Ongoing Themes

These astrological themes are global in nature. The intention is to assist an individual awakening to larger dramas and to find peace within themselves by knowing how personal dramas are proportions of grander energy dynamics. Please accept these as samples and examples as none of these energy dynamics can be defined in a conclusive way. As always what is significance is the quality of an individual's self appreciation which is shown to them through their unique emotional truth.

The deconstruction and reconstruction of social infrastructure.

Possible Ramifications:

Questioning of long standing infrastructure.

Ending of historically established institutions.

New opportunities for revolutionary ideals.

The rise of a new practicality in terms of taking responsibility.

Developing special talents and skillsPossible Ramifications:

Discovering a longed for talent actually exists and now becomes available.

A deeper feeling commitment and purpose services the development of one's unique special skills.

An ability to admit any poor attitude allows space for increased responsibility and maturity.

A much richer experience through communication and thinking.

Partnerships make more sense as the focus is on security and comfort.

Individual self confidence openly expressed.Possible Ramifications:

Hesitation replaced by immediate action.

Personal options as valued property are protected and defended.

Assumed identity tested through real life incidents.

Beliefs considered facts justify bold social interaction.

Self interest dominates use of shared resources.

Mixing and merging of diverse opinion and culture.Possible Ramifications:

To what culture or opinion am I associated?

People as a global nation begin to prioritize what they have in common.

Separation due to cultural adherence loses ground.

Some long held notions of truth or reality now seen as delusions.

A seeking for a new compassion model which services global harmony.

Inspired artistic expressions blend cultures and unify interest.

Overview

New Moon in Scorpio

Tuesday November 13th 5:09 PM EST

The Scorpio new Moon is influenced by the semi-sextile with Venus in the 12th solar house of Libra. A fondness for relationships, the good feeling of being socially friendly, can temper and adjust Scorpio actions where consideration ranks high and others are treated with due respect and acknowledgement. As an individual proceeds with their inspired agenda especially where they are using or developing an unfolding special talent they will be doing so in a somewhat community conscious manner. Another semi-sextile formed from Chiron in Pisces and Uranus in Aries, both planets currently retrograde, tempers abrupt social actions. This semi-sextile extends beyond the current Moon cycle and has been in place for some time prior to this Moon cycle. Chiron in Pisces suggests a coming to terms with different versions of reality, which could be applied to different cultures which find themselves needing to occupy the same space, where a brotherhood and sisterhood is felt, where a compassion is allowed beyond historic cultural borders. Chiron and Uranus in semi-sextile affects social action as Uranus in Aries has an energetic awareness of Chiron the healer and as such adjusts the action triggered by urges to increase social freedom. The new Moon in Scorpio is also quincunx retrograde Vesta in Gemini indicating a very deep insight into the quality, appropriateness, and accuracy of what is said. It's like every word can be felt, it's meaning sorted at the deepest level, it's importance revealed, it's commitment revealed. This brings a certain influence to this Scorpio new Moon cycle where commitment is extended into how one thinks and communicates. One might say that this Scorpio new Moon cycle will prompt deep interest and commitment in regards to social freedom while maintaining a friendly interaction and conversations with others.

The payoff for years, decades, of integrity honesty and admission occurs now as the individual witnesses their own miraculous transformation. How the individual feels about who they are, the emotional experience of believing in oneself, can feel like being plugged into a high voltage outlet where love is strong, amplified to a dizzying degree. Many individuals have become very very powerful, their thoughts wielding magnitudes of energy surpassing any historical document of individual ability. Perhaps 67% of these individuals are unaware that they have had such a metamorphic experience and yet they have recently been through some sort, or form of, life change which correlates with such personal transformation. This could be the arrival of an apparent challenging difficulty which is actually not difficult at all if they were to simply acknowledge that their evolved self has issued the experiences because unknowingly it is a piece of cake to deal with. Need we be reminded that thought creates, that everything which exists is someone's opinion or intention. The increased focus in Scorpio is an ideal time to discover the depth of one's self, their abilities and their resources. Many people will now become experts at doing what it is they truly enjoy. It is about, as said countless times, the journey, and as such it is the ongoing discovery of one's absolute magnificent self which parallels their current inspired project.

This new Moon Solar Eclipse in Scorpio will offer great opportunities for those who are artistic or in some way right brain in their nature. An ability to extrapolate patterns quickly allows instant recognition of how things are and as such the immediate potential which surround the individual is revealed. Great depth and wisdom is indicated at the time of the eclipse as Pallas Athena in Pisces will be trine to the new Moon. The new Moon solar eclipse is also quincunx Vesta in Gemini indicating an impassioned announcement or some form of communication which will epitomize both dedication and depth of insight. As we draw conclusion from the previous Libra Moon cycle we may have been able to better understand and accept relationships. There has most certainly been opportunities to notice how we share energy and reflect each others integrity. The matter as to how our relationships and quality of our integrity are realistically measured and determined is like a Scorpio science. The proof is in the pudding, we all know how integrity and a shared harmonic in partnership can give birth, make new realities happen. It is a very powerful thing, harmonious relationships and partnerships, and it is this knowing and respecting which can potentially bring to us, via relationships, a most wonderful and fruitful experience, beginning on this new Moon solar eclipse in Scorpio.

The Moon's north node transiting Scorpio indicates a period (August 31st 2012 - February 18th 2014) where we will be shown the quality of our security, where our confidence that certain things can be relied on to be there. Even those beliefs which are considered unshakable can now potentially be tested. The silver lining here is the manner in which selfishness of a lower vibration is busted. This is like a revolution where a call to support only win win scenarios drives an inspired justice at the hearts of many. The irony is that selfless sharing in terms of security, values, and all things which allow individuals to experience comfort, is actually a most pleasant and harmonious, meaning healthy and healing, way to experience life. That the security a selfish acts aims to achieve is defeated by either a non-feeling manifestation within the individual, or a heavy heart. Is this really security, absolutely not! On the other hand those who feel others pain with out interfering with their karma can set up a harmonic with them where each can have their cake and eat it too. Ceres current transit through Cancer indicates a care taking nature extended to all things natural or organic, this would include the relationship between family members where a sense of protection triggers creativity. This creative sense will have an emotional component and will most certainly require one to be willing to explore their vulnerability such that this creativity can be experienced. Saturn in Scorpio indicates that the business of how we are all deeply connected and ultimately dependant upon one another, and this most certainly includes our dependence on planet Earth herself and all her living creatures, is going to be a serious and important business and priority. This is not a good time for the greedy or those who have been historically involved in hoarding. The presence of both Pluto in Capricorn and Uranus in Aries indicates an unpredictable climate where all, you know what, can occur at any time, and this is a global potential. The notion that this is a time where all are experiencing the quality of their integrity is no joke or idle phrase. Again the irony is to intend to have a good time filled with joy yet tempered with maturity and responsibility, admission and acceptance, as this will allow the individual to join with or merge with the grand harmonic where celestial and Earthly integrity are currently merging.

Sunsigns

With this Moon cycle beginning in Scorpio the focus will be on emotional depths we reach by embracing shared experience. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of valuing and acknowledging the truth of sensuality and the rich life which unfolds into our immediate experience through sensuality. Such experience brings forward powerful energy which births new life and transforms our world in many ways. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of transformation and power is noticed and valued. Those born under the Sun sign Scorpio have a natural propensity to sensuality and deep rich involvement in life. They can surprise others at times with their talent, they become an expert in those areas which inspire them. Not to exclude others as we all have Scorpio somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience deep insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward sensual experience of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I feel deeply connected to life when I ...

Libra: value how I have a natural propensity to know what is going on around me.

Virgo: trust that I connect naturally with the deep meaning of whatever is being communicated.

Leo: look deeply into my own self definition.

Cancer: allow my inspiration and sensuality to move into playful dynamics.

Gemini: am being responsible for what my sensuality brings to my attention.

Taurus: accept the deep feelings I have when I allow my self to experience partnership.

Aries: accept what I have started and allow the richness of the outcomes to be supported by my initial impulses.

Pisces: allow myself to experience new things and places.

Aquarius: embrace the value of my commitment to my career.

Capricorn: trust and value how my feelings always give me a deep insight concerning my social world.

Sagittarius: feel Mother Earth's presence in my body.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Tuesday November 13th - New Moon Solar Eclipse in Scorpio 5:09 PM*Mercury ingress Scorpio Wednesday November 14th 2:43 AM*

If there are indeed endings occurring in regard to how and where one has been experiencing security then this Moon cycle, New Moon Solar Eclipse in Scorpio, may assist the individual in moving toward a new way in which their security can be provided. The shift in effectiveness is astrologically shown as a shift from Taurus to Scorpio. This can be experienced or observed by paying attention to control. For example there will be those who have allowed themselves to be somewhat freely controlled by others, by say bank or financial managers suggesting and implementing account and financial changes, doctors or medical professionals who issue prescription drugs and procedures, or a partner who controls and manages all the affairs and decisions in a supposedly joint arrangement. Such free form allowing may come to an end for some as they begin to take a deeper interest in where their comfort and security comes from and how it is managed. Those on the other end who have been managing others in their typical and even professional way may find themselves being challenged as their clients patients or partners, whatever the case may be, begin to question things and suggest changes. Less dynamically polarized is the growing or evolution of sharing in a mature and effective way, in an enjoyable way. This is the beginning of the new Moon in Scorpio and yet it occurs within a larger time frame of Scorpio focused energy. Saturn and the Moon's north node are both now in Scorpio, their ingresses rather recent, and as such Scorpio energy and experiences are going to be with us for some time, into 2014. This makes this new Moon Solar eclipse particularly important. Scorpio will bring out depth in the individual and this depth will allow the individual, if they so choose, to understand their partnerships and especially shared values more richly and clearly. Consider your new Moon meditation and intention in this regard where there is a deeper sensual meaning coming into prominence and you are capable of feeling and knowing much more than ever before. Doing so now may well affect the next couple of years.

02 Wednesday November 14th - Moon enters Sagittarius 5:53 AM

As the Moon transits Sagittarius there may be those who begin to feel the effect of overwhelm due to all the things they have been doing lately, all the running around. With Mars in Sagittarius such increase in activities is indicated as there is an enthusiasm giving action energy or even boldness to affected individuals. Mars will soon ingress Capricorn Saturday evening and activities will then be driven by defined purposefulness, yet for now the Moon in Sagittarius will expose the "it's too much" if such exist. As the new Moon in Scorpio prompts individuals to feel and explore their sensual depth an outcome of this feeling introspection is the development of specific and special talents by the individual. The Sagittarius Moon allows such an evolving individual to get a vantage point from which their beloved talent will participate. As a heads up here it is wise for the individual not to get too distracted by public reputation issues as this can happen whenever the moon transits Sagittarius, and yet at the same time this territory, this playground if you will, can very well be public forum. Jupiter has been very interestingly positioned lately (June 2011 - June 2012) in Gemini, significant as Jupiter is Sagittarius's ruling planet and Gemini is the opposite or complimentary relationship zodiac sign to Sagittarius. As the Moon transits Sagittarius an evolution in how partners share information and beliefs may work out in some magical and valuable way.

03 Friday November 16th - Moon enters Capricorn 5:53 AM*Mars ingress Capricorn Saturday November 16th 9:37 PM*

During this Moon transit through Capricorn an actively attended to agenda will begin to move. It may be your own or it may be another's, some will most certainly start pushing forward with their particular agenda. This agenda will have a connection or entanglement with community or social structure, corporate or government structure. These structures are meant to, or are being touted as, being dedicated to public service yet over time their integrity perhaps exposed their goodwill eroded. Mar's ingress into Capricorn gives action to one's revolutionary ideas and of course they do not have to be connected to or prompted by this eroded goodwill, actions can be somewhat independent from these collapsing empires and be instead more connected to one's inspired journey to be in harmony with the Earth and existence in a much broader yet congruent way. In such cases the infrastructure which we creatures cooperate and facilitate harmony and respect within is a natural organic territory. Since this is the third solar house relative to our Scorpio Moon cycle we can see Mars as prompting leg work as required to move one's agenda forward. This could involve meeting with others to share information or gathering together the pieces or items required by the plan. This natural organic connection with life implies an acknowledging and valuing of one's self and others. Such acknowledgement will most certainly affect the local community which such an individual engages, the public they know being an extension of their understanding of values.

04 Sunday November 18th - Moon enters Aquarius 7:11 AM

Today November 18th, as well as this transit of Moon in Aquarius, is a special day as the Sun will conjunct the Moon's north node in Scorpio. What does this mean? This is an ideal time to free one self from automatic answers regarding comfort and security. In the extreme you could say this is a good time for busting paralyzing stubbornness. If one can conceive of their thoughts as things and that these things are like stones or bricks from which one builds a castle meant to provide themselves stability then this current astrological energy can be likened to renovating one's private castle. For some their castle is crumbling, for others their castle is lonely, and for others they have never been able to build a castle at all as it is their habit to give their bricks away. Knowing that these bricks are thoughts it is for the individual to catch their inner language, outer language as well, where there is automatic thinking and reasoning and to notice how their comfort is dependant on the quality of how their mind or thought patterns have become automated. Mental automation is not a bad thing it is a normal thing, yet like all structures a time for routine maintenance, or renovation, comes and to ensure one's best living this need is serviced by the individual. A consideration for one's castle renovation, or adjustments to their automatic thinking, is to rebuild one's mind/castle such that there is a well considered and designed space for sharing time with others, for sharing values with others, for creating together, for supporting mutually beneficial situations. By simply imagining one's comfort castle and allowing their imagination to adjust the structure as inwardly perceived they may just rebuild their partnerships, especially in how these partnerships are allowed to grow in a very fruitful or resourceful way.

05 Tuesday November 20th - Moon enters Pisces 11:56 AM

Sun ingress Sagittarius Wednesday November 21st 6:51 PM

This can be a time when one's reality becomes fantasy and delusion or when fantasy or artistic expression becomes reality. Either way it is for the individual to stay in tune with their home station their body, represented by opposite sign to Pisces, Virgo. As such it is a valued partnership which can keep one's head level even if Mercury remains retrograde through this entire Moon in Pisces transit. Expression through some form of art can be quite inspiring right now as an artist may just discover some maturing of talent, a talent which seems to have stepped up it's reach and effectiveness at depicting their deeper feelings. Another way to experience this Moon in Pisces transit is to observe one's reality as an artistic creation where the canvas is life's experiences and the paints and brushes are one's thoughts. To paint one's life, to create their fantasy/reality, some repetitive brush strokes and typified colors are repeatedly used, in other worlds we are looking for automatic thinking as it is evidence by our life's experiences.

06 Thursday November 22nd - Moon enters Aries 8:13 PM

Social groups are forming, communities are forming, as individuals do indeed share an interest in some situation which calls for action. Through independent action individuals are discovering that they are not alone in their concern and interest. Sometimes it takes an interruption in some community service or a change to a familiar expected shared public resource to get the individual's attention. Low and behold the change or interruption is affecting others and not just themselves. As the Moon transits through Aries there may be those who decide to take some action regarding say the quality of public service. They may meet others, or have recently met others, who are similar in their concern and willingness to respond. In some instances so called natural events may cause communities to rally while at the same time flesh out the quality of government or tax funded service. It matters not as the same result occurs, individuals are finding each other and are teaming up under the qualification of mutual interest and inspiration. It may be that an individual has a hidden talent or they may have recently found them self in a situation where their talents have not been used the way they could or should be. As new social agendas appear, these will likely be revolutionary in some way, the individual is being given an opportunity to to use their talent, it is just not quite coming about the way they had previously imagined or hoped for. Becoming actively involved can be revitalizing in so many ways and with Uranus in Aries quincunx Saturn in Scorpio it is commitment and precision which marks fulfillment and increases the potential success.

07 Sunday November 25th - Moon enters Taurus 7:19 AM

Mercury direct Tuesday November 26th 5:49 PM

A sense that one needs to return to their standard way of thinking about something after recently accepting the need for change can cause feeling reactions which are triggered and possibly expressed through their partnerships. Current astrological alignments indicate a revision and improvement in personal security yet this improvement in comfort and security can only occur as a win win situation. With Mars moving into a conjunction with Pluto in Capricorn those who hold onto their independent security may run into some aggressive objection related to a community rule or expected community consideration. Alternatively those who are up for mutual benefit and sharing will find they are boosted in energy, an energy which assists them in sticking to an agenda which services others as well as themselves. An integration and or merging of self and their community is occurring for many and this is most likely a joyful experience yet the reason for the merging in the first place may, ironically, be a difficulty which had to be dealt with. As one becomes increasingly honest with themselves they will become increasingly realistic with their social relationships.

08 Tuesday November 27th - Moon enters Gemini 7:59 PM

Full Moon Lunar Eclipse in Gemini Wednesday November 28th 11:47 AM

Some new arrangement, valued by all involved, may require or prompt communication such that a prudent focus can be sustained. The quality of this conversation, or even the manifestation of it in the first place, is dependant on foundational understandings clearly understood and accepted by those involved. When and if everyone is on board with a shared agenda and action plan a substantial push forward can be made. This means commitment is truly in place. The amount of focused and perhaps serious intention cannot be understated. It may be a new calling for some and if so this is the right time to allow oneself to engage intention with strong commitment. If and when this occurs it will most likely merge harmonically with others as this is also occurring with them, being purposeful. Notice how all the little jobs or tasks which are apart of one's agenda are able to be attended to because the thinking and ideas are congruent, also the communication is efficient and effective. As a main theme throughout this Moon cycle, and for some time to come, it is for the individual to keep an eye on the mutual benefit between themselves and those they are energetically involved with. In other words this can be a difficult time for the greedy and selfish, and yet a wonderfully fulfilling time for those who recognize their immediate goal as the journey while at the same time feeling really great about the comradery they are now experiencing.

09 Friday November 30th - Moon enters Cancer 8:56 AM

If one is intent on developing their expertise in some chosen area of interest they undoubtedly will be lead to some new unexplored area where valuable discoveries related to their intention are found. It is during this period, Moon transit Cancer, where an increased potential exists for such discovery. Both commitment and trust may be called for as this important new territory, and it's associated treasure, will most likely challenge one's emotional vulnerability. This challenge can be interpreted as a conformation that something big is going on. The quincunx of Venus in Scorpio and Jupiter retrograde in Gemini will add a delicious incentive to this opportunity, in some cases the opportunity to accept and discover something new will be prompted by an irresistible passion. A second quincunx between Mars in Capricorn and again Jupiter in Gemini, all three forming a YOD, indicates acting on the desire to expand one's ideas through sharing or communicating intentions. Depending how one is able to accept and value their emotional vulnerability, their sensitivity, a new beginning may be in the works here.

10 Sunday December 2nd - Moon enters Leo 8:58 PM

This Moon cycle will trigger those who are interested in developing an individual expertise in some trade or develop a talent. Eventually within the expanding theme of things these special skills will most likely affect the public in some way. This can happen through one's job or profession. The current Moon in Leo transit will stir up one's sense of being noticed and respected for their talent as it pertains to their job or service to the public. If external validation is a requirement held by one's beliefs then this Moon in Leo may bring up some feelings which can connect them to where they picked up this belief. On the other hand a fulfilling sense of being involved with the public in an obviously useful way can lead to or become a powerful transformational energy issued forth by one's self confidence affecting the public they service. This is also a good time to sort out the quality of one's communication in terms of how it affects the public. There may be a distinct concern for one's public reputation which will stir up either some internal dialogue or some external dialogue. Either way an opportunity exist in that that an expanded mental picture regarding an individualized important issue is fleshed out, brought to conscious attention, possible through a dynamic communication episode. An opportunity is at hand - by observing the manner in which one communicates, how others communicate, an improvement can be made which ultimately affects the quality of their public service.

11 Wednesday December 5th - Moon enters Virgo 6:53 AM

The Uranus Saturn quincunx at the new Moon most likely stirred up Saturn in Scorpio if it was not already with so much astrological focus on Saturn. This Uranus in Aries jolt affects Saturn's current sextile with Pluto in Capricorn and to close the loop Aries ruling planet was very recently conjunct Pluto. Those who are serious about making legitimate changes in their lives come alive, this time with a logical solution or analysis which supports their strong and inspired idea or desire. With the Sun now in Sagittarius a sense of the activities involved as related to one's dedicated focus and commitment is prudently looked at. Such examination can be very effective as it leads to increased productivity. Most certainly a discerning attitude is called for as details are looked over and scrutinized. The social aspect of one's plan is what one may find themselves dealing with or sorting through as the Moon transits Virgo. A dynamic may be felt where one is called to be clear about their social relationships. Some relationships may actually be identified as distraction and so some prudent or executive type decisions must be made. On the other hand an insight regarding some opportunity for well conceived team work may be noticed and supported. These energy dynamics felt by the individual will be the extension of how one believes in themselves. Although challenging it is equally energizing and revitalizing.

12 Friday December 7th - Moon enters Libra 1:36 PM

This period begins with Mercury conjunct the Moon's north node in Scorpio. The mind is assisted, able to reach into deep caverns accessing emotional states, perhaps memories, and to see and accept past issues of security and survival with an open mind. This allows new ways of perceiving old events and as such allowing a stuck process to final move forward, preferable into resolution. These deep feelings and the correlating observation of them will most likely be related to relationship experiences past and present. The beliefs which govern how one approaches partnerships, how they understand partnership, will have an aspect which defines or implies how values are shared, how time, money, property, are shared. It is from these beliefs and the related paradigm which gives them credence which the current depth of feeling and observation are based on or made relevant. In a sense it is that which had remained hidden from mental awareness which becomes visible and observable, and yet was or has always been emotionally there. Ideally the individual will become more aware of their security, where it comes from, what it is dependant upon, how it is related to those they partner with. Being inspired to express enthusiasm becomes the extension of integrity.

13 Sunday December 9th - Moon enters Scorpio 4:52 PM

Dark Moon begins Tuesday December 11th 4:32 AM

The Moon's return to Scorpio brings perhaps a receptivity to the depth of one's sensuality. At the least there is an increased noticing of this aspect of self, the richness of one's sensuality and passion. Since the new Moon Solar eclipse on November 13th a connection to another may have occurred which plays out with acknowledgement and appreciation. Hopefully some dividends are manifested as a result of one's fine work dedication and focus. If not there need be no loss as the immediate future, the months and year to come, indicate an ongoing journey of becoming expert and mature through the continuing development of individual talent. The thing to notice now is how one's own development is paralleling the development of another's talent and the two, although separate, are connected through shared events and process. Particularly now is a penetrating focus which is connected with or driven by a grand change occurring in one's life. It is important now that any changes of a revolutionary nature occurring in the shared external world affecting many are accepted as this acceptance will greatly assist the individual in their own particular endeavor.

14 Tuesday December 11th - Moon enters Sagittarius 5:23 PM

Sagittarius has recently become a renewed energy, as indicated by Pluto's transit there from 1993 to 2008. Recently the Moon's north node made a transit there as well (March 4th 2011 - August 31st 2012) while Jupiter, Sagittarius ruling planet, was in transit of opposite sign Gemini. Jupiter continues to transit Gemini now and will do so until June 25th 2013. This Sagittarius renewal or cleanse most definitely has had an effect on the individual. Notice how ideas and ideals regarding public reputation have changed since before 1993 and after 2008. For some there may seem to be no change, yet for others there is a removal of self from some typically accepted cultural or social model, a discontinuation of external validation. This being replaced by a new or reawakened way of understanding self. An advanced awareness of what being responsible means, a discontinuation of blame and victimization replaced by accepting experience as a energy pattern drawn into one's life. Many cliché sayings fall away and a new self born with traits and character beloved by self yet formulated around the individual as by-products of their diligent belief in self, their self love. This coming new Moon cycle in Sagittarius will host the December 21st 2012 date made famous in recent decades. To what meaning, to what outcome, to what purpose, is this moment? As the individual signals an awakening by accepting what they have created, as if they were and always have been in charge, as they become increasingly aware of their powerful thoughts and intentions through experiences they are perhaps posited to accept this auspicious time as a being sovereign and steady where the external world which surrounds

- 04 I am able to communicate effectively and easily because those who I listen to and who hear me mirror my own commitment and dedication.
- 05 My mission is to accept and allow all the good things about myself which I have come to know throughout my life.
- 06 I am ready to take more interest in the things which are connected with my security.
- 07 I know what it feels like to be in control of myself and how this control merges harmoniously with my partnership arrangements.
- 08 I am able to detect and admit my own immature behavior.
- 09 I am enjoying working with people, we seem to enjoy respecting each others concerns, even when they are noticeable different.
- 10 I am allowing others to take control of their lives and supporting the idea that they are less dependant on me.
- 11 I enjoy socializing, being nice to others.
- 12 I am excited that I have a special talent which is now developing nicely.
- 13 I can feel the level of commitment in the ideas and words of myself and others.
- 14 I am discovering new ways to develop security.
- 15 I am taking an increased interest in where my security comes form.
- 16 I am becoming aware of the relationships which are qualified by my security concerns.
- 17 I allow my challenges to lead me to an increased self responsibility and maturity.
- 18 All the activities I am involved in are coordinated in such a way that I am able to sustain and enjoy them.
- 19 I have a new evolved understanding of my partnerships.
- 20 I have been breaking some automatic behavior and actions, now I see a bigger picture and take new more interesting actions.
- 21 My imagination is a wonderful thing, I am able to create, change or rebuild my world from the inside out.
