the meaning of "absolute" becomes a bouncing ball in a global game. In terms of deeming something "absolute" consider the idea that there are "absolutely" new players in the game who are "absolutely" changing the rules. Can this be so, how absolutely sure can one be either way?

11 Tuesday February 14th - Moon enters Sagittarius 7:57 PM

The degree to which reality is known to be changeable affects choices. The degree to which one is able to respond confidently to accepted realism is related to their investment and dividend in either admitting responsibility or denial management. Acceptance and denial like doorways lead somewhere and it is such choice which either leads to a new world or denies it. As false normalizing of social dynamics continues to be challenged and broken down a continued searching and wondering about where it is all leading causes some to value previously dismissed visions for the future in a now more realistic way. Trusting that one's actions are supported by the formation of a new foundation allows them to register a sense of confidence which directs further decisions. The Moon's transit through Sagittarius can potentially flesh out those personal choices which limit connection with a new world forming. For example some long held reputation concern where public value had been defined and carved in stone may come into view such that it can be dismissed once and for all. As the winds of change are upon us emotional sensitivity, like a sailor's eye, can lead to steady ground. The Earth knows steadiness and comfort and when the individual knows this the two are destined to meet.

12 Friday February 17th - Moon enters Capricorn 12:04 AM

Sun ingress Pisces Sunday February 19th 1:19 AM

The serious business of staying on track with one's major concerns may have been thrown a few curves lately. The catcher scrambles to keep the outcome protected as best one can yet a breakthrough in how one rationalizes also factors in. New data, perhaps rejected mentally, is accepted because of its emotional impact, some reality is unheeding in its demand to be realized. Boundaries are good, there is no doubt about it, yet it is not the only ingredient in one's home baked life. An ability to move into spontaneous creative expression and acceptance while accepting the boundary of one's current paradigm allows one to maintain a steadiness and happiness. Add to this the current smashing of many of humanities long held paradigms and the dance in the kitchen gets increasingly interesting. You work with what is available and what is available has a measured value which the individual in some way tallies. Someone who is trying too hard, who never gives up, is finally forced into defeat, only to discover that a mystery has been tricking them into some unbelievably wonderful opportunity. If there is an evolving awareness within the individual which is making a bridge between dysfunctional rules and long held yet failing boundaries over to the bliss of effortless success and happiness it is their understanding and placement as to what is trust. With the Moon in Capricorn an opportunity to move into increased unburdening is a hand simply by accepting one's feelings and allowing these feelings to reveal the paradigms and beliefs which qualify them. The long and short of it is to flesh out and establish priority where personal responsibilities are free from the methods and opinions of distant externalized boundary which can clearly be seen as a hangover from beliefs which one is not partial to.

13 Sunday February 19th - Moon enters Aquarius 5:29 AM

Dark Moon begins Sunday February 19th 10:23 AM

A freedom to move ahead with some socially relevant sense of compassion may be felt. An ongoing restraint tethering the manifestation of an inspired vision is cut, freeing oneself to participate in some alternate version of reality. A rule ridden authority may be fading into some other concern, the matter of moving on one's own desire is seemingly at hand. To value one's own creative expression can cause them to feel good about who they are. This self awareness in turn expands one's insight and also gives them a strength to look beyond past limitations without being pounded by self chastisement. Permanent divorce from what has been an ongoing limitation occurs when the individual can see without question the past necessity of the limitation. Such an open minded attitude implies the acceptance of some past naivety. Specifically this naivety will have something to do with one's own inner steadiness. Some humor may be involved either way things can be enticing and entertaining. The song and the music of one's vision may be heard yet this may not necessarily be the right time to act out the vision, instead better suited is a moment of integration and connection to one's expanding sense of wholeness. The time for action will then follow effortlessly as a by-product of one's vision and intention.

Dramas and events in one's life can be helpful when the individual is able to see that these things cause them to experience something. Events and dramas are significant in that they facilitate experiences the individual may not choose to go after directly. Once the individual realizes they are drawing out these experiences they begin to have expanded understanding of dramas and events, a shift in grasping significance eases difficulty. The approaching Moon cycle will be the first Pisces Moon cycle since Neptune's recent Pisces ingress. Neptune as the planetary ruler of Pisces will be welcomed home and this does not occur often. The last time Neptune was in Pisces was 1848, before Neptune was discovered or recognized by modern man. Saturn has been trine with Neptune as Neptune made it's final journey through Aquarius, this trine stretching over several recent Moon cycles. During this Moon cycle however Neptune moves forward out of this trine and into Pisces where as Saturn turns back in Libra for more relationship rules and boundaries. Neptune and Pisces both epitomize the boundless nature of existence and so this home base arrival will make delusion and fantasy real. The idea of deeming something real will be less effective for the individual as everything is real in Pisces Neptune terms. Perhaps better serving the individual is to determine what is significant.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

For those interested in personal astrology readings it is important to note that Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that you create your own reality. As such our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been going through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will be connected to particular astro alignments and planetary placement. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vaster perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of some specific date or time frame in which some major dynamic has occurred.

Astrology readings are typically recorded to either CD or tape. If you are interested in setting a date for a session or would like to inquire further feel free to call or check out the web site.
