Overview

New Moon in Cancer
Wednesday July 15th 9:25 PM EST

Emotional outbursts may fill one's experience this month. As an alternative inspirational ideas are expressed with much creativity.

The sustained presence of species, any species, can be attributed to sensual impulses. or organic truth. Authorities, or people the public have considered to be important or notable, are being cleared from their influence if that influence has been interfering with the sensual organic nature of Earth creatures including humans. We may see social laws and social edict for example getting rewritten or augmented as the changes trickle down through individual and collective ego of humanity.

A strong sense of domestic responsibilities can take charge during this Moon cycle in Cancer. For some it may lean more toward personal issues like health. Opposition to how things are said or rationalized can occur yet there is a great revealing for those who can remain cool and calm and take in the bigger picture. The changing social situation may have many layers and so the most immediate layer is the one which opposes one's need to get on track with their personal concerns. An urge to accept a failed dominate force may occur to some yet this will soon be forgotten as the deeds which led them into rather dark places will continue to haunt and challenge them until it is completely cleared. Again the typical theme of allowing partnership into one's life as opposed to aggressively acting alone will work better in most all cases.

Juno in Virgo at the new Moon indicates inclinations toward being healthy and clean, organized and precise, as a means by which partnership can be encouraged. In other words some may be inclined to look for these qualities in others as a good way to determine if such an individual is viable partnership potential or they will exaggerate these qualities in themselves in order to be attractive as a partner to another. Virgo being the networking or typical social interaction sign relative to Cancer, relationships may be evolved to partnerships as simple the result of attending to routine type daily affairs. The Virgo energy will become more valuable in months to come and this value sustained for a couple of years as there will be a growing need to bust disabling assumptions, these assumptions not only about partnership but about any miss concepts thought to be real. Acting on assumptions as if they are real and absolute for example will be detected by Virgo. Ceres retrograde in Aquarius forms a powerful quincunx with Juno during the new Moon phase. Ceres in Aquarius signals a serious exploration of individual freedom in the effort to repair or fix bad actions and decisions which appear to cause harm. Ceres here can indicate a repairing of apparent difficult social models where elitism as seen as a flaw which must be corrected. Also causing harm to the Earth or the environment will be a trigger for the Ceres freedom motivated individual. The urge to self elect and move toward rescuing the environment will bust through and challenge other admirable and notable public images as insignificant. The need to respect and acknowledge organic integrity is far more important than the need to follow and be lead by those who obviously don't value organic integrity. Organic integrity stretches beyond boundaries of religions and countries, governments and corporations, and so the freedom of the protector to stand up and move against these forces is there as indicated by Ceres in Aquarius. Ceres shown in quincunx with Juno makes for a powerful merging of a partnership where the two form an alliance devoid of selfish or false character. Together they will not only make move forward with Virgo energy, bringing in healthy environmental solutions, they will also inspire many to see the value of partnership as opposed to being a soloist in such efforts. This is indicated by the Ceres Juno quincunx also connecting to the Moon's nodal axis currently straddling Aries, south node, and Libra north node. This nodal transit has been in play since February of 2014 and will be sustained until November 11th 2015. When we take this Ceres Juno alignment and nodal axis alignment into consideration against the hosting Cancer new Moon cycle we see great sensitivity being applied to partnership interest and environmental interest as well as social elitist injustice. Much inspirational energy will occur during this Moon cycle. This sensitivity will allow actions and motivations meant to clean up and protect the environment through strong powerful partnership scenarios to become extremely effective because of the increased insightful nature sensitivity can lead to. The ability to hear and feel the organic cry will be very real to many, their actions and motivations far more compelling than local power authorities who are strategising to maintain control, those who disregard the environment in particular yet want control of many others, will be particularly challenged.

A conjunct between Mercury and Mars occurs in Cancer during the new Moon phase. This conjunction is opposite Pluto in Capricorn. Either cooperation or opposition occurs, a shifting between cooperation and opposition can also occur. For some it will be a showdown for others it will be a grand expediting of one's creative and inspired ideas and plans. Integrity will determine what is what here. Emotional expressiveness can go through the roof, some will speak aggressively from a very vulnerable place. Likely some important plan or accomplishment is being either supported or rejected. In a general way, and especially within families, concerns in the past kept quite come out with a cry or a laugh. Many will be surprised as to what is finally made clear to them. It is not just in what is said either, it is the emotional impulsive spontaneous outburst which really gets going and serves as a change within the boundary of some typical family or social dynamic. The boundary can apply to just about anything, for example a boundary which delineates an idea, a plan, a social system, an accepted way of doing things, or a boundary which defines or sets up a group, a system for groups. Pluto's transit through Capricorn began 2008 and goes to 2024 and so it's indications have become an era type experience for humanity. As such this is a time of great changes to how shared systems are created and sustained. This Pluto transit indicates a time where many systems will be destroyed and new systems will be created to replace them. This transit will empower Saturn which in the ruling planet of Capricorn which recently returned to Scorpio and is completing a two year transit in Scorpio. This can be seen to indicate revolutions in money systems and economic systems. Hidden financial arrangements and dealings are most certainly going through revolutionary types of experiences and challenges and this may explain some absurd things that are occurring as the whole story is not being told. Authorities who have been keeping this covered will for example be challenged to maintain control, their ability to do so again a by-product of their integrity. The current opposition to Pluto by the Mars Mercury conjunction in Cancer will have many being expressive as they respond to their sensitivity and challenge these changes to shared social systems which don't seem to make sense to them. In some cases more of the story will be revealed to the public yet it is up to the general public to be willing to accept truths which will be outside typical understandings they have been accustomed too. In the months to come Virgo will become more prominent, a critical mind with the general populations will gradually ramp up and no doubt challenge the explanations which are clearly not the whole story. Pallas Athena in Sagittarius is also connected to the Pluto and Mars Mercury alignment. Pallas Athena in Sagittarius indicates an inventive practical effective mind for dealing with and expediting issues where actions are needed immediately. Pallas Athena represents good decisions in groups where diplomacy wins and everybody benefits. In this case Sagittarius represents actions as opposed to words alone. Pallas Athena is in quincunx with the Mars Mercury conjunction in Cancer. Powerful words come up spontaneously and convey ideas and methods where real action and real effectiveness can be felt. These actions will be important as they are needed in order to deal with the Pluto Capricorn effect which is revolutionizing global shared systems. Pluto in Capricorn is not only correcting manmade systems which affect the planet Pluto also indicates massive changes to the environment where the Earth is repairing herself. This can shed some light on the environmental changes. Changes in the weather can be attributed as well to Neptune and Chiron both in Pisces. These alignments indicate a merging or removal of boundaries which were interfering with humanities compassion connection with all things. As in the belief "thought creates" thought en masse pools together, the winds and storms we experience as such are echoes and reflections of humanities thoughts moving together with the false boundary the ego thinks is real, in other words weather is a direct result of the harmonizing or the balancing of human thought. In truth there are no boundaries and this is what the weather shows us.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Cancer the focus will be on nurturing, inspired creative expression, and domestic related concerns. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing one's own emotional sensitivity and the nurturing and creative impulse which goes along with heightened sensitivity. Accepting emotional experiences as a valid source of truth, a deep rich self awareness becomes available. An evolution of self awareness occurs as influences and beliefs are known as choices and are thus examined from the perspective as to how feelings are handed over to logic. Those born under the Sun sign Cancer have a natural propensity to emotional sensitivity and deep felt sharing. They naturally resonate with the feelings which underline the self esteem of others. Not to exclude others as we all have Cancerian energy somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience an amplified emotional sensitivity. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the nature of their sensitivity and how this sensitivity can lead to insightful truth. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I connect with emotional sensitivity and insight by...

Gemini: trusting my physical senses as they always gives me immediate truth.

Taurus: noticing and valuing how I feel when I communicate with others.

Aries: realizing that my feelings are showing me who I believe I am.

Pisces: allowing myself to expressive my creative impulses.

Aquarius: being responsible for how I feel and allowing this sense of responsibility to ensure perfect health.

Capricorn: valuing my partnerships and allowing them to lead me to my own nurturing impulse.

Sagittarius: accepting and valuing the rebirth of self awareness which comes from my harmonious partnership experiences.

Scorpio: allowing myself to travel into new areas and by taking on fresh new experiences.

Libra: feeling my value to the public through my work and career.

Virgo: feeling the family like relationship I have with all others.

Leo: feeling the nurturing impulse of Earth and acknowledging natural organic awareness.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Wednesday July 15th - new Moon in Cancer 9:25 PM EST

Lots of creativity is available here at the new Moon. An ability to navigate emotional sensitivity will be required as well as the willingness to explore one's vulnerability. Doing so will vastly increase the reach of creative ideas and expression. This increase in emotional energy can also play out, or vent, through home family and domestic issues. Challenges from authorities can also occur and yet the reality is these authority forces are in many cases experiencing increased turmoil, in some instances it may be a good idea to lay back and avoid too much direct interaction? There are people who are used to being in charge who are now in a state of panic. The self-motivated individual who is finding their way into more partnership situations these days is likely having a very time, great experiences, and yet it is a time very challenging. This Moon cycle will continue with such wonderful experiences and challenges. There is a beginning shift toward being discerning and to start to prioritize certain things and to even call an end to nutty craziness which is not seeming to lead anywhere. This discernment will be more important to some because it will have to do with their health. The idea is to not become too involved in things which are really the business of others, even if invited there is caution here. What an individual can ask themselves if they are indeed involved in things which are not really the best for them is this "What would I be doing otherwise?". Activities which are seen to be distractions from other things which are being avoided will begin to fail away and be removed, this will become increasingly noticeable in the following Moon cycles as well. For now there is a surge in sensitivity and this will likely cause many to experience the identity, as in social or relationship identity, they have adopted for themselves.

02 Thursday July 16th - Moon enters Leo 10:16 AM

How important does one need to be in order to bring forward their original idea? The idea of notoriety may distort the potential of the individual if the individual is overly concerned about what others think. Hearing others go on about some specific individual may have colored one's past and unknowingly the degree to which an individual believes they must seek approval in order to be themselves is perhaps unfortunately ingrained. Of course this is perhaps an exaggeration yet the slight degree of its existence in the individual's psyche can affect their emotional reaction now. The success of an individual is less real if there is external validation involved, the true successful individual will allow their notoriety to be the by-product of their dedication and integrity. If one is not willing to be anonymous with their interest then they may have some residue, with some "who do I think I am", stuck in their deeper inner caverns. Powerful ideas nevertheless are being explored right now and it is this which occurs through the spontaneous impulsive self. Sometimes a need to prove oneself can lead to an individual finally getting brave yet the need to prove oneself will eventually need to be looked at and resolved no matter how useful it was at some specific point. Sensitivity and emotional vulnerability needs a platform of self-acceptance to exist and it is this platform, this foundation, which the individual is poised to discover.

03 Saturday July 18th - Moon enters Virgo 8:48 PM

Am I too picky? Or perhaps someone else? If pickiness is an issue then hold on because starting August 11th and extending for one year Jupiter will be in Virgo and many who tend to be high on critical analysis ordinarily could be extra high. In the meantime as the Moon transits Virgo we may want to embrace the benefits of being more critical than usual, say calling out frivolous time-wasting ideas. Emotional reaction right now may be related to being involved in things which are interfering with more important things. An ability to prioritize will assist whenever Virgo is involved, and here with the Moon in Virgo the need to prioritize will likely feel more urgent. Questioning the logic of others, or self can occur. The ability to stay on the point is also big right now as the networking of ideas may be important in organizing teams and group agendas. Venus is making a Virgo ingress indicating the critical nature of self and others is acceptable and quite enduring yet Venus will retrograde and be back in Leo starting in August. Venus goes retrograde on July 25th. Mercury and Mars both in Cancer as well as the Sun, communication and questioning ideas and being big on logic with directness and passion, and with more emotion than typical. This can be a good time to bring the message forward which has been locked away as the feeling and impulsive nature will allow the truth to be displayed in a dynamic yet spontaneous way. Remember we are living our integrity!

04 Tuesday July 21st - Moon enters Libra 9:24 AM

Sun ingress Leo Wednesday July 22 11:32 PM

Some become assertive with a controlling boundary, likely the return of a past unfinished dynamic. Embracing partnership as opposed to doing everything alone could have become more favorable in the last year or so and yet today it may be questioned? The idea that others involved in things and decisions typically handled solo in the past may be questioned as it seems some tasks are better handled alone. When self questioning concerns doing things alone verges doing them with others it is the partnership route which is likely the one which leads to special discovery. Some may be looking at themselves from the perspective of being in relationships or groups and defining their identity from this perspective. Who would they be without their friends or colleagues or partners? Exploring one's emotional sensitivity and vulnerability while managing shared dynamics has the individual coming to terms with the identity they assume themselves to be in these relationships. Emotional expression may be spontaneous, an impulsive reaction, and quite valuable as it shows the truth about self and their dynamic with another. Ideally the individual allows these observations to reveal the parallels between themselves and others and notices how these correlations evolve to increased value and also yield a greater meaning to their relationship.

05 Thursday July 23rd - Moon enters Scorpio 10:08 PM

Venus retrograde Saturday July 25th 5:30 AM

Uranus retrograde Sunday July 26th 6:39 AM

Currently an exaggerated self confidence affects the words of some. This while the Moon transiting Scorpio can trigger issues related to sensual expression and experiences. Understanding one's sensitivity and vulnerability may be assisted by allowing oneself to enjoy the deeper feelings of simple following one's passion and urges. There is a sensual aspect to humanity and understanding the role of this characteristic can be advantageous in increasing one's awareness. Our sensual aspect gives us an innate intelligence or advanced awareness, our body knows what is going on. The recovery of one's sovereignty in terms of this sensual integrity will occur for some. This recovery may correlate for example with the exposure of those who have controlled or abused this organic force. Saturn has recently returned to Scorpio and as such the rules people or cultures have made for our sensual expression is being exposed and where appropriate restated. The sensitivity associated with Cancer energy turns to joyful expression and fun, playfulness when it is focused on sensual expression and sensual sharing. The matter of simple being allowed to express one's passions can have a much deeper affect on self and those who are in witness to such expression as it can unlock ancient memory carried in the body. An innocent expression which may have been shunned for example can make a return. New rules for sensual expression are formulating.

06 Sunday July 26th - Moon enters Sagittarius 8:26 AM

Things intended to be worked on or taken care of may become more important now or become more demanding insisting they be looked at. An urge to service a responsibility that benefits one's professional reputation can occur. This can be a good time to improve one's professional position yet it must be understood it is one step at a time. It may be important for an individual to come to terms with the manner in which they are received by the public. A degree of confusion in regard to how one is admired by others may have to be reconsidered. For example a response to one's public or professional effort may differ from what was expected. Ideally the individual will focus on specific responsibilities and be less concerned about what others are thinking. Revelations may spring from unexpected public reactions, such experiences can cause an individual to seek increased clarity. Also a need to go back and review one's identity or to review their notable character or qualities can happen. A willingness to correct or improve is favorable supported if the individual is able to avoid becoming involved in the affairs of others and instead focus on their own things. The biggest dynamic is the need for the individual to become increasingly clear about their self respect and the correlating publicly identity they have formulated. Is it being supported by the individual or echoed by the public as assumed? An ability to sort out what is important as related to self respect will bring the individual ultimately to a place of accepting their public experience with increasing awareness.

07 Tuesday July 28th - Moon enters Capricorn 2:49 PM

Partnership dynamics may trigger concern or panic. Spontaneous expressions triggered by sensitivity and vulnerability may well be indicating concerns about the unpredictable nature of current public systems, like professional challenges economic changes transportation challenges challenges with changing regulations governing social services, as examples. These changing social dynamics have been going on for awhile, eventually an individual will show cracks in their sense of feeling safe. Outbursts of concern may occur now or anything during this Moon cycle. Some may feel the pain of an unpredictable future related to their security, especially if that security was dependant on social systems or services. Ideally the individual will discover they have been allowing themselves to be defined as a victim and will use the current impulse energy to move toward self responsibility and personal sovereignty. Once the individual is able to be objective and calm they will see how others are experiencing perhaps somewhat similar concerns in their situations, it is possible that panic is wide spread right now in some communities. The square between Jupiter and Saturn is forming, there will most likely be those who are a little too carefree in their outlook relative to those who believe in authority figures who enforce rules boundaries and control. Ideally the individual will discover how self acceptance and being responsible for what occurs to them, no matter what it is, is delivering new understandings as to the nature of how energy is shared. New personal identities may be forming.

08 Thursday July 30th - Moon enters Aquarius 5:41 PM

Full Moon Friday July 31st 6:44 AM

A shocking truth concerning how one fits in socially may occur. Actually who's to say this is a truth as it is only a truth relative to the individual's belief or social paradigm assumed to be real. As such this can be an ideal time to bust paradigms which over value elitism or are enamored with "who's who". Some individual's will need to be free from some constraint as they may have recently become increasingly grand in their self assessment. It's as if the creative expression one is able to boldly put forward states or implies their current self confidence. The ability however for this bold expression to harmonize and become part of the social picture will require the receptivity of others. As long as the individual is not dependant on external validation all will be well and the individual can ride this new territory, their increasing self confidence, while become increasingly creative in their expression. As a square between Jupiter and Saturn forms a show down between new found stardom and control over mutual interests can occur. The need to maintain control by some big authorities can for example attempt to impend the rising star of another.

09 Saturday August 1st - Moon enters Pisces 6:37 PM

Saturn direct in Scorpio Sunday August 2nd 1:54 AM

Jupiter Square Saturn Monday August 3rd 6:37 AM

An opportunity to discover the power of how fantasy lends credence to self esteem is available as the Moon transits Pisces. Connection between an individuals self esteem and a version of reality, possible their delusion or fantasy, is observable as such individuals become overwhelming in confidence while implying their specific reality. Specifically the aware individual will see the degree to which another's paradigm, or perhaps their own, is not so absolute, cracks may begin to show. This awareness can fuel one's own growing creative power as well as an understanding of what is real begins to extend itself in other worlds. The urge to express ones self relative to their self confidence may parallel this discovery or perhaps just the raw need to experience one's feeling of being notable will empower them. The draw toward personal significance like a spiritual calling can potentially be felt by some during this Moon in Pisces transit yet the individual may be called to admit that the qualification is due to an acceptance of an assumption or delusion. Since the Moon begins this transit with an opposition to Venus in Virgo a dynamic can exist, possible a relationship, where the individual is being critical in a way which frees them from a self consuming assumption, again the assumption can be connected with a partnership.

10 Monday August 3rd - Moon enters Aries 7:25 PM

Responding to one's sensitivity reveals beliefs about oneself the individual may not have realized. Or at least may not have realized the degree to which their beliefs are echoed in typical events which make up ones day. A spontaneous emotional out burst may occur. A strong impulsive urge to stick up for one's independence can occur causing some to demonstrate and act out their sovereignty. Aggressive actions may indicate immaturity where a lack of being responsible for oneself comes full circle. This can also be a time where some can make significant changes in how they do their job, there is a big opportunity to act in a very creative and spontaneous way. The ongoing expansion of independent self importance is again high and there will be those who act as if they are really something. Ideally individuals will understand their position from the perspective of being responsible for what they draw to themselves and what they create. Doing so will avoid the trapping of seeking or counting on being validated by others. There will no doubt be those who are picked out of the bigger crowd and held up as if they are inspiration and important and be quite disinterested in being honored in an exaggerated way. There will also be those who want this big time and may even jump the gun expecting one type of attention yet getting another.

11 Wednesday August 5th - Moon enters Taurus 9:30 PM

Mercury ingress Virgo Friday August 7th 7:33 PM

An ability to translate ones self confidence to their social experience will bring an added sense of security comfort. The effect one has on others socially can also be connected to the quality of one's own self acceptance. Specifically it is how one accepts their sensitivity and vulnerability and how this characteristic either supports their security and sense of comfort or how it challenges this. A powerful connection between self admiration and accepting the dramatic social changes is also in play now as the Moon transits Taurus. The need to feel safe is high or exaggerated for some now. Their motivation as they connect confidently with the power of self confidence to guide and bring change on a much grander community level may well be triggered by issues involving personal and community safety. This could also be referred to as feeling grounded, stability around social situations is the high light here. For example where one's self confidence has them appearing at times bold this self confidence, if it is somewhat artificial, will be unsettled, or cause one to feel unsafe in some way. Issues involving home can also be the target which this energy takes as those who feel it is important to prioritize home and domestic concerns must deal with a rather radical public situation, as it so happens to be tied into the self importance of some specific others. The idea right now is to look for ways to increase ones security safety and comfort by bringing things into greater simplicity.

12 Saturday August 8th - Moon enters Gemini 1:41 AM

Mars ingress Leo Saturday August 8th 7:33 PM

An extra dose of boldness can cause some hidden thing to be revealed. A favorable way or perceiving oneself or being self enamored, complete with an assumed social identity, may well be in it's final expression. The Virgo ingress of Jupiter on August 11th will affect how some have come to know and think about themselves over the last year. The things some say may be connected to the rapid expansion of self admiration which has occurred over the last year. The revealing of hidden control over the last year or two has caused a stir which returns, a final word in what is hopefully an ending to a deceptive dark time. The thoughts and ideas behind such may return and an assertive force makes a final effort to recovery lost reputation yet the damage is likely too severe. As a lighter interpretation - a forceful step toward a generous planed agenda can also ride this same wave of energy bringing balance and harmony in a rich comforting way. It may be a little bit more difficult to communicate right now as the very thought or idea of some specific thing can cause one to react. One need merely look at their belief and allow their emotional reaction to be the measure of the significance they have applied to the need to have either their word or idea supported and they can finally be free from an ongoing limitation. If things being said now are indeed difficult a few days may make the difference and it may be a plan to just wait it out.

13 Monday August 10th - Moon enters Cancer 8:09 AM

Jupiter ingress Virgo Tuesday August 11th 7:12 AM

The Moon returns to Cancer and once again amplifies the sensitivity of some. Mars now in Leo will reduce the external expression of one's sensitivity yet by no means are external expressions of one's vulnerability excluded. What has been triggering many recently (February 18th 2014 to November 12th 2015) is the need to be independent at the risk of accepting a shared partnership experience. Domestic family relationship may have become the focus during this Cancer Moon cycle. The manner in which sensitivity and nurturing are expressed has possible been exaggerated during this cycle. This added sensitivity may be directed to the ideal identity an individual may have for themselves, either one they believe they have already achieved or a target they aim for. Either way seeking external validation if not recognized will be felt. In terms of partnership an ability to nurture and support each other in terms of evolving self acceptance is the good road. There are four significant heavenly bodies in Leo now, Mars, Sun, Venus, and Jupiter, indicating the exaggerated self confidence. Jupiter being square to Saturn in Scorpio indicates possible interactions between big new self admiration ideas verses practical challenges involving control and boundaries. The added sensitivity characteristic of this current Moon cycle and this current Moon in Cancer ingress will give many the extra edge in discovering the beliefs which can cause an individual to overly value external validation and as such turn away or resolve such distraction.

14 Wednesday August 12th - Moon enters Leo 4:53 PM

This lunar ingress can be the beginning of a time when individuals look for the realism and practicality associated with their recently expanded self esteem. And in some of these cases the recently expanded self esteem was a bubble complete with burst. However the reality of understanding one's self admiration and making it work for them in a positive nice harmonious way will be in the ability to find the real world foundation in which this self confidence can be secure. The act of proving oneself can trigger bold actions, an individual will go after the recognition they feel they are wanting. Also there will be those who are less needy in terms of recognition who will instead simple express their confidence in their own unique way and in some of these cases they will prove to be an inspiration to others. Inspiration as the by-product of one's commitment to task and the demonstration of integrity will also be increasing or will continue to increase. The added need to map our reasonable realistic methods for sticking to commitments will become more the norm. This increase in seeking realism will have the interesting affect of identifying what will be seen as frivolous delusional ideas and plans of self or others. Interesting all ideas can be considered delusional from the aspect or awareness that all is energy so this is a matter of understanding why we need certain things to be real as opposed to what is real.

Next new Moon is in Leo Friday August 14th 10:55 AM EST

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
