Overview

New Moon in Scorpio

Sunday October 30th 2016 1:39 PM EST

There is a clearing of delusional ideas and notions which is occurring. One specific delineation marks this as being in play since November 12th 2015 and continues through this Scorpio Moon cycle. Control via words and ideas alone has been effective in the past however there may be a degree of overwhelm which many experience which words alone will not fix. The need to see deeper into that which seems off or questionable occurs. The confusion that many are experiencing is growing and expanding to the extent that things must be dealt with. The bottom line here is one's connection to the Earth and this can eventually lead many to the quality of their health. If there is a personal health issue then the individual will typically prioritize this. Knowing something is a miss in terms of what one has believed and the way things are appearing to be can lead to health issues if these things are not looked at. With Scorpio being the focus through this Moon cycle it indicates we have an opportunity to know more, to peer more deeply into things. Attention to who we are as a society will be more prominent than usual as the zodiac signs following Scorpio are more heavily occupied than usual. Sagittarius, Capricorn Aquarius, Pisces are all indicated as being exaggerated by the planets transiting there. Aries also has a strong focus. These signs hosted by a Scorpio new Moon will bring social conditions into personal relevance. We are looking at sharing of resources, or control over money and the need for power verses fair sharing and believing in win win situations. Trust will be big here as the way in which belief in trust is shown as effective or if there is a reconsidering necessary. Public importance and reputation as a public leader is also to get big focus. The idea that one is of their word or that one has been abusive with words will be fleshed out as many insist on looking more deeply into things. Actions congruent with an individual's self acceptance will have an expansive quality, their energy will issue a harmonic that typically inspires others. On the other hand saying one thing while believing something different is contradictory and will show up as a massive distortion. There is a fog of confusion which is called to be cleared and it is most likely linked to a lack of integrity in the public realm. The truth about the Earth and humanities connection must be foundational present at the beginning of all social constructions and systems least they will at some point fail, collapsing miserly. Ideas which are congruent with our love for the Earth our acknowledgement and consideration of the Earth will have an integrity which is based on this foundation. The inspirational quality of those who do public service with this key foundational element in place will, as the by-product of their action, become an inspiration to those who are aligned in a similar way. To seek power without consideration of the Earth will be a disaster, we can see this now. The call for integrity is occurring now and many will insist on knowing more about social control and global power. This will in turn begin to reveal the lack of integrity which has existed in fake integrity. This is a time when many will be exposed for their false self representation. We have seen some signs of this in the last year or two yet now it roars to a head. As things are exposed will the public in general connect to the Earth by openly acknowledging her? The fall of social systems and infrastructure will make room for new systems and there may be an improvement. Connecting to the foundational sustaining harmonic of the Earth and her place in existence is the key to rebuilding destroyed social infrastructure. Many are learning lessons and there are many lessons to learn however it is the joy of the journey which includes both the ups and downs which makes life exciting and certainly worth the adventure.

Scorpio awareness is a deep awareness. With the focus on Scorpio indicated by the new Moon many will look more deeply into things. The feeling nature of Scorpio brings up the sensual quality of Scorpio and this leads to comfort and security. As there are accepted beliefs in a society which give energy to the notion we are separate the need for money or some measuring of our property and values as opposed to trusting that all is connected is necessary. This is important to realize now as the natural resonance of moving toward harmony and trust will expose control which is not in sync with the natural order of existence. Control over shared values and resources as well as public reputation, indicated by the continued focus on Sagittarius, are the big thing right now. The need to move delusion and inappropriate distracting beliefs aside is also occurring. There are many long standing beliefs about society, control, and power over societies, which are mutually contradictory and these beliefs are colliding. Some may qualify this by the increase in communication technology over the last decade or two which has caused a less bounded isolation between long time historic human cultures. This collision is creating a fog of confusion for the public who may not be aware that they know very little of the complete story. The in's and out of secret control is not such a big deal when you know it is being purged from global influence anyway. Ideally the individual will be evolved to the awareness and feeling that thought creates are realize that their mind is apart of their body, thus their sovereignty will be resilient to the massive collapse of social control which lacks a congruent harmonic in sync with basic Absolute truth. Absolute truth being consider here is "thought creates". The need for the individual to prioritize and respect the Earth, to feel their partnership with the Earth, may or may not be their first realization yet it is the realization which will ultimately bring them the most comfort and congruency. Scorpio is about partnership with the Earth, about being sensual, about sharing vital resources. If there is an overwhelming amount of greed in one's world then this greed will be shown and the taps toward it's release and demise will begin. It is up to the individual to expand their common sense and to not be distracted by logic which lacks sensual acknowledgement of being human. Who defines the paradigms of humanity? This question may not be answered, or perhaps it will, yet the ability to ask the question is an important first step in for the individual who is intent on being their own authority.

The sense that it is time to buckle down and get good with focused prudent decisions regarding one's security will be a main theme of this Scorpio Moon cycle. What makes this effective is an interest in being strict, discerning, and astute. For some it's fun to be serious. This may seem a bit strange and non typical yet if this strangeness can be temporarily ignored and the impulse toward clarity regarding security followed passionately the individual can do important things which pay off in the near future. There is also good energy and motivation for the individual to move ahead with a mission or project, especially if it is work related. A recent run in with some non negotiable force may have assisted some in realizing what they must do and what not to do, thus giving them a more effective route in which to engage and take action. Partnership dynamics remain active, some partnerships will be engaged in security seeking dynamics as a signal or message to their partner that the partnership is important to them. Ideally the coming Moon cycle will assist individuals in understanding and accepting how sharing values is a natural impulse and will create harmony and pleasure on many levels.

The focus on Scorpio energy offers the individual an opportunity to develop a specific skill which is of interest to them. The desire or dream to become proficient at some specific thing requires a special dedication and or study over a period of time. The manner in which Scorpio type character supports intention to go after such a thing is quite pronounced, once a thing is qualified and accepted as one's prime interest actions toward development of this can begin. It is especially good as a new Moon intention, to set one's self on a course of achieving an expertism in a particular area. Per this specific new Moon in Scorpio the prioritizing of a healthy relationship with the environment is indicated. Developing things which are pro healthy environment can feel like they have better traction they usual. An inspired individual may for example support a partnership which involves noble acts regarding the environment. When we consider the sensual nature of Scorpio we can see the individual will have potentially a richer connection with their body in terms of feeling and knowing their body's experience as they use their body to exercise a specific talent. The ability to train the body in specific things is greater when Scorpio energy and influence is present and thus creates an opportunity to develop talents which require the body's presence such that the individual can experience them. Example may be sports, arts as in playing musical instruments, other arts such as drawing or painting, cooking skills are also connected to the body's opinion, there are many avenues of developing skills which can be potentially explored. And yet the potential is not limited to these things, it is what ever the individual is inspired to develop as they feel deeply their commitment.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Scorpio the focus will be on emotional depths we reach by embracing shared experience. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of valuing and acknowledging the truth of sensuality and the rich life which unfolds into our immediate experience through sensuality. Such experience brings forward powerful energy which births new life and transforms our world in many ways. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of transformation and power is noticed and valued. Those born under the Sun sign Scorpio have a natural propensity to sensuality and deep rich involvement in life. They can surprise others at times with their talent, they become an expert in those areas which inspire them. Not to exclude others as we all have Scorpio somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience deep insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward sensual experience of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Sunday October 30th 1:39 PM EST - new Moon in Scorpio

Asset sharing can be about money and power and things like that yet the real meaning or comprehension of asset sharing at it's foundational core is sensuality. Without sensuality humans are not human, they are more likened to machines. As we experience this new Moon and unfolding Moon cycle in Scorpio it is sensuality of the individual which is elevated in availability. One's sensuality can become important to many if it is not already. The beliefs one has about sensuality can be looked at and tracked back to the source of authority the individual gave their approval to. A specific alignment at the new Moon can use some attention. The quincunx between Juno in Scorpio and Ceres in Aries indicates a focus on sharing values as the cornerstone to relationship understanding. For many a resurrection of sensuality in terms of being the link between themselves and their partner can occur. The sense of responsibility as it is understood from the perspective of cherishing sensuality is also marked for return. The individual who feels and trusts the value of sensuality in themselves and others will come alive with big time power. The ultimate relationship here and where this is all based is one's relationship with the Earth. As one sees the simple truth in how sensuality is connected with the sustained presence of a species on the planet it is simple to see how sensual passion is connected to the Earth. This process of being alive, as human, has the potential to refresh the individual's excitement for life. A parallel between environmental harmony and the human fulfillment can be discovered and approached, yet it requires individuals to embrace their sensual nature.

Report number 167

02 Tuesday November 1st - Moon enters Sagittarius 10:44 AM

An effective and focused way of dealing with priorities is available today. The clarity an individual has regarding shared resources easily translates to effective prioritizing. The business of being focused is more attractive than usual. Beliefs which scorn strict rules may interfere yet ideally this is a time to bust or reevaluate such beliefs as these beliefs may not be so appropriate all the time. If the individual is bent on accomplishing something which is important to them this is a good time to do such, especially if it requires a serious mutual commitment. Partners who are good with each other can work very well today. It may be the case that one takes the lead in terms of keeping things precisely on track yet because it is a win win opportunity this is most certainly okay. An optimistic feeling that a partnership is good and working well can be felt. Ideas and excitement regarding a partnership may build. A recent new partnership may be showing substantial benefit as opposed to being wishful hoping, yet it will require real action. The actions will be characterized by a shapely focused no fooling around sort of thinking. This means frivolous conversation may be called out for being counter productive or simply a waste of time.

03 Thursday November 3rd - Moon enters Capricorn 11:06 PM

Strong and even forceful winds of change have taken many picked them up and got them involved. The big motivation is the need to change some inappropriate social structure or system which is seen as incorrect for modern society. A deconstruction team may gather and dismantle some social structure. Individuals are involved not just complaining or talking with intention but actually getting their hands on the system infrastructure and changing it. This changing may mean, and most likely so, taking things apart or simple destroying some inappropriate infrastructure which was intended to service a community or the public but simple is seen as outdated so to rubble it goes. Nature as in Mother Nature may be involved as well taking things down through her way. If so rest assured nothing which is being removed is functional in her future scenario. This goes for humanity as well, what will be useful in their idea or belief about the future will not be touched, only that stuff which is restricting quality of life for society and community is taken apart. Once it is taken down the rebuild will follow. In fact some of what is occurring now can be the rebuild of something which has been destroyed in recent years or months. We are most certainly witnessing a social revolution on a planet wide level, real change.

04 Sunday November 6th - Moon enters Aquarius 8:56 AM

Those who have followed and evolved themselves along the credo "know thyself" will experience great insight this Moon cycle. An ability to not only see beyond local paradigms but also a very special ability to think of and construct solutions to social problems where all benefit comes alive. An ability to find win win situations in the midst of apparent failure is possible. There are those who can find a higher common denominator because they are not bound by the fear of limitation. Knowing fear is a choice for example releases constriction and supports the individual, it frees their mind their insight, a higher order or bigger picture comes into focus. From this expanded panoramic perspective solutions to standing social malfunctions can be grasped. The simplicity of accepting followed by choosing to focus on what people have in common as opposed to what they do not is enough to expand an individual's awareness. As typical when the Moon transits Aquarius the big cork in social harmony is the stickiness of being enamored by beliefs which focus on who's who as opposed to loving and embracing an individual's sovereignty. Actively pursuing one's agenda remains constant and brings people to life as they are tired of talking and are now in full action mode. A deconstruction of social devices and social infrastructure systems is occurring because people are now taking action to do such.

05 Tuesday November 8th - Moon enters Pisces 4:46 PM

Mars ingress Aquarius Wednesday November 9th 12:53 AM

Thinking of realities and opinions as like soap bubbles floating about, they are rather helter skelter in their directness, or absence of it, and yet those who are within a specific sphere or reality are typically in the state of not seeing beyond their own suds. The freedom of existence is real and can be achieved and experienced when the individual realizes they are captivated within a specific reality. Mars makes an Aquarius ingress during this Moon Pisces transit indicating a switch of agenda or at the very least a switch in the action plan as social consideration and social freedom become the criteria which qualifies one's actions. Fighting for freedom may be triggered. Others will fight for harmony. The social situation that individual's find themselves within however is again based on these reality bubbles and it is most advantageous to admit and thus free oneself when such a belief is realized. The process of admitting is enough to free oneself because doing so releases one's vision of possibility and allows them to see beyond a boundary they previously did know existed. How does one know they are within a reality bubble, within a restricted belief system? It's simple a matter of paying attention to how one feels. Our feelings are literally our ticket to freedom. When unaware and not realizing one is trapped in some sort of limited reality how can they free themselves from it? The Moon in Pisces will increase the potential to feel beyond the boundaries of limitation and for those who are willing to embrace their vulnerability freedom becomes richer.

06 Wednesday November 10th - Moon enters Aries 8:44 PM

Venus ingress Capricorn Saturday November 12th 12:05 AM

Mercury ingress Sagittarius Saturday November 12th 9:41 AM

Some react to the actions of others while others feel they need to take actions. The impulsive self is tested as the Moon transits Aries and the steadiness as well the quality of one's foundational beliefs are show. Those with a disciplined mind and directed mental focus will do well as they consider and take particular action. The courage to stick up for things like family or to protect and save the environment may be charged as well. The impulsive self will likely rule some as they suddenly take to action and make moves to either destroy old social symbols or to act upon the call for new social methods. Either way those who typically sit on the fence or internally brood, or internally consider some important great act, may finally do something. A deep concern for ones shared security will fire up reaction, the emotional pain for self and others like family or friends and associates has shown too much in terms of uncovered and newly realized information. There is strong energy for those who feel the same thing to team up and express their view as they act as a social force. Their actions will in some way be connected to people who have been important or who have been famous or who have some kind of exaggerated public position and reputation. Ideally the individual will clear out their stops and blocks and free their impulsive self. The impulsive self works wonderfully when the individual is congruent and of evolved integrity. When this is less so their impulsive self makes real what they have perhaps resisted in the past. As such it is a good idea for every individual to deal with their issues before an energetic transit like this comes along. Referring to whatever the individual believes, the big thing now is to understand spontaneous character and intend harmony with one's real interest.

New Moon Sunday October 30th 2016 1:39 PM EST

Report number 167

07 Saturday November 12th - Moon enters Taurus 9:25 PM

Feeling emotionally unsettled is lessened by focusing on how partnership creates steadiness. Once steadiness is there in a partnership the individual can feel deeply and accept and become okay with things typically unsettling. A healing process occurs as the feelings of others are seen as being relevant yet not necessarily one's own immediate issue. An ability to clearly feel what is ones own issue and what is not makes for feelings of peace and harmony with others. Security in terms of values and money can also be focused on, an ability to keep things simple and real is again supported within a harmonious partnership. If there is uneasy feelings about security and values in a relationship this Moon transit can reveal them. Individuals typically look for simplicity and very basic common sense, like feeling the Earth and being grounded. Venus has made a Capricorn ingress and so this focus on simplicity will assist the individual in feeling a solid foundation as they allow themselves to accept changes in the way communities function and find common ground. Especially in the way communities are dealing with big changes to their social infrastructure, as this can affect the household and family expenses and income. It is important to look for changes that are real and to accept new ways of connecting to community. If there is difficulty in finding or feeling security it may be because someone is lingering in the past. Always the Earth can guide and show us how to be happy humans. It this sounds strange or confusing simple take the time to acknowledge the Earth for her beauty and support of living creatures. Can she hear you, feel you? Our connection to the Earth is more important than can ever be stated and this Moon transit in Taurus can be especially valuable in showing us what is missing if we have forgotten her. Our partnerships can be considered to be including our partnership with the Earth. Our security as in our physical needs is a two way deal.

08 Monday November 14th - Moon enters Gemini 8:24 PM

Challenging is how ideas beliefs and conversation flood minds and the real hearing of values, the actual human sensuality quality of sharing, is knocked aside. Internal processing and internal dialogue can be more apparent as the Moon transits Gemini. This dialogue can begin to supersede the actual emotional experiences in partnerships. However if the individual has developed an awareness that they are not their mind they will naturally move into an objective clarity. Most likely observing where their mind goes, exposing hidden beliefs they may have. Ideally conversation will be about things necessary and real in terms of comfort security and foundational practicality for the individual and their partnership. With Saturn and now Mercury both transiting opposite sign Sagittarius a challenge to be on point is issued especially when discussing work or job related agenda. This is more about how partnerships share ideas about their security than anything else as the Sun continues to transit Scorpio. Discussing the nature of sharing and the status of a partnership's resources can be beneficial now. When the intention is to do so things can be brought to light and solutions offered. These solutions will be ideas yet there are real actions involved as well. Actions can include social connections and friends or the public in general yet the motivation and intent remains the security of one's partnership.

New Moon Sunday October 30th 2016 1:39 PM EST

Report number 167

09 Wednesday November 16th - Moon enters Cancer 7:58 PM

Sensitivity rises as a need to travel beyond one's typical comfort zone appears on the horizon. Some optimistic partnership ideas which have generated promise and enthusiasm can be busted in the next few days as they are challenged by changes to how the individual understands their connection with society. Recent aggressive social talk may have triggered a thought and emotional feelings which cause the individual to see and imagine new things related to ideas discussed. A need to deal with major social community changes, systems run by governments or medical assistance or journalistic media services included, has been ongoing for some time and it is here while the Moon transits Cancer where the individual feels an almost exaggerated reaction to these things. How these changes are going to effect the individual is perhaps real or assumed yet this doesn't necessarily stop the individual from feeling concern. As such this is a very good opportunity for the individual to explore what is most important to them, and this is known by what what causes them emotional distress. An ability to be discerning can free the individual from difficult outcomes in their future. What is real is what the individual is reacting to as opposed to what the ego deems significant. When the ego is directed by the individual's intention to explore why they are reacting to some specific event they will more likely tune into the process behind events and begin to expose important beliefs they were perhaps unaware they held.

10 Friday November 18th - Moon enters Leo 10:16 PM

What can trigger an individual to feel really good about themselves lately is their admirable dedication to what is sacred to them. Having a decree and a purpose which is founded in a sense of sacredness however can be challenged right now. Ideally the individual will accept this challenge and reform their self image if such is necessary. A who's who belief system can trigger emotional reactions as well. The sense that one is unable to make headway into their agenda can cause them to retune their plan however when the block seems to get mixed in with or messed up with situations which seem to challenge their perceived importance, the who's who thing, the individual is challenged with the need to examine their beliefs. Perhaps it is a naivety related to how their identity, or the identity of another, is perceived as compared to how it was assumed to be perceived? These challenges can be played out in one's professional or public realm. As such there is an opportunity to shine in one's public or professional role as action by some are seen as wonderful examples of integrity and fairness. The sacred approach mentioned initially followed with integrity can become an inspiration to others as a feeling of one's potential is awakened by the courageous actions and impeccable character of others.

11 Monday November 21st - Moon enters Virgo 4:34 AM

A feeling that it is best to keep social conversation limited to what is relevant may be felt. Some may be experiencing overwhelm in terms of dealing with many failing relationships all at once. There is also a sense that one is being cleared of delusional relationships and as such the individual now attempts to hang onto delusions which are fading fast which can cause them to feel lost. The idea here is to notice how the actions of others can effect one's happiness or sadness. It is good to have friends and it is beautiful to relate to others however it must be clear to the individual that there are certain things which are just not their business. A habit of being everybody's mother socially can for example be busted now. The individual who would do this, be everybody's mother, is doing so for some reason and it is their business to discover what this is. Of course we can be nurturing to others, our friends or even strangers, we will benefit from realizing that everybody is on their own journey and when we interfere with this we create waves of confusion which must eventually be dealt with. We are in a somewhat grand cycle where delusions are being busted and individuals are being called to mind their own business in an impeccable way. This can be affecting one's physical health. Our body is our priority and when we see our body taking major steps to service our health we are simply forcing ourselves to prioritize our own business.

New Moon Sunday October 30th 2016 1:39 PM EST

Report number 167

12 Wednesday November 23rd - Moon enters Libra 2:43 PM

Assumed ideas about partnerships are fleshed out as feelings concerning what was considered real and what is real are differentiated. More rules are pronounced, perhaps as a result of what is occurring in a partnerships. Since the new Moon Oct 30th there has been an interest in making a partnership work and so many of these relationships have been taken to the next level where some sort of implementing has occurred. Differences become obvious, some things which were assumed to be common are perhaps not and so there will need to be some adjustment. Before this adjustment can happen however the boundaries need to be further discussed such that a common ground can be established. These issues may be more important right now as the individuals involved want to get moving on their shared agenda, or what they thought was a shared agenda. This is actually a good time to flesh these things out, a new Moon on November 29th in Sagittarius signals an effective time to make steps which follow the clarity gained now. Another obvious matter occurring, the need to have a partnership which is dynamic, which can accept changes happening on a big scale and on many levels. If for sample a partnership was formed with the notion they could resurrect an old system then this partnership will be challenged as there is clearly no going back to yesterdays social systems.

13 Friday November 26th - Moon enters Scorpio 3:03 AM

A well informed individually, or partnership, may have recently come to terms with, or at least been exposed to, the quality of their security. It may involve money and contracts, business control, relationship cooperation, comfort through sensual experiences, many different things, however the individual shares that which they consider to be of value. Specific things are considered because they can be shared and thus become an extension of a partnership. Consider our partnership with the Earth and the values we share with the Earth. How we accept and honor our partnership with the Earth maps integrity in other partnerships. Ideally individuals will discover new ways to share values, or to create values because they are able to share. This Moon cycle may have assisted many in forming partnerships where an evolved sense of sharing and being fair is a core theme. Instead of being suspicious for example we choose to openly discuss what is important to us as an individual and make an intention to have this function in a partnership. It's like being able to give to a partnership without feeling threatened that our sovereignty is not supported. We are perhaps better equipped to have our cake and eat it too because our partnership has a special vibe and we experience a special connection.

14 Sunday November 28th - Moon enters Sagittarius 3:47 PM

The new Moon tomorrow will assist those to get going with their intentions to serve the public.

New Moon Sunday October 30th 2016 1:39 PM EST

Report number 167

Public reputation will be connected to how one deals with recent social changes or changes in how the public is feeling. There are many social changes going on currently so there is much avenue to be of service. It may take some clear considering and some creative insight however there is lots there. What is not there is the old ways of governing and keeping society and community in harmony, instead our current agenda must work and proceed from a new blueprint. This being known will assist many as they will be able to eliminate many things which could now be considered a poor use of one's time and energy and instead see the new light of the future in terms of possibility. This who like to actively involved will do well if there are able to do this, take action based on what they see as the blueprint.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
