Overview

New Moon in Gemini
Saturday June 4th 2016 11:01 PM EST

The concept of elite groups may exist in one's sub-conscious. This can be somewhat hidden from one's typical conscious awareness, may not have a specific label or term, yet causes the individual to emotionally react in their presence. The notion that some people are more important than others where this notion lingers in the beliefs of individuals is thin and has no reason to knock one socially astray. Simple trusting feelings and that personal sovereignty and personal will and the personal power to create, was given to the individual by the power of first cause and can not be taken. However this power can be given away and in many it has. Do you need to be important, if so feel this out. By who's definition is your internal idea of importance defined? Once you know the answer presto magic happens and you are released. Has the human will been given over too easily to those who have no interest in human harmony yet will claim they do because this is what the human wants to hear? This is an ideal time to bust free from who's who trappings and to remove oneself from the need to feel embraced in a group by bowing to a leadership which frankly may only be concerned with its own self preservation. What beliefs would an individual have to hold to bring such reality to their door? Ideally the individual will reach brilliance and will attract others socially who are allowed and inspired to think for themselves. Just because we have different opinions doesn't mean we don't love and cherish each other other, socially or domestically or personally.

People in general will be more receptive to hearing ideas or sharing their own ideas. The opportunity to talk and share ideas can be more appealing than usual. This may be a good time to speak to someone where normally it was feeling uncomfortable to do so. With that said Saturn remain retrograde in Sagittarius marking opposition to scattered ideas or words. While Saturn remains retrograde individuals processing issues likely regarding their public reputation continues. Ideas seen as unfocused can appear offensive and distracting by those who are most influenced by Saturn retrograde in Sagittarius. Asteroid Vesta is also in Gemini at the new Moon indicating to some that sharing ideas and being open to either hearing the ideas of others or voicing their own is a sacred duty or calling. They are loyal to their higher calling if they are freely relaying ideas or actively hearing the ideas of others. Who we are as sacred spiritual beings is explored by examining our emotional reaction or emotional state. Retrograde Mars in Scorpio moves into a trine with Chiron in Pisces indicating actions related to an ongoing secret can cause an emotional experience which leads to a need to rise one's motivation to a higher level of accepting others. Some hidden activity may be revealed and may have to do with power or money, or the control of some shared resource. As both Jupiter and the Moon's north node continue to transit Virgo a new level of well being in terms of health is being inserted into the experience of many. This may be disruptive to ego activities as the expansion of health is tearing many individuals away from their ongoing typical delusional activity. This has been ongoing for several Moon cycles and now affects an individuals way of communicating. For the first few months one's health situation may have been about dealing with the physical symptoms and while this is still the case the added change of switching up one's internal and external dialogue begins. The typical internal dialogue will begin to switch to a more appropriate concentration and focus. Look for more practical and relevant ideas to begin to occupy one's mind, both inner dialogue and shared conversation. Aware that thought creates, words and dialogue become important as these mark one's intended future, and it matters not if the individual is aware of this or not their future is still laid out by where their mind first goes. Jupiter is square to the new Moon in Gemini indicating a need to do just that keep one's thoughts in a place of directing their well being and maintaining a mental focus congruent with good health. Failure to do so will cause major communication breakdowns loss of concentration and possible forgetfulness and possible headaches. On the other hand the sharpening of the mind is a great launching pad for moving toward a healthy future. This may be a time where those dealing with health issues begin to make executive decision for themselves regarding how things are handled. Ultimately the individual must stop with the fantasy and become more realistic. An ability to seek understanding while busting through victim type beliefs will assist one toward health.

A square between Saturn in Sagittarius and Neptune in Pisces continues throughout this Moon cycle. Relations built on the ability to talk and share ideas may feel off, it can seem more difficult than usual to stay on topic. The need to stay focused may feel more necessary than typical. The beliefs an individual is use to may seem blurred or perhaps they are confused as to the rallying point usually present in their conversation. Some relationships may become broken down a bit and this can be a good thing as there is also an opportunity for individuals to prioritize themselves in terms of their well being. Reinforcement of beliefs mutually supported in a relating experiences may seem to have dissolved enough to create a new space for an individual to see a brighter view and provide them a clearer look at their specific concern. A chipping away of dysfunctional beliefs may be occurring and for now this will affect how one understands their value to the public, hence they may generate a new view regarding their public position or reputation.

Authorities have their agenda and will not likely be swayed by sweet talk. The need to bring order and possible respect to how things are communicated may become more apparent. Believing someone can just do about anything because they got the script and like to talk or write doesn't mean it's going to happen. There is a big lesson for many societies to learn regarding sloppy frivolous communications. There was indeed a time in many cultural histories where a person's word was sacred yet this for the most part has wanned long ago. As we pay the piper for becoming overly loose with the word our body longs for us to respect and acknowledge the Earth. The attraction to talking and communicating will rise, however there are authorities which individuals have bought into who will object and not agree. There are cases where some harmony can be built yet the need to be impeccable with the word is upon us and must be present in order to sustain this harmony.

Sunsign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Gemini the focus will be on thinking and communicating associated with relationship experiences. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing external and inner dialogue such that beliefs implied by mental activity can be known. Thoughts and ideas meant to establish relating experiences reveal beliefs about the social structure which is assumed to facilitate shared experiences. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the influence behind the beliefs becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Gemini have a natural propensity to anchor harmony between themselves and another. They naturally resonate with social common denominator on an individual basis. Not to exclude others as we all have Gemini somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Gemini propensity for tuning into potential harmony and actualizing it through mental awareness. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify where or how an individual mentally connects with and understands other individuals. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I communicate harmoniously with others ...

Taurus: by being a good listener, by paying attention to the body language of others.

Aries: by sticking to the immediate point and concern which my communication is focused on.

Pisces: by accepting my own inner dialogue while remaining objective with what others say.

Aquarius: by trusting that the genuine joy I experience in sharing ideas is supported by my higher awareness.

Capricorn: by being responsible to myself when I am actively involved in communicating with others.

Sagittarius: by allowing and accepting that my partnership experiences reflect back to me my own manner of communicating.

Scorpio: by allowing new forms and ways of communicating to be birthed from my grounded partnership experiences.

Libra: by allowing my self to move into a new territory of ideas and discovering new ways of sharing experiences.

Virgo: by focusing on my value to the public.

Leo: by enjoying my public interaction and friendships.

Cancer: by feeling how my communications are connected to a universal mind.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Saturday June 4th 11:01 PM EST - new Moon in Gemini

Inspired to connect and share ideas starts out about just that just sharing thoughts with others. However these ideas need to be substantial and more motivation other than just wanting to talk or listen soon becomes apparent. Specific agendas will be on the minds of some and this will limit their sharing and their ideas. For some their plans have stalled and they want to know why and so the conversation they engage in may have this underlining investigation. The matter of keeping ideas functional will be preferred, with fouls possible called. This being said those who just enjoy sharing ideas for the fun of it will be motivated to create harmony. They will facilitate the important agendas of others if that's what it takes. You never know perhaps real solutions and valuable experiences will be had by all. An ability to hid activities which some are up to is also present yet these activities will feel like they are the sole responsible of the individual anyway. Some of these secret concerns may be plans which are quite rich and impassioned, as such there can be some devious affairs underway. Hopefully this energy will be directed to assist in partnerships where shared resources can be used to enrich all involved. The need to keep a clear mind will be important for those who are working toward improved health. The need to flesh out stray and distracted thinking is important as the mind is an important part of one's future experience. Seeing the connection between what goes on in one's mind and the state of their health is a valuable awareness.

02 Sunday June 5th - Moon enters Cancer 11:42 PM

An ability to turn inner dialogue into a journey where one uncovers hidden beliefs which directly affect their security may be available as the Moon transits Cancer. Concerns can be exaggerated due to an over sensitivity regarding security while at the same time one's sensitivity can be an aid as it directs the individual toward the significance of security. Objectively following emotional reactions will lead an individual to the beliefs and the authority which proclaims the significance of the beliefs which an individual hangs onto. Understanding how emotional reactions are quicker and more encompassing than linear thought can assist the individual in trusting and valuing their emotional reactions. The added sensitivity of Moon in Cancer will cause an individual to pay closer attention to what they say, or what others say. Many are in a position to discover more things about their health if such is a concern, simply because they are more willing to listen to and understand the talk of others. A warm regard for others can be present even though it challenges one's typical way of rationalizing some specific thing. This can be a good time to call or connect with another which may have been put off or avoided.

03 Wednesday June 8th - Moon enters Leo 2:48 AM

Some method or way of being one's bigger identity is felt or considered. The important thing is for the individual to think highly of themselves as an inner knowing as opposed to requiring others to confirm it for them. This is a good time to practice divine non-chalance and allow one's admiration to simply be the by-product of their integrity. The need to be important can cause an individual to speak in a certain way. The folly of fake significance can be spotted by tossing words around absent of actual experiences. Being important because one says or implies they are through their dialogue alone is a sure sign that one is engrossed in being validated by others, as if one's significance is only valid if it is confirmed by some external form of recognition. That being said there is an added degree of willingness to listen to others yet the individual is cautioned not to think it means more than just momentarily sharing an idea or pleasant moment. Some may feel a need to substantiate recent conversation or shared ideas. The feeling that one is significant or important because they believe their ideas were finally listened to is tested as actions are considered. In some cases it may be real and lead to real experiences where an individual is recognized and acknowledged for their exceptional character and integrity. A sense that one has the respect of others can cause them to make a move indicative of their superior identity. This may be a time when one's inner self connects to an evolved understanding of being self responsible, of freeing oneself of some pesky denial regarding their identity.

04 Friday June 10th - Moon enters Virgo 9:47 AM

An ability to enjoy one's own thoughts and words while keeping ideas really simple may feel enjoyable. Falling in love with one's own words may be nice however this is most likely a fleeting occurrence. Perhaps one may write a book or something, if so do it now as this current alignment is temporary. A good use of this time may be more in examining oneself from the perspective of one's beliefs. An ability to release certain things for example which are based on non-real or delusional ideas may be occupying the finite space or time of one's inner process. The need to quiet the mind may be evident to some however can seem difficult to achieve. The idea or technique of simply observing where the mind is going as opposed to attempting to stop its chatter can be effective. Following the emotional thread as opposed to only the logical thread of one's inner dialogue can be of great value as the individual will begin to move from the events they ponder to the process behind the events. By moving one's attention from the events they experience to the process behind them they will naturally begin to see a bigger picture. An instant knowing can occur, especially if one is paying attention to how their body reacts to their thoughts and correlating emotions. An effective way to simplify one's thoughts and ease a racing mind is to look for the parallels between apparent different interests and events and discover the unifying process which births and qualifies their significance.

05 Sunday June 12th - Moon enters Libra 8:34 PM

Neptune retrograde in Pisces Monday June 13th 4:44 PM

A new attempt to revive or reactivate a past relationship can occur. The desire to talk to a friend can feel delicious however the individual is wise to make sure the individual they engage in conversation is as inspired to talk with them as they are? A lot of sudden independent acts lately, extending back to the last couple of years, may have created new relationships or rocked some existing ones. Ideally the individual will value those they relate and share time with because of the apparent parallel experiences they magically seem to experience. It can be an advantage to bring increased understanding to any relationship if the individual looks for these parallels. When it is understood that we live in a correlating reality the value of looking for and noticing the metaphoric parallels between ourselves and others will become increasingly valuable as it shows us the very juicy truth. As Mercury ingresses Gemini the mind will move quicker and be less attached to things it can attach itself to which according the individual's belief is a practical thing. Mental flexibility supports ideas and dialogue. An ability to speak more effectively about health concerns can also occur as the mind is able to explore things from the perspectives of others before one has completely understood the unifying concept.

06 Wednesday June 15th - Moon enters Scorpio 9:19 AM

Our body's longing for good health can influence our emotional reactions. The way we integrate organically, either through sensual sharing or the food we eat or the physical activity we involve ourselves with, we will be sensitive to the quality of health and well being these things connect us to. It's as if our emotions police our health. The desire to share real values with another may be high right now and can even feel like a duty or responsibility. The personal sense of putting real things on the line as opposed to merely tossing words around can be the motivation behind deeply felt actions. Some deep emotional issue can be healed or healing can begin as there is a willingness to let someone know what is going on as opposed to keeping it completely to oneself. There is an ongoing need to clear oneself of delusion and to get on with being realistic and practical. In this case it will involve the willingness to talk about things and relieve pressure in that way. There are certainly some snags which remain and some past things still need to be understood. Once this occurs there will be more direct effort prioritized to one's new ideas. For now a sorting out as to who is the boss or what remains hidden lingers on. There maybe a sense that sharing experience with another is desirable and this alone may lead toward resolution of one's ongoing challenges.

07 Friday June 17th - Moon enters Sagittarius 9:35 PM

Saturn square Neptune Saturday June 17th 11:30 PM

Full Moon in Sagittarius Monday June 20th 7:03 AM

Communication can be affected by changing or confused rules. A sense that one is being scrutinized or watched may be felt. The important matter of sticking to the rules may seem more apparent than typical however what the rules are may no longer be clear. Recent changes or recent fumbling in how things are supposed to be done or maintained may be causing questions and causing confusion as to how one proceeds. Ideally the individual will use this feeling to trace down rules that need to be reconsidered and to alter them such that they are more concise with an updated agenda. It may be enough to just identify flawed rules for now as there is time in the immediate future to restate directions. We are entering a window, between now and late July, where some unexpected social action or public event causes a hidden action to be revealed. An inclination to research why you are not the boss, or rule maker, yet feel you are up to it can offer results. The task is really about discovering one's specific value, hence aptitude favoring profession or career best suited and most inspiring can be unlocked. The ability to see beyond misconceptions about the role or to better grasp qualifications about what the role requires is at hand. Although it may not be assured and be well received this is a good time to ask questions as this will help penetrate the delusion and lead one to a more realistic bigger picture.

08 Monday June 20th - Moon enters Capricorn 7:56 AM*Summer Solstice Sun ingress Cancer Monday June 20th 6:35 PM*

Who owns what in terms of agreements and contracts may have to be looked into because things considered unalterable or absolute are turning out to be anything but. Those who have the skill of communicating accurately, or should we say with integrity completely free of exaggeration and falseness, can be very powerful these days, these times. If the power of clear of communication, honest communication, was better understood the quick witted may reconsider how words are assumed to be tools for convincing. The need to communicate clearly is in great need yet few seem to know what this means as communication has been tossed into a scam of personal marketing. Just stick with the facts and speak only the truth and even though you may reap some flack the benefits far, far, out weight the folly of tossing words around. The power of the human will is in the details and sticking to them can bring the individual into closer harmony with a planet wide revolution affecting all understandings of practicality. The Summer solstice begins on the tail end of the full Moon. A period of emotional sensitivity in relationship especially domestic and family relationships begins. Care giving and nursing those who need assistance will also be present. These domestic concerns may well include issues regarding the quality of health or health care as related to the specific individual.

09 Wednesday June 22nd - Moon enters Aquarius 4:10 PM

A possible sudden release or revealing of information to the public typically hidden related to social freedom and rights can occur, this possibility exists now and through the summer. Also powerful effective healing modalities can become available or be developed yet their existence may require the collapse or dissolution of false healing methods. Having one's otherwise clear communication interrupted by an overwhelming concern as to who's who can occur if the individual has been hooked into needing the support of others such that they can believe in themselves. The concept of elite groups may exist in one's sub-conscious. This may be somewhat hidden from one's typical conscious awareness, may not have a specific label or term, yet causes the individual to emotionally react in their presence. Do you need to be important, if so feel this out, it's important. By who's definition is your internal idea of importance defined? Once you know the answer presto magic begins to happen and you are released. Has the human will been given over far to easily to those who have no interest in human harmony yet will claim they do because this is what the human wants to hear? This is an ideal time to bust free from who's who trappings and to remove oneself from the need to feel embraced in a group by bowing to a leadership which frankly may only be concerned with its own self preservation. Ideally the individual will reach brilliance and will attract others socially who are allowed and inspired to think for themselves. Just because we have different opinions doesn't mean we don't love and cherish each other other, socially or domestically or personally.

10 Friday June 24th - Moon enters Pisces 10:32 PM*Jupiter trine Pluto Sunday June 26th 8:31 AM*

The individual is cautioned not to use the challenges or issues of others to distract them from their own. An interfering individual would do well to ask themselves what would they be doing if they were not interfering with others. Sensitivity increases and people may seem more emotional. With this extra sensitivity the individual must still sense and respect boundaries as they would typically. Getting involved in the affairs of others must be cautioned. There is however an opportunity to see beyond public or common emotional experiences and to instead begin to focus more specifically on an individual's own need. At what point are we actually interfering with another's process, good to know. This can be for example a good time for an individual to see how their involvement in the affairs of others affects their own security, either home or financial security. The difference between public relationship and one on one relations becomes important as well. The difference between interacting with the public, through one's work or business for example, and interacting with a partner in say a business or marriage, is potentially shown to the individual. Ideally the individual will be empathic with the public they serve and will feel either their goodness or pain however this individual will also know where the limit is in terms of becoming involved. In a partnership on the other hand a rather astute mental understanding adds a clarity which is used to view and flow with the partnership in ways specific and special to the partnership relationship.

11 Monday June 27th - Moon enters Aries 3:09 AM

Breaking the ice by being conversational and socially friendly is a nice thing. Keeping it light by just offering a simple hello to another is a simple way of letting us know we are not invisible and alone. As social creatures we like to be friendly, check. The need to be aggressive and pushy on the other hand can be frustrating, with a little more random human contact combat mode may feel less necessary. There is a good energy now to just be simple and friendly, not everything is serious all the time. There may be those who are in a big hurry right now and it may be best to step back and let them through. Competing is for fun and development of healthy things either personally or for healthy relationships, not to be first or better, or to feel destroyed because we didn't finish first. If you have healthy self love you always finish first, by the way. For some emotional reactions may be triggered by secret affairs or hidden agendas. The feeling that some power position is not being acted out or upon can set up anxiety. If there are public dynamics involved a sense that social freedom is being repressed a sudden reaction can result where unknown actives become revealed.

12 Wednesday June 29th - Moon enters Taurus 6:04 AM

Mars direct Wednesday June 29th 7:39 PM

A top source of foundation and comfort in this Moon cycle is having a good mind. The mind has an indifferent quality, remember we have a mind yet we are not our mind. An individual is easily manipulated when they believe otherwise. If an individual is not aware that thought creates, and we not speaking of simple repeating the phrase but living the motto, how then can an individual find true foundation? They cannot. People are easily manipulated by main stream media, as an example, for this very reason, they have no foundational way of understating what thought is and are oblivious to boot. As the Moon transits Taurus we will feel the leaks in our sovereignty if such exists as related to security. Security as defined by this Gemini Moon cycle comes from understanding the divine indifference of the mind. And this stems from knowing thought creates, it's all connected. We may react to the fact that something is too cliché in the way it is believed or spoken of, or that we need simply to extend that we are frozen in the beliefs spoon to fed to us. In reality life speaks to us and as human the Earth speaks to us, loves us. This is a good time to partake in Earth talk, whatever that may mean. We can meditate or make bird sounds whatever. We may imagine speaking with whales or listening to the sound of crickets. Is there intelligence in Earth speak, you bet!

13 Friday July 1st - Moon enters Gemini 7:45 AM

Dark Moon begins July 2nd 8:33 AM

Although one was easily inspired to turn their words into actions during this Moon cycle the challenge of dealing with rules and boundaries of others may have been more than expected. The need to prioritize reputation could very well have been the real meaning to the stiffness of others. On the other hand the ability to be discerning may have been the extra bit which assisted in accomplishing what normally fails to reach completion. Either way the need to make words more than words but to elevate ideas and information into actual actions and events is or has been the concern during this Moon cycle. Some relationships may be moving into new waters or least it is offered by at least one party. The need to clear a shared belief will require the cooperation of each individual. Many have cleared a dysfunctional belief lately however it will remain to be seen if the relationships which share this belief are also cleared and set to move further. An ability to focus one's sensitivity in a constructive way will be a sign that an individual has moved beyond a limiting belief, they will have the ability to discern and prioritize their actions to more effective means than what they have experienced in the past.

14 Sunday July 3th - Moon enters Cancer 9:21 AM

For many choices will affect or be affected by an increased emotional sensitivity. An exaggeration of home and domestic concerns can also begin. Issues involving families can be stirred up as some just get their feelings in front of them. A rising focus on families can also lead to happy experiences. Ideally the individual will discover those issues which have been ignored or put off as now these issues, the important one's, begin to affect them emotionally. Health issues can, or continue to be whatever the case may be, important now and for the next Moon cycle. The changes taking place in the health care industry for example may be more concerning or even alarming than initially thought, especially if one becomes suddenly involved. There is a huge restructuring going on, much of this restructuring may have been kept from the public yet this is so huge it can't all be hidden. The need to feel reassured by another who is typically there for you can be dicey as well as there is such an uncertainty as to what is there and available in terms of practicality. For those who are able to accept change a fresh new vision and inspiration is available, creativity and charged inspiration rises. The need to discard obviously disillusioned ideas, especially those which tempt an individual to not be 100% responsible for themselves no matter what, may be necessary and will most certainly lead the individual to a new clarity and prep them for new experiences related to their journey toward evolved awareness.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
