Overview

New Moon in Aquarius

Monday February 8th 2016 9:40 AM EST

If you are going on a family vacation by car with the kids it will be a different dynamic for each family member. Of course you are not going to live the rest of your life in the car driving down the road with the kids, it is a temporary situation which allows you to get from point A to point B. To get from point A to point B there is some shuffling and arranging which must go on. Socially, publicly as a local and even world community we can making changes. It is painful if we expect everything to be in perfect order all the time. In the dynamic of moving from A to B we must accept that there is going to be things out of place at times. How else could it be?

By being aware of this we will have an easier time of it. Economically, for example, we are in this place of proceeding, many are. Globally we do share this experience, moving dynamically between point A and B.

There are an exaggerated number of astrological alignments present at the new Moon moment. This may be a life changing Moon cycle for some. Those who enjoy going after their goals can benefit. Action as motivated by what one believes to be their calling is applied with an individual's acquired expertise as indicated by a Uranus Mars quincunx during the new Moon phase. The ongoing Uranus Pluto square remains. This can indicate destruction of old infrastructure, the silver lining being new things arise as space is provided. Goal seekers may inadvertently play into events which are destructive to others in some way. Bold actions by some will send a message which has effects more far reaching than their specific individual agenda. Team work which embraces male female compatibility is supported and empowered. An ability to accept specific law or rules gives support to one's independent action, an expertise is exploited in a supportive way. A bold action may get support from an unexpected source. This bold action will be qualified and justified by the individual as it is believed to be a calling or higher purpose.

The need to separate doable ideas from ideas which are really more of a distraction can arise. The advantage of doing so will be increasingly persuasive. This can cause some people to be impatient or even intolerant when they hear what appears to be aimless talk. Many who become ultra serious are perhaps concerned about their public reputation. Others will simply find it is the sign of the times. Accepting a major shift or a change in a public system requires more prudent consideration of what one actually does. Idle chit chat will have a diminishing value. Back to the serious business of getting ahead, some can be blinded by their own logical genius. It is true there is an increase in the ability to expand and extend common sense however those new do this may lose sight of the bigger picture and miss some important consideration if they get too emotionally overjoyed by their new found brilliance. Many will be called to deal with their past inclination to accept some belief which is being revealed as delusion. To one's advantage nativity is being exposed and busted and this is allowing pathways to open up. The individual is however not necessarily getting a free ride as they must be able to prioritize well and stay on focus with target goals. Ideally the individual will take the time to achieve clarity on what is sustainable, they will be discerning as to what is past and gone and what is fresh and new. This is all about the massive infrastructure change which is occurring globally and will continue for some time to come. It's as if the Earth is seeking a better and revised way to host the human race and is beginning to fix and heal the damage caused by greed and ignorance. As this Earth consciousness agenda trickles down to the humans and their survival mechanics a massive change in beliefs is required to stabilize harmony with her, the Earth. For now humanity is being prompted to be discerning about what they are doing and to reduce the amount of time where their minds are allowed to focus on frivolous fantasy. It is always going to be a good idea to take time to acknowledge the Earth and to be real and sensible as to where security and comfort ultimately comes from.

A choice to participate in life enthusiastically is rewarding. Some will increase their social power and strength. An assertiveness is coming alive affecting those who are clear about their social position or effectiveness. For many it will simply be the satisfaction of being treated fairly. In a bigger social revolution this is like a sweet spot. Some may need to feel acknowledged as opposed to being excluded. One is wise to look at beliefs which define or qualify elitism. An increase in willfulness can move individuals forward in some unexpected way. Beliefs which qualify or exaggerate one's sense of pride will be fleshed out during this Moon cycle. It is possible to benefit from the current changes which are happening socially and publicly as long as the individual is comfortable with increased power and they proceed with the utmost integrity and honesty.

Our shared public world remains in a state of spontaneous unpredictability and now with the new Moon in Aquarius the significance of current social dynamics will become more personally integrated. People who have distorted ideas about freedom will have difficulty with this as the ramifications of one's beliefs attract and give life to social events which are directly related to the quality of harmony they believe is possible. Others will find they have more influence on others than they realized or perhaps were concerned about. Inspiring individuals will be in the eye of the beholder as opposed to being manufactured by individuals seeking validation through public recognition. Those seeking validation will be challenged to accept bigger more inclusive versions of social and public experiences. Belief in a higher social cause is justified through an increase in rationalizing. Some social actions reveal the logical conclusions which have come into acceptance. New territory in terms of social understanding and interactions are revealed and is immediately acted upon. At times social actions precede logical support. Unusual or unexpected social actions are reiterated and explained away after the fact. The need to create and feel freedom publicly may be the motivation behind the spontaneous actions of some.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aquarius the focus will be on ideals and invention which support social well being. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing visions of freedom and all the opportunities and inspirations which spring from utopian focus. Such envisioned delights bring forward a feeling about one's self admiration. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of how self admiration is related to public interaction is observed. Those born under the Sun sign Aquarius have a natural propensity to self admiration harmonized with social ideals. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of limitation which are qualified by social distinction. Not to exclude others as we all have Aquarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aquarius propensity for idealism. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public good will of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience social ideals ...

Capricorn: by how I observe and accept all who I come in contact with.

Sagittarius: by how I accept what others think and say without judgment.

Scorpio: by accepting the way I feel about myself relative to my social involvement.

Libra: by allowing myself to be filled with joy and inspiration as I embrace social freedom.

Virgo: by being discerning as to what is and what is not a personal responsibility.

Leo: by recognizing how my partnerships align me with new social potentials.

Cancer: by allowing these ideals to be creatively supported by my partnership experiences.

Gemini: by trusting and accepting new ways of being involved with humanity and the planet.

Taurus: through my dedication to the public, through my career.

Aries: by allowing my spontaneous self to be publicly involved.

Pisces: by being a member of the greatest social club of all, by accepting my inclusion within the symbiosis of Mother Earth.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Monday February 8th 9:40 AM EST - new Moon in Aquarius

Emotional reactions during the Aquarius Moon cycle will most likely be connected to social beliefs. In some cases the individual will discover identities and character directly related to these beliefs. If there is an emotional reaction the individual can see this an opportunity to be more informed as to who they are in relations to the community or public they are apart of. The dynamic between self significance and social compatibility is revealed through emotional reactions involving social experiences. As some will seem more aggressive than usual at securing their public reputation others will be affected and be called to examine how they feel about their situation, especially if decisions regarding their work or public service is involved. People may be looking for new social opportunities as well or have the need to associate with more new people socially, for some this need may feel forced upon them. What was at one time considered outrageous is now becoming increasingly common in public experience. There is indeed a boldness affecting how people function socially and this can be exaggerated to the point where aggressive spontaneous actions have the affect of involving many, things can happen suddenly. Ideas are being born now which will transpire to public dynamics and affect many. The individual can play an important role by simply holding their vision and future preference close. This is about taking action and so it is a good idea to precursor one's action and design the harmony they are inspired to create. Also it is good to be prepared to accept the paralleling of beliefs where reactions to social dynamics are informing the individual on some level about who they are. The experiences of some individuals will represent the masses. In other words if an individual is triggered by events happening to others they are wise to look at their own beliefs. Those who enjoy going after their goals can benefit greatly from this new Moon cycle.

02 Tuesday February 9th - Moon enters Pisces 3:32 AM

The natural ability of one's uncompromising compassionate self to accept everything they experience as valid and real supports wisdom which embraces the highest order of freedom. The ability to be responsible for oneself if one expects to be aligned with such lofty ideals opens their feeling to many things. The honesty of feeling is valued as it gives the individual a real truth concerning where they stand in their integrity and their beliefs. An ability to be specific within the acceptance of the boundless nature or Creators vastness is important now. As one accepts boundlessness, relative to one's thoughts and beliefs, as real they can surmise that boundaries also have value and importance. An individual's health may be important now and if so they are likely required to do just that, accept the importance of boundaries within the boundless nature of existence. Where one may have been derailed by delusion and fantasy an opportunity to bring clarity and realism into the picture is at hand. An acceptance of wanting to be realistic and practical is exaggerated right now, this could be a good time to intend effective progress with something related to functioning socially or professionally. Some may feel scientifically empowered.

03 Thursday February 11th - Moon enters Aries 4:56 AM

An individual's ability to accept the boundless nature of existence while realizing the practical need for specific boundaries will assist them now as the spontaneous nature of one's impulsive self responds to current situations, whatever they may be. Some may feel the urge to pounce upon some opportunity as if they are inspired or prompted to do so. The self definition or identity they believe themselves to be may have recently updated, some may feel as if they are really powerful and in control of some important situation involving others. Being brave and courageous in the face of social pressure can cause some to do things they would not normally do. Getting into the ball game may mean taking control of something. Backed by one's enthusiastic reasoning and perhaps a little impatience a sudden decision to demonstrate expert talent can occur. This can also manifest as some hidden agenda or a secret plan being taken into an action phase. A very compassionate selfless thought may also be acted upon, the instigator remaining hidden or anonymous.

04 Saturday February 13th - Moon enters Taurus 6:37 AM

Mercury ingress Aquarius Saturday February 13th 2:44 PM

Depending on whether or no the last few days have been eventful some individuals will seek simplicity and solitude right now. Home can be a good place to feel the simplicity of a solid foundation. Creativity and practical changes can be better addressed when an individual feels a sense of foundation and for this it is the the comfort of one's home base which can deliver. This is especially so as one considers their social and public dynamic and the changes which they must either endure or initiate relative to their public dynamic. If there is an uneasy feeling now it may be due to a lack of feeling the comfort of a home base. A good way to tune into the presence of security is to take a moment or two and touch the Earth in some way. Also a meditation or inner journey to a place where the Earth is respected and acknowledged can shift one's feelings to the value of her presence in their life. Some way of having one's simplicity and comfort of their home life integrate into either their work world or their social world may be considered. As always intention can be very powerful, the individual can foresee their future as a ride of joy and harmony where their work and social world are dynamic yet peaceful and congruent with others involved. A good place to register harmony is with the Earth and to have this harmony extended into public experiences.

05 Monday February 15th - Moon enters Gemini 9:36 AM

Venus ingress Aquarius Tuesday February 16th 11:18 PM

The ability to separate or prioritize how time is utilized is important. It is the ability to be discerning as to the importance of what is brought up, which can explain emotional reactions. An opportunity to share ideas about important public changes and challenges which we share with others may occur. The need to separate the doable ideas from ideas which appear as more of a distraction can arise. Either way the individual can use this time in a lite way, enjoy connecting to others through the ideas they share. It's true some may feel pressured to stick to the point, regardless an opportunity to compare notes and see what's up in another's camp can be social and enjoyable. Sometimes it is enjoyable to be serious and also enjoyable to know when it is good to just be okay with whatever. Optimistic ideas are challenged by feelings of compassion. Accepting beliefs of others, perhaps their version of faith, becomes important if one wants their ideas to mature and be valuable beyond their own self delight. Ideas must be shared and spoken of with respect and consideration to others or they may react to them in a negative way. There is a natural ability to accept brilliant ideas yet there is also a potential for some to feel trapped in the words of others.

06 Wednesday February 17th - Moon enters Cancer 2:25 PM

Sun ingress Pisces Friday February 19th 12:35 AM

The skill to remain centered while being triggered into big time feelings is an important and powerful ability as it allows an individual to know many things instantly. One's heightened sensitivity can give them important and powerful insights into their current social situation. For one to understand who they are socially or who they are as significantly defined by the friends and associates they have they must allow their feelings to direct and assist them with their more personal responsibilities. Being emotionally sensitive can assist the individual in comprehending what is their personal responsibility and what is not. The individual must be able to accept their part in things and be somewhat free from denial. One's sensitivity will potentially lead an individual to a belief they hold which is interfering with their current intentions. It is nice and good to assist others yet for some it may become apparent that this care giving is acting as a personal distraction for them and that they must deal with their own health or welfare first. When sensitivity rises what will the individual do, will they look for a distraction or will they seek to uncover beliefs which are important in determining their own quality of life? It is always a good time to act as if your feelings know what they are doing.

07 Friday February 19th - Moon enters Leo 9:18 PM

An ability to stand out in a crowd will feel more important than usual to some. Comparing oneself to another can also become apparent. Ideally the individual will accept their ability to change the world around them simply because they are enjoying being them self. The happenstance of self acceptance may include recognition yet the chasing of recognition for recognition itself can be difficult as the ability to be good about ones self becomes dependant on others. For some this will be a good time to bust through beliefs which cause stubborn pride especially if it has been interfering with otherwise pleasant social experiences. Needing and wanting followers for example can be seen as more trouble than it's worth. Some may be more willing to accept the beliefs and inspiration of others right now however it must be cautioned that one not fall far into delusion and forget what is motivating their inclination for harmony. Even though there may be an urge to accept and explore the ideas of others ultimately the individual is to discover the reflected quality is the acceptance of the inspiration of others as opposed to the idea or subject of the inspiration.

08 Monday February 22nd - Moon enters Virgo 6:25 AMFull Moon in Virgo Monday February 22nd 1:21 PM*

A brainstorm idea can make some feel more socially powerful than typical. There is an increase in basic common sense yet there is a blind side element in play as well. It is good to stretch one's logic out beyond their boundary however it should be realized that one is most likely removing or dissolving some fantasy as opposed to integrating the bigger picture. It's more like dismissing something, some belief, and getting out of one's own way and thus one is able to go further in some practical way. Some may wrestle with their own logic, a past argument may reappear and be on the chopping block. This may be a good time to identify limited reasoning and let go of some past ideas which have become irrelevant. Slipping between being confident and enthusiastic about one's ideas to doubting and questioning these same ideas can occur. Some may feel as if their mind has been let out of a box only to moments later feel such a notion was a mistake. Considering the artistic angle of whatever an individual is involved with may assist them in getting the bigger picture and making sense of their feelings. For humanity there is a great healing going on where fantasy and delusion is redefined and the feelings associated specifically to an individual's desire are placed in an objective view. This is not the end of faith but the beginning of a higher order of compassion, a Universal compassion which supersedes localized versions of compassion aligned to current human belief systems.

09 Wednesday February 24th - Moon enters Libra 5:43 PM

Noticing how another person's experiences are magically similar to one's own can be valuable. Doing so allows an individual to eventually get clear as to what makes them really truly special and one of a kind. Regardless it is good to notice how our lives parallel others in a way which would seem to defy typical understanding. Shockingly absurd or just unexpected behavior of others who we share our community with may puzzle some. Better reasoning may have left the building as aggressive behavior has taken over and caused certain individuals to stick out socially. How this is relevant is in how it affects specific one on one social relationships, friendships for example will stir with talking and comprehending what the heck is going on. Again we can see parallels between ourselves and others we did not realize. Some may have sharpened their ideas and thru a good relating experience are able to develop them further. A plan may for example restart with a view which previously would have been rejected as frivolous and too complicated. Faith and religious ideas from the past may come up. If so there is an opportunity for the individual to reevaluate these beliefs and in some way create a better more functional type of freedom for themselves. This freedom is related to being self defined and realistic. For example an individual may begin to feel the love from the Earth and parallel this with their love for the sky and stars, as opposed to being interfered with by local made, mainstream, theories as to who we are as beings.

10 Saturday February 27th - Moon enters Scorpio 6:27 AM

The individual will do well to consider themselves as a deeply feeling and sensual being. An inability to accept one's sensual nature can bring them some emotional pain, truly individuals want to be touched and to share themselves with others. Beliefs which would limit such behavior can come up, specifically how one considers who they are socially and publicly may be challenged by one's sensual self. A person well known to a community may act as an archetype and play out a sensual dynamic where beliefs held by the society they influence are brought forward so they can't be missed. Also understanding how one fits in professionally can become exaggerated and more important than usual. Some may be aggressive as they are concerned and feel there is an opportunity to be more effective professionally. The need to be respected or noticed for one's expert ability can cause some to be a bit more bold than usual. Some way to become more effective through one's work or service to the public may become apparent. This would be a good time to explore the depths of compassion and feeling, the depths of sensual experiences. For example artistic projects and interests can be well served as there is available to the individual a deeper level of emotional awareness. In terms of emotional depth the ability to uncover hidden fears and horrors buried deep within is also available as there is a new evolved courage becoming available for many individuals.

11 Monday February 29th - Moon enters Sagittarius 6:57 PM

Rules which are supposed to control or define how people gather and socialize or behave as a community or society may trigger emotional reactions. Who's who maybe affecting people more than they realize. Words are made more powerful than they really are as people explore the value and purpose of their beliefs concerning who they are publicly. The victim bully dynamic may for example rise up for some to deal with. How do they understand power? Ideally the astute individual will realize that communication is about facilitating common understanding relative to a common interest or shared goal. Talk for some may be limited to what is relevant and doable, some will have no interest or time available for dialogue which can not be related to real actions. The territory of other people's emotional truth and one's own agenda can become an emotional chemistry project. On one hand the feelings of others are very real to them and must be considered and on the other hand delusions passing as reality must be considered if one is to find foundation socially. Ironically as one navigates the emotional chemistry of others they may inadvertently discover their own emotional need to be recognized in some public way. An ability to discover a decisiveness within a delusion will yield a rich power which will energize one's interest.

12 Thursday March 3rd - Moon enters Capricorn 5:03 AM

Social changes are connected with infrastructure changes and upgrades. Old systems and old constructions which seem to be necessary or have been at some previous time needed by community are being removed or replaced. Newer more relevant structures are being allocated to their space so the old must go. As individuals we are connected to how society was designed to function and so we are affected by these changes. Some may be challenged to let go of something which in the past was very good for themselves and others. As society as a single entity changes the individuals must also change and it is this change which can be difficult for some individuals to accept and get on board with. Some rather definite method or directive regarding one's work or profession may begin to show signs of absurdity. Ultimately the decisive individual will realize they are required to integrate or involve some feeling truth or social compassion and weave it into their public plan. The feeling nature of the public cannot be ignored, even if the public acts unphased. A powerful YOD forms giving those who feel gifted with logic a courage and boldness which releases them from social chains, the power to be free is felt and acted upon.

13 Saturday March 5th - Moon enters Aquarius 11:23 AM Mars ingress Sagittarius Saturday March 5th 9:30 PM

Friendship dynamics are important right now. Many social friendship dynamics may have been stirred up lately. In that we are not separate we may have allowed ourselves some interesting discoveries through friendship dynamics. Parallel events and experiences between ourselves and others may for example assist in realizing the nature of community in a more advanced evolved way. Thinking we are separate has advantages yet the connection between all things is very real, we as a society are connected. Lessons or breaking down of limiting beliefs may have occurred as the Moon takes us through the Aquarian Moon cycle. Opportunities to let go of social influence and who's who beliefs and their relevance may have assisted some in waking up to current major shifts which are affecting communities and friendships. Let there be a caution in using one's resources to make some fantasy real. Artistic expression can be very healthy for sure and enjoyable yet does not require a major realignment of one's resources. It is important that an individual value their connection to boundless vastness of existence and yet at the same time realise the value of boundaries. It is this challenge which will engage the individual in the coming Pisces Moon cycle.

14 Monday March 7th - Moon enters Pisces 2:10 PM

We don't want to get stuck attempting to make sense of something which can not be made sense of. New found logic is so convincing a warrior self comes forward to defend or enact it. There will be a rise in empathy in many and so their logic and warrior boldness may be to defend that which appears defenseless. Many partnerships will be called out to get clear as to what is real for them and what has been fantasy or wishful thinking. Not wanting to give up the bold courageous warrior steps up. Insight into why things are changing will be grasped by some. A feeling about how and where things are going which involve society and the shared economic system we use will cause some to regauge and and rethink their partnership. Getting clear of delusional ideas and yet holding onto one's compassion is in the formula for the coming Moon cycle in Pisces. It is best to know what is worth fighting for before one begins taking aggressive action.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
