Overview

New Moon in Sagittarius

Friday December 11th 5:30 AM EST

Rules changes plans and agendas can become the focus, for some it will be serious business. Caution is noted regarding health as health may unknowingly be included in one's intentions. One's body may shift when breaking into some new order of experience. If one feels their body needs work or special consideration in some way this is not the time to put it off. Some health care systems may get new rules and new bosses. From an individual's ego perspective they may simply be wanting to get ahead in their career yet this impetus will be merely an aspect of a grand change taking place. Many will be paying more attention to their quality of public presentation now than previously.

Instead of just waiting for disintegrating social systems to reach their absolute limit and collapse an order of control may be issued in that an inventive method is applied to such apparent inevitable outcome. A talent comes alive in some where they are able to take difficult and challenging situations and turn it into advantage. Most certainly these solutions are revolutionary in thinking however the big highlight here is the amount of individuals who can clearly benefit from such a new idea being inserted. This will most likely give cause to creative leadership. The area of concern will be effectively communicated for the most part however it is cautioned that those who are to be affected by the changes at least for the immediate effect be wise in identifying the integrity and intention behind the voices who choose to share ideas. Reminder here that these changes are somewhat necessary or well timed as something is collapsing and being destroyed regardless of this wise intervention.

The new Moon will bring forward leaders who direct actions, in some cases by directing what not to do. The analytical quality is high and it would seem superior clarity and logic will find its mark and leadership will proceed. Leadership can also be seen as the individual who leads themselves through the various activities and tasks in a discerning manner in such a way as to satisfy their sense of accomplishment. Whatever boundaries the individual decides to activate and engage they will be called to deal with the more nebulous qualities of both Neptune and Pisces. For example those who step forward as leaders may be called to deal with the superior compassionate ideal of those they hope to direct. This can as such play itself out in religious and some spiritual practices where any new rules must fit the compassionate ideals.

In recent weeks and months the individual may have come to see how shared efforts and shared resources have given them a sense of comfort which a solo effort alone could not have. There has recently been an evolution where individuals who were chronically independent are now seeing a bigger light and feeling a grand pleasure when doing this with others. It's as if the thing which needs to be done is merely the vehicle or excuse to get people together. There may be some newbies out there doing and enjoying partnership efforts and sometimes there is a learning curve to follow. A dynamic exist where an individual may make assumptions about the commitment level of another they assume is on board with them verses others at the same time who are quickly concerned about their rights and freedoms as an individual. If there seems to be a little confusion or trouble in the partnership area the individual would perhaps do well to seek to discover the ideal plan or target interest of the individual they are teaming up with and forge within their understanding a common vision. This common vision will expedite much sharing and avoid unnecessary set backs as the team works toward their common goal.

Inner steadiness which prevails as a foundational quality lends advantage to public value. Current astrological alignments indicate a need for an evolved integrity and discernment as the many fancies of the public are rendered in an order which allows the individual to focus on the task at hand. The quality of how one understands and places themselves in community will now be considered from a perspective of career relevancy. Things are changing in the public realm, these changes rubbing up against beliefs which are assumed to allow social interactions. On the bigger picture cultures are having their boundaries pierced as an impulsive desire for freedom continues to react to perceived limitations. This dynamic occurrence will ultimately prevail as an evolving and expanding respect for the beliefs of others absent of feeling threatened by cultural difference. This grand scenario plays out on many levels and is somewhat unavoidable. For the individual it is to know the quality of their own foundational beliefs as a somewhat private affair where this knowing is dependant on their actual public experiences as opposed to what their logical mind may tell them is supposed to be so. It is the dynamic quality between personal foundation and the freedom to be of value to the public which one is directed to.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Sagittarius the focus will be on activities which increase public value. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of discovering and acting upon the interconnection between apparent separate dynamics which make up daily experience. Such realizations bring forward an effortless yet dynamic interchange with our world as we intend and seek those experiences which are motivational. An evolution of self awareness occurs as connections and insights become instantaneous with our experiences. Those born under the Sun sign Sagittarius have a natural propensity to dynamic public involvement. They naturally and easily become leaders through their quick dynamic actions. Not to exclude others as we all have Sagittarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience expanded insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public commitment of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience an expansion of insight when I ...

Scorpio: accept and trust my body to show me and lead me to what is most interesting.

Libra: connect with others and share ideas with those who are immediate to my current intention.

Virgo: pay attention to how I emotionally feel about my public value.

Leo: move on my inspiration with joy and excitement.

Cancer: organize my personal responsibilities.

Gemini: allow myself to become involved in the dynamic adventure of partnership.

Taurus: allow the richness of my partnership to attract public value.

Aries: move courageously forward into new territories of social and public interaction.

Pisces: accept the leadership role which my chosen career leads me to.

Aquarius: embrace the value of social interaction.

Capricorn: allow and accept the opinion of others.

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Friday December 11th 5:30 AM EST - new Moon in Sagittarius

New career opportunities can become more realistic especially if the individual is intent on making them so. The use of well defined boundaries the acceptance of current social changes and the rise of objective clarity all facilitate better professional opportunities. For family business things can be effective as long as those involved mind the changes which are occurring to public systems and can be in step with major changes occurring to social infrastructure. An ability to balance one's desires with their structured goals will work well as this may be an appropriate time to stick strictly to a plan where an outcome or target is set. Success will be more enjoyable and profitable for those who have a natural way of valuing the smaller tasks which lead to the big finale. It is an advantage to value the journey and accept each task as it appears. There is an interesting combination of expanding common sense while at the same time wanting to be precise as to what exactly is the most correct way to proceed. There is both a serious feeling and an optimistic feeling which must be harmonized, ultimately leading one toward happiness and success. Those who find themselves taking on leadership roles may be called to accept and harmonize compassionate ideals as in religious beliefs.

02 Saturday December 12th - Moon enters Capricorn 1:48 AM

Because an individual has become determined to get moving on some plan they are now empowered by their dedication and ability to be fair with others involved. It is like riding a wave of transformation which is spontaneously navigated yet at the same time it has well been established exactly where the individual is going. A strict focus on what is happening and what is relevant also assists the individual in their critical thinking as well as an ability to stick to communicating the necessary "need to know" info. Those who have been unable to accept major changes occurring to their shared social reality can find this a rather difficult time. Another who is of good integrity may offer a solution which ultimately benefits many. Also present, someone's idea of independence challenges their partnership, it may be an indirect action yet implied is the right of the individual to act freely. This can also be done in harmony where individuals are supportive of another while clearly acting independently. It can be confusing when an individual within a partnership is assuming the actions or process of another is their own, also they may project their responsibility on another. There is a heightened situation which will either be complementary or appear as opposition. The independent versus partnership can be a personal creative desire which is contrary to social expectation by others. Interesting however is how an individual's partnership ideas are revealed in their independent actions.

03 Monday December 14th - Moon enters Aquarius 8:00 AM

A need to be respectful toward nature and the environment triggers one's sense of natural freedom as provided by the apparent greater powers of existence. Some may feel the urge to talk and share information regarding environmental issues and the protection of nature. A parental inclination may affect some as they become stronger when they dedicate themselves to causes which include assisting others, especially family members who appear to be in need of assistance. Feeling free to say what one wants or feeling one is important enough or not to be involved in certain social things can trigger emotional reactions. The "who's who" thing for example can trigger emotional reactions. Feeling confident on the other hand due to some partnership relationship which has been feeling really good lately an individual will take action based on what this partnership means to him or her. An ability to understand an emotional experience which has been resident within one's life for some time can be changing in that the individual is understanding themselves from a higher perspective and as such is growing or advancing their awareness. The big opportunity here for the individual is to understand how valuing something specific can enhance their life, give them a direction which in turn directs their focus and qualifies their clarity.

04 Wednesday December 16th - Moon enters Pisces 12:46 PM

Just when it seemed everything was manageable things get suddenly messy. A challenge may exist for some where they were doing well publicly either in their job or influencing others only to have a sense that one is unexpectedly feeling lost, emotions flooding in creating much distraction all at once. An attempt to find oneself within an ocean of feelings can cause them to become suddenly critical about their public position or public duty. A method to create clarity when things get emotionally overwhelming is to focus on how to be valuable to others though career and professional choices. This is not to deny one's emotional truth, far from it, yet to limit a possible seemingly boundless flood of feelings. Pisces, known for its no boundaries, can be confusing for an individual who is highly charged with a Sagittarius type character. With the Sun in Sagittarius and Moon in Pisces this interesting experience can be extended to many as opposed to those who were born under Pisces Moon or Sagittarius Sun. Realize also that this no boundary character of Pisces can be like a sponge and it is here where the individual may be picking up the feelings and residue of others, however there is always a legitimate reason one has attracted whatever. All said this is a good time to acknowledge the flood of feelings as there is a more than usual pull from Virgo to clear it all up. One may want to for example visualize or see themselves successful at their work, and to add to this their good health.

05 Friday December 18th - Moon enters Aries 4:27 PM

How to and how not to engage with another is the hot item here. Some ways of sharing experiences will be fun and exciting yet all ideas may not work. What can be interesting is how the individual will be quite independent with their approach and idea yet what is really sought is a shared experience. Something people can do together may be tested out. An urge to stop passing up opportunities to be involved with others may motivate some to finally say yes this time, if invited. Or they will perhaps take the plunge and ask another if they are interested in doing a particular thing together. There is ample creative energy here so some new ideas may be proposed. Again all is intended to make for a shared experience as opposed to a solo effort. Some people's heads may be overloaded, there is a potential for headaches. An assertiveness may exist with some which is not their typical way. Some important change which has been looming may now have to be dealt with. Changes in social systems and community functions may become more urgent or may for some reason occupy one's mind more predominately. Seeking out friendship may challenge one to do something which in the past they have avoided. Some may have big thoughts and powerful ideas which they are challenged to share. A powerful message may be coming.

06 Sunday December 20th - Moon enters Taurus 7:14 PM

Sun ingress Capricorn Monday December 21st 11:49 PM

A need to find solid ground, or to become grounded, can be the call as it will for some be necessary to separate their own concerns from those of others. Knowing what is absolutely solid in the most basic and simplistic way possible will help an individual reset their logic and lend objectivity to their emotional experience. Hidden desires may be affecting one's ability to take on their most basic responsibilities. The manner in which one is able to keep it simple can be linked to their current health situation especially if they have become overly concerned about their public reputation. A sensual experience can quickly change if the individual is not feeling they are safe. Or an individual in their concern for security may chase a sensual experience with another in an attempt to feel safe. Again ideally the individual will value their own health as a main priority, next in line on the priority list is taking their personal duties and responsibilities seriously. There is a danger of getting overly involved in the drama of others, especially control scenarios, and even though the individual may feel some sort of excitement with this it is advised that they be cautious. In order for one's bigger plan to work they would do well to keep things practical and clear, clean and healthy.

07 Tuesday December 22nd - Moon enters Gemini 9:32 PM

Full Moon in Cancer Friday December 25th 6:13 AM

Communication within partnerships may be held to relevant data only. Some may demand limitations and boundaries as to what is shared because they feel frivolous talk interferes with their more public plans. Some want to talk about work and career only. The need to get real and be serious may drive and occupy a partnership more than usual. As such it is a good time to get a stalled team back in the game. A demand that things be said correctly takes an emotional route, some may become overly critical regarding the precision of shared information. A little concern, objectivity, and insight, will likely reveal the real reason another is testy if such is the case. Certain things, topics, deemed irrelevant may be dismissed by others causing a concern. This is a time where some shared plan might be reiterated such that everyone can clearly see exactly what it is. If things seem inappropriate it may be that an individual's internal dialogue is becoming externalized, this may be a time to discover the other half of the story. Resources needed to expedite a plan can become more important now as the actions planned need certain things to be in place. Ideally the individual will demonstrate a cool head and keep their words and deeds perfectly aligned.

08 Friday December 25th - Moon enters Cancer 1:28 PM

Uranus direct in Aries Friday December 25th 10:54 PM

Whenever the Moon transits Cancer many people can be more sensitive than they typically would be. This sensitivity may become focused on one's public reputation. A need to accomplish something which has popular or public appeal can for example cause feelings and trigger emotional reactions. Not to exclude the general fact that people are more sensitive in an overall way. There is lots of creative energy which can translate into ideas as well. This creative energy may be directed to one's plan or agenda, or perhaps it is directed to some social plan or activity. Some individuals may find themselves dealing with changes which have affected what they would typically do. All is not lost as there is raised potential for them or another to come up with a new way of making things happen. Some may actually become quite excited as they have just discovered some great new thing. Logic and analysis can dominate the minds of some as they enjoy the clarity of enriched simplicity. For others the concern may be domestic in nature, for example family rules or family tradition may be the center of their concern. Those who have achieved a congruency between their words and the actions they commit to will find this time quite exciting, their effectiveness earned. This is a good time to intend such congruency.

09 Sunday December 27th - Moon enters Leo 5:32 AM

The sense that one wants to accomplish something either publicly or professionally yet requires a particular personal talent can occupy their attention. Some may experience an overwhelming concern that they develop their identity or social character in some way. Since not everyone will be ambitious that way a more common feeling of seeing the need to stick to activities appropriate to one's known abilities is also likely. Thinking and constructing one's plan may now focus on a personal talent assumed necessary. The ability and talents of others may impress or inspire as well. An established image or reputation can become an indirect concern. Having established at some point in one's public or professional history a public image, an automatic assumption may be applied to one's current interaction. Things, as in beliefs, which deem an individual admirable may surface in some way. Ideally the individual will accept and allow admirable character as the by-product of their integrity and simply be the moral character they demonstrate. If there has been in the past a blockage set up where an individual was unable to move their agenda forward due to a low self esteem it is this very belief which can surface via an interaction, ultimately creating the opportunity to leap forward busting the limiting belief and achieving self confidence beyond the distracting need to be admired by others.

10 Tuesday December 29th - Moon enters Virgo 1:59 PM

Venus ingress Sagittarius Wednesday December 30th 2:18 AM

Prompted to raise the bar in terms of astute clarity can yield positive results. At first a feeling that one's logic is flawed causes concern yet not wanting to be outdone by lack of superior reasoning pushing on can trigger optimism which in turn leads to a special insight and elevated clarity. The need to place one's known unrealistic desires in a manageable place is currently an ongoing process. It may not be necessary to eliminate fantasy and delusion yet it will feel correct to admit and identify where delusions have swamped one's better reasoning. This is why artistic expression is good right now as it validates and values unreal things yet allows them a form of expression. An ongoing need to accomplish something of significance may be the catalyst which challenges the individual to expand their common sense, or to use common sense in an effective way. A plan to be important in one's work or profession for example may be the current trigger which brings greater meaning to being practical when evaluating even the simplistic parts of one's bigger plan. One's mind may be more astute in terms of desiring to remain relevant and focused on the task at hand. Things which seem frivolous will be identified and in some cases removed from one's life.

11 Friday January 1st - Moon enters Libra 1:42 AM

It may be crunch time for some relationships, especially relations of a social nature where an individual has been challenged to comprehend how they fit in. Being aggressive within a social relationship recently can come to a head and now the quality of integrity and truth either shines and brings great things or causes a collapse. Of course it doesn't have to be that extreme it just depends on what one has been up to lately in terms of the actions they have taken related to the relating experience they desire. The lesson for some may be to check that their happiness and well being is not dependant on the actions of others. Such a safe ground will be a good place right now. Social relationships are important yet it is cautioned that the individual be aware in defining themselves only in these terms, who they are as a social person. There are those who can cause things to happen socially, sort of like being a natural social leader. For these people their ideals may have become more streamlined lately, their ideas more restricted, and as such the available positions for others to join in is also more restricted. All is not lost as the individual will never the less draw to them what they need. Again the individual may be setup to learn a lesson related to being socially included such that they will not feel lost if something has fallen through. Also the reverse is true where all of a sudden one has become the center of attention socially. Yet either way these social opportunities and experiences are things that change like the weather and so even though they are fun at times they must be allowed to change and these changes must be acceptable on the bigger grander scheme of things. Even so most all can enjoy a sunny day.

12 Sunday January 3rd - Moon enters Scorpio 2:37 PM

Mercury retrograde Aquarius Tuesday January 5th 8:06 AM

Assertive and confident some individuals take actions in order to progress their agenda forward. Desires get some fuel as some demonstrate through actions where their will is focused. The idea that someone is playing inappropriate games or taking over where perhaps another believes they should not can trigger emotional reactions. An ability to look at one's own motives under such a case can be very valuable in terms of busting some limiting beliefs and associated karma. Some secrets may be revealed or a least acted upon. If actions by some do not make sense to another perhaps these others need to be more astute at what is really going on. For those who have a well thought out plan and are good in terms of owning up to their own responsibilities this can be a good time for making effective progress. Some skill which an individual has developed may be activated in an effective way. As long as the individual does not become overwhelmed with feeling they are being suppressed an opportunity may exist where they instead can see why something has been holding them back. A simple solution may be at hand simply because more of "the story" is revealed. Once an individual sees more an effective solution can be acted on. Again there is a potential where things typically hidden are revealed.

13 Wednesday January 6th - Moon enters Sagittarius 1:57 AM

Jupiter retrograde Thursday January 7th 11:41 PM

This will be an empowered day for some where their will becomes atomic and as such some caution may be wise. If it seems as though some frustrating thought is beginning to manifest, some ill thought, destruction may become more real than anticipated, the better plan may be to back off. Otherwise this can be a powerful time where an effective will takes hold of reality in an effective way. An altering of seemingly unmovable blockages can occur. There is also an indication of what will be occurring in the coming Moon cycle in terms of moving an agenda forward. The season for great ideas will be felt by some, if this is occurring the individual is likely clearing some past karma by seeing a practical perspective previously obscured by delusion. Even still the individual is potentially blinded by their own excitement. Ideally things will be brought into perspective by exploring how this new clarity sits with what the individual is currently experiencing. Some will reap the benefits of their fine integrity. The opposite may also occur and with Mercury retrograde it is a good idea if something does not feel right to leave a potentially dangerous activity to another day.

14 Friday January 8th - Moon enters Capricorn 10:08 AM

This is an excellent time to focus on being successful career wise. For those inclined an ability to focus specifically on actions which are most likely to be beneficial is indicated. Also an ability to determine what those actions should be is also determined. Some older detrimental habits may be left behind. As we lead into the new Moon ideally the individual will set the tone for the entire cycle by making and picturing themselves being involved in career building. There is also a caution not to make assumptions about how others can react to one's independent push. There may be some shared community or social systems which have come to be seen as restrictions and they stand to be challenged. Some planned challenges can occur and some not planned spontaneous challenges also. Some individuals may take actions as if they are more expert than they really are or take actions based on their assumption that they are in control. In some cases they may be accepted and convincing, in other cases it may be too much delusion and not enough practical realism. The opportunity to make sense of and move into a more harmonious position in regards to changing public systems exist. Creative ideas can clash or they can find harmony yet either way there is a dynamic for change which affect the aggressive individual and the social infrastructure systems many depend on. Those who intend harmony will find it.

Next new Moon in Capricorn Saturday January 9th 8:32 PM EST

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
