Overview

New Moon in Gemini
Tuesday June 16th 10:07 AM EST

Fire energy is abundant this Moon cycle, many will benefit from activity which can move this action energy in a constructive way as opposed to allowing it to pool up. There will be some who feel they need to be appreciated and admired and it is for others to be patient and allow them to sort out their own value. Saturn has recently retrograded back into Scorpio and with Saturn's home turf still in the midst of a major revolution type transit with Pluto, a return to some public issues from a few months ago, even as late as last year, can color communications and reactions now. This will include, but not be exclusive to, dominate people who have been called out and in some cases exposed for questionable behavior and activities. Just when they thought it was over, paying the piper, it returns with a vengeance. Those who find it natural and enjoyable to accept and acknowledge admirable qualities in others while maintaining their own solid self esteem will be very supported this Moon cycle, their attitude inspirational and effective, assisting others to trust themselves. Partnership which is chosen over going it alone continues to be the favored route and yet the individual can still feel the freedom of Uranus as it continues to transit Aries. Individuals all over the planet are feeling that they, as a single person, are important. This is occurring more now than at any other time in recent human history. New ways of relating globally will as such continue to be born and so we can expect new developments in styles and means by which individuals communicate and create harmony. Neptune aspected by both Venus in Leo and Ceres in Aquarius will continue to melt the borders between historically developed beliefs. Some can be consumed by a need to be important and with Ceres in Aquarius opposite to these Leo exaggerations a concern for how one's individual desires are affecting the family or the experiences of a specific loved one, or even how nature and the planet are affected, is far more important. These concerns or issues need a belief or paradigm to operate within yet these paradigms are being swallowed and digested by Neptune in Pisces and so there is potential for confusion and frustration as "being important" becomes a nebulous moving target.

New Moon Tuesday June 16th 10:07 AM EST

Report number 150

A shift in how authority is accepted is again an outcome of falling and collapsing infrastructures within social structures. The systems by which societies function are being destroyed and rebuilt as indicated by Pluto's transit through Capricorn. The return of retrograde Saturn to Scorpio can represent specific individuals who have in the past been seen as authorities or examples whose words and actions were models and archetypes for specific conduct and behavior. Individuals who lack integrity will be destroyed as authority figures just as the social structure or social system they functioned within are departing. The return of Saturn to Scorpio represent the final days of their authority and when Scorpio goes direct August 2nd their final act will begin to play out. Authority figures and institutions which on the hand have been making gradual shifts and staying in consideration of the public will be sustained and acknowledged for the great and valuable work they continue to do.

A freedom to speak one's mind may be all the justification needed to raise one's voice. Ideas expressed with big confidence will be a theme for the Gemini new Moon cycle. Pride in how one deals with or contributes to bold remarks or aggressive conversation is a motivator which will cause some to feel good about themselves. The high ride may not be permanent yet for now confident words do seem to project one's sense of feeling suddenly grand. Ideally the individual will see their connections with others as reflections of their own inner self considerations, and be able to observe beliefs which are associated with social identity. The need to be recognized socially can trigger some to speak with an unusual confidence. Others may be ramping up the internal dialogue. Addressing the admirable character of others can color conversation, as if it's important to be important. The opportunity now is to get some communication moving which had been stuck for whatever reason. As long as the individual does not become sidetracked with concerns as to who they are publicly and is able to stick to the networking and sharing of ideas without such distraction then this can be a productive time.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Gemini the focus will be on thinking and communicating associated with relationship experiences. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing external and inner dialogue such that beliefs implied by mental activity can be known. Thoughts and ideas meant to establish relating experiences reveal beliefs about the social structure which is assumed to facilitate shared experiences. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the influence behind the beliefs becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Gemini have a natural propensity to anchor harmony between themselves and another. They naturally resonate with social common denominator on an individual basis. Not to exclude others as we all have Gemini somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Gemini propensity for tuning into potential harmony and actualizing it through mental awareness. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify where or how an individual mentally connects with and understands other individuals. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I communicate harmoniously with others ...

Taurus: by being a good listener, by paying attention to the body language of others.

Aries: by sticking to the immediate point and concern which my communication is focused on.

Pisces: by accepting my own inner dialogue while remaining objective with what others say.

Aquarius: by trusting that the genuine joy I experience in sharing ideas is supported by my higher awareness.

Capricorn: by being responsible to myself when I am actively involved in communicating with others.

Sagittarius: by allowing and accepting that my partnership experiences reflect back to me my own manner of communicating.

Scorpio: by allowing new forms and ways of communicating to be birthed from my grounded partnership experiences.

Libra: by allowing my self to move into a new territory of ideas and discovering new ways of sharing experiences.

Virgo: by focusing on my value to the public.

Leo: by enjoying my public interaction and friendships.

Cancer: by feeling how my communications are connected to a universal mind.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

Report number 150

01 Tuesday June 16th - new Moon in Gemini 10:07 AM EST

Intending and visualizing good clear communications during this new Moon phase can assist for what will transpire during the cycle. For example opportunities to clear up communication issues and concerns can be moved upon now as the new Moon in Gemini brings and facilitates such opportunity. As in recent Moon cycles fire energy is again abundant, many will benefit from activity which moves this action energy. Intend some physical activities which are healthy and safe, hikes sports or workouts of some kind, whatever works for the individual. Other appropriate intentions can involve being inspirational to others and appreciating those who are inspirational. Seeing oneself making advances in their desire to become known in a way which allows others to benefit from one's talents and values aligns with the expanded Leo energy occurring now. Saturn retrograde has now moved back into Scorpio indicating a return to dealing with control energy. See unresolved issues coming to conclusion in a way which allows the individual to finally be free from some historic difficult authority energy. Some may have become guarded and defensive because of what they have had to get involved with over the last year or two, if so know that this could be the final phase and so seeing the skies clearing while the final storm recedes can be effective. Understanding partnerships and creating functional pleasant partnerships has been occurring as well yet the individual must be willing to let go of some solo approach. Seeing oneself in a harmonious partnership situation where the communication is spontaneous and open and the activities mutually supported can be very powerful.

02 Tuesday June 16th - Moon enters Cancer 6:52 PM

It was perhaps nice to speak up and say what was on one's mind lately yet the instant rise in sensitivity as indicated by the Moon's Cancer ingress may cause some to feel the effect of either their words and ideas or those of another. This added sensitivity however can be a great thing for getting into the more human details of working together if those involved can find the harmony as opposed to dwelling on differences. In recent months and this continues now there is a fairly big rise and increase in fire every which means action energy. This will be experienced as boldness, going after what one wants, and admiration for ones self, which may be conditional in some cases. If one is feeling more energized now than usual, their personal natal planets may be experiencing transits in the fire element, they will benefit by having some way to move the energy in a valuable safe way. Physical activities can be a helpful, intend safety and make healthy decisions. Some ideas said now or which are looming may be challenged. It is up to the individual to realize it is not necessarily the person who triggers your reaction who is the culprit as some are dealing with things which are huge in their life now and their security is a major concern to them. Realize the major alteration occurring to the social systems economic systems political systems regulations and on and on and on are really happening and some are in under the wheels feeling it more than others. Everybody is sure to get their turn and it is a strong individual who can feel the pain yet allow themselves to see the bigger picture which allows them to be naturally forgiving.

03 Friday June 19th - Moon enters Leo 2:24 AM

Summer Solstice Sun ingress Cancer Sunday June 21st 12:39 PM

This may be a good time to express a good idea in a big way however there is a caution not to get too puffed up as confidence may be fragile. Allowing one's inspiration and focus to be on the idea and not on self aggrandizement will bring forth the win. An ability to weave a tale of interest can have a talker feeling good about themselves and yet if the story is an exaggeration so too is the self admiration. There is a danger or a caution here not to get confident beyond one's real situation. There is a difference between feeling good about oneself and losing the handle on how others react to one's energy. When the opinion of others is important to the point where that opinion is driving and fueling one's self confidence a difficult situation is bound to occur such that the energy can be balanced. If there has been an internal process where an individual has been imagining themselves in a certain social way, a way in which sees them being magnified in admiration by others, then this individual may become blinded by that light and fall into their own delusion unknowingly. Of course it will soon transpire that all was not as assumed. An ongoing idea about one's social identity may be busted and a blind spot in their self assessment revealed. Some may be overly sensitive to their identity, rattled easily if questioned or criticised, yet this same personal experience can act as a navigational assist where the individual is able to maintain focus and stay clear of rocky beliefs involving importance.

New Moon Tuesday June 16th 10:07 AM EST

Report number 150

04 Sunday June 21st - Moon enters Virgo 1:00 PM

Mars ingress Cancer Sunday June 21st 2:39 PM

Jupiter in Leo trine Uranus in Aries Monday June 22nd 9:48 AM

With a critical eye one may be prompted to look further into an idea which is in conflict with their typical belief. The need to consider things in a more detailed or critical way may be called for. Things may have been said or communicated recently, like yesterday or the day before, which trigger an individual to consider different possibilities or to question what was assumed sound. Also an important change may be underway which is assisted by one's recent increase in self confidence. The fire trine involving Jupiter and Uranus may be occurring now during this Moon transit Virgo period yet the rise in fire energy has been with us for awhile and so this trine may trigger sudden actions which were already brewing. The need to feel free socially and the need to be admired socially can team up within an individual, things can happen suddenly. It all comes back to Pisces and Virgo, with Neptune transiting Pisces a loss of boundaries which kept each others business separate, could be groups and countries as well as individuals, and nicely in their own zones has disappeared, the fences collapse and everything is flowing and mixing together. This can cause some to panic because their identity, who they think they are, is losing relevance and so they may project and blame their difficulty on an assumed invading belief system. Virgo as opposite to Pisces is the force who with criticalness can manage and make sense of what is what simply by tuning into some higher priority, as in finding a common denominator. Nevertheless it can be challenging for those who resist the melding nature of Pisces and the collapse of differentiated worlds.

05 Wednesday June 24th - Moon enters Libra 1:42 AM

Chiron retrograde in Pisces Wednesday June 24th 9:33 AM

This could be an important time for some partnerships, an ability to trust another as opposed to panicking or taking an old road in how challenges are dealt with. This potential may have an unexpected gift where those involved discover why partnership is valuable for reasons previously not considered. A self more confident than usual may enjoy saying something boldly. There is a joy from simple sharing ideas and being conversational. And some may take every little word more seriously than others yet the real experience here is just sharing energy with another in a light way. There is and has been a rise in self admiration lately and this can affect conversation is a one sided way. An intention to share as opposed to dominate and dictate will work best. There are those who can also feel a bit insecure in relating and they may be standoffish and seem set back a bit compared to others. Yet with the friendly vibes present they too may enjoy just relaxing and getting involved in a laugh or two. A powerful quincunx between Saturn in Scorpio and Mars in Gemini shows up today indicating an aggressively expressed idea or interest which is linked to a past control issue or past secret. This could represent someone's fleeting attempt to recover from a recently revealed situation in which their authority was either questioned or removed.

Report number 150

06 Friday June 26th - Moon enters Scorpio 1:58 PM

Finding out one is responsible for something can be challenging if the individual becomes very sensitive about it. A bit of scare perhaps sends one into denial as there is a hope they don't have to deal with it. The idea of control may be here as well as there is a strong or forceful energy which has been challenged and revealed in the last year or so which may have to be dealt with now. Some are not quite as big and mighty as they once acted and are now being called to pay the piper. How this affects the individual will be different and diverse depending on how one was involved. It may be true that another has been perhaps manipulative or secretive and even deceptive yet this doesn't mean that the victim is off the hook. And of course there is no victim when the truth "you create your own reality" is known and accepted. The revealing of a culprit may seem to be freeing yet the individual who is so called freed must now own up to what they did when they first agreed to play victim, everything is connected and in harmony always. So now a responsibility comes forth to challenge the individual where they are asked or expected to take the road of increased responsibility. This challenge may begin now or become more significant now while the Moon transits Scorpio however it will become increasingly important to be dealt with in the coming weeks and months.

07 Sunday June 28th - Moon enters Sagittarius 11:22 PM

The feeling that one's reputation is in view may be an individual's exaggeration. Astrological alignments indicate self esteem and self confidence is getting a big boost right now and it may be advisable to be cautious and not to get too lost in this. By thinking of it as a possible future or as potential the individual will not be blinded by their own light. The alignments will pass and what will be left in terms of self confidence? Real self confidence is typically the by-product of accepting all the situations one finds themselves in as if everything, every experience, is drawn to them for special and specific reasons, nothing is willy nilly or dumb luck. When the individual is aware that thought creates their attitude and sense of responsibility shifts, there is no blaming. When however the individual seeks recognition for the assumed admirable qualities things can get bumpy. There have been many ideas spoken of and shared lately so now the sense that there has been enough talk can cause some to look for the next step. Favorable relationship dynamics will assist in getting words and ideas into action. Again the theme of accepting partnership over doing everything on one's own is a good direction to consider. This will mean accepting and acknowledging the abilities of another. A simple way to do this is to pay attention to what one has in common with others as opposed to what they do not.

08 Wednesday July 1st - Moon enters Capricorn 5:12 AM

Full Moon Thursday July 1st 10:21 PM

A special type of confidence may visit some during this Moon transit Capricorn period. The fiery energy which is a theme of this Moon cycle can rise while a connection with ideas and beliefs not typically known or considered dominate become more real. The full Moon can indicate confrontation and challenges where individuals are faced with what appears to be an unavoidable reality, something must be dealt with. There is a huge creative energy here as well and it is for the individual to see and register the parallels between what is happening in their social world or community and their own personal challenges. Ideally a relationship or partnership will make the tie between the community or social dynamic and one's own more personal dynamic. Insights can lead the individual to special opportunities where their vision begins to manifest and they are as such called to make the appropriate moves to facilitate it's continued evolution. Again a willingness to choose and accept partnership where in the past it was not the choice stands to give many a new way to meet challenges and at the same time deliver wonderful experiences not expected.

Report number 150

09 Friday July 3rd - Moon enters Aquarius 8:22 AM

In this week and the next there will be lots of quick new ideas which are expressed passionately and with much feeling. An expanding sense of self admiration is also occurring which is giving way to expressing confidence outwardly. Self confidence can translate quickly to words. No matter how much one knows there is always more to know. Good questions do not lead to answers but to more questions, an individual's intellectual landscape continues to expand as their questions stretch out into new zones of realization. Discovery can rock one's sense of self assurance and assumed social value when self confidence is dependant upon external validation. Specifically here discovery refers to an interaction, public or social, which reveals one's obliviousness or aggressive self assumption about the value of their social identity. This is really about being important and being able to have this importance in harmony with all other aspects of one's life. As such the importance will be a by-product of one's integrity and the apparent happenstance of their evolved sense of self responsibility. A need to be important in the eyes or minds of others is however an exclusion to such an evolved self responsible individual. Fear and courage have been playing out lately as individual's self evaluate and internalize their social significance. And add to this the need to be impressive in order to gain the attention of a romantic interest and the issue of courage is again fleshed out.

10 Sunday July 5th - Moon enters Pisces 10:24 AM

A willingness to accept the beliefs of others can assist with one's professional services or work related responsibilities. This can be beneficial when the individual is able to be clear about what is their own personal concern and what is not and will typically be made clear by the specific needs of their home and family. The matter of who is the boss or who is the authority as related to some particular issues or ongoing concern can rise as if someone needs to be responsible for something. Ideally the individual will not get lost in the business of blame, after all who can be the blame when one is willing to accept that they draw their experiences to them. However there has been an ongoing revealing of aggressive energies who have been praying on the weak and or gullible and theses predators are getting caught. Most of this started a couple of years ago and is winding up it's last dynamics and conclusions during the next few weeks. This is relevant now as the Moon transits Pisces and the so call aggressors and victim make assumptions about reality. Yet these realities are dissolving into each other as they would simple because they were never as real as assumed. The common denominator or shared belief is available to those who are able to see beyond the example event and realize the local event is but a single occurrence of a global archetype. In the meantime the reality of how many have been affected now becomes significant to them as their troubles are all apparently hinged to a particular aggressor. It is their reaction to the delusion which pushes the change currently as the need to identify false realities is fleshed out by the Moon's Pisces transit.

New Moon Tuesday June 16th 10:07 AM EST

Report number 150

11 Tuesday July 7th - Moon enters Aries 12:39 PM*Mercury ingress Cancer Wednesday July 8th 2:53 PM*

Challenging one's courage to speak up is a theme for this Moon Aries transit. The ideas one wanted to share with friends or publicly may be tested in terms of how committed to these ideas the individual is. Big time changes are occurring in the public right now and so the appropriateness of saying certain things is also in the midst of changing. In order for social rules, the unwritten social code of conduct, to be upgraded to modern times some nasty issues involving control greed and sexuality return to public view. Keeping things to oneself can cause some brooding too much of which is unhealthy. A burst of words occurs as an outlet releasing pent up energy, can manifest in a dynamic public way. It would probably work better if the individual would allow their thoughts and concerns to be expressed in a somewhat regular manner as this can smooth out unexpected sudden words and the reactions they generate. New creative ideas can also be expressed now yet there is a very thin margin between what is a great creative idea and what is an immature reaction. Family matters may spill into public areas as a home issue ends up affecting a public experience. A typical opportunity or lesson these days is to let go of too much independent nature and instead allow partnership opportunities into one's experiences.

12 Thursday July 9th - Moon enters Taurus 3:51 PM

Although one may believe they have a grand diversity in their life many of the things which qualify this notion may be based on mind or mental experiences alone and are not substantiated by real physical experiences. It is the real experiences which an individual has in their history which substantiates their steadiness. This real steadiness will have a profound affect on one's mental steadiness as their thoughts will be congruent as they are relative to real physical experiences. The questioning of one's steadiness can occur as the Moon transits Taurus, the individual may be confronted by the truth of their steadiness, how real it is. Understanding and experiencing the mind as an extension of one's foundational experiences will assist the individual in discovering the power of knowing what is real and what has been a delusion. The degree to which an individual can accept a "want to be truth" is limited by the lack of congruency generated by it which causes things to eventually crumble, causing the individual to experience challenging emotional reactions. Pretending something is real when it is not is not such a difficult thing if the individual is able and willing to let go of such a thing quite quickly. Gripping onto false truths can be seen as the source of one's difficulties, the source of all difficulties. The Moon's Taurus transit can trigger the individual to move away from this difficulty simply by letting go of known false truths.

13 Saturday July 11th - Moon enters Gemini 8:17 PM

The value of good clear communication and sharing of ideas and information is most certainly an important thing. Yet translating all this talk into action requires a little different personal character. The need to translate talk and ideas into actual actions may have become more obvious to the individual during this Gemini Moon cycle. With an abundant focus on fire energy as well during this Moon cycle there was and is lots of actions taking place the thing is are these actions congruent with what was said? Reputation may well be a big factor affecting many, influencing their words and their actions, and yet this all changes when the individual is not too distracted with being great in the opinion of others but instead follows their own inspiration. Seeking external validation will bring real heart ache this Moon cycle and yet allowing one's inspiration to extend out into their shared world, their community and social experiences may be really peaking, in a good way, right now. An ability to be responsible for one's self is a difference maker as adjustments are made to one's plan in constructive ways. Some heroes may have been discovered this Moon cycle yet will this inspirational quality be sustained once Jupiter moves from Leo and makes the Virgo ingress August 11th? Something which may have been happening to some individual's this Moon cycle, their internal thought process becomes externalized, in such cases we will have got to know what others are thinking because they are now speaking up. Hopefully this will be a good thing for everyone and hopefully it will continue. There is nothing like good clear honest communication to expedite a the solution of a historically difficult situation.

New Moon Tuesday June 16th 10:07 AM EST

Report number 150

14 Tuesday July 14th - Moon enters Cancer 2:15 AM

A strong sense of domestic responsibilities can take charge of the next Moon cycle in Cancer. For some it may lean more toward personal issues like health. Opposition to how things are said or rationalized can occur yet there is a great revealing for those who can remain cool and calm and take in the bigger picture. The changing social situation may have many layers and so the most immediate layer is the one which opposes one's need to get on track with their personal concerns. An urge to accept a failed dominate force may occur to some yet this will soon be forgotten as the deeds which led them into rather dark places will continue to haunt and challenge them until it is completely cleared. Again the typical theme of allowing partnership into one's life as opposed to aggressively acting alone will work better in most all cases.

Next new Moon is in Cancer Wednesday July 15th 10: 55 AM EST
