Overview

New Moon in Virgo

Monday August 25th 2014 10:14 AM EST

The new Moon occurs less than five hours after the Moon makes a Virgo ingress. There are several indicators this Virgo Moon cycle will be colored by individuals taking actions to ensure their security. This security may involve the consideration of others and as such be an extension of an agenda which invites mutual benefit. The actions now in many cases will be spontaneous however the acts most certainly have preambles in terms of one's desire or concern regarding security. There can also be instances where a plan is well detailed within the consideration of a group mind, the actions supported by all involved. Virgo gives a critical analysis of some situation and brings a precision to the actual assertion which will benefit those who are teamed up and ready to go in a mutually agreeable fashion. Venus in Leo is trine Uranus in Aries and is also aligned to Saturn and Mars who are conjunct in Scorpio. Realizing how partnerships provide reflections of each others way of experiencing energy will be of extreme value right now and will give those who are in the habit of observing each others actions from this perspective an opportunity to make strides and accomplishments favorable to their desired experiences. By allowing partnerships to show us things about ourselves a type of self responsibility occurs which opens up expanded views of one's situation.

The quincunx between Uranus in Aries and the Mars Saturn conjunction in Scorpio indicates a feeling of extreme power by some who may react unexpectedly to a situation which is tied into beliefs about social freedom and rights. The ongoing transit of Pluto in Capricorn indicates that we, humanity, are in a rather vast revolutionary period where social systems the world over are transforming their infrastructure. Juno in Cancer is opposite Pluto at the new Moon indicating a creative burst of energy which is meant for drawing attention yet becomes something much bigger. In order to demonstrate or show one's assumed identity an expression is made, in some cases this expression becomes transformational affecting many.

The ongoing transit of Neptune in Pisces is significant in terms of this Virgo new Moon as Pisces is the opposite or relationship sign relative to Virgo. It is during this Moon cycle that a decisiveness within a relating experience can occur which may not typically happen. The fantasy or delusion of Pisces is made sense of relative to a prioritized relating experience. The special period of Neptune transiting Pisces, as well as Chiron transiting Pisces, makes this Moon cycle in Virgo valuable in that the ability to merge or integrate both love and light is occurring. For some this is like being able to participate in a trance while being mentally clear, as say a musician performing a prepared arrangement who is emotionally sync-locked to the passion of their performance while precisely performing the piece as dictated by a prearranged structure. This can be valuable now as there will be those who are able to feel the great love in their relationship while being mentally clear and making practical decisions. On the chopping block are judgments regarding compassion, false compassion, some manner in which compassion was defined and limited. As a rich feeling comes in and recharges one's sense of compassion a heightened value to feeling compassion is registered, a reborn compassion becomes important. Virgo energy will begin to make practical sense of this growing feeling and new beliefs can be established. The individual begins to naturally let go of some version of reality as that particular reality begins to look more and more like a delusion. For some an addiction can be busted, for others new relationships begin, for others a fixing or healing of some past emotional pain occurs.

For many a partnership challenge may exist or be reactivated. The challenge for the individual to either continue to act completely independently and avoid an increased partnership dependency or to resolve their independence issues and invest themselves more in the partnership occurs. The current astrological energy suggest the partnership route. Right now there is a wave of energy which would support partnership cooperation, partnerships have the potential to accomplish important things, important things in terms of security and comfort. For some their independent nature will be challenged. Ideally the individual will allow their individuality to shine while at the same time allow and accept the same from their partner, business or spouse. The amplification which can occur when both or all involved realize they in many ways mirror each other will be truly beneficial for all involved. Old competitive urges must be kept in check and not allowed to dominate their main agenda. Realize there is much independent action energy right now however there is also a placement of this independent action energy back into a team effort and the ultimate benefit is for all involved. New ways of understanding and feeling a relationship can be born now and so even though a particular individual does know where they are going in a complete way the avenue for a beneficial relationship experience is most certainly there. Things which are occurring now can play out or be extended into the next couple of Moon cycles as we see the relationship signs hosting these cycles. Relationship values will for some rise and special feelings can occur as a partnership development unfolds. Again it is the independent nature, or the going it alone, which is being busted such that a new experience a relationship experience can occur.

Self love, as a natural order of things, can be prompted now as the individual truly admires who they are. As the logical mind looks for a belief to justify or make sense of naturally occurring self love, over time upgrades to these choices are called for. It is as a caution that the individual be wise and self observing while Jupiter transits Leo. This alignment can cause a buzz in the self admiration department leading to some becoming fluffed up. As other alignments indicate a shift from single minded to a more sharing experience the ideals or beliefs which govern one's sense of self love may be shuffled. In the process of adjusting self admiration beliefs such that they work nicely in one's partnership, events in a relating situation can occur. This can emotionally prompt an individual to like themselves relative to a relating experience. Through mirroring the individual will seem to spontaneously begin admiring another and see them as a potential partner. Hick-ups in one's self admiration quality can also be projected on a partner causing some to be disdained within a relating experience. Virgo finds it's foundation by paying attention to the quality and balance within a relationship. It is sort of an analytical process precise and critical. This may rise or play itself out during this Moon cycle for many individual's. Getting picky for example about who is admirable and why can occur. Seeing wonderful things in self and partner can also occur. The importance of self admiration can grow especially in terms of relationship. Pallas Athena currently transiting Libra will work well with the north node which also transits Libra and so those who are truly intent on making a relationship work in a foundational way will figure out what it takes and will be masterful in their delivery and construction of strong relationships. Ceres in Scorpio is semi-sextile Pallas Athena in Libra indicating a channel by which energy between these two relationship signs can flow. The semi-sextile nature of this alignment can be alerting to the logical mind and once again Virgo precision will investigate. Perhaps there is under the microscope a need to take some action to assist a family member who has become somehow lost or trapped in a dark place. There is a sense of responsibility to be clear and intelligent as the opportunity to assist another is tied to how their relationships are understood. Of course this may be a rather unique example yet the feeling of wanting to assist or care for someone can be prioritized as it somehow connects to what is fair. A way to solve a family crises for example can occur once a belief about a relationship is changed. The quality of self love will also play into this as Venus planetary ruler of Libra is currently in Leo which, as mentioned earlier, is also hosting a Jupiter transit. Rescuing another may be a simple matter of rescuing their self esteem. From the perspective that all create their own experience and that life is a mirror there is a merging of rescuer and rescued. Perhaps the biggest thing for many right now is to allow their relationships, past and present, to reveal to them the journey of their own self acceptance, self love.

Wisdom is on the rise for the individual who is able to explore new vantage points in terms of working or dealing with others. Strong assertive actions either continue or begin as the matter of insuring security either for a team or individually becomes a major motivator. In most cases a considering directed toward either sharing or deals, contracts or agreements, has been occurring. The specific ways in which parties come together and cooperate in order to increase security for each other are numerous yet the individual will most likely have locked into a certain logic or blueprint which is believed to bring them the security they want. One of the Virgo influences will mean these actions can be in form of getting information to the right places. We can use this time to focus our intention on achieving a detailed insight into the mechanics which will lead to increased security and mutually beneficial plans and projects with others. A calculating mind may go into overdrive and power it's way through a rich detailed plan such that the true absolute value can be achieved. The astrological parallel indicates a good time for such a motivation. Look for mutual benefit as there is an empowered Scorpio right now which has been over the past year or so gaining direction and discipline and now feels the urge to act. The Scorpio signature of the current focus on security will achieve the best result for future if those participating in a project make sure all are treated fairly and the ultimate benefit is mutual. Calculating and navigating a relationship can also be considered heightened now. In some relationships the belief that one has about the other can be revealed as the logic one implies begins to reveal the assumed reality projected upon their target partner. The quality of integrity and commitment in a partnership will be as such made clear, especially so if the participant in a deal or partnership pays attention to and trusts their feeling. If something feels off then make the commitment to feel it out and find out what is happening which would cause the emotional reaction.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Virgo the focus will be on bringing things into order. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of maintaining impeccable discernment and personal clarity. Such forged character supports personal health, a Virgo attribute. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of clarity is considered and cherished. Those born under the Sun sign Virgo have a natural propensity to order and practical congruency. Not to exclude others as we all have Virgo somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience a heightened sense of being self responsible in a discerning and natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic self responsibility harmonic of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I focus on the details of self responsibility by...

Leo: paying attention to what I perceive and experience in my local environment.

Cancer: how I communicate and share ideas.

Gemini: how I understand my feelings and self definition.

Taurus: maintaining congruency and order in my enthusiastic self expression.

Aries: accepting the need for independence when being self responsible.

Pisces: being clear as to how my partnership is rationalized.

Aquarius: what I accept as a valid shared resource within my partnership.

Capricorn: paying close attention to what new experiences I am lead to.

Sagittarius: my work and value to the public.

Scorpio: paying attention to who I am socially.

Libra: clearly discerning what is my personal responsibility and what is my social experience.

Birthdays

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Monday August 25th - new Moon in Virgo 10:14 AM EST

Taking action on important matters which involve mutual security in a partnership has an increased potential of occurring during this Moon cycle. If so motivated the individual would do well by intending that a task which they feel needs to be done involving shared assets be expedited now. The new Moon phase is an ideal time to map out one's intention etherically by feeling the desired result as if it is occurring now. Mercury planetary ruler to Virgo is in Virgo during this new Moon phase and is sextile to a Mars Saturn conjunction in Scorpio. The ability to think clearly and decisively while implementing guided and specific action which is intentioned toward a specific goal involving others is indicated. Scorpio also has transits by Vesta and Ceres occurring now further indicating both dedication and commitment to deeply valued principles. The ongoing transits of Pluto in Capricorn Neptune in Pisces Chiron in Pisces and Uranus in Aries will sustain many social dynamics and world population revolutions, major changes continue for Earth's global community. The recent Jupiter Leo ingress is however new and with Leo also experiencing a Venus transit the added sense of feeling good about oneself becomes more prominent. The Moon's north node in Libra will likely be experienced as a need to feel respected in a relationship where pride and dignity become more important to some. This can also be experienced as a breakthrough where some individuals become increasingly admired by others due to the apparent happenstance of events as opposed to a manufactured image. Some will become inspiration and new relationships will be created or continue to evolve in a way which is satisfying to all involved.

02 Wednesday August 27th - Moon enters Libra 5:55 PM

Although not necessarily directly obvious an admirable quality in either one's self or perceived in another is a cause for relationship interest. Relationship can be felt as a security when Virgo influence is heightened. The current Virgo Moon cycle will for some be very much about relationship and the security which is believed to be common or connected with a relationship. For example a strong self confidence in a partner can feel like a strong foundation in a partnership. A partner may offer or agree to something which involves some asset or measurable value as a sense that it is the noble thing to do. In some cases to demonstrate one's noble character they may proceed in a more generous fashion than they would typically. Others may feel or respond to being admired more than they usually would. Either way the way one feels about a relationship or partnership can seem to be the outcome of their logic or objective perspective of their mutual situation yet what is really playing out here is the individual's self respect. Is self respect being reflected in one's partnership, is it being withheld, is it being tested? Important to remember is that relationships are full of projections where each individual sees themselves in the other. Once this is realized the individual can feel and confirm their own self respect, self love, self admiration, and then relax and witness how this self acceptance makes for a smooth and pleasant experience with their partner and other relationships. Some for example may sign a contract now because they want to substantiate and sustain a partnership with someone they feel likes them and that they also admire back.

03 Saturday August 30th - Moon enters Scorpio 4:54 AM

It may feel as if it is time to deal with something in a partnership now which up to this time was perhaps talked about yet remains unsettled. A surge toward winding up the details of an important agreement can be felt. Who is in control of some shared interest some activity some shared goal or business can seem more important now than usual. For some it will seem that they want to do it alone and then feel no no they want to share their interest with another and then cycle back to wanting to go it alone, and on and on it goes. Ideally, and this would not necessarily apply to all, it is a partnership which is the best solution right now as indicated by the Moon's north node currently transiting Libra. The depth of dedication and calling for integrity which the individual feels deeply, which they feel defines their life well beyond whatever current dynamic they may be experiencing, may very well be the bigger more important thing here. This may be a good time to see what one has been gripping onto. In some cases an individual may have been able to avoid some destined dynamic, some experience, by being clever yet in the bigger picture it becomes ever more clear that they are trapping themselves when it is simple to just do it, whatever it is, and move on. A feeling that ones deep feelings have a better use than maintaing petty pride which is becoming obviously an expensive waste of energy to maintain can occur and as such the individual makes an executive type personal decision and releases a very heavy load.

04 Monday September 1st - Moon enters Sagittarius 1:18 PM

Mercury ingress Libra Tuesday September 2nd 1:39 AM

Hidden ideals about oneself have more potential to be explored now than usual. This may be an inner drama yet when the individual least expects it, perhaps when their guard is down, out comes their grandness. We need to be good to ourselves, in many and perhaps most cases, there is real support for the individual who wants to achieve their highest standard for themselves. It is only when one implies they are better than another that the energy can become shallow and thin as it loses a naturally shared harmonic with another. There's no doubt about it we are good together. This period can remind one of their public value and their public reputation. This may be projected onto another, perhaps a public figure. Realize that any critical analysis is most likely saying more about the person giving the opinion that the person the opinion is about. The idea that some need to be important can be explored yet the exploration may be conducted in such away that certain things are implied, things which are not necessarily in harmony with ones best outcome. In other words hidden beliefs which affect how one is okay with themselves can be revealed. Ideally the individual will realize public importance is a by-product of self acceptance, in a valuable sense what other's are thinking about them can be termed "none of their concern". People who truly love who they are will become inspiration to others, they will be able to gauge and navigate their public value while maintaining practical priorities which are more private and personal.

05 Wednesday September 3rd - Moon enters Capricorn 6:16 PM

Jupiter Leo quincunx Pluto Capricorn Friday September 5th 6:24 AM

Venus ingress Virgo Friday September 5th 1:08 PM

Something which is supposed to be fun may actually cause panic. Virgo loves being on time and on purpose yet when the Moon transits Capricorn this same energy can become overwhelming. The good news is the Moon, as always, is simply marking or tagging the weak points in one's agenda, pointing out where something is perhaps not up to standard. This is done by triggering feelings. Feelings and emotional reaction as such can lead the astute individual to the belief they hold which is perhaps colliding with their intention. The on going transit of Pluto through Capricorn is huge both individually and globally. The Moon's transit through Capricorn as such may be a reminder to some that the worlds infrastructures are being reestablished. This means somethings gotta go and new things are coming in. We can see this with both man made infrastructure as well as environmental infrastructure. This combined with Neptune in Pisces and Uranus in Aries become major major. For now the individual may seek some fulfillment, seek a lighter version of these serious matters, perhaps a new way of accepting some inevitable change shifts other perspectives and before you know it new adventures are embraced.

06 Friday September 5th - Moon enters Aquarius 8:00 PM

The joy of clarity is embraced as Venus has just made a Virgo ingress. The Moon in Aquarius will bring this clarity of mind to focus on those exceptionally unique topics and interests, could be an inventive idea, a revolutionary device, or more commonly a special social position or station which defines one's wonderful character. Thinking may be motivated by the desire to elevate one's position in their community. The crunching together of big time self images with current dynamic changes in social structures can reveal previously hidden agendas and systems which can no longer be kept behind the curtain and away from general awareness. A massive global infrastructure revolution is occurring (2008 - 2024), infrastructure here referring to roads streets buildings and other man made structures yet also included on this list is natural occurring infrastructure like mountains streams volcanoes underwater terrain and such. The manner in which creatures on the Earth connect to her as a provider is being rewritten. As Jupiter in Leo expands the self image of certain individuals the Moon in Aquarius will alert the astute individual to the need to be real and on time with any grand individual social entrance. The need to be clear, for example, as to what belief or paradigm defines social admiration may be emotionally pointer out. Emotional reactions related to self importance and social station can flesh out a history of feeling either falsely important, or the reverse socially shut out, and as such release the individual from being consumed by the ideals of past opinion. That being said it can also be noted that natural forming situations which appear to the happenstance of social involvement will prove to be very enjoyable as someone will quite naturally be inspirational while being genuine and likeable.

07 Sunday September 7th - Moon enters Pisces 7:48 PM

Full Moon in Pisces Monday September 8th 9:39 PM

We don't want to remove fantasy from our life however we do want to be practical in our organic affairs. We need for sure to have good health eat well live within a good environment, these sort of things, and it is as such that we must be realistic as we allow fantasy to merge with our experience. As long as our priority is good, again health first, we will be great. This current Moon transit through Pisces will do just that, it will prompt us to be realistic with our delusions. Just as an example or reminder here, when this is not done, the ability to prioritize one's health over fantasy, the individual over time will most likely develop an addiction, and eventually have mental challenges. Addiction is like an escape. It allows their vision of sharing their fantasy life with others to be more realized in their feelings. They use their addiction, typically to a substance, to make that world more real, their fantasy identity comes forward and moves the energy they have been pooling up. When one becomes overly involved in the affairs of others, and this would again be an example of prioritizing fantasy, they will lose track of their own personal responsibilities which will most certainly end up affecting their health. On the other side of the coin we don't want to lose touch with the fantastic either, how else will we remember the magical kingdoms of ferries elves and unicorns, or more down to Earth be creative within our sharing experiences. In a sense everything is fantasy, all realities are fantasies, it's just that in the bigger picture we are currently playing out we are born human and we own a body that needs our attention respect love and, as being pointed out here, our priority. In that/this particular fantasy, being human, you can not participate in this unless our body is there for us. And so we can see how perfectly placed Virgo is relative to opposite zodiac sign Pisces.

08 Tuesday September 9th - Moon enters Aries 7:34 PM

Questioning one's assertiveness can occur whenever the Moon transits Aries. With Mars currently transiting Scorpio and Saturn also in Scorpio the need to take some action regarding a shared value, shared property, a contract or agreement, can make some individuals feel pressured right now. The Virgo influence can remind one of their warrior power, or the lack of it. If there is undue pressure just wait until Friday morning when the Moon is well into Taurus and see how you feel. There may be indeed some action which the individual knows they need to take and they just have not yet done so. We want to intend our safety and so we want all our faculties functioning optimally when we do take important action. The Virgo influence currently being experienced by everyone can be an asset as it assists us in being open minded and critical as we look objectively at all the facts. Saturn has been in Scorpio for a while and Uranus in Aries even longer so the feeling of wanting to be in control of one's security and the feeling of being able to act freely have been building and will continue to do so. This can be a great and valuable period, Moon transit Aries, in that we will feel the truth about our situation and when we are able to admit that this is our feelings about something we can then go to the next step and start to expedite a responsible solution. It is always good to remember it is the journey and not the destination which is the gift of experience creation gives us.

09 Thursday September 11th - Moon enters Taurus 9:18 PM

Mars ingress Sagittarius Saturday September 13th 6:58 PM

The Moon's transit through Taurus will remind us not to be overly critical, we do not want to lose the simplicity and foundation of our most fundamental priorities. The bases of our critical thinking will perhaps be shown to us during this period. We may look for this foundational simplicity in a partnership which is a Virgo thing to do. A dedication to the purity of our organic integrity and our sensual connection to the Earth can cause us to discover the true foundation which is unique for us. The comfort and security associated with Taurus will be amplified as we feel the pain of not having it, or at least not having it to the degree we feel we need it. There has been those who just can't get enough, they may hoard goods and bank big dollars and appear greedy to others. Yet the real foundation we can tune to now is the foundation we feel and experience through our partnership. Once we feel this security we can do many things in terms of our security and comfort. Ultimately there is a simplicity which affects our mind allowing us to prioritize things relative to our physical needs. Saturn in opposite zodiac sign Scorpio indicates the need to be clear and absolute with our dealings with those we are in partnerships with. This can mean our romantic partner yes, it also includes your employer, your bank if you own money, anyone who is connected with personal security, anyone you share physical values with. The Moon in Taurus can exaggerate our feelings concerning these partnerships.

10 Sunday September 14th - Moon enters Gemini 2:27 AM

Some will find themselves more inspired than usual to talk about the admirable quality of another. People see themselves in other people all the time and it is not unusual for this to be kind of unknown to the observer. Communication will in some way be following one's intention to create harmony and possible to augment a relationship. Mutual good feelings can become conversation. The analytic quality of one's current intentions, as this is a Virgo Moon cycle, may be focused on how one is perceived by the public. This can cause them to respond more to dialogue which is work related or pertains to professional affairs. There is also the added sensitivity of being emotionally triggered by the words of another. The current combination of words and criticalness, Moon in Gemini Sun in Virgo both ruled by Mercury which is transiting

Libra, can see the manner in which one believes a relationship is functional or valuable directing what is said and what information is shared. Thinking about how to speak or say something can also be strong now. Assuming one means one thing when they say something when they mean something quite different can also occur. The transit of Jupiter in Leo is significant as opposite to Gemini is Sagittarius which is ruled by Jupiter and so one party in a conversation may be responding to the apparent admirable quality in another even though this may not be the obvious main stream of the conversation.

11 Tuesday September 16th - Moon enters Cancer 11:25 AM

Something you always wanted to say may get said today or something you want to hear gets said. The way individual's can talk so independently as if they are talking to themselves can be given a challenge as Mercury conjuncts the Moon's north node in Libra. What is said during this period may be well inspired by balance and fairness of companionship and partnership. There is always that extra sensitivity which can come into play now as the Moon transits Cancer, what is said may be emotional and could involve some home or family dynamic. A possible heads up here is the way home nurturing can become overly public where one's mothering goes public and social experiences become opportunities to treat everyone as family. This is a nice thing as long as the mothering type is paying attention to who is really open to sharing this sort energy and experience. The accent on Virgo, as this is a Virgo Moon cycle and the Sun and Venus continue to transit there, can bring forward a concern related to socializing or friendship type relationships as indicated by Pluto's current transit through Capricorn which is opposite the current Moon in Cancer transit. Sensitivity and vulnerability within a friendship relationship for example may be triggered by an individual who wants to be on purpose on time and on track with a mission which is assumed to hold mutual interest. No biggie just decide what is good with us or not and be clear about it.

12 Thursday September 18th - Moon enters Leo 11:11 PM

A delusion is navigated by accepting some critical thought or belief which acts as a focus for the individual in such a way that they become increasingly practical. Perhaps a chosen ideal is desired and easily embraced which in turn reduces some confusion. The culprit here, if one exists, will be an identity the individual has been chasing which is bent, or has been bent, on external validation. While the Moon transits Leo we will be fleshing out the quality of our social or relationship identity. If there is a degree of denial written into our self image the Moon transiting Leo can be counted on to give it a tug and say to the self "what's that?". Now that Jupiter has begun it's one year transit through Leo, started July 16th, this Moon Leo transit can affect the dynamic of some recently established identity or a newly developing identity which the individual is pursuing. The externalized nature of identity as such will be reflected in another in many cases. The Moon will assist the wise and humble to allow this identity to develop in a way which is natural and effective, where the individual will most likely become notable and inspirational to others. This admiration by others however will be a by-product of the individual's natural joyful expression and extension of their self love, their self admiration, and not the main stream motivator for the individual.

13 Sunday September 21st - Moon enters Virgo 11:55 AM

Pluto direct Monday September 22nd 8:37 PM

The sense that aggression will bring social opportunities gradually increases and can be felt now and right up to and through the next Moon cycle. Self importance can become so grand to some that it blinds them and can end up triggering an eagerness to just react as this satisfaction of feeling justified continues to rise. This Moon cycle may have triggered family concerns. For some the sharpness of their mind has been harmonized with their deep sense of caring for family where compassion and dedication to heal or repair difficult challenges is able to be met with effective effort. This same sense of compassionate concern and dedication could also be directed to caring for the Earth, expressed as going the road of environmental consciousness where consideration is given to certain cultural dynamics which appear to hurt the environment and must be reformed. For some it may seem as if there is a calling to be apart of a major revolution which is currently upon us, a revolution which will change the way security here on Earth is achieved. The critical eye of a sharp mind is tuned to effective solutions which are supported by a deep motivating compassion. For some it may be holistic thinking. This energy is growing massively, extending interest beyond words and terms which are perhaps mere labels from the past now superseded by actions coming directly from the heart of one's soul. Potentially the seriousness attributed to Virgo is equaled and balanced by the depth of compassionate feeling of Pisces culminating in actions which prove to elevate some above complacent living which is no longer desired.

14 Tuesday September 23rd - Moon enters Libra 12:00 AM

Many relationships and partnerships will change in some way during this coming Moon cycle in Libra. The value of a relationship can become greater, powerful alliances in some cases evolved or created. The ability to accept a new world and allow old ways to be written into the history books lifts a weight off some allowing new ways of relating to entrain and please the individual. Many people may have felt reborn in the last couple of years and now this excitement builds. A sense that a second wind is blowing in their direction is feeling good and encouraging. This new life or rebirth will transform how many individuals experience partnerships as a willingness to learn from long past difficulties gives them a wisdom which facilitates a brighter outlook now. Shared projects can be a real joy for some as the mere opportunity to link up with others who share the same special interest occurs. If there is a caution here it is not to get too fluffed up about one's self, keep it real and keep one's eyes on the prize and all should be grand. Also a trine between Juno in Cancer and Vesta in Scorpio indicates a strong urge to create family or extend family, to be domestic as if it is a life purpose and quite an important matter in terms of one's bigger life plan.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
