Overview

New Moon in Libra

Monday October 12th 8:07 PM EST

It may seem as if an ongoing partnership was the result of some poor logic or miss calculation. Some previous reasoning is why a permanent partnership was created? If such feels even remotely true the individual is caught in some perhaps fantasy or delusional version of reality, something is not quite as absolute as initially assumed. The individual will begin to see some belief as not as real and thus the correlating logic which qualified their partnership in the past no longer works. A new clarity is possible as Mercury, now direct, sits on the Moon's north node in Libra. The Sun moves into opposition with Uranus in Aries and the dynamic between social freedom and one's partnership may set up unexpected events. A demand for social or public rights either is supported or resisted by a personal partnership. Most likely situations involving others will be recalculated, critically considered, as the individual wants to be free from the pain of being repressed yet wants to be engaged in a partnership which makes sense and feels great. Some partnerships may become publicly active as their ability to get clarity translates to actions which are specifically focused and publicly effective. The way in which a good partnership can positively affect one's business or professional life may also be affected depending on the individuals ambitions. Whatever event the relating individuals find themselves involved in the potential for effective results looks good, especially if they are willing to accept each other and form an alliance based on positive energy and spontaneity.

Figuring out how to make a partnership relationship work can get complicated real fast yet when one is simply willing to go along for the ride things can happen in a wonderful way. It's like getting out of one's own way and trusting in a bigger self beyond the ego. The challenge of going it alone verses teaming up may have been positioned alone one's path in the last year or so. During this Libra Moon cycle the way or method to manage dynamics related to doing things on one's own or with another is finally chosen. Ideally individuals will find that being free and working in a harmonious partnership are connected, both occur through a common endeavor. It's like two people each doing what they enjoy and at the same time being mutually supportive. The Moon's journey through the signs beginning at the new Moon will flesh out issues complete with feelings related to the evolution of creating valuable harmonious partnerships. Those who have defined partnership in terms of logic which springs from a world of separation will be particularly challenged. An ignorance of other energetic realms or an obliviousness to the power of congruent thought may have lead some individual into believing that partnerships are prioritized by the ego's understanding and needs alone. There is a challenge going on between the individual and the acceptance of how that individual draws their own mode of energy to them which is currently playing out. In the most challenging situations an individual will act as if they have nothing to do with some relationship dynamic which of course is denial. To be able to accept it all as one's own creation is a very powerful thing and can begin in through attitude and acceptance of a fondness for some specific partnership. Those who can simple agree with themselves that the qualities they are most emotionally triggered by as seemingly coming from their partner during interactions with them are really about themselves can begin to decode unlock and reveal their own hidden assumptions leading to tremendous personal value.

Happiness and power are related to healthy partnerships. The manner to which this is so can be revealed to the individual during this Moon cycle at their insistence, or by their intention for clarity regarding this connection. It may also be seen that subtle power is effective power. Partnerships which are embraced and functioning well have created for themselves, each individual involved, a point of reference outside themselves which they can relate to well beyond the limitations of typical logic. Sharing wealth can become a functional method of maintaining or acquiring security and power. When happiness and power merge judgment is left out as the very nature of real power is acceptance. Acceptance within a partnership is an ideal mechanism for achieving power and yet there is a nonchalant and even anonymous quality to it. Outcomes which are indicative of increased power can perhaps be qualified as the by-product of integrity. The expansive quality of integrity will rise throughout this Moon cycle and during coming Moon cycles as individuals become focused and inspired to be increasingly specific to their responsibilities and be less distracted by the calls of others outside their qualification of partnership. Partnership relations differ in that the partnership issue is in some manner a shared issue. What is significant to the individual whether it involves a partnership or not is known to the individual because of the way in which it is injected into one's life. These real concerns will have an emotional impact which causes them to be important and thus prioritized. Ignoring these real issues can eventually lead to issues involving health. Health issues in turn cause one to reprioritize their involvements. Again power here refers to acceptance. Self acceptance may be expanding into partnership acceptance. Acceptance within a partnership can cause a simplification where one's mind is eased and less distracted, which in turn leads to a natural sense of congruency. Partnerships can be as such avenues for simplicity and increased personal energy. In simple ways partnerships which have big cooperation are stronger in their foundational security, things start to happen because relationship steadiness. Energy typically used to maintain say denial or blame and projection is not prone to be naturally flowing, whereas acceptance makes for congruent expansion increasing vision and harmony.

At the new Moon Mercury is conjunct the Moon's north node in Libra. A clear mind is right there for those who are enjoying their relationship dynamics. An ability for example to communicate clearly occurs when the individuals involved are prioritizing what they are planning to do together. Boundaries of allowable rationalizing are setup and called into view as indicated by Venus in Virgo square to Saturn in Sagittarius. The grace and style of clean living and clear focus may not be as well understood by some than others causing some to see the agenda of another in a new light. Optimistic ideas however are on the rise fueled by an expanding enthusiasm. Some logical take may be prompted as the result of recent social changes to public systems and community mechanisms. These idea may be growing faster than normal as a need to review one's logic is perhaps a good idea. A need to understand the emotional tides coming from other portions of the world may be important as it is becoming increasingly aware that no people are sperate from each other and their pain is being know and felt more commonly these days. We have cultural relationships and these too are being sorted out as many are unable to lmit their feelings to their local community alone. The shrinking world is bring the pain of others to our more immediate notice. Challenges between being an independent thinker verses including the thoughts of others occurs, the individual in such a case is assisted when aware that we are not our mind but have a mind. The thoughts of others are their choice, what we have in common with them is that we too have free choice. It is perhaps this the individual is challenged to be aware of as opposed to the specific idea of itself. Some may discover through the course of this Moon cycle that their connection to their independence is old fashioned and could use a little upgrade. In this regard it may be safe to accept some thinking which implies the signficence of others in our life.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as oppotunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Libra the focus will be on trusting and valuing spontaneous harmony with another. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of recognizing remembering and choosing harmony with another spontaneously in the moment. Such experience supports powerful relationships which resonate toward balance and harmony in all portions of life. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of harmony and balance is noticed and valued. Those born under the Sun sign Libra have a natural propensity to harmony and balance. Not to exclude others as we all have Libra somewhere in our personal astrology charts. Here is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience a cherishing of harmony in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward spontaneous harmony of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience harmony with others by...

Virgo: paying attention to the security and comfort my relationships allow me to experience.

Leo: how I choose to communicate and share ideas.

Cancer: understanding how my feelings about relationship experiences imply self definition.

Gemini: enjoying a spontaneous moment with another.

Taurus: being self responsible in my relating experiences.

Aries: trusting and responding within the spontaneous moment with another.

Pisces: allowing my partnerships to lead me somewhere special.

Aquarius: discovering how joy of sharing with another leads me to an expanded awareness.

Capricorn: enjoying my work and experiencing the spontaneous sharing I experience with the public.

Sagittarius: being connected and conversational when interacting socially.

Scorpio: knowing and accepting that the quality of harmony I experience is in resonance with a vast social network.

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Monday October 12th 8:07 PM EST - new Moon in Libra

Public and social changes are occurring at a regular rate and in many cases challenging individuals to stand up for themselves. Partnerships are important as they offer an opportunity to deal with and in some cases benefit from the big public changes which are occurring. This Libra Moon cycle offers an opportunity for many individual's to connect with the value of their current or newly formed partnership. Breaking free from isolation by trusting in a partnership occurs by being able to see and accept aspects of oneself that are noticed in our partners. This manner of understanding ourselves is in accordance with the acceptance that people attract others through an energetic symmetry. As an extension of this partnerships are seen as more than mere fluke or random outcomes caused by inconsequential things. Instead the partner we share our life happiness and important concerns with are connected to us on energetic levels beyond typical logical awareness. When we can accept that all is energy, all is consciousness, and that our mind plays a rather giant role in how energy is experienced and affected, we can begin to get a glimpse at how our partnership is of great value to us as it reveals to us a point of reverence outside conventional logical awareness. This awareness will come forward through our feelings and our vulnerabilities. There is a juiciness to this type of truth as this rich feeling we experience is a clue that something has a big dynamic energetically. This Libra Moon cycle is marked with opportunity, it is the last complete Moon cycle where the value of partnership compared to aggressive solo effort is being challenged and revealed. Relationship and partnership are valued because of our ability to accept ourselves. Our emotional reactions are as such the gateway to freedom in the sense that we, as sensual feeling beings, are beyond limitation of ego logic. We can discover important things about ourselves by accepting what our partnerships cause us to feel and experience.

02 Tuesday October 13th - Moon enters Scorpio 5:39 PM

A matter of who controls what may be a priority today. Exactly what is shared property and what is owned independently may be considered or discussed. The importance of being self responsible and independent can come up in some partnership consideration. Allowing oneself to participate in a partnership can require an acceptance of the independent nature of another. This independence may be most obvious when it comes to personal property and shared property. Some simply need to feel appreciated within the context of the relationship. A panic over resources and being in control of one's own security can be a reminder of the value of good communication. A reconsidering of what one should do in order to be responsible for oneself can occur or may be what is triggering some conversation and concern. A lengthy concern regarding power and control in a partnership may have recently concluded and now a new look at some different sort of partnership issues comes forward. Good communication can be the key to expediting shared goals. A caution regarding plans as to how a partnership can expand business potential may be appropriate as a rise in optimism can speed into unverified notions. An ability to stretch and see beyond typical mechanics of getting involved economically with the public is good and supported right now and yet it is also good to see all the angles and make sure some important fact is not left out. This is a good time for partners to find agreement before proceeding.

03 Friday October 16th - Moon enters Sagittarius 4:19 AM

A feeling that something is moving too fast or that someone is going to fast with their inspired idea may be well justified. Although there is a huge expansion of some idea right now, some logic, it is cautioned that the individual be clear that they have got all the facts. The priority may have to be discussed with a partner as a blinding optimism can exist and carry an individual too far into an effectively non-real world. That being said this expansion of rationalization can also be extremely valuable as new ideas are possible and older ideas which may have stalled in the past can be reinvented as there is a new territory of possibility opening up. Getting something to move at the right time may be the biggest challenge. A possible distraction can occur as some prioritize public reputation and image as opposed to an actual plan as this can curve communications away from the real goal of creating mutually valuable success. Getting a flurry of new ideas to work in the context of the overall plan may also be the bigger challenge. It is perhaps good for some individuals to be selective as to how they speak to others in that their words and ideas remain appropriate to the cause while making sure they are well received by those who are important to their agenda.

04 Sunday October 18th - Moon enters Capricorn 2:53 PM

Boundaries can become quite important to some. The need for boundary will perhaps help one feel their panic can be lessened. Regardless the quality of one's ability to stay focused on what is really important occurs, decisions are made which are prudent and intended to protect one's trusted partnership. Questioning the quality of purpose of others can also cause one to feel they need boundaries or some type of assurance that they are not being used or tricked. Either way a need to identify what is trustworthy and what is not seems to feel more urgent right now. A need to know that one's professional future is on track can also affect how one feels right now and again some decision regarding boundaries are reviewed and acted upon. For some it may feel that it is about professional survival and will possibly be connected to how one feels about their professional and public reputation. A massive changing landscape is occurring in the external world, the professional world and the social world both greatly affected. This has been going on for several years and will continue for a few more. However for now as the Moon transits Capricorn the sense that one needs to be clear and more serious than usually can cause them to be quite realistic about what is acceptable and reasonable in the shared public world. Decisions may be made which are intended to secure trust and honesty as this is truly the best way to allow one's integrity to guide them harmoniously into the future. Obvious bad behavior may be called out.

05 Tuesday October 20th - Moon enters Aquarius 9:39 PM

The freedom for the individual which healthy partnerships support and facilitate may be behind feelings which occur during this Aquarius Moon transit. These feelings may be enjoyable and playful as the individual is truly experiencing a freedom due to relationship acceptance, or could be feelings of sadness if there is a lack of relationship harmony. A need to reformulate the methods by which partnerships find success, most certainly including business type partnerships, can for example benefit from the harmony they have created for themselves in their partnerships. A restructuring may be occurring, a partnership may want to apply an upgraded or inspired new logic to take advantage of current changes. An ability to accept that certain things are gone, are now history, will assist in realizing it is indeed time to move forward. Some social situation may have been affected and some social relationships are either changing or gone as well. Also new social opportunities are either here or coming. Accepting all this change is very good especially if you are in a partnership which is accepting things together. A theme which may be hot during this Moon in Aquarius transit is the current fad to demand social rights and freedoms. Feelings of being apart of an important social inclusion of some sort may be the vehicle where by an individual feels their right to existence by some god force as opposed to being defined by a localized human culture. This is a good time to see beyond collapsing elitism and to feel it's okay to smile.

06 Friday October 23rd - Moon enters Pisces 1:19 AM

Sun ingress Scorpio Friday October 23rd 1:48 PM

The combination of loving transition and accepting partnership values can create special things. Transition referring to the massive changes humanity is experiencing as the way things function on community levels, social and public systems, are changing or are in need of change. These public things need to change or they will collapse. Accepting partnership refers to the way in which our partner reflects or complements our own beliefs and the way we manipulate energy. All is energy, how Pisces is that? The boundless Pisces is very real and we live within an ever vast ocean of consciousness, Pisces knows no boundary as in truth there is no boundary. The need for boundary however is real in terms of creating a specific reality, in other words all realities are created by intention or opinion. We however as serious humans take boundaries, or shall we say Saturn, very seriously. Pisces is present regardless of the extent of our awareness of Creation's vastness. The need to be without boundary is important yet must be kept in perspective as it is not appropriate for the well being of a human to be in boundless Pisces all the time. The need for music or artistic expression, fantasy, is directly related to this. We however are challenged to keep this in a functional perspective. The Moon's transit through Pisces may cause some to give in a little and realize that boundaries are necessary they are also, on the bigger vaster scope of existence, artificial.

07 Sunday October 25th - Moon enters Aries 2:23 AM

Some social dynamic may cause someone to take sudden action they typically would not. It may be important for some to pay attention to their impulses and intend harmony within their relationships as they take spontaneous actions. Analytical warriors can appear and act contradictory to relationship needs. Its also possible courageous actions complement agreeable ideas within a partnership. Either way analytical focus sharpens and brings out specifics. The manner in which a partnership situation supports the independent nature and uniqueness of each individual involved allows the partnership to evolve foundation and security for those involved. This concept however may be difficult to grasp, yet as the Moon transits Aries hints of this truth will impinge beliefs which block this awareness. The individual can experience this as emotional reactions related to their ability to take courageous action, as in hesitation caused by a lack in trust of their impulsive self. The mind of many may be wrestling with details and exaggerated rationalization yet the truth is simple, people attract each other in terms of their core beliefs and so ideally the individual, without judgment, will see themselves in others. This is why acceptance is such a powerful awakening methodology.

08 Tuesday October 27th - Moon enters Taurus 2:08 AM

Full Moon in Taurus Tuesday October 27th 8:06 AM

Feeling safe in terms of economic security can be more important than usual. Great partnerships lead to security, the security one feels now will indicate freedom to be oneself and the acceptance of this in another. Likewise if there is a concern about security it may be connected to the lack of acceptance of another. Steadiness in other words can seem to be the outcome of being oneself while participating in a partnership. This steadiness, this security, will be a dynamic thing in that it is a steadiness which feels like strength and power. Again power comes from actions which are in accord with a partnership. Things which would tend to reduce or subtract from this partnership steadiness and power would be an incessant need for a single individual to gain control of another, specifically control over shared resources. This can occur if one is unable to prioritize their actions as resulting from too many ideas which are not congruent within the harmony of a partnership. Being analytical and critical can be exaggerated now as indicated by the increased focus on Virgo. The ability to see oneself as one who is clear with their responsibilities and who is not so enticed by dreams and ideas which seem boundless will assist in keeping ones energy prioritized. Seeking harmony in a partnership can be more beneficial for many right now as opposed to being independently secure.

09 Thursday October 29th - Moon enters Gemini 2:25 AM

Some may become warrior like as if they are filled with courageous power. Others may seem to speak for you or you may speak for others as if we are connected in an energetic way. Ideas are paralleled giving the individual an opportunity to witness how relationship involves an echoing of thought. Some big, really big, idea can hit the mind and a word is given. The overly talkative can trigger emotional reactions in others who prefer less is said or who are simply not onboard with the enthusiasm. A need to talk about shared resources can occur. The position of Saturn in Sagittarius indicates a feeling that the words being said must be limited to what is doable. Communication outside prioritized activity is not preferred. A sensitivity to the new idea of others can lead to either a discovery of new things or a rejection of things outside one's typical thought. Some may be enamored by their ideas however these ideas may not be easily accepted by others. Ideally the individual will continue to discover and develop their inspired ideas until they find the sweet spot where others are supported and harmonized within it's presence.

10 Saturday October 31st - Moon enters Cancer 5:10 AM

Mercury ingress Scorpio Sunday November 2nd 2:07 AM

Criticalness rises as does sensitivity. A self defining urge may be related to public value as in being notable for one's professional ability. Some may be inspired to get to the bottom of something which is connected to a partnership. As sensitivity rises a need to own one's own manifestation is called for, an ability to remain impeccable objective allows deep insights to occur. Allowing logic to be the by-product of one's intuitive or innate knowing reveals greater truth. This is a good time to reaffirm the idea that one is not their mind yet they have a mind. Being trapped in logic can limit an individuals experiences of joyful living and expanded insight. This rationalizing as applied to comprehending relationships will most likely limit a potentially deeper insight. On the other hand accepting a situation for what it allows one to experience is a simple magical truth which sets a trapped mind free. The sensitivity which some experience now can be an asset when applied to discovering what is important to them in regards to following their intention to be of value to the public.

11 Monday November 2nd - Moon enters Leo 10:49 AM

Being known and seen in a good light socially is supported by a trusting partnership. With Mars and Venus conjunct in Virgo the self esteem of Leo will bring out personal qualities of being both specific and critical while accepting the responsible of making healthy choices. Socially confidence is linked to healthy partnership and now while the Moon transits Leo the individual has the opportunity to experience the affect of a well balanced partnership through social experiences. Being overly concerned about personal security however can affect the steadiness one feels socially. An ability to understand the power of subtle effort and intention can work well. Unknowingly an unexpected influence can occur as supported by social confidence. As typical to this entire Moon cycle sudden impulses of needing to feel free publicly or socially, or to feel no restriction to one's personal sovereignty, can suddenly erupt. The manner in which community fairness and social freedom is connected to personal relationships can be shown to the individual. The quality of one's trust in their partnership can trigger an impulsive self, either a rash destructive experience occurs or a spontaneous act of generosity occurs. Either way it will be sudden and connected to the harmony one feels in their personal relationship.

12 Wednesday November 4th - Moon enters Virgo 9:24 PM

Jupiter in Virgo quincunx Uranus in Aries Thursday November 5th 5:03 PM

After a time of getting really excited about some new ideas and plans a more cautious self appears and a second look begins. A possible angle which will come into play is the consideration of others, how others are affected by one's recent plan and analytical approach. Most certainly there is a need to be clear and specific as to what one is considering and this clarity can bring out the non-real or inappropriate factors which can distort or distract from more important intentions. Diversity may seem to be on the chopping block yet in reality the awareness of things outside the boundary of one's more specific agenda need merely to be acknowledged and allowed it's own space while the individual remains true to their unique focus. Things which must be cautioned are things which are the business of others and not really the concern of the individual, or the quality of one's own health which must be considered first. The line between being considerate toward others and not getting overly involved in the affairs of others can be rather fine yet it is the line which which must be known. This idea of being able to have practical focus while being aware of the apparent boundless world which exists outside one's own specific focus will become increasingly important for a dozen or so Moon cycles which follow this one.

13 Saturday November 7th - Moon enters Libra 10:15 AM

Venus ingress Libra Sunday November 8th 10:32 AM

A cycle which began on February 18th 2014 will finish up on November 11th which is also the next new Moon. This cycle very much affects relationships. For the past year and then some the individual has been given the opportunity to bust down some solo efforts and begin instead to trust in partnerships. For some this may have been reactivating some past issue, perhaps with new players yet the process is still the same. Big on the marquee is loneliness however this may not be the experience for everyone and yet it may well be discovering how one has been creating loneliness in combination with other things. This Libra Moon cycle and the Moon's current Libra ingress mark the last opportunity to feel and see the value of being in harmony with another. Ideally the individual will focus on what they have in common with another as opposed to what they do not. In some cases it may be best to go it alone yet going it alone is not the fix for everything, and so it is this which is the opportunity to realize and experience. If a partnership opportunity is available it may well be worth considering.

14 Monday November 9th - Moon enters Scorpio 11:04 PM

Making sure one's logic is appropriate is going to be an ongoing concern. Soon the Moon's north node will begin a Virgo Pisces transit. The ending or completion of the Aries Libra transit for the Moon's nodal axis may be a relief for many as the fleshing out of aggressive independent behavior will begin to lessen however the presence of Uranus in Aries until spring of 2018 will continue to trigger social unrest related to the suppression of individual freedoms. The coming new transit of the Moon's nodal axis will begin 7:59 PM on November 11th same day as the new

New Moon Monday October 12th 8:07 PM EST*Report number 154

Moon. The fleshing out of boundless ideas will occur and give rise to much artistic expression, and yet on the more practical sense the need to be clear about one's objectives and priority will also be affected. The need to maintain focus on one's own specific agenda and business will assist them with their responsibilities. One's health can also benefit and is a good indicator as to the quality of one's priority choices. In the meantime the final moments of this current transit through Libra has brought out the value in partnership and shown the folly of being overly independent. For this to occur, the acceptance of partnership over aggressive independent nature, the individual must come to the realization that others show them things about themselves which they typically don't or refuse to see. Now that we are moving into a Virgo Pisces dynamic it will be a time of clean up where realism in terms of human or organic needs are prioritized at the expense of frivolous fantasy and non-essential make believe.
