Ongoing Themes

These astrological themes are global in nature. The intention is to assist an individual awakening to larger dramas and to find peace within themselves by knowing how personal dramas are proportions of grander energy dynamics. Please accept these as samples and examples as none of these energy dynamics can be defined in a conclusive way. As always what is significance is the quality of an individual's self appreciation which is shown to them through their emotional truth.

The deconstruction and reconstruction of social infrastructure.Possible Ramifications:

Questioning of long standing infrastructure.
 Ending of historically established institutions.
 New opportunities for revolutionary ideals.
 The rise of a new practicality in terms of taking responsibility.

A prudent look at all relationships.Possible Ramifications:

What does this relationship have to do with me?
 How is my personal identity dependant on a particular relationship expectation?
 Where is this relationship going?
 It's time for me to leave this relationship, or, it's time for us to cut to the chase.

How is this current relationship emotionally equivalent to a past relationship?
What values do I share with others?

Individual self confidence openly expressed.

Possible Ramifications:

Hesitation replaced by immediate action.

Personal options as valued property are protected and defended.

Assumed identity tested through real life incidents.

Beliefs considered facts justify bold social interaction.

Self interest dominates use of shared resources.

Mixing and merging of diverse opinion and culture.

Possible Ramifications:

To what culture or opinion am I associated?

People as a global nation begin to prioritize what they have in common.

Separation due to cultural adherence loses ground.

Some long held notions of truth or reality now seen as delusions.

A seeking for a new compassion model which services global harmony.

Inspired artistic expressions blend cultures and unify interest.

Overview

New Moon in Aquarius
Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

The freedom energy of Aquarius has been strong in terms of motivation and activity for the individual lately as indicated by Uranus, Aquarius ruling planet, transiting Aries. The sense that people have natural rights is stirring and this has been occurring for a long enough period, since May 2010, that it has become for some normalized. An assertive character by some people related to their assumptions about public values and rights has been increasing. The concerns of the individual relative to their perceived or assumed social rights has been causing reactions. Even though the individual feels this rather personally it is relative to their public place or position which the freedom or constraint is measured and reasoned by the individual. A pooling of such energy can have dramatic public results as demonstrated by public gatherings, public marches, public opinion. Public events triggered somewhat spontaneously have increased lately epitomizing this prioritizing of what the individual assumes to be natural rights. The current Moon cycle will focus on the reason and purpose of maintaining individuals freedom relative to public experiences. The understanding of freedom and what it means to be apart of a local and global community will be considered. The ideas and the right to pursue these ideas for example may be reviewed. The retrograde movement of Mercury indicates for some a return to an incomplete concern related to what a harmonious public is capable of. The transit of Jupiter in Leo is also significant as Leo is the opposite or relationship sign relative to Aquarius.

New Moon Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

Report number 145

There are those exploring admiration relative to public beliefs. Jupiter will be retrograde throughout the entire cycle and so again we see a return to some past ideal for the individual where the individual perhaps identifies with an admirable character within themselves which they would like to again reactivate and go for publicly. Jupiter's influence can be blinding although it is optimistic. And in the relationship position a sense that one's partnership or even friendship relationship is blindly assumed to be built on admirable public character may be played out and tested. This can also manifest as a projection where a hero archetype is admired for their public significance. Some individuals may project their own significance upon an externalized character being played out by a well known public figure. The transit of Saturn through Sagittarius which began recently, December 23rd, will bring a critical eye to those who's reputation is for whatever reason in question. We will see a continuous critical perspective of many public figures who's reputation has been brought under question and review. In many cases this will likely be linked to the assumed repression of individual rights in what is considered an unfair assertion. Saturn in Sagittarius can also be seen as an opportunity to become specific as to what is needed to expedite a particular public or professional project. The ability to accept modern and current change for example will allow for an ongoing adjustment to one's priorities where discernment as to what must be attended such that success is obtained is accepted allowed to adjust one's current dynamic plan.

Less than four hours before the new Moon the Sun made it's Aquarius ingress. The next new Moon will happen before the Sun makes the Pisces ingress resulting in two consecutive new Moon's in Aquarius. What makes this significant is the entire Moon cycle will be dedicated to the will of Aquarius energy. This new Moon cycle is also colored by a Mercury retrograde period which begins Wednesday morning remaining retrograde until February 11th. The freedom energy of Aquarius has been strong in terms of motivation and activity for the individual lately as indicated by Uranus, Aquarius ruling planet, transiting Aries.

The sense that the new Moon will lead one to a break through in understanding can be very real. Aquarius epitomizes the acceptance of things which are real yet may be outside the local paradigm. The coming Moon cycle may as such issue in a time of considering things which were in the past quickly denied or rejected as fool hardy or simply lacking relevance. The brilliance of Aquarius is not to be under valued. Acceptance of things outside the typical everyday paradigm can be a game changer. The busting down of certain cause and effect reasoning can lead to interesting discoveries. Ideally the new Moon cycle in Aquarius will refresh one's interest in discovery and in life, in possibility, in self acceptance where it is simply up to the individual "who I am" to reject or accept a possibility. The conjunction of Uranus, Aquarius ruling planet, with the Moon's south node in Aries, and Mars, planetary ruler of Aries, in Aquarius indicates a fleshing out of what people believe are their social rights, their right to freedom as believed to be defined within the paradigm they exist. This fleshing out however occurs through matter of fact action as opposed to discussion.

Assertiveness has been on the rise since Uranus made the Aries ingress in June of 2010. Uranus indicates, among other things, how and where freedom impulses are felt and experienced. This is increased in significance as Uranus is Aquarius's ruling planet. With Uranus transiting Aries, Mars, which rules Aries, becomes freed. The un-tethering of Mars increases the occurrences of how individuals go after things. At the new Moon Mars is in Pisces conjunct to Neptune. Actions of individuals implies their fantastic ideas about who they are are real to them. Situations which condone support or thrive on fantasy will bode well. For example artistic creation and expression can manifest much more effective results as directed by an individual's particular vision. Also the manner in which one connects to the public where the public will follow their lead can become enriched. Things that are expected as fake, or where fake is hip, can become engrossed with expression. The way in which people like to believe in their particular taste can become acted upon in an exaggerated way as well. For example the way style enhances the projection of an individual's identity can become an expression of one's desire more than what would be typical. What one likes to experience in terms of meals can call for some far out dinner plans. The way individuals choose an identity for themselves as they interact with others can pick up some game as well. Religious interpretation and expression can also take a more aggressive stride. All in all the stepping up of fantastic expression as if it is real increases. What people feel and say will also correlate with this free to be fantastic sense. An ability to keep it real is probably important here yet what does real mean? Obviously keeping one's overall sense of things grounded is a good idea and yet again what does grounded mean. The feeling that one's reality is supported by the current events and physical situation around them is key here. Intending safety is always a good idea. We may witness or become somewhat affected and involved in the spontaneous expressions of others, expressions which are somewhat different or even strange. Yet knowing the freedom to express one's individuality as if life is art is rising right now can assist one in making sense of these expressions. When Mercury is retrograde (January 21st to February 11th) the individual may allow their mind to be filled with incomplete thoughts and passions from their past as if they are all of a sudden real once again. Nostalgia may grip the spontaneous actions of some. Jupiter in Leo is also retrograde and opposite the Sun's journey through Aquarius. Social challenges in terms of representing social leadership can occur as the urge to feel some passion may be delusional to some yet brings great optimism to others.

Dynamics reflective of Saturn in Sagittarius and Pluto in Capricorn can indicate experiences and events which call for quick adjustments to plans and the acceptance of forces which are terminating an assumed absolute world. As many long standing public systems take even more crushing blows the current destruction and restructuring of public systems at all levels continues to occur marking this as a time of revolution in how public systems and social infrastructures are being revolutionized. The dynamics related to social activity as indicated by the new Moon in Aquarius being opposed by retrograde Jupiter in Leo will bring forward curious inclinations which either sustain or disrupt leadership identity. As this occurs Saturn which recently began a Sagittarius transit (December 23rd 2014 - December 20th 2017) will want to make sense of all the things affecting an individual's plans, especially things related to public reputation. The Saturn inspired individual will be successful by simply following the revolution indicated earlier. Like some one who is driving a car on a country highway at night with their lights on, the driver must be consciously focused on what appears as they venture forward. Same with these reputation concerns or interests, the individual would do well to navigate the things which quickly appear. For some it may be a changing schedule a need for a certain item or passion the need to be adjusted, a method of proceeding recalibrated. All the training and experience an individual has had from their past can be of great value now as they follow the inspiration and lead their vision with intention and the willingness be flexible when necessary. For example being on time may be important and at the same time challenging because last minute things call for a quick change in plans. An ability to effortlessly discern what is real and relevant in the moment will serve the individual well as they experience the joy they imply is real.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aquarius the focus will be on ideals and invention which support social well being. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing visions of freedom and all the opportunities and inspirations which spring from utopian focus. Such envisioned delights bring forward a feeling about one's self admiration. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of how self admiration is related to public interaction is observed. Those born under the Sun sign Aquarius have a natural propensity to self admiration harmonized with social ideals. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of limitation which are qualified by social distinction. Not to exclude others as we all have Aquarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aquarius propensity for idealism. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public good will of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience social ideals ...

Capricorn: by how I observe and accept all who I come in contact with.

Sagittarius: by how I accept what others think and say without judgment.

Scorpio: by accepting the way I feel about myself relative to my social involvement.

Libra: by allowing myself to be filled with joy and inspiration as I embrace social freedom.

Virgo: by being discerning as to what is and what is not a personal responsibility.

Leo: by recognizing how my partnerships align me with new social potentials.

Cancer: by allowing these ideals to be creatively supported by my partnership experiences.

Gemini: by trusting and accepting new ways of being involved with humanity and the planet.

Taurus: through my dedication to the public, through my career.

Aries: by allowing my spontaneous self to be publicly involved.

Pisces: by being a member of the greatest social club of all, by accepting my inclusion within the symbiosis of Mother Earth.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

New Moon Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

Report number 145

01 Tuesday January 20th - new Moon in Aquarius 8:15 AM EST*Mercury retrograde Wednesday January 21st 10:55 AM*

As particular insights and understandings of public involvement are considered or perhaps discovered a trickle effect or by-product of these social insights affects the individual's one on one relationships. Some ideas about who one is or was socially can return now and in their partnership a confidence may balloon. In some cases it is simply a final act in defeating externally validated importance. As we see some public figures humbled by recent revealings we are wise to consider the parallels where the individual is cooling down the futility of being important publicly in absence of a supporting personal partnership. Saturn in Sagittarius will keep the critical eye on public figures who are being exposed, their reputation rewritten. Saturn in Sagittarius also indicates the opportunity to be precise when multi-tasking is required, and this can be valuable now as Pluto continues to crack though poor infrastructure demanding a rebuild where necessary. Public infrastructure refers to the systems and methods by which communities circulate routine energy as well as the physical structures which are present in a cultivated civil world. Nothing is too far out for Aquarius and so we may stretch our imagining beyond typical limits and admire our friends and partners who do the same. As many individuals redefine or perhaps discover new wonderful things about themselves it can also be a bumpy road getting to the safer ground. As such it is always good to be nice when not completely sure where something is going, and realize we are most likely not alone in our continued journey toward harmony and love. And as with the preceding new Moon cycle as well as the one which follows, this is a good time to choose partnership over grossly independent actions and plans.

02 Thursday January 22nd - Moon enters Pisces 7:49 AM

To substantiate a desired social situation we may begin to feel the unique quality of compassion which is assumed to host the interaction. Projecting a quality of compassion which defines social interactions can occur now as the Moon transits Pisces. Our sense of what is real and what is not can become blurred when there is an increase in Pisces energy. The Moon in Pisces can prompt some to establish or redefine boundaries as this is assumed re-establish order. Allowing realities to show what they have in common beyond the obvious differences can be of value and comes to those who are naturally compassionate. The blending and mixing of worlds or realities can occur though an artistic expression. Life and the choices we make can also have an artistic quality as these choices can cause other to feel closer to our expression than would typically occur. Our acceptance of this nebulous expression will ease our journey at times, especially when the Moon transits Pisces. There has been a gradual shift in humanities interest, a direction toward increased compassion is underway. Things which tend to create boundaries that limit or stop rising compassion will be brought front row and center such that humanity can take a global vote. The difference between absolute Universal law and the laws created by man which have been assumed to be absolute are showing themselves at an increasing rate. The false absolute is falling and will continue to do so for several years to come. In the meantime we as individuals are being given the opportunity to own our connection with all other things and bring isolation to within a reasonable bound. We may notice that we are becoming increasingly empathic and compassionate in our local social groups and communities. And those who stand outside this compassion interest are showing up as if they are waving red flags.

03 Saturday January 24th - Moon enters Aries 8:32 AM

Difficulty can result if an individual allows themselves to become overly isolated in their assertiveness. Ideally many are discovering ways to do things together in harmony. This togetherness is a new and exciting experience for some and can be a little shaky at times. It is these individuals who all too well know how to behave independently. It is independence of a certain quality which is ending for many right now and it is their freewill choice to call for this ending. Their independence doesn't really end as it is more their lack of partnerships or lack of interest in sharing their interest and assertive type experiences with others which is cooling. It may not seem so to some yet this time, speaking here from March 2014 through to November 2015, is a good time to choose partnership solutions as opposed to acting as if everything must be accomplished individually. Empowered by expressions of compassion some individuals are making themselves available in relationships by being extra kind. If one has never really had a lot of experience relating to others either socially or in partnerships they may be a little green, their expression may be a little awkward. Active listening can for example be a good way to enrich a relationship yet it may not seem that obvious to one who has less relationship experience. A feeling that one must be aggressive in order to make things happen can affect their feeling of comfort in an interactive situation and also affect the comfort level of others who are sensitive to restless energy. In such a situation a single individual can choose to feel the harmony in their immediate location and feel this harmony move in like a tide coming in.

New Moon Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

Report number 145

04 Monday January 26th - Moon enters Taurus 11:38 AM

Venus ingress Pisces Friday January 27th 10:01 AM

Finding the compassion which justifies one's actions will go a long way in creating harmony between individual desires and real value to the public. A sense that things are overly complicated can also indicate someone is getting ahead of themselves. A review of one's beliefs, or an examination of their methods, leads an introspection where one's sense of belonging to community is considered more closely, more fundamentally. One's internal considering may showcase their beliefs regarding who they are relative to their public interest. An internal inspection could be motivated by a professional situation. Either way a need to find one's most fundamental understanding may be behind events which trigger emotional reactions. This is a time where an ambitious individual can discover valuable things about their public or professional situation. If there is a heavy emotional weight right now consider these fundamental beliefs these fundamental cliché thoughts and comments and question them as if it may be time to either discard or adjust some of these ideas. For example things that start with "the only way to get this done is to...." or "if it worked before it will work again". Not saying these things are all of a sudden incorrect, no, this is more about being able to examine how the ego seeks simplicity. This simplicity may need adjustment, not condemnation. Some way of approaching a public relationship for example may benefit from a different approach. A sense of how others experience our actions can be more prevalent now. This alone can be the reasoning behind new evaluations regarding the most basic understanding of public harmony.

05 Wednesday January 28th - Moon enters Gemini 5:37 PM

An inspiration to share something, an idea, is hampered by an inability to have one's communication clear? There are also those who would rather have what is being said restricted to what can be realistically done, while others think some things are just funny to say. Internal dialogue can be big as well. Internal dialogue related to self discovery can have the individual in conversation with themselves, likely related to understanding who they are. Perhaps questioning some action, self discussing a decision, or perhaps testing out a shared dynamic by first stepping through the assumed events in solo fashion. Words can trigger emotional reaction more often when the Moon transits Gemini. Some use words as tools to entice emotional reactions. Because of the retrograde energy present as indicated by Mercury the displacement of time can occur. Someone may bring up a past event or thought and reiterate it as if it is still current yet it's time, from the perspective of others, is past. Really crazy ideas may surface, ideas some considered brilliant, something over the top and inventive, these ideas can return now as they may assist the individual at reliving or reinventing their adventurous character. What causes an individual to adjust what they say can interfere with their spontaneity. The dynamic between being spontaneous verses having ones words clearly and safely chosen before hand holds an emotional thread which most likely has it's own internal dialogue. Ideally the individual will be clear about their intention and trust that the words and communication they do use is spontaneous and considerate toward others while maintaining the journey toward their intended mark.

06 Saturday January 31st - Moon enters Cancer 2:10 AM

Recent and ongoing social dynamics may require some attention in terms of extra responsibilities which the individual has brought on. This may also be a time when one's wellness demands that they curve back their social involvement. Family dynamics between parents and their children may have become an issue lately as well. An urge to be ultra protective and go the extra mile is perhaps in the works. It may be that some event or dynamics which require action is manifested allowing one's sense and belief that they are a good parent, or that my parent cares about me, to be substantiated. An increasing attraction to empathy and compassion can also color these events. Compassion as a fulfilling energetic experience can motivate some practical change which has been looming anyway. The need to take care of something involving family or close friends seems to be touching one's sensitivity and vulnerability more than it usually would and as such it causing some to make decisions, some possible major decisions, which were otherwise not concerned urgent. As this energy increases, compassion and empathy, the individual will benefit by being discerning as to how they are involved with others and avoid taking on responsibilities which are not really their own. In fact this may be the theme for some in this Moon transit Cancer period, to identify and back off the involvement on other people's drama's when they are clearly not one's own.

07 Monday February 2nd - Moon enters Leo 12:42 PM

Full Moon in Leo Tuesday February 3rd 6:10 PM

A need to feel appreciated by their partner or love interest can peak during this Moon cycle and can feel important while the Moon transits Leo. The sense that a partnership is based on respectfully honoring one's partner can be brought into main focus. People who are strongly connected with Leo energy will most likely have some way of satisfying their sense of what establishes an individual as notable or admirable. It is this vibe or sense of projecting notable character which sets up and creates fantasies or imagined realities in which the notable character generates their experiences. Some may need others to acknowledge their fantasy reality because this somehow in their mind leads to the admiration of the individual who fancies themselves within the alternate reality. Busting fantasy as such can bust an individual's self confidence. Ideally the individual will see themselves as one who can create these fantasies at will, as in a creative artistic type, and as such they are confident as they possess the key. Yet those who become overly dependant on a house of cards reality to feel good about themselves can be easily destroyed by the slightest change in climate in terms of implying what is real and what is not. The artist can be anyone who participates in a reality where that reality is know to be a local custom or delusion within their immediate community or group they interact with. Knowing that all realities are fantasies there to empower a particular identity which reflects the good feeling one has about themselves allows the individual to possess the artist key of creation. We may discover the fantasies which those we relate prefer and as such we will discover our own fantasies. We may also be in the creative place of formulating new realities which allows for many players where all can feel purpose and self respect.

New Moon Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

Report number 145

08 Thursday February 5th - Moon enters Virgo 12:47 AM

Being kind can be a good choice right now, if things get confusing or frustrating in a relationship. An important insight can occur. Unusual ways of thinking about things can reveal something of value. This will be colored or inspired by an amplified sense of wanting to honor and respect some particular ideal. Being overly confident can also be exaggerated, a need to be clear that one is sharing the same belief or ideal about social value or prominence as those they interact with is perhaps tested. Ideally one's positive sense of themselves will expand and possibly inspire a public situation. On the other hand a delusional sense of self importance can be headed for a rude awakening if that importance is dependant on nonexistent validation from others. Ideas are explored from a different perspective than they would typically, as if the mind can accept the far out as it can reach further. There is a lot of sensitivity connected to ones health which can translate to being considered about family. The individual may find themselves exploring solutions, in some cases remembering past ideas which were lost and forgotten because at some point they lost relevance. Ideas which return now from one's past are likely moving into their next phase and making sense or are more acceptable now as now they have a grander meaning. At the very least something feels different about those ideas and the individual is inspired to explore them further. If and when mutual respect occurs in a relating or partnership experience an empowering sense of being on point and critical can also be reached. An ability to question logic in a harmonious team situation can be more powerful than usual.

09 Saturday February 7th - Moon enters Libra 1:45 PM

Discovering the value of partnership and friendship may have increased lately. Sometimes a break through requires a dismantling of current or older ideas which an individual unknowingly holds as absolute. Ideas and beliefs about one's relationships may prove to be limiting in some way. Also lofty ideas can also prove limiting. Ideally the individual will figure it out, that each person is the center of their own universe and that it is up to the individual to accept their situation as if it is their creation and to as such shift the query they may have to "what am I creating here?". The ideas of victimhood or acting as if someone does something to another is not the real cause of their difficulty, it is instead the beliefs they hold which attract the energies and experiences they have. How can this be? For such to be true all must exist within creator's infinite perfection. Multidimensional awareness may not be one's typical understanding and consideration as their immediate concerns are met and dealt with. However the idea that another person is reflecting one's own energy in some way can be a profound life experience changer. Those who get into the routine of seeing things from this perspective will have a quicker insight into their relationship experiences. Taking action and going for what one wants and desires is better navigated when the nature of energy is known and monitored. It is one's feelings as such which allows the individual to achieve their desires just as it is one's feelings which make desires relevant.

10 Tuesday February 10th - Moon enters Scorpio 2:06 AM

Mercury direct Wednesday February 11th 9:58 AM

As individuals, many, review and access their admirable qualities others simply pay such analysis little mind. Things either work out or they don't. Acting upon ones assumed admirable qualities or acting as if something has been established when it has not can be attributed to being blinded by one's own light. Relationships act as reflections. Individuals who are astute to this awareness will heed the relationship and partnerships they find themselves in asking what about themselves is being echoed and reflected by those they interact with. Look specifically for the natural admiration of another as this individual reminds us of ourselves in some way. The Moon's north node transiting Libra (February 18th 2014 - November 12th 2015) indicates a window of time where individuals will be considering their independent actions versus doing things along side and in step with another. Again look to see how you inspire another or another inspires you. The Moon in Scorpio can dig up some unresolved past notion about partnership value in terms of shared security. Even though the players may have changed the same process returns. Security always involves some sort of shared energy. Those who seek independent security can never have enough. It is this type of belief which stands to be challenged and busted. The current Scorpio Moon transit, relative to our Aquarius Moon cycle, indicates emotional reactions related to security at work or related to professional matters. Here one's assumed social situation bleeds into their professional world. General public interaction and socializing is to be in harmony with the way professional services are conducted. For example issues involving confusion between professional associates versus social relationships can occur. A need to keep these clearly separate may become prioritized by some. In the meantime Ceres approaches Pluto in Capricorn and begins making a conjunction. One's foundational understanding of how community indirectly agrees to accept the status quo of how shared social resources and services work and are distributed is rocked by some important matter. Perhaps a need to take action to assist another occurs, possibly a family member of a younger generation. Perhaps some standard social support, social protocol, has degraded and important things involving security, mutual security, must be dealt with in a new way.

11 Thursday February 12th - Moon enters Sagittarius 11:48 AM

Taking precisely the right action can have a powerful effect toward advancing one's social interest. Of course what is correct for one individual will be different for another however the ability to be precise with one's actions whatever those actions and interest are is indicated. Even an apparent small action can have a major affect. Confidence and assurance of one's intention supports their action making the action a congruent extension of one's clearly held vision. Many individuals may have been demonstrating a wildly open minded character lately and now some perhaps far out idea is behind their action. Look to see how one's self esteem is connected to their actions and thus to their belief as to what constitutes their popularity and the beliefs about notoriety and popularity in terms of public experiences. The difference between serious dedication and just needing to be popular may be fleshed out. Ideas of what it means to be well known and popular can affect the actions individuals take. The sense that freedom for the individual means not needing to prove oneself may also be considered. Ideally the individual will feel their place as an individual here on home planet Earth while also sensing their connection to the stars and their connection with the greater vastness of existence. An ability to remain in tack within one's identity while participating within a local society and at the same time being able to objectively observe self as a local version of a greater being offers a powerful sense of freedom. Such a perspective is characteristic of Aquarius and the non-limits of acceptance which the higher mind can reach when allowed by one's ego. The individual who is able to see and feel this perspective will be able to be practical in terms of their local human needs even if this local human is but a small portion of their complete self.

New Moon Tuesday January 20th 2015 8:15 AM EST

Report number 145

12 Saturday February 14th - Moon enters Capricorn 5:25 PM*Pluto conjunct Ceres in Capricorn.*

Care givers, or perhaps rescuers, are in some state of change. Those who look out for others with commitment and seriousness will find themselves riding the current revolutionary social changes which have been effecting everyone in some way in the last few years. This can be a somewhat challenging time for those who are motivated and dedicated to assisting others. Something big which affects their part in assisting others may occur. For those concerned about public image farming reputation can be the reason behind the specific actions. Those who have a need to be acknowledged publicly who believe it is important to be publicly admired may be taking actions which they believe forward this desire. Some may become unexpectedly appreciated publicly as well. An ability to know what specific actions to take without becoming overly distracted by a need to be socially or publicly validated will benefit whatever their plan or purpose may be. Taking the right action will likely have to do with some changing social system or the changing way in which a past typical service was provided. It is possible a sense of panic can set in regarding one's professional role or their public reputation. This could be related to getting things done on time, or being concerned that all things required are in the correct order. An acknowledgement of such an exaggerated concern may be important as the actions taken intended to relive any anxiety can be better positioned once an expanded look at one's situation is considered. Perhaps a change in how one is going about their plan is needed.

13 Monday February 16th - Moon enters Aquarius 7:14 PM

We will get our second consecutive new Moon in Aquarius at 6:48 PM on the Wednesday, consecutive Moon cycle's hosted by the same zodiac sign is a rare occurrence. Feelings and concerns related to community and social dynamics has likely been a highlight for the individual in the recent month and continues now. Who one associates with and the community which hosts this group becomes increasingly focused on. One of the things which has increased in energy and concern is what defines or attributes peer admiration. The individual may have already experienced this recently. Even back to late summer the sense of who is who socially may have been tripping some internalized concerns in relation to public notoriety. A satisfaction, or perhaps the opposite, is somewhat irrelevant as the individual is being shown their beliefs as to what constitutes community from the perspective as to what is believed to be the leader or model member of the community. It may not be a particular individual however there is an ideal archetype if you will which is used as a measuring guide, unconsciously most likely. This measuring guide being an echo of the foundational quality one feels from their social connections. Assumptions about one's own admirable qualities may become exaggerated and in some cases a rude awakening is in order as it brings back a certain correction or energy balance. Again it is the individuals ability to be aware of their sovereignty to a degree which allows them to avoid the trappings of seeking external validation. As older, or past leaders, are retired, in some cases destroyed, new leaders appear. Leadership or admiration of an individual, an urban hero for example, is relevant now as this can be and has been the seed for socializing. As the mode of community shifts phase, or changes in anyway, the correlating leadership and admiration of the individual will also change in step. New leaders arrive or at least a new ideal measuring guide for public harmony and community interaction is being moved into place in a foundational way, communities are experiencing the initial effects of the creation of a new foundation.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
