Overview

New Moon in Pisces
 Friday March 20th 5:57 AM EST

When two things attempt to occupy the same space they either harmonize and complement each other or they smash into each other. If the individual is aware that thoughts are things they are able to see the bigger picture of harmony and or discord as it plays out on many levels of reality. During this Pisces Moon cycle the forward nature of Aries and ruling planet Mars are poised to be dominate although this is truly up to the individual. The aggressive nature of some may not be on the lookout for harmony again it there belief and choice which would determine this. However this truly a good time to seek for harmony in relating to all others. The manner in which an individual's identity, who they see themselves as, and the belief they have about their reality, which would include beliefs which define their social situations and the society they live within, will be potentially tested as the Aries Mars influence will be high. This occurs when their forward action is unable to harmonize with the forward action of another. This is why it is going to be important for some individual to choose harmony as they allow their assertive nature to be propelled into being. The identity an individual has, at least the one they to choose to believe they are, is directly connected to their beliefs about reality. Typically and historically humanity has been able to maintain different versions of reality, these differences kept sperate. However they has been and continues to a dissolving of the boundaries and edges of these different worlds and as many flood and roll into each others world their opinions of typical may drastically differ. Some are more fixed in their way that others and collisions can happen. As these different worlds, beliefs, meet up identities also meet up. An ability to see the larger picture is very valuable. An ability to let something go which was falsely assumed absolute yet is turning out not to be, will be very valuable now, especially if the individual is calling for advanced awareness and personal evolution. For those who are not interested in increasingly their awareness and who are standing by their inherited self definition there stands before them a wall which is indeed their own counterpart manifested by none other than themselves. If there is a willingness to evolve an individual may want to consider the things which are absolutely real and those things which are manufactured or inherited real and begin discerning what is what. The individual who does may find that their identity naturally evolves. It may be valuable to the individual to make a list of things which they believe to be real and a list of things which are beginning to feel false. Only those things which have a degree of importance would be listed.

Firmly aware thought creates the individual aligns themselves with great power. Galvanized with an astute awareness as to how a bigger picture of one's experiences is congruently harmonized with local experiences a new effectiveness rides one's commitment and vision. As the power of spontaneous joy echoes and reveals the rich harmonically entrained resonance of a grand holographic theater the writers of reality anonymously insert a new world. The rhythm of integrity calls for a rather artistic involvement in life which can be sealed away, deemed a preposterous value by ego firmly locked in external validation and external approval. It may seem to some that there is an edging away of reality, some world they are not feeling complete with, yet at the same time there is also a reinvention going on which is related to this apparent disappearance. It is in one's ability to move from event to process which will not only free them from being stuck and caught in a nostalgic past, it will also allow a grander picture and meaning to fill their experiences. As there is great joy in spontaneous conversation where sharing energy takes the form of ideas emotionally implying relationship this great joy is also the presence of power. PpPR112P9

Neptune's Aquarius transit began in November 1998 and ended in April 2011 at which time it began the current Pisces ingress. During that Aquarius transit many social distinctions and boundaries were dissolved, Neptune style, and humanity began to get to know each other beyond their previous social limitations. As if imaginary forts of each continent which separated how we socialize were brought down and peoples flowed together, their ideas now closer than they were previous to 1998. This of course will correlate with the development of social media which appeared to make our world shrink, at least in terms of distance between land masses. Immigration has also flourished during this time although at times difficult, again bringing down the apparent separation. Isolated distanced social groups or social belief systems were beginning flow into one another. Now we are experiencing a Pisces transit from Neptune, increased in significance as Neptune is the planetary ruler to Pisces. If one can feel and notice the correlating affect of Neptune in Aquarius then perhaps one can extrapolate the meaning of Neptune in Pisces. The melting away of boundaries of religious and cultural definition is currently occurring. Once again at times and for many people this can be quite difficult and painful however it will be deterred. What is occurring is a dropping of boundaries related to how compassion and empathy, among other things, has been isolated. We are headed to a free flowing type of feeling where the compassion and feelings for other living things is allowed to be experienced without the restriction of definition. Old school definition is at the root of difficulties many people are experiencing. As the generations move along the time line of their lives experiences the day will come where those who are born into this energy will see very little significance in cultural and religious type separation and distinction, just as the current young adult generations see little significance in social separation which was common before 1998. The plight of the individual is high as indicated by Uranus, another generational planet, continuing to transit Aries. There are other big Aries influences occurring as well yet for now we want to understand that the blending or melting away of culturally defined differences related to compassion is giving way to a more expansive type feeling, a more Universal or absolute version of compassion. Aries creates the foundation for Pisces yet how can this occur? What action will provide foundational security for self and family when the world which was believed in is unexpectedly turning out to be not so real? Here in this particular new Moon cycle the Aries ingress, Vernal Equinox, occurs only minutes after the new Moon, a somewhat unique situation. The quick Aries ingress by both the Sun and Moon following the new Moon indicates a Moon cycle where survival and security will need to be sorted. This sorting out is in alignment with the coming acceptance of a disappearing cultural or religious model. It is much more than cultural and religious models or understanding as it will most assuredly include how one feels about the reality they believe is real and is being referred to as religious and cultural models as a example of these beliefs. For some it will feel as if their world which was wrongly assumed to go on forever is being invaded by all kinds of different cultures and foreign beliefs. The current new Moon as such will have many discovering what is real to them verses what was appearing to be real yet is turning out to be of less significant. What is making this happen or appear to be happening is the need to find security which affects one's survival and comfort and this concern is for many going to carry far more weight and concern that what their culture or religion, or their long held belief about what is important, has been calling for. Simply put there are certain things which must be prioritized when survival and security is in the picture and this may not include values defined by beliefs such as religions and historic cultural beliefs handed down from generations past. The laws of who we are as Spirit having a human experience however would not be so easily tossed, unless these beliefs are merely words which lack absolute awareness. During this Moon cycle it may become critical or important to some degree that the individual let go of beliefs as they may be interfering with their otherwise unencumbered ability to secure resources which would ensure their comfort.

Our emotions and feelings testify to our connection to others and to life itself. Pisces lets us know realities which are all around us yet not necessarily known to us via our ego alone. Those with a more intense focus on Pisces than others may well be aware of this mixing and flowing of energy as they feel the realities of others and, again, of life itself. The difference is we, the typical individual, can turn it off simply by paying attention to our specific goals and priorities. The increase in Pisces indicated by the Neptune Pisces ingress which occurred back April 2011 is huge as it indicates the removal of boundaries between peoples and many aspects of life. Since then there has been a gradual increase in prioritizing the feelings of others which trumps authorities of race religion or country of origin. Humanity is increasing their compassion and to this end the obstacles, religions authority as one example, sticks out as a hindrance to this compassion acceptance. To deal with a history of isolation due to something like religious belief or custom the individual must have these sort of issues played out so that they can access their position within it. Accepting the compassionate nature of the individual as a natural order or natural law as opposed to a local man made law frees the individual from the local paradigms created by local authority and opens the individual to connections which are more Universal in nature, very Pisces. The new Moon in Pisces may trigger the individual in areas where their logic and mind is able to accept a past limitation and to make the choice to let go of some belief the individual is gripping onto and to as such open themselves up to more of who they are as Spirit. Neptune will transit Pisces until the spring of 2025.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Pisces the focus will be on the merging of beliefs and paradigms, or the merging of worlds. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of the dynamic experiences which occur as borders become less apparent. As all is thought manifestation all realities, as fantasy or delusion, are fabricated through opinion. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of manifestation becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Pisces have a natural propensity to merge with and experience dreams as reality and vice versa. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of opinion and belief simply by feeling a reality concept as if it is real. Not to exclude others as we all have Pisces somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Pisces propensity for migrating into the reality of others through feeling. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward experiencing fantasy or delusion as reality for each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I feel the reality of others ...

Aquarius: by accepting all I sense and observe in my immediate physical experience.

Capricorn: by paying attention to my immediate need to have clear communication with others.

Sagittarius: by paying attention to how these realities affect the way I feel about myself.

Scorpio: through my enthusiasm and excitement to be involved with them.

Libra: when I choose to be self responsible and clear as to what is and what is not my own personal responsibility.

Virgo: when I move into partnership relationships and feel an expansion of compassion.

Leo: when my partnership experiences lead me into the value of sharing.

Cancer: when I allow myself to step out of typical experience and rationalizing and move into new adventures of feeling.

Gemini: when I dedicate myself to being purposeful and valuable to others through my profession and career.

Taurus: by accepting and intending harmony through friendships.

Aries: by being still and feeling the emotional connection which exists between all others.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

01 Friday March 20th - new Moon in Pisces 5:37 AM EST

Some delusions are indicated here as ending, a truth is revealed. What is real and what is not real is an interesting question as reality might need to be realized as something that needs to be real. Most things are not as real and absolute as they are assumed to be yet their non-truth can be inconsequential as it is as if a thing is true and one lives their whole life with this thing as a truth. However in our life now, we may be exposed to things not real which are supposed to be real? This may be a good Moon cycle to intend clarity as to what is real in degrees of absolute truth and begin to identify those things which are failing the "absolute" checkup.

02 Friday March 20th - Moon enters Aries 6:29 AM

Vernal Equinox Sun ingress Aries Friday March 20th 6:46 PM

Three significant astrological events occur within close succession of each other beginning with the New Moon in Pisces at 5:37 AM EST followed by the Moon's Aries ingress at 6:29 AM followed by the Vernal Equinox and Sun's Aries ingress at 6:46 AM, all during the morning of March 20th. The indication is that delusional realities which have been taken or considered to be real are actually just that "delusions". What is absolute needs to be considered more critically and closely if an individual is going to maintain or recover their sovereignty and be empowered by their awareness. The rising Aries energy continues throughout this Moon cycle. Aries energy has been dominate lately as indicated by Uranus in Aries (March 2011 - May 2018) and the Moon nodal axis also transiting Aries (February 2014 - November 2015). Now with the Vernal Equinox upon us and the Sun and Moon both in Aries we can expect to see this cardinal fire sign continue to be a major presence. Mars planetary ruler to Aries is also in it's home turf currently transiting Aries (February 20th - March 31st). There is plenty of action, courage, and boldness on the move. How people go after things will be more evident that typical and what people what will be more obvious. Tying this into the ending of some assumed real realities, or the revealing of delusory realities, the Aries factor will want to secure a version of reality believed to be real. The manner in which the individual will go after a thing will be indicative of what that individual believes to be real. There may be those who are driven to take action as they are needing a thing to be true and if they are in denial as to the validity of their recent realization, that something is fake or not real, they may become more aggressive than they typically would. As Aries can be about independence and competition it can be that some feel their identity has all of a sudden become fake or delusional. Ultimately the individual will begin new things now and be rid of some commonly held beliefs which were actually not that good in terms of creating harmony and health simply because these beliefs were interfering with their connection to absolute truth.

03 Sunday March 22nd - Moon enters Taurus 6:41 AM

Anchoring a foundational steadiness now can prove valuable for the weeks and days to come as there is a significant rise in action energy which shows signs of increasing. The foundation may be challenging to find yet the Moon in Taurus will make an intuitive quality within the individual more prominent. The individual in most cases will want to intend that such a foundation is tuned into and registered as a sort of mini mission. Deciding what are the real facts may mean identifying ideas and beliefs which are rather nebulous and differentiating these beliefs from one's which are more directed to comfort and security. There may be a changing landscape in the places and ideas where an individual would find this security. It really begins with an idea and a vision which is then baked into realism and thus made more permanent. Frivolous ideas may have been entertaining in the past and they may have proved a good way to share interests with others, and they can continue to be this, however right now there may be more important things to maintain as the center of one's commitment. No one will care about us the way the Earth does and so one may consider taking a nature walk which can perhaps support and encourage feelings of foundation and safety.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

04 Tuesday March 24th - Moon enters Gemini 9:24 AM

How things are said may be critical as the Moon transits Gemini. The increase in action energy will rise during this period and the next piling onto the already increased level. As this action energy increases many individuals will feel as if they need to move, as if they need to be doing things, anything. For some the words may be hot or sharp yet not as important as getting through to some idea so that action can begin. A feeling that one must be bold in order to get involved or perhaps counter an idea not their own may be felt. The individual ideally will trace their current feelings back to some idea or belief which is in need of greater understanding, or a belief which is being pegged as no longer serving one's interest. Either way it is action which comes into the picture. Mercury, planetary ruler to Gemini, will conjunct Chiron in Pisces during this Moon transit indicating a giving into solution in terms of what one has come to believe. The idea that something isn't as real as previously realized may occur or that something which was known not to be so real needs to be clearly contained or removed from one's typical activity and experiences. This can be challenging because the motors for doing things are buzzing and many will not feel right sitting still.

05 Thursday March 26th - Moon enters Cancer 3:46 PM

Things can get all fired up and moving quickly yet there is within this array of activity a disciplinary discernment which can potentially direct these activities. A mission or purpose will serve as a regulating guide where decisions can be made quickly as called for and yet remain focused. There is an increase in spontaneity with the actions taken and also in the manner in which they are taken. New ways of getting things done may be tested out. Dynamics between what appears to be frivolous immaturity verses hard shell disciplinarian character can occur. A shared ideal will help keep things in harmony as the impulsive nature keeps things moving. A focus on public concerns can for example prove valuable in that actions needed to achieve things for one's community can be set up as a justification for the strong willed concerned individual. Wanting to make a difference can again become the reasonable justification for one's actions. Once an individual has an interest to which their energy is focused a good amount of effort can flow into it. Some may become overwhelmed by all the activities of others yet it is perhaps merely the need to know how to get involved. Much of what may be occurring is like catching and riding a wave of energy which needs to be directed toward activity and as such can be differentiated from the actual things an individual will do with it.

06 Sunday March 29th - Moon enters Leo 1:49 AM

Mars ingress Taurus Tuesday March 31st 12:28 PM

An assessment of one's recent optimism may occur now as the Moon enters Leo. The feeling that one must be important may in the individual's belief and mind require some sort of external substantiation. A need to impress others for example can be drawn out of the individual. Perhaps by observing one's own actions such a belief can be admitted. The sense of being able to transform one's world by simply following one's own inspiration may or may not affect others in a big way yet is a huge value to the individual who lives their own inspiration. A growing sense of understanding and accepting the important cultural beliefs of others can occur without necessarily applying such beliefs to oneself. As Aries energy continues to be unusually high the potential for impulsive actions is high. If there are those who feel they must prove themselves there is a potential for them to take actions now which is related to validating their identity. Things important to the individual who longs for and seeks recognition may be given a boost starting April 8th however it is to be aware that optimism about ones notoriety can be easily misunderstood if the individual is dependant on an externalized authority. When Mars makes the Taurus ingress on April 1st aggressive energy will switch from bold impulsive reactionary energy to physical strength. There will be those who will experience much more physical energy than they would typically and will be inclined to do things which require physical effort.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

07 Tuesday March 31st - Moon enters Virgo 2:13 PM

Taking some action in order to advance or substantiate a partnership can occur as some individuals are finding themselves bolder than they typically might. A need to take charge of ones security and survival may require directing a partner. Or a partner may act in a way which seems to imply their independence comes first. Some might be acting the way they do because they are in need of a clearer understanding of a partnership situation. Busting done some foggy or confused idea may be in the works as a feeling that a more critical understanding is needed, and this may well be related to a partnership dynamic. Giving one's priority to a partnership will simplify things greatly and has the potential to bring a great relief as well as good solid steps forward in achieving a goal of mutual interest. During this Virgo Moon ingress there is a shift in being overly assertive in one's own interest to applying ones inspiration and spontaneous energy to practical tasks. The Virgo Moon can also cause some to focus on their health and make decisions to service this as a priority and thus be less involved in the ideas of others or in some manner remove oneself from distractions. The rise in practical insight and intuition right now will feel necessary as it can seem as though one's survival requires more critical realism and less focus on ideas which are really about too many others. Ultimately this is a good opportunity to get real and practical within a partnership which is centered around mutual comfort and security and to divorce one's self from situations which can not be clearly justified.

08 Friday April 3rd - Moon enters Libra 3:09 AM

Full Moon in Libra Saturday April 4th 8:07 AM

The feeling that a partnership is demanding more than it should or that one must consider a partnership when in the past they were more solo in their style can be turned to opportunity. Those who recoil into independent nature can break out of patterns of reacting to relationship challenges and take perhaps the higher road of considering the shared experience from the perspective of those who appear to be creating the challenge. Ideally the individual will identify what it is they are avoiding and what it is they are gripping onto. With Venus currently transiting Taurus an avenue to feeling comfort in a partnership is available, the individual needs to however let go of some notion and correlating decision to be independent which is beyond the current practical reason. What partnership and relationship means may be evolving right now and the experiences which many individuals are having is about this revolution. This is creating an opportunity to understand something about relationship which was previously not understood. The partnership will reflect and echo one's own energy and belief in some way and it is this knowing which allows the individual to value their relationship experiences. What an individual sees in another, especially something which triggers a strong emotion either nice or difficult, is perhaps what an individual has been either avoiding or holding onto too tightly. Whatever events are occurring involving partnership the individual is wise to consider what these events cause them to experience which they would otherwise not have experienced.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

09 Sunday April 5th - Moon enters Scorpio 3:05 PM

Physical steps taken toward moving one's agenda forward can occur in a powerful way as the plan has been set previously. The manner in which this is approached can affect the dynamic in a partnership or the partnership may be the impetus to take the action. Also a growing sense of compassion can be a factor which justifies one's actions. As many will continue to act spontaneously, some aggressively, the expenditure of this energy has elevated the physical strength of some. This may be a good time to attend to some physical chore which requires attention. The actions one takes now may be connected to the dynamic in a partnership where a need or longing to be in harmony with another justifies an involvement with a plan which typically would have had less interest. Teaming up with another may for some be challenging yet this could be considered as the Moon's north node continues to transit Libra indicating solutions and opportunities to decrease solo efforts and loneliness which may have run their course. The sense that something unknown lurks and needs to be known and revealed may cause some feelings of anxiety. A longing for some sort of basic simplicity can be satisfied by going on a nature walk or by being close to the Earth in some way. This sense can also trigger appetite where one is more sensually tuned to who they are organically than they typically might.

10 Wednesday April 8th - Moon enters Sagittarius 1:09 AM

Jupiter direct in Leo Wednesday April 8th 12:58 PM

If one is intending on getting somewhere of significance through their work or profession this Moon transit in Sagittarius may prove beneficially. An intuitive feeling that somethings are better and more promising than others allows the ambitious individual to make better choices and avoid miss steps. Unusual things may be said. You may experience self or others communicating unexpectedly. The difference between saying things and doing things is more likely to occur to more individuals as the need to take direction and orders seems like a bigger deal than usual. Some will speak up who are usually quite. Others keep saying things which are not well planned or thought out. An underlining belief or sense that certain things must be done because it is a matter of personal security may affect choices. Some will be feeling physically stronger than usual and are able to do more physical work than usual. This work will be a response to feeling the need to secure one's own foundation and security. A plan to forge ahead in one's profession or be better at their work can be supported by this extra physical energy. A way to be better at one's job can bring to their attention certain things which must be attended to and again an increased physical energy is present. The need to be clear about what an individual is personally responsible for is a big asset right now as the increased physical energy is able to be specifically focused. A concern for how one is viewed by others publicly may also rise. New concerns which have to do with public reputation can drive and motivate either rebellion where words are quick and hot or where effort is increased and accomplishment is aimed for.

11 Friday April 10th - Moon enters Capricorn 8:48 AM

It may be difficult to keep track of some social groups and friends as there has been public and social changes, perhaps employment changes, which has altered the landscape of one's typical social interaction. These changes continue now and for some years yet. Currently there is a need to accept these changes such that new ways of being apart of community can be considered. The feeling that something which was once publicly certain or permanent but now gone may be haunting as whatever it was that has changed means personal changes are due as well. All the many things associated with survival or security will be showing up this Moon cycle at different times for different people. And now the need to be on time and clearly focused on one's immediate task will be important to some as the Moon transits Capricorn. A conjunction between Mercury and the Sun in Aries indicates the potential for forceful words. Boldness in conversation can be linked to the concern that something is not on schedule or that there are activities which are outside the immediate call for action. Since communication can be more likely now than typical it is advantageous to intend that what one chooses to say is focused and appropriate to the current situation. If there is something that needs to be said yet was difficult to do so in the past this may be a good time as the courage to speak up is supported by current alignments.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

12 Sunday April 12th - Moon enters Aquarius 1:45 PM

Ambitious character may be questioned by friends and colleagues. In the bigger picture, over the last few years, there has been a steady breaking free of social definitions which have come to feel like constraints on the individual. This has caused a fleshing out of social roles or role models which have been historically accepted. The archetypes which are of particular interest now are those which would epitomize a remarkable or notable character. These heroes or important social identities are being tested in such large degree that their significance is descending. There are less stand outs when so many vie for and fit the bill. The Moon's transit through Aquarius can trigger feelings of limitation as related to the elite sense that some super character implies. Of course the ultimate lesson or opportunity here is to discover and let go of the need for external validation. Once it is realized that the achievement of elite status based on the observing of past notable character and hence attempting to copy it is futile then the individual will free themselves from it. After all the notable characters from our history typically received their status as the by-product of their integrity and self belief. Allowing oneself to follow their own unique inspiration and passion, absent of external validation, will perhaps cause them to be publicly noticed, which to them is the reality and interest of the public who notices them and not the individual's main focus.

13 Tuesday April 14th - Moon enters Pisces 4:13 PM

Wanting to survive implies a belief about reality which must be accepted in order that the correct actions toward survival can be taken. Aries is this action yet what is the accepted reality which the individual references as they go after the things they need? As the Moon returns to Pisces we may find ourselves questioning how real something is. Asteroid Vesta is now in a conjunction with Neptune in Pisces. The importance of accepting feelings as real and absolute will lead the individual to feel the sacredness of compassion and feeling, and for some this is directly connected to the sacredness of Spirit. There is perhaps a maturing of the individual in terms of letting go of some nonsense, letting go of beliefs as they are turning out to be false or miss represented. This leaves the door wide open for accepting compassion and becoming more attuned to accepting feelings as real as opposed to the next mental construct. For each it will be different, the degree to which compassion is allowed to be prioritized over ego type reasoning and logic. A big opportunity this Moon cycle has been the attention one directs toward partnerships and relationships in terms of the value they bring to the individual, because they stir or bring up feelings which are in their own unique way comforting. For example knowing one is not alone, even if their partners is not sure of things anymore than they are, is still comforting for the simple fact that you know you are not alone. Hopefully the individual has been inspired to take stock as to what is real and what is less real or significant in terms of security and comfort.

New Moon Friday March 20th 2015 5:37 AM EST

Report number 147

14 Thursday April 16th - Moon enters Aries 5:01 PM*Pluto retrograde in Capricorn Thursday April 16th 11:56 PM*

Although the Sun has been transiting Aries for the past 26 days it will be on Saturday the 18th which will bring in the Aries new Moon. The Aries energy experienced after the new Moon will be different in that there will be a more obtainable understanding of a unified inner process. The actions one takes have the potential to more congruently connected to a central aim. Up until May 12th Mars, ruling planet to Aries, will continue to transit Taurus where it made a Taurus ingress back on March 31st. The Mars in Taurus transit period will give many individuals who have a unified intuition and mission which they are either currently involved with or are now beginning, a boost in physical energy. The individual will as such benefit from the transit if they have a plan which calls for physical effort. Mars will ingress Gemini on the 18th of May indicating a shift in energy from physical actions to communication action. Aries is a cardinal sign and is given to new ideas being substantiated by actions. The shift from physical actions to communication actions which occurs on May 18th will, or can be, within the vision of an individual's plan if they are so committed to their intention to achieve a specific result. Uranus has been transiting Aries since the summer of 2010 and will continue to so until 2018. This Uranus transit has been lighting up Aries energy and asserting an impulse which affects the individual in that it either reinforces or sparks an independent nature. This will be particularly strong on matters which affect one's social belief and public freedom or rights. The Moon's south node also currently transits Aries, February 2014 to November 2015, indicating a need for the individual to clear any toxic independent nature which has been interfering with their ability to find harmony with others.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
