Overview

New Moon in Leo

Tuesday August 2nd 2015 4:46 PM EST

One's significance can become an important concern to them. It can be rather typical that an individual will fabricate a reality for the purpose of experiencing a feeling of significance. During this Moon cycle it is more about deconstructing these fabrications as opposed to building new one's. With that being said a reality may be constructed, or fabricated, for the simple purpose of busting down a previously fabricated now less desirable one. Fake realities, delusions about reality, pretend experiences, fantasies, these things all have their value and perhaps are real from a unique specific perspective. However the degree to which fabrication has been infused into a individual's life may be interfering with their agreed to bigger plan. One's life journey will not be hy-jacked by gross denial. If this is significant to the individual, that they believe in a bigger plan which is connected to their spiritual journey, and that they are over the top with fabrication, there is good news. This current Moon cycle in Leo as well as the next in Virgo, will be effective in supporting intentions to move beyond faking and instead move into clarity and align more closely with Absolute Truth.

An opportunity to increase one's awareness exists behind each instance of uncomfortableness, however the individual must be pro active in accepting this opportunity as opposed to rejecting it. "I don't like something or something makes me uncomfortable"? What is this complaining all about?. The difference between the individual who will move forward and the one who remains in wallowing self pity is in the status of their awareness regarding the nature of how thought creates. Those who have a healthy degree of self respect, self love, can more easily remember that thought creates. And there are some who may have rejected this notion completely. As this is a Leo Moon cycle the favor is toward self love as a natural order of things, and as such an opening in the prison of denial occurs as this individual, the self loving individual, is able to embrace this idea and give it a go. Important alignments at the new Moon support such an evolution in personal awareness. The new Moon trine Saturn in Sagittarius indicates the self confident individual can take on a laser type focus pertaining to what concerns them. They can be strong on priorities and cut to the chase with the things that are most important. When Saturn goes direct on August 13th a shift in this agenda prioritizing can occur, it becomes aggressive and sharper. There is a bit of a warning here as to be cautious at seeking validation from public opinion. The individual will do well to allow their excitement and joy at being involved in win win situations to be their motivator. Public recognition as the by-product of one's acts and expressions springs from one's awareness that their thoughts create, they are more likely to be free from fake or fabricated fame.

A grand trine of asteroids is present in water signs at the new Moon. Juno in Scorpio trine Vesta in Cancer trine Pallas Athena in Pisces which is in turn trine Juno in Scorpio. Each of these asteroids in some way involves sharing of values sharing of resources. And also include asteroid Ceres which is by the way in Taurus and also makes an alignment to all of the other three. All four asteroids indicate dynamics of sharing and being mutually supportive though the sensual aspect of being organic creatures. All four asteroids combine to bust greed and hoarding. It may, as such, feel extra good to share. It may feel attractive to share. Being involved in sharing resources can feel nurturing and responsible domestically. It may feel good to seek and discover a deeper meaning in dreams or to understand a past need to create specific fantasies and fabrications. Appreciating the sacred connections families have can cause some to consider others as they take steps toward reduced fake knowing and prioritize what is real and practical. What was fabricated in the past was done so for a good reason, Pallas Athena in Pisces indicates an opportunity to follow these desires and reset the emotional need of the individual who has the potential to now see the bigger picture of this desire. Being appreciated for one's sensual attraction and attractiveness also leads to sharing and being involved, there is potential for romantic harmony to bloom. The bottom line here is simply this, the individual who has engaged fabrication or falseness has the opportunity to grow beyond it, without losing anything but heartache and pain yet gaining glory love and all things wonderful.

With Saturn, Uranus, and the Sun all now in fire signs we can expect important actions, willful actions, as well as unexpected actions. Mars recently direct will ingress fire sign Sagittarius as well on August 2nd at 1:50 PM EST. Again actions are indicated, this time actions are in response to what was stalled or delayed going back to Mars retrograde period April 17 thru June 29th. The Moon now in Leo, again a fire sign, will prompt actions this time in response to those who are focused on getting the attention of others, especially socially or publicly. An emotional reaction related to pride or being known by others in some admirable way can trigger an anxiety which leads to an impulsive reaction. With Uranus in Aries thoughts which a society or greater community share regarding public rights and freedoms can translate quickly into action which has a collective significance. Saturn in Sagittarius denotes a serious tone in managing an agenda by being particular as to how tasks are being prioritized. Action and implementation is given to some things and not others and this will include policing where conversation tends to go. Less talk and more action may be called for by bosses or leaders. An individual's sense of their own significance and importance begins to gather more focus as indicated by the Sun's Leo ingress back on Friday July 22nd 5:31 AM. What an individual wants may be qualified to them by how they believe they are significant. The Sun in Leo can also spark a reminder to the individual that they are special and significant inspiring them to take the highest road where they are responsible for what they experience. These people can become leaders in an indirect way, as in leading by example.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Leo the focus will be on the joy of self expression. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing one's own impulse to interact with life as an expression of one's self admiration. Self acceptance and self admiration become the directors of one's involvement in life. An evolution of self awareness occurs as influences and beliefs which support or block one's inspiration from shining out into their world become consciously known. Those born under the Sun sign Leo have a natural propensity to express a powerful self confidence. They naturally resonate with the freedom to be themselves. Not to exclude others as we all have Leo energy somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign will enjoy the expressions of self confidence. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the nature of how self love is extended out into a shared world when impulses are followed in a dynamic yet effortless manner. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I connect with self admiration ...

Cancer: when I embrace my local environment and become sensually involved in life.

Gemini: when I exchange and communicate ideas with others while enjoying spontaneous interaction.

Taurus: when I trust and examine my feelings and allow these feelings to lead me to practical clarity and insight.

Aries: by trusting my enthusiasm and allowing my inspiration to move into dynamic expression.

Pisces: by being responsible and practical, by achieving my goals.

Aquarius: when I am involved with healthy fulfilling partnerships where ideas are communicated and shared with exciting interest.

Capricorn: by trusting my partnerships and becoming involved in mutually beneficial agendas.

Sagittarius: by accepting the adventures which my impulsive self leads me to.

Scorpio: whenever I allow my commitment to the public through my career.

Libra: when I allow myself to enjoy social freedom.

Virgo: by accepting my calling to be practical prudent and realistic within a universal world of compassion and shared interaction.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Tuesday August 2nd 7:02 AM EST - new Moon in Leo

The feeling that one needs to prove themselves may be stronger than usual. The sense the one is already special and is in control of their fate can also be an active self absorption. Ideally the individual will enjoy their power to create and will take advantage of the clarity and focus indicated by the new Moon's trine with Saturn. The heads up here is not to get swallowed in the delusions of external validation as the need to accomplishment to build one's public reputation can be a possible draw to those who are not fully aware of how their thoughts create. For those who will move forward positively with their career an ability to show superior objectivity and to be focused in an analytical way can be the reason or avenue to increased professional success. Wellness and healing can also be a player and in this particular Moon cycle this may well include the ability to advance one's awareness regarding their need to be accepting of themselves. This could mean letting go of some belief which involves needing to be someone who they believe others will admire. The true Leo energy is already there in terms of self acceptance and as such is acting as if this already is a given. For this type of energy the individual will more likely be involved in accepting all the others who have also achieved this self admiration and setting themselves harmoniously in a world where they are in some way equaled. This occurs when the individual understands the nature of relationship and partnership from the perspective of how they are mirrored by others. For example if there are lots of people being drawn to you who feel authentically good about who they are then you must be this as well.

02 Thursday August 4th - Moon enters Virgo 3:35 AM

Venus ingress Virgo Friday August 5th 11:28 AM

A sudden rise in criticalness can occur as an individual's need to experience greater foundational security can dominate their attention. The manner of measuring or valuing security will most likely be tied into a sense of what is an admirable quality. Whatever has qualified one's sense of self esteem or superior self image it can now feel as if it needs to be realistically supported. A rise in criticalness may also be related to health, or to getting down to the exact details in a plan, or may include a need to do a detailed survey as in who own's what, whatever the case there is an increase in being analytical and critical. Since both Jupiter and the Moon's north node have been transiting Virgo for at least a year now this current bout of analytical criticalness may be a continuation of what has been occurring for sometime. In terms of the current Leo Moon cycle a charged up critical drive can be related to the substantiation of some fantasy or delusional version of reality. The standard Leo formula of creating a fantasy so that one may be great or notable in some way can be motivation for big analytics. Leo energy can be very empowered by fantasy and it, in many cases, takes a dose of Virgo to keep things cleaned up and real. Ideally this is a good time to bust away from delusion and fantasy that has been overly consuming one and to be critical in selecting what is most important for one's security and health.

03 Saturday August 6th - Moon enters Libra 12:58 PM

To know where to park or to know how to move your ideas into community an interaction with others is generally required. For best results at having one's agenda moved forward is to intend cooperation and to thus avoid unnecessary confrontation over what are trivial matters. If some little thing is getting blown way out of proportion the individual is likely needing to look at what has been evaded and avoided at the ego level. The Moon transiting Libra will assist the individual in revealing the perhaps hidden intent in others as well as themselves. Ideally the individual will be astute in recognizing the echo or mirror process and have revealed to them parallel agendas. This is a good time to review who is mirroring oneself. This is best accomplished by following feelings as opposed to logic, the valuable mirroring experience will have an emotional significance. With Uranus in opposite sign Aries a social revolution is underway where the individual looks at who they are relative to their social role or position. A breaking free may be required, this independent freedom impulse can pool together and suddenly we see dramatic social events, unexpected social dynamics. To understand how to connect with and move one's self assumed identity into the public realm a need to identity and be realistic about one's own social relationships is helpful. Valuable connections are created when an individual with a self inspired agenda recognizes the same in others. Making things win win can be a real forward step in manifesting one's desired outcome. This also has the benefit of discovering one's best qualities as these qualities are shared with others.

04 Tuesday August 9th - Moon enters Scorpio 12:53 AM

Integrity in tact the ability to see and feel the superior quality of sharing brings into play a sensual aspect which is grand and exciting. There is a special alignment this Moon cycle which can indicate an effective attainment or healing of partnerships which involve intimate sharing. It Can be deeply emotional. It can also be a spiritual awareness which evolves as the feeling aspect of oneself moves into impeccable honesty and integrity. As well some may be feeling overly sensitive about who they believe is in control of their lives, especially their security as in their home or money or provisions. An innocent fixation on day dreams may have a deeper meaning. The opportunity to see the realism behind such escapes exists assuming the individual intends to see the emotional parallel between their fantasies and their apparent real events. Some may reveal something in confidence yet the real meaning may be to acquire romantic interest, or vie for attention. Romantic or intimate secrets may be shared in hopes of gaining attention. A parental figure may school or scold a dependant on the importance of being private and discrete. Some may align with a magical formula of manifesting an ideal partnership, especially romantically.

05 Thursday August 11th - Moon enters Sagittarius 1:25 PM

Jupiter quincunx Uranus Saturday August 13th 5:03 AM

Saturn direct Saturday August 13th 5:51 AM

Someone who has been expertly and bossy may be replaced. There's a new kid on the block. This replacement may be temporary yet it occurs because of a natural order or dynamic shuffle as opposed to an aggressive takeover. There may be a plan involved however the displacement of some specific authority is more accidental than purposeful. That being said there may also be, on the other hand, an aggressive takeover where a single individual challenges an embattled authority person. In this case it is likely related to social rights and community restriction which are believed to have gone too far. Either way what we are experiencing here is the need to be specific in what is deemed worthy of real follow up action and what is rambling disconnected ideas. So the heads up is if you want to challenge the boss you are best to have some action agenda planned as opposed to merely tossing words around. There are some people in an authoritarian position who have been taxed with delays and higher up changes yet these distractions will soon end and the old boss will be back to their former glory very soon. Also there has been some delusional ideas busted concerning power structure and the old school experts have been derailed, some of this sort of adjustment continues on now. Look at August 13th as the day when the presence of the authority agenda shifts.

06 Sunday August 14th - Moon enters Capricorn 12:13 AM

People who have historically played the role of the expert person, or the important one, have been having a real time of it for the past few years. Actually it's been going on for quite awhile and only seems to be getting increasingly more severe. The once considered systems and structures which had been erected around their routines are being dismantled, ouch. It's as if their responsibilities are becoming too complex, too complicated. Typically some fantasy made real empowers these individuals. Many live in fantasies a lot of the time as opposed to real realities, real realities being qualified by connection to the Earth and symbiotic organic integrity. Those who have been trapped in a deleted fantasy are typically those whose self importance was not so real yet they were blinded by their own light. Ideally the individual will save their own personal "movie" if you will by allowing and trusting their sensitivity. Using one's vulnerability to see through their own inappropriate rigidity. A good example is to focus on home family and domestic things. Something which will trigger sensitivity. Some mother issues may need to be looked at. Ideally the individual will recognize that the systems which run or allow society to run and function are undergoing massive change, this change occurring locally in one's community as well as globally. The infrastructure which allows practical harmony on the planet to function is being reset. The way, for example, to be successful in an endeavor or business is likely no longer supported by the current system infrastructure. Ideally the individual will realize this and look for new means, new ways.

07 Tuesday August 16th - Moon enters Aquarius 7:53 AM

Sun trine Uranus August 16th Tuesday

Full Moon Thursday August 18th 5:28 AM

One may be inclined to let their partner know how free they are, an implication here and there demonstrating one's sense of sovereignty. Feeling free to do as one pleases may be assumed to be a Universal truth, a Universal right, and perhaps this is so yet freedom must include all of one's creations, in other words there is absolutely no space for blame. The kind of freedom an individual believes they are entitled to may be absent of this awesome inclusion and as such a lesser or manufactured type of freedom may be at the root of their behavior. Acting as if all is allowed may simply be an unconscious ploy to confirm or substantiate a relationship or partnership. This can manifest as one making a point of being unique at the expense of some point or opinion, or more negatively being disrespectful as a way of implying that they are better. Ideally however one will recognize that there is indeed a higher order of freedom where one is impeccable responsible for their situation and blames no other. Here blame is simply dysfunctional. The Moon's transit through Aquarius can trigger a sense of invention, as in innovation, perhaps via mechanical invention, discovering some new ingenious way of doing something, a far out idea challenged to be considered in a more day to day or regular way. A feeling that one is trapped in a social elitism or feeling threatened by an assumed inclusion, or exclusion, within a social group can also be felt. Again ideally the individual will break free from local paradigm beliefs and see beyond localized laws and truth created by humanity to serve an artificial freedom and instead discover an absolute freedom where they are the epitome of self love.

08 Tuesday August 18th - Moon enters Pisces 12:53 PM

Choosing or aligning to a specific belief brings to the individual a sense of value, a value which is characterized by their assumed or acquired identity. Social and relationship character or identity is substantiated by alignment to a particular paradigm or belief. Beliefs as versions of reality can sometimes meet. When they do they will either harmonize or collide like two solid objects attempting to occupy the same space. Emotional reactions experienced as the Moon transits Pisces are most likely related to the quality of this meeting. With Pallas Athena, Chiron, and Neptune, all transiting Pisces there is strong indication that harmony will be the outcome. It may take some time some searching and confiding in some cases yet the ability to feel expanded perspectives on different beliefs and their correlating issues is supported. For the individual they must in many cases dance with this awareness evolution in that their personal character or social or relationship identity must also evolve. For over a year now the Moon's south node has also been transiting Pisces indicating a time where stuck or delusional realities and fantasies would be round up and all tossed into the same pool. Feeling one's reality and identity and beliefs being washed away and mixed in with what seems to them to be foreign beliefs and realities can be very challenging and difficult yet the bigger picture is good. The emotional challenges of accepting and letting go of specific beliefs may be simpler than thought as this accepting and letting go is the by-product of embracing one's creative power and being responsible for what one has given energy to in the past. All be it the ability to seek out and see this bigger picture may require great trust and faith and inspiration. The commitment to go for it is a signal of an evolving individual.

09 Saturday August 20th - Moon enters Aries 3:20 PM

Sun ingress Virgo Monday August 22nd 12:40 PM

Once one has aligned with their confident self, their Leo self, this confidence extends to their actions and most importantly to their impulses. They become sure in their actions and begin to do things instead of thinking and talking about them. This is encouraged by an attraction to having fun and enjoying themselves. The activities they are able to prioritize and partake in in turn remind them of, or trigger in them, a recognition of their bold warrior self. Aries like Leo is a fire sign and acts very independently. Aries independence is related to the speed at which things occur as opposed to planning and thinking things through. Whenever the Moon transits Aries an individual's impulsive self is exaggerated. Those who have attained clear congruency and integrity will follow nicely and harmoniously with bold courageous acts, yet those who are in turmoil fear and doubt may experience opposition and challenge. Uranus has been transiting Aries since 2011 indicating world wide social unrest. It is the individual global individual who is affected by Uranus in Aries and yet the feeling of freedom and the impulses which go along with Aries type freedom can pool together among the masses. Several individuals can suddenly be involved in the same sort of social rebellion. Mars, Aries ruling planet, is somewhat at home in Sagittarius as this is again a fire sign. With Saturn also in Sagittarius a teaming up or challenging of who is in charge of one's public role can play out. The impulsive self, for example, will go after freedom by challenging an authority figure, a rule maker, in their work place or their community. Ideally Mars in Aries will prompt some to take action which they may have been delaying. If the individual has been able to find harmony and see the bigger picture the action they take now will likely lead to a win win situation.

10 Monday August 22nd - Moon enters Taurus 5:20 PM*Mars conjunct Saturn Wednesday August 24th*

A solid foundation in the public eye, like a good job or career, can cause the individual to trust their sense of self, their identity. Also the reverse can happen, a loss of job for example can cause an individual to question their sense of self. Emotional reactions while the Moon transits Taurus can indicate the quality of one's public foundation and the relationship between this and their assumed identity, how they believe others know them. Security and comfort are under the microscope whenever the Moon transits Taurus. With Venus in Leo at the new Moon it's enticing to see one's self as admirable. Now with Venus in Virgo it's engaging to sort out details of one's admiration, all this to entertain and grow one's public image. Those who are particularly concerned about their self image and perhaps their appearance will want to appear steady and well grounded. The reverse works as well, being well grounded and steady in public interactions will support the image that one is admirable. With Venus transiting Virgo the steadiness will have to do with effective health type plans and agenda, like being critical with one's diet, making sure one drinks healthy water and gets a proper physical workout. These things can trigger a superior and admirable character from a public perspective. The Mars Saturn conjunction in Sagittarius can indicate some individuals really going for it in the authority field. Those who like to give the orders can feel empowered and bold. Ideally these individuals will be acting out of the best interest of others as opposed to solely their own. Mercury conjuncts Jupiter in Virgo indicating a host of new ideas are considered as one asserts rules.

11 Wednesday August 24th - Moon enters Gemini 7:41 PM*Mars conjunct Saturn Wednesday August 24th*

Talk which is not directly related to action can be viewed unfavorably. This may cause some disdain when ideas are shared. On the other hand talk which is directly related to actions is embraced and valued. The Leo quality of natural self admiration appears as one feels comfortable speaking and engaging others socially. For Leo energy it is much more fun to take action as opposed to simply talk about it. However having fun may have for some become serious business. Some may be taking the fun out of natural expression, coming up with all kinds of rules. Some assumed authority figures, the rules people, have been behaving differently. Some may have gone past their breaking point and are now less agreeable than in the past. This would not be because they didn't like or value rules, it's more like they realize the folly in their thinking and are now seeking new rules. Their challenge is to completely let go of what they no longer believe in. Emotional reaction around what is casual in a public way can likely be tracked back to one's belief and concern over public image. A sense they need to appear competent, or to be seen as a major achiever, or have some noble act or accomplishment associated with them, motivates and structures what they say and what they will listen to publicly. Ideally the individual will get the difference between what is clear agenda directed communications verses what is casual public banter. Some people's logic may not yet have been verified and so they at this point are riding on the idea alone. The need to address the validity of their logic requires some form of verifiable acts and events.

12 Thursday August 26th - Moon enters Cancer 11:07 PM

Some may become overly sensitive and picky as the Moon transits Cancer while Venus Jupiter and Mercury align in Virgo. An intention to embrace one's own sensitivity and vulnerability can be rewarding beyond comprehension. Consider the individual who is able to not be involved in the affairs of others yet is impeccable at accepting what is specifically their own responsibility. This type of intention or agenda makes perfect sense when the individual is aware thought creates. Our emotions, sensitivity and vulnerability included, give us the process, where as our thoughts and ideas give us specific substantiation or extension of our emotional process. Our ability to know events as examples of a process will evolve our common sense to the extent that we will see how others are creating for themselves opportunities to evolve their awareness. We are wise to recognize the greatness in others and as such we are able to explore their process through the events they create. When the Moon transits Cancer sensitivity and vulnerability can rise, typically this is so. Our challenge, if we can put it that way, is to recognize the events as examples and move our attention to the process. An unexpected meeting with an old friend is an event, what it causes us to feel is our process. We engage and talk with our friends via our mind, we review our process by noticing how we feel.

13 Monday August 29th - Moon enters Leo 4:13 AM

Venus ingress Libra Monday August 29th 10:08 PM

Mercury retrograde in Virgo Tuesday August 30th 9:05 AM

The analytical craze continues while individuals seek to experience significance. One's apparent intelligence may be qualifying their self esteem and yet such qualification may need to be checked and validated by some external event or dynamic. As we near the end of this Leo Moon cycle a period of reflection can begin. The need to accomplish something in view of others or in the qualification of others is perhaps the biggest Leo nemesis. Natural Leo energy has no interest in such qualification it is great, period. Leo energy is a transformative energy where new things are manifested into the world via Leo dynamics. It's much like the erase head on a tape deck, remember those, where the old information is written over by new stuff. Leo brings in the new stuff at the expense of deleting old. For the individual their significance as it is pursued in a shared world will likely be at the expense of something else. Ideally the individual will simply follow their inspiration, their joy, and things will roll out as they must. Such intention will have an integrity which makes provision for what the shared world is ripe for, it is not some planned takeover as it is a natural time for change. The emotional experience may have been higher than typical for some this Moon cycle and this is most likely connected with feelings concerning sharing values, or health. Values can be material things, property, or it can be comfort and security. A good way to experience integrity when it comes to shared values is by following one's inspiration and to seek and expect win win situations. The rise in analytical attraction can also be put to effective use by looking for precision in practicality as in making sure the Earth and her well being, as well one's own, are considered in one's intentions.

14 Wednesday August 31st - Moon enters Virgo 11:23 AM

The coming new Moon in Virgo can be an important Moon cycle to move toward effective healing as well as to experience the need to be critical and discerning as a way to keep oneself from being distracted from this major priority. Careers and professions who build real wellness programs or support the integrity of humanities connection with the Earth will bring in strong leadership and make effective important examples of integrity which can be sustained long past this Moon cycle. However this will most likely be at the expense of poor or fake medicine and health practices. The fall of those who have little integrity who are involved in the health industry could occur their authority smashed. This powerful clarity busting down redundant or fake rule can be in other fields or professions as well yet it is strong in the wellness field. Much of this busting down stuff will come right down to the individual as they must let go of fake pretend realities. The first step in letting go and becoming free from the entrapment in fake realities is to first know you are in them, this admission alone can be extremely effective.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
