Overview

New Moon in Pisces

Tuesday March 8th 2016 8:56 PM EST

We don't want to get stuck attempting to make sense of something which can not be made sense of. New found logic is so convincing, a warrior self comes forward to defend or enact it. There will be a rise in empathy in many and so their logic and warrior boldness may be to defend that which appears defenseless. Many partnerships will be called out on their clarity, to get clear as to what is real for them and what has been fantasy or wishful thinking. Not wanting to give up a bold courageous warrior steps up. Insight into why things are changing will be grasped and assumed by some. A feeling about how and where things are going which involves society and the shared economic system we use will cause some to regauge and rethink their partnership. Getting clear of delusional ideas and yet holding onto one's compassion is in the formula for the coming Moon cycle in Pisces. It is best to know what is worth fighting for before one begins taking aggressive action.

A long time desire or goal may be fading. The opportunity for the achievement of the goal is not directly diminished. As the reality of the goal becomes better known the method of it's manifestation is discovered to be faultily. The mechanism to get to the point of achievement is appearing unrealistic. This added clarity can actually give the individual a boost in finally achieving their goal as now a new truth is better known. In the meantime some may be experiencing the vanishing of their goal as the way to achieve it is really what has vanished. Ideally the individual will persist in uncovering other ways of achieving their desire, ways which are built on newer better information.

This Moon cycle will offer an opportunity to clean things up. Getting involved in half completed projects or just putting things off too often either way things which are incomplete or left behind are revisited and brought to conclusion. These old projects will have energetic connections with past relationships past interests and these will also have to be dealt with. Connecting emotional memory to past events may be part of the challenge. It will be important to deal with these things as doing so can have a beneficial affect on one's health. The emotional experiences will perhaps evolve and live on yet the events which in the past which parallel or correlate with these memories will be what is resolved, at least this is the ideal. Some way of seeing and knowing a bigger congruent picture will simplify things and this is where health and healing comes in. An opportunity to find simplicity and reduce complication is available and will require an individual to see the their beliefs as the perpetrator to their past events. Some of these beliefs if not all where influenced from others in one's past, family, friends, religion or school experiences, past job experiences. All these things act as a collection net throughout one's life where beliefs are acted out. Seeing the connection between past events and the authority one had in the past accepted as real occurs when one is able to courageously follow their feelings. In an instant of clarity an entire emotional anchor can be let go of because the individual is able to see where they, in their ignorance, placed their authority outside themselves. An inability to do this, become ones own authority and act as if one has been the cause of their past and current challenges, will simply cause the events to recycle with perhaps new players. The key is in the feeling as the emotional experience is one's soul's experience and will not easily be discarded. On the other hand the events are merely example of physical dynamics which correlate or substantiate the beliefs. The cleaning up one has the opportunity to do then is about finding the bigger picture or the seed belief and allowing the mini manifestations and events to be seen as reflections of these, perhaps no longer necessary as reminders.

An individual is in a state of obliviousness when they believe something to be absolutely real when it is perhaps not. The fleshing out of incorrect assumption has been increasingly occurring and continues to increase now through this Pisces Moon cycle. The idea that all is energy is a safe one in that we are able to accept realities as delusions and not get obliviously lost in the notion that something is absolute. As such everything of significance we experience is someone's idea thought or intention and exists as an energy matrix at times complete with physical manifestation. Remembering of course that physical manifestation is again energy vibration. Our ability to understand permanence is an important one as it allows us to naturally let a thing go once it has lived it's reality. Also we are able to create a pysdo permanence and realize that that it what it is, we don't expect something to be there beyond the thought manifestation and idea consideration which sustains it. There are many realities which are fleshed out right now which the individual must be able to discard or accept as fleeting as these realities have perhaps lost a past permanence and stand now to crumble. New realities and their current vibration of pending permanence are coming forward and as such erasing older ones.

A need for different types or models of authority to find cooperation will play out during this Moon cycle. There will be those who want to expand and enrich their territory of influence and there will be those who actively want to implement boundaries and make executive decisions as to what is most relevant. Ideally these authority forces will cooperate and access their own individual meaning while accepting the intention and value of another. Whether it be public reputation or an opportunity to move ahead professionally these players will be dealing with versions of truth or beliefs. An obstruction in the road toward one's agenda can represent an opportunity to find a new clarity which means a new simplicity. It may simple be an issue as to what is real and what is delusion and this can be tangled in a matter of what is assumed to be truth as opposed to what is truth. A good strategy in the face of obstruction or conflict is to step back and do some clearing and cleaning.

The Moon cycle will bring out the natural urge to be socially involved thus revealing how things have changed recently. Individual decisions, no matter how they are reasoned, will conclude that it is I who wants to reduce alone time and experience others. Lets do something, lets get involved. A merging of passions occurs between seemingly independent thinkers. Ongoing agendas to either expedite a partnership with new rules or to terminate it is shown new and unexpected data as a faster paced plan trumps the planned partnership change. Center to these dynamics is the focus on social interaction as the current Moon cycle enlivens and activates within the individual the urge to be harmonious within their community. Significant activity in Capricorn as indicated by Pluto transiting there may have already altered what was once familiar social infrastructure roadways. Moving mountains of social rejection simply by evolving personal paradigms in ways which discard blame and accept responsibility may have occurred. The emotional content of such personal altering harmonizes and pools together, before you know it individuals of unlikely character are working together through mutually inspired plans. The willingness to allow old limiting paradigms to conclude along with the associated rationalizing, and to instead move on the inspired call to enjoy one's propensity to be involved in new ideas will move pass rejection scenarios into far reaching revolutionary opportunities. Again a turn about occurs as an expected aggressive action unexpectedly runs into the truth that social infrastructure is and has been changing. Aggressive social action is on the rise and it is these actions which will flesh out the truth that there have been some significant changes in social structure recently.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Pisces the focus will be on the merging of beliefs and paradigms, or the merging of worlds. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of the dynamic experiences which occur as borders become less apparent. As all is thought manifestation all realities, as fantasy or delusion, are fabricated through opinion. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of manifestation becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Pisces have a natural propensity to merge with and experience dreams as reality and vise versa. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of opinion and belief simply by feeling a reality concept as if it is real. Not to exclude others as we all have Pisces somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Pisces propensity for migrating into the reality of others through feeling. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward experiencing fantasy or delusion as reality for each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I feel the reality of others ...

Aquarius: by accepting all I sense and observe in my immediate physical experience.

Capricorn: by paying attention to my immediate need to have clear communication with others.

Sagittarius: by paying attention to how these realities affect the way I feel about myself.

Scorpio: through my enthusiasm and excitement to be involved with them.

Libra: when I choose to be self responsible and clear as to what is and what is not my own personal responsibility.

Virgo: when I move into partnership relationships and feel an expansion of compassion.

Leo: when my partnership experiences lead me into the value of sharing.

Cancer: when I allow myself to step out of typical experience and rationalizing and move into new adventures of feeling.

Gemini: when I dedicate myself to being purposeful and valuable to others through my profession and career.

Taurus: by accepting and intending harmony through friendships.

Aries: by being still and feeling the emotional connection which exists between all others.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Tuesday March 8th 2016 8:56 PM EST - new Moon in Pisces

Seeing oneself finding success in accepting and busting challenges during this Moon cycle will involve being increasingly discerning as to what is practical and what is not so realistic. The ability to measure and know the difference between what is practical and what is frivolous will be enough to begin new journeys and secure better security for the future. To be able to identify how one is living in a hopeless delusion is a very big step forward. Delusions can be given their value and more easily set aside, at least for now. Dreams may include inspiration and yet the dream doesn't have to be completely abandoned they just have to be integrated into current practical needs. An ability to see the connection between things considered completely separate for example can assist the individual in making priority decisions. An ultimate meeting point is one's health and well being, one's health must be prioritized in order to exist and survive in this practical world. There is always going to be a place and importance for dreams it's just that certain practical things must be considered first. Once an individual is able to shift their focus to the more practical things in life they will find their dreams will become more important and valuable to them. The solar eclipse will again give the inspired individual more power to assert their will. An ability to enjoy the truth and value of clarity will assist the individual in bring home realistic visions and lead to methods of practicality which will assist them in all practical matters including building and maintaining excellent health. An important intention for this Moon cycle would be to find and anchor the most practical perspective of one's dreams and inspirations.

02 Wednesday March 9th - Moon enters Aries 2:41 PM

If you take action on something you imply it's real beyond merely saying it's real. A need to confirm or substantiate one's particular view can be the reason for a current aggressive action. Pending social actions can flare up if there are people who feel they are being socially mistreated. An analytical type person can become warrior like and go after their vision as the possibility of busting down or through delusionary beliefs motivates and triggers them into action. Aggressive moves may be intended to indicate public confidence. The boss may need to demonstrate confidence and will perhaps assert certain boundaries. A confident understanding may actually have some overly optimistic logic and so the individual who is feeling this is their opportunity to move ahead in public view is cautioned. If there is something which needs action and yet has not been acted upon a build up of anxiety can result. If one is able to avoid panic this can be a good time to take care of some routine task which requires extra effort.

03 Friday March 11th - Moon enters Taurus 2:45 PM

Emotional reactions reflect a sensitivity to foundational social beliefs. The social beliefs of others may be assumed which qualifies the use of certain words during conversation. When this is off however some react, something which is said may not be understood or not taken well. As we venture out into community doing routine errands assumptions as to what others believe innocently occurs. Maintaining simplicity helps to clearly communicate ideas as the need to be understood and on the same wavelength is necessary for typical everyday connecting. In the meantime faith and religious beliefs may become understood from a higher order. An ability to see things as connected because they have something in common, Universal compassion, allows an individual to register an evolved order where mutually supportive compassion works above and beyond typical boundaries. A special insight into health and healing can also occur because once again the individual is able to extrapolate a higher meaning. Ideally the individual will find practical insight and meaning and be able to shift their focus away from ideas and questions which can never be properly answered.

04 Sunday March 13th - Moon enters Gemini 5:05 PM

Ideas which involve how one understands themselves can increase internal dialogue. Unqualified notions, delusions, fantasy, these things can have the adverse affect of causing one's internal thought process to become very active. An ability to lead oneself back to the initial idea or belief is available as long as the individual is able to observe where their feelings go. Specifically the individual must discover the authority they have placed over themselves and this authority will appear like an intruder stirring up their inner thoughts. Some routine way of connecting with others or some way of thinking about something may be changing, or challenged to change. A new idea may be growing and expanding which is challenging the old way of thinking something over. Internally the individual may rewalk the same thoughts yet the need to do so may be ending. Some belief may have been considered more absolute than it really was and it is this belief which stands to be rewritten. If the individual is aware that they are not their mind that they have a mind and that the mind is apart of their body they will naturally and effectively observe their mind. Observing one's mind can reveal the beliefs which structure the direction thoughts typically go. How the individual feels gives them valuable clues as to who they believe themselves to be. An ability to alter thoughts, beliefs, and self identity, can free the individual from past trauma and set them free to move on into new experiences. It's like rewriting your life. The individual must however understand the need to accept and own what they have given energy to in the past and sort out specifically how to alter its current effect.

05 Tuesday March 15th - Moon enters Cancer 8:58 PM

Jupiter trine Pluto Wednesday March 16th 4:07 PM

Changes in community may be affecting or influencing the creative ideas and expressions of some individuals. An ability to raise one's creative ideas to some significance as opposed to just plainly having fun may be challenging them. Ideally the individual will find both, they are having a great time at expressing their creativity and their community is finding it of value. Family matters may become exaggerated for some right now and again the changes in the social structure of community can be challenging families to find new ways to get things done. An ability to find parallels between work and home dynamics can make life easier and more functional. Bid dramatic changes in social infrastructure can be causing major challenges to individual families. Old systems are being removed and new ones created and so it is old beliefs which are not necessarily serving families the way they did in the past. New ways of doing things are coming forward and so it is wise to watch for these and venture into theses new ways. An ability to astutely notice what type of community changes are having the biggest effect on family and what is not can be important. Some things lead nowhere whereas others can become of big value.

06 Friday March 18th - Moon enters Leo 3:56 AM

Vernal Equinox Sun ingress Aries Sunday March 20th 12:31 AM

It may not be so noticeable right at this moment yet this particular Moon ingress will act as a template for much of what will be experienced between now and this time next year. Of course what makes this significant is the Vernal Equinox which occurs Sunday morning. A need to be significant will challenge some. A sense that one needs to accomplish something in order to believe one is important may be triggering emotional reactions. Trusting that one does indeed have admirable talents can lead them to these talents. A sense that one is responsible can lead them to stretch and expand upon a workable solution to some challenge. Although the mind may be lead by feelings right now a sense that a realistic and practical way of looking at things can also exist. Being responsible for oneself may include being able to see the practical perspective of things even though the issue may be emotionally charged. There are past ideals in regards to what makes an individual admirable to society which may have to be let go of as they can no longer service value as an inspiration. An individual who can find their own sense of self confidence and act as if they are in charge of their own responsibilities will draw to them the kind of things which they will need in order to move their interests forward.

07 Sunday March 20th - Moon enters Virgo 1:40 PM

Some may find value in their partnership because the dynamic it pertains to causes the individuals involved to be more realistic about what they believe. Areas assumed real are made real via partnership. A need to bring focus into matters is facilitated by a relationship. The resistance to accepting and acknowledging details can bring up feelings which echo back to a time when an individual was more of a dreamer than a realist. The acceptance of the dreams of others which has occurred in the past may be brought up now as there is likely an opportunity to be free from the desires of others and begin to register clarity as to what exactly are ones own passions. An increase in being critical can occur and this can lead to some clarity which is much needed. However learning how to not be overly critical is also important as the need to move forward with practical decisions is the ultimate goal.

08 Wednesday March 23rd - Moon enters Libra 1:24 AM

Jupiter square Saturn Wednesday March 23rd 6:17 AM

Full Moon Lunar Eclipse in Libra Wednesday March 23rd 8:02 AM

Saturn retrograde Friday March 25th 6:02 AM

Some may borrow the success of others and not realize they are doing so. The character of another may be similar to one's own yet what is of particular interest is in the shared vision or reality they both give value to. When one's agenda or interest is moved directly into action it may well be because another has inadvertently implied some specific vision is of real substance. It may be as if delusion is made real because a partnership can be built around it. The need to bust past delusions because they were qualified in such a way, via partnership, can return now and cause a reality to be questioned and also includes the questioning of a relationship. The matter of being independently responsible is in accepting all the events in which one has found themselves involved. Doing so allows the individual to see or notice patterns of creation which cycle through their experiences. Many if not all these experiences can be seen as relationship experiences yet there is also an independent nature to these. Understanding relationship harmony as a correlation as opposed to a cause effect thing can bring a new type of acceptance and harmony into one's life.

09 Friday March 25th - Moon enters Scorpio 2:10 PM

Ideas of what it means to be a good care giver may come forward, one may seek to be acknowledged for the effort they make toward others. A willingness to share what one has and to be cooperative can lead to new discoveries in how appreciation works. Keeping things to a respectable minimum can be the special formula for some which makes things work. In work or professional situations there are those who are very excited with a new insight or logic and who want to move forward and there are those who seem to block or oppose this as they are really big on certain rules. Ideally new boundaries will be discovered or created which benefit both. There can be some aggressive actions and some private agenda qualified by survival concerns or possible reputation concerns. Many can benefit from the rise in action energy. Also some situations can arise where it may be best to let the bosses sort it out. There may be clashes between authority figures going on. Some special opportunity may be opening up, this can be a good time to take actions which can lead to a special future.

10 Monday March 28th - Moon enters Sagittarius 2:47 AM

Lessons in how to be effective may have included the need for effective rules and boundaries. The need to discard ideas which are simple not doable may be all it takes to be more successful, especially at servicing the public or doing one's regular job. Understanding that the boundless is not available to one who seeks professional success can assist and give the individual a clear choice as to where to focus their action energy. An ability to see beyond past limitation can be very valuable right now, some unique opportunity may exist. An ability to find a superior logic combined with an ability to limit one's activities to those which are the most important can give value to the actions taken. Seeing how reputation concerns have derailed past efforts can also be important as the need to follow one's own inspiration and confidence needs to come first.

11 Wednesday March 30th - Moon enters Capricorn 1:46 PM

Some people will be active in their pursuit of what they want in their work or public life. For others this will be less so yet there is an increase of action energy occurring. There are social changes going on, things just are not the same socially as many have become accustomed to in the past. Certain things take some getting use to and one way to help with this is to let go of the past. If emotional attachments to the past persist it may help to see the practical aspect of what once was and to see how this practicality has changed. In this way certain things are let go of yet other significant attachments may still be relevant. The idea is to be creative in how things are seen and allowed to evolve to fit in with today's dynamics. For some it may be necessary to let social changes and dynamics change some home dynamics. By accepting certain social system changes it is easier to allow these changes to integrate into domestic concerns less destructively. Choosing specific actions over others can for example make life easier at home and publicly. Valuing the good feeling of sharing time with another can translate to increased understanding as well. A feeling that something needs to be done by a certain time can cause panic. By reviewing the time line and by being selective as to what tasks are to be done immediately the releasing of pressure may occur. Also keeping others informed as to what you are up to can help reduce the panic and pressure of deadlines.

12 Friday April 1st - Moon enters Aquarius 8:38 PM

Knowing who is who and who can do what helps when deciding the best action and approach to whatever challenge one faces. An ability to see wisely through and beyond specific character and identity allows the individual to see a bigger picture. An ability to conjure up a win win situation when dealing with others who see themselves in a significant way can occur. It is like an ability to navigate ideals and keep everybody happy as their ideal world still exists for them specifically, in the meantime a new avenue is opened up. There may be trouble in paradise as recently there may have been challenges in who stands as the authority. The aggressive actions of some may feel like challenges to others. New ways of seeing how things can improve in whatever method one has been using may also come into play yet runs into a snag when another may prefer to stand by certain rules. There is an openness to new ideas here which can help if there is a need to get beyond the typical idea as to who knows best or what is right.

13 Monday April 4th - Moon enters Pisces 1:47 AM

Those who can become emotionally overwhelmed may have benefited from this Moon cycle in that they have been able to find a new precision and clarity. An ability to put details together in a congruent way may have lifted the individual out of an on going delusion. Not saying it was easy as it may have been and possible continues to a big challenge. An ability to see clearly what is good for an individual and what is not assists them in getting clear of unnecessary emotional challenges. In some cases health issues may have dominated one's experiences as this is what it takes to shake one free of distracting interests. The practicality of health issues is it's own medicine in that it moves people to prioritize themselves. If some way of substantiating one's

New Moon Tuesday March 8th 2016 8:56 PM EST

Report number 159

desire was committed to then their vision will more likely have begun to manifest. If there was a commitment made then there is more likely an opportunity to remain optimistic about the outcome.

14 Wednesday April 6th - Moon enters Aries 2:47 AM

A focused agenda will prevail as satisfying this coming Moon cycle in Aries. If there has been an ability to find clarity in what is focused on and to remove dysfunctional delusions from one's interest an opportunity now to move into effective action exists. An ongoing need to remain clear as to what is significant and real for the individual will remain an important priority yet the bulk of what has been distracting many may have been lessened. Health issues may continue to challenge an individual to focus on what is specifically right for them and again cause them to move attention away from distractions which in reality do not directly concern them.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
