Overview

New Moon in Sagittarius

Tuesday November 29th 2016 7:19 AM EST

Within the relating pattern or activities of a newly formed partnership individuals show a new found courage to be active socially. Jupiter is a big planet and it's current transit through Libra (September 9th 2016 thru October 10th 2017) can be a huge indicator regarding partnership relationships. It's like an outbreak of assuming a relationship potential is very good. Many are feeling they would be interested in checking out a partnership. This feels a bit like receiving a gift, there is some excitement in the air regarding partnership potential. An individual who feels or projects their situation toward a partnership scenario will feel an increase in personal energy and have more stamina to go after what they want. This can lead to real or long lasting partnerships beyond the Jupiter transit Libra window. The significance at this specific Sagittarius new Moon is Jupiter is trine Mars in Aquarius. Partnerships especially those begun on or before this last September, can be felt to have a social significance, a feeling that one has the energy to act upon their ideals regarding social rights, as an example, is potentially exploited. Partnerships in business can especially feel empowered to take a mutually supported idea to the public. Considered in the Sagittarius mix and specifically Juno conjunct the new Moon a feeling that one is supported by their partnership, that there is an appreciation awakening within because they like working with their friend or associate, can be amplified. Partnerships that are so called "meant to be" will last past the fall of 2017 yet for now the big fire is set and new career partnerships can be born.

This new Moon will assist those to get going with their intentions to serve the public. Public reputation will be connected to how one deals with recent social changes or changes in how the public is feeling. There are many social changes going on currently so there is much avenue to be of service to community. It may take some clear considering and some creative insight however there is lots there. What may be missing is the old ways of governing and keeping society and community in a functional state, instead our current agenda must work and proceed from a new blueprint. This being known will assist many as they will be able to eliminate many things which could now be considered a poor use of one's time and energy and instead see the new light of the future in terms of possibility. Those who like to be actively involved will do well if they are able to do this, to take action based on what they see as the new direction toward social harmony.

Many things considered absolute are falling apart. The historical acceptance of facts repeatedly used to qualify social decision is crumbling and many are asking what the heck is real? Even the idea of imperial evidence is in shaky territory a la "Mandela Effect". So what is real? This report assumes creators perfection is real, or we are perfect have been perfect and always will be perfect. This statement or belief or understanding, perhaps notion, is indicative or supported by, or an extension of, the belief "thought creates." From this perfection premise many historically and currently accepted beliefs assumed absolute are not. If there is an absolute truth as delineated from this perfection premise it is thought creates. Once we look at conflict and challenges from the assumption and vantage point of this perfection premise being an absolute truth an expanded resolution exist which can be applied to typical current confusion as to what is going on. Here however is the big challenge, each individual who chooses blaming whatever on another, in other words judgment, is merely stuck managing their denial. There is incredible strength in the human will as this will is affiliated with a creature, referring to human, which is endowed with the ability to create, how auspicious is that!?

A theme indicated in the new Moon phase is the need to be appreciated for ones professional achievement. Those who choose to acknowledge others for their public value will perhaps witness a different reaction or response than they did in the past. However acknowledgement is not to be words, or words alone, actions must be present. To acknowledge one through actions can be powerful during this Moon cycle. Words alone can be off putting, actions however will signal real acknowledgement. Words are to be effective and efficient as opposed to wondering and unfocused. There will likely be frivolous words, or it will appear as such because everyone has their own specific agenda and needs, everyone has there own beliefs. Think of it as an opportunity to discover differences, differences some have with others they were oblivious to. This is the value or opportunity, to uncover difference via participating in the agenda of another and supporting a plan relative to their belief as opposed to one's own take on how things should be or how things are. Many things assumed to be rock solid in the "this is real" department are turning to sand. If one finds themselves standing on a beach they previously did not know existed perhaps they can take in the ocean breeze for a moment, the vastness of existence is important to acknowledge and be realistically aware of. The specific relativity of one's immediate plan, say being successful through one's career, is repositioned. An ability to loosen up in the what is possible department can facilitate an expanded panorama availing more choices. Also an ability to interpolate and find connection between apparent differences opens up possibilities. Essentially or potentially the individual moves their attention away from so called physical events which make up their dramas and begin to see the whole thing as their process.

SunSign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Sagittarius the focus will be on activities which increase public value. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of discovering and acting upon the interconnection between apparent separate dynamics which make up daily experience. Such realizations bring forward an effortless yet dynamic interchange with our world as we intend and seek those experiences which are motivational. An evolution of self awareness occurs as connections and insights become instantaneous with our experiences. Those born under the Sun sign Sagittarius have a natural propensity to dynamic public involvement. They naturally and easily become leaders through their quick dynamic actions. Not to exclude others as we all have Sagittarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience expanded insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public commitment of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience an expansion of insight when I ...

Scorpio: accept and trust my body to show me and lead me to what is most interesting.

Libra: connect with others and share ideas with those who are immediate to my current intention.

Virgo: pay attention to how I emotionally feel about my public value.

Leo: move on my inspiration with joy and excitement.

Cancer: organize my personal responsibilities.

Gemini: allow myself to become involved in the dynamic adventure of partnership.

Taurus: allow the richness of my partnership to attract public value.

Aries: move courageously forward into new territories of social and public interaction.

Pisces: accept the leadership role which my chosen career leads me to.

Aquarius: embrace the value of social interaction.

Capricorn: allow and accept the opinion of others.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

To get a more complete or expanded feeling of this Moon cycle consider reading through the fourteen descriptions which follow. Many themes are included here and although relevant to the particular Moon phase and period are also relevant to the entire Moon cycle.

01 Tuesday November 29th 7:19 AM EST - new Moon in Sagittarius

Seeking approval through actions which affect the public reputation of self or others occupies the dynamics of those who are wanting public recognition. Many will want to show their partner they mean business, assumed important actions are taken to verify partnership commitment. Actions outside of partnership concerns and dynamics are also motivated by the individual yet they will have in common an astute interest in public and professional matters. A need to find an effective way to deal with changing social and community systems is considered and the thing which was elected to be the most sound or effective way to accomplish the objective is now acted upon. If there is a partnership involved this will or can act as a catalyst as one wants to show another they are real and onboard with a mutual commitment. Delusions abound, it can seem as if some have no criteria for determining what is real or significant. And then to discover that one is the subject of their assessment. Be prepared to discover that one has been unknowingly delusional. If we are under the belief that all is energy then what is real? After all many things can become real because they appear to be real through seeing. Ideally the way to measure or determine what is significant is to value this significance relative to maintaining ideal health.

02 Thursday December 1st - Moon enters Capricorn 3:53 AM

Mercury ingress Capricorn Friday December 2nd 4:19 PM

The avenue by which big controllers have functioned in the past can be challenged because the blueprint or mechanism which kept their global operations in effective congruency no longer functions and things are getting messy messy! In order to make steps forward in the accomplishing of one's agenda they must be astute to the territory to which the plan is implemented. There can be a sense of panic within the realm of accomplishing ones intention as the landscape which would facilitate the construction is no longer predicable. On the big scale the manner in which corporations or institutions or large encompassing world wide groups would move forward is severely hampered as there is simple too much going on in terms of changes within a once static infrastructure. In the meantime teams may be directed yet if the team is not equipped with a mechanism which allows them to be spontaneous they will not be able to remain in sync with their bigger team. The long time methods of remaining on top of challenges will no longer work. An awareness of how impulse intention inspiration and spontaneity can be organized and directed via a shared harmonic will in the end be the prevailing presence.

03 Saturday December 3rd - Moon enters Aquarius 2:45 PM

A compelling spontaneous urge to express freedom rises. A call for social freedom since 2011 influenced now by the Sagittarius Moon cycle triggers individual actions which imply one's belief about society and specifically where and how the individual fits in. An assertion toward and also against elitism for example can be prominent. As the individual feels they are significant they may target what they believe has been repressing them. Social energy can pool up and bust as has been happening for several years now. The individual would be wise to consider that they are not nor have they ever been a victim and as such they would be wise to seek and gleam the purpose for their social exclusion if such is the case. On the other hand there are those who simple follow their inspiration and understand how social dynamics are the echo or reflection of their beliefs. Some become inspiration to others as they simple follow their interest and accept their experiences as manifestations of their beliefs and thoughts. Some who are on a mission will speak more confidently and aggressively then what would typically be expected from them. An indicator is present affecting the inventive type person, they may feel inclined to share special innovate ideas. Ideas pertaining to a technology break through can be brought up, these ideas shared in a functional way.

04 Tuesday December 5th - Moon enters Pisces 11:32 PM

Venus ingress Aquarius Wednesday December 7th 9:52 AM

Misguided and fake absolutes are being busted. In order to expedite delegate and multi-task one's most important priorities the enviable connection to one's core beliefs is tested. In this Pisces Moon transit an opportunity to discover one's most crucial belief, that belief which is affecting current interest and actions, is perhaps at hand sending a signal via emotional reaction. Know thy self as a historically reoccurring advice has merit. So how to do this? Pay attention to emotional reactions. Our emotional reactions are significant in that they are directly in cahoots with the intention to increase self knowing. As the Moon transits Pisces our false sense of reality, if such exist, is right in front of us. Our emotional reaction leads us to our false notions and the correlating authority we accepted. We must however be willing to admit a false identity and accept the nebulous quality of our reality. This false identity is who we assume ourselves to be in the eyes of others. Our ability to let go will be as such directly related to the feelings we have about some situation. An ability to experience many situations by the way we feel about them and interpolate or embrace an objective common significance which connects these many experiences is currently possible, an important opportunity is occurring. In other words many realities, or opinions, are no longer seen as individually more accurate or real than any other one, instead these realities are all true, or not true depending on one's perspective, from an expansive sense of what is absolute.

05 Thursday December 8th - Moon enters Aries 5:17 AM

These next two days can feel a bit urgent if one is in the process of actively pursuing a project. A need to take action can be felt yet the exact thing to satisfy this feeling may not be known. Ideally the individual will have things already organized and planned to the extent that they can react with effective impulse and be quick and immediate with their intention. If on the other hand a clearly defined action plan was not already in place a sense of frustration and agitation is possible. The individual is wise to be patient and take their time selecting those tasks which are in harmony with what they already have going or what they know to be apart of another's plan. A meet up with authorities today can lead to unexpected events in a few days. This may be a good time to be really clear about the boundaries and rules such that unwanted surprises can be kept to a minimum. A willingness to be more open and dynamic in a social way may have some being more involved in community or social groups than typical. Even though there may appear to be specific rules to follow the feeling that fun can be had is also present and the social interactions can be enjoyable. A sense that social dynamics are important or relevant may be exaggerated for some yet it offers an opportunity to enjoy relationships which may typically be about business only.

06 Saturday December 10th - Moon enters Taurus 7:42 AM

An ability to clearly understand the rules one imposes on themselves, or rules which are expected by others to be followed, is heightened right now. Some may actually appear to be in charge of a shared project or agenda where as typically they would not be so concerned. This is a good time to share the rules especially if they can be stated or demonstrated in a way acceptable to most everyone. A need to be successful in a public or professional way may dominate the intention of some. The thing to realize however is this two day period requires that things become simplified, both activities and thoughts. In order to feel one is on top of their duties and responsibilities, especially if there is a lot going on, a settling down, at least for a day or two, may just be the fix. This is especially true if the individual is beginning to feel exhausted or is feeling any health concern coming on. Ideally the individual will use the next day or two to get steady and grounded. If there is a lots going on think of this as the time to reconnect with the most basic fundamental responsibility. Whatever it takes to keep things simple will likely work. For some it could be settling their mind down and allowing basic simple understandings to be recharged and perhaps restated. Again simplicity rules.

07 Monday December 12th - Moon enters Gemini 7:42 AM

Full Moon Gemini Tuesday December 13th 11:07 PM

A need to be purposeful and to be speaking about what is relevant as opposed to unfocused is in the air. No matter how clearly we may think we know what is going on or what we are doing this is really a time to be able to understand how those we work with or relate with understand things. Our ability to communicate effectively is important right now. This may be a good time to be a good listener. Let others say it their way for example and discover where their thoughts and ideas are. This is important if we are working on things with others. Look for how ideas and understandings are the same and how they are different. Ideally we will discover where we are on the same track with others and where we are not. This does not include frivolous talk, or an over abundance of casual talk, but instead requires a clear sharing of ideas. It may be a good idea for some to be extra patient when communicating or to be extra tolerant as to how others say things. This is a temporary phase and it would be a shame to blow something out of proportion just because of the way something was said. If there has been a long ongoing dispute this however would be different. If this the case the individual is wise to discover how they have been in lock with an ongoing relationship which is not working for them. Admiring something about ones self can prove effective as it may dissolve a difficulty and clear a pattern. Either way it is one's ability to see how the ideas and words of others truly reflect ones own, and this would include how the words of another match one's internal dialogue dialogue.

08 Wednesday December 14th - Moon enters Cancer 7:10 AM

An opportunity to realize the value and importance of one's vulnerability is at hand. If there is a great secret which can release an individual from the prison of their own ignorance it is the unequalled value of understanding one's vulnerability. There are many agendas being enacted and enforced right now. Some harmonize some collide. Yet it can be looked at as beliefs which either cooperate or harmonize or beliefs which collide. In the past historically many beliefs have been able to pursue their own reality or world or delusion yet now these beliefs are coming face to face. What to do? Relevancy is indicated through one's emotional vulnerability. The mind is an extension of our body's connection with the Earth however our emotions are connected with our Soul. Our emotions have access to more dimensions and more probabilities. Our ability to organize ourselves relative to every possible outcome is through our emotions. Our mind is like out lock on a single probable outcome and as such is much limited in bringing us the bigger picture regarding our most important concern. Our emotional awareness however is expansive. This emotional insight, intelligence, is demonstrated to us through our family connections and our domestic concerns. This period when the Moon transits Cancer may bring up domestic concerns, it may bring up caring for the young, being aware of the sensitivity of others as well as ourselves. As we see how sensitivity is important in raising family perhaps we can also see how sensitivity can be valuable and powerful in making major decisions regarding our value to the public or the the expansion of our own awareness.

09 Friday December 16th - Moon enters Leo 8:16 AM

A by-product to integrity in relating is an elevated self esteem. Some may naturally evolve to become leaders or inspiration for others when this was the furthest thing from their plan. The need to understand identity, how one sees themselves relative to the social or peer group they find themselves in can be traced back to the history of how character is considered good or or not so. The history of culture may be, for some, on the line. Perhaps they are discovering they are being valued for the little things they do, in the meantime the big effort to be notable may have gotten them nowhere, or achieved the reverse. There is an admirable wonderful creative self out there who can change reality and make things very grand in many ways, with the Moon in Leo you can perhaps feel this self. The individual who without hesitation or question accepts their responsibilities, no matter what they are, and has no inclination toward blame, has most likely already aligned with this self. Well done! The danger of putting the cart before the horse in this becoming admirable department is seeking the approval of others. If there are difficulties as the Moon transits Leo the individual would be wise to simply be themselves, to say I like me and get good with oneself. The corruption and mind control which has individuals crying victim is a non-functional and self depleting avenue. It is up to the individual to save themselves, when the individual knows no one is coming to rescue them, to save them, they beat a mighty drum which is heard beyond the local arena of "who's who" thinking, they become inspiration.

10 Sunday December 18th - Moon enters Virgo 12:53 PM

Mars ingress Pisces Monday December 19th 4:24 AM

Mercury retrograde Monday December 19th 5:56 AM

Place wellness first, put health first. When our body demands immediate undivided attention we put everything else aside. No matter what we believe about our spiritual self, our spiritual nature, we are human, we have a physical body. Consider this an agreement with the Earth where our body springs from the Earth and is given to us as a vehicle such that we can experience life via being human, this is an agreement we already signed up for, else you would not be here. We are going through a wonderful period (November 12th 2015 thru May 9th 2017) where our body is being cleared of the apparent defect of ignoring the Earth and our body, many delusions are fleshed out as they may be interfering with our health. Fantasy is fine, fantasy is good, our ability to imagine beyond is important and wonderful, yet taken to a degree which excludes our agreement to be steward of the Earth and our body is not going to work. If our fantasies are congruent with our Earth reality then there is no problem our health and wellness is excellent. When we get off track we will know. If there is an accident for example, and there are no accidents, then we are perhaps being forced to feel. Immediately we are brought back to our agreement with the Earth. Managing denial with drugs may be necessary to alleviate major pain but is this really sane, to carry on as if everything is normal and pop a pill? Mercury will go retrograde during this period and some will begin reliving their past, processing unresolved notions and experiences. This offers an opportunity to reconsider certain ideas and perhaps question beliefs, beliefs which one may not have known they had.

11 Tuesday December 20th - Moon enters Libra 9:41 PM

Sun ingress Capricorn Wednesday December 21st 5:45 AM

The big answer to getting things done or advancing one's agenda is partnerships. Or is it? It is in the air, to consider or believe that partnership is the way to get ahead, especially professionally. Now this may or may not be the case, everyone is different. However partnership is being considered in a rather optimistic way right now. Some may need to be cautioned not to become blinded by their enthusiasm for this big solution, career success via partnership. With that qualification partnership can be very valuable, especially for those very reasons, reason involving career, and for moving forward with one's public role or service. During this Sagittarius Moon cycle we may experience the fulfillment of new relationships, partnerships in business or simply meeting new people socially who we enjoy sharing time with. As Mercury has recently gone into retrograde motion many will create old dynamics from new relationship experiences. This will work best if the individual is aware what is happening, least they call somebody by the wrong name. Actives meant to lead toward successful business scenarios will shift into an increased practical discern as the Sun makes the Capricorn ingress. The territory via which success is planned is more intensely considered. Again the recent retrograde Mercury will alert some of apparent mishaps in the past which they do not want repeated. Sudden business decisions, or suddenly the boss gets involved in a more active way, can occur as indicated by the Saturn Uranus trine in fire signs. Be ready for a change of plans by the higher ups, or beware that your change of plans needs to be considered in terms of the partnerships recently developed.

12 Friday December 23rd - Moon enters Scorpio 9:34 AM

Saturn trine Uranus Saturday December 24th 11:22 PM

Suspicion may rise as the necessary resources to forward or carry on one's mission may feel threatened. Resources here can well be community systems or the infrastructure which allows one to access public resources. There is a positive note in terms of getting people to work together for the same goal of being successful in their own right although they may have different specific agendas. The thing to be aware of is the potential for instant rebellion or cry for fairness by individuals which make up greater community. There has been and remains a general call for freedom triggered by assumed repressed social rights. Currently this ongoing rebellion is forcing unscheduled and instant outbreaks of outrage. Of course this can also manifest acts of community service and goodwill which again spontaneously springs into action when the need arrives. The Moon in Scorpio can cause some to feel threatened by who manages or controls their resources, this can include shared property or shared money, anything which is necessary for quality of life. Some hidden agendas may be exposed or exposed further if an unraveling has already begun. There is a non-stoppable force present, Uranus in Aries, which will bust down or shake out fake partnerships and relationships. Ideally the individual will embrace who they are sensually and get their body's opinion as to who or what is a solid relationship. For example our relationship with the Earth is more important than can be stated and as such any acknowledgement of her or any intention which honors her will pay a dividend. Joining with others or cooperating with others who value respect for natural organic ways can be included. It must also be noted that the term "organic" may have been hijacked for marketing purposes and may not actually influence the method of those who claim such, be alert and prudent.

13 Sunday December 25th - Moon enters Sagittarius 10:20 PM

Jupiter opposite Uranus Monday December 26th 9:36 AM

It is nicely defined and perhaps divinely setup that today Mars is conjunct the Moon's south node in Pisces and it is Christmas day and boxing day, how perfect is that! Compassion could not flow more naturally and easily. Pretty well everybody is expressing their feelings in some way. Take note some may have different and even strange ways of relating to this depth of compassionate expression and so we may witness their feeling reality as the undercurrent of beliefs. The Moon's return to Sagittarius signals the final days of this Moon cycle, a review of events and experiences since the new Moon back on November 29th can occur. Since Sagittarius typically calls one to focus on their public value, their public reputation, via influencing activities a development may have occurred in one's job or profession where a change in activities has occurred. In some way our understanding of who we are relative to what we give to or take from our community may have occurred. Since Mercury went retrograde on December 19th and remains retrograde until January 8th our mental focus cannot escape reviewing unresolved issues. Mercury's retrograde is mostly through Capricorn indicating a review of what we are dealing with when it comes to community and social changes. This Moon cycle has offered an opportunity to review and update how we go after career success and how this success is connected to being noticed and appreciate by another, typically our partner. The Sun in Capricorn will conjunct retrograde Mercury on December 29th, the day of next new Moon, indicating this retake or review into how we fit into our social infrastructure will continue on through the next new Moon cycle. For now however the waves of compassion which many are responding to is the big deal.

14 Wednesday December 28th - Moon enters Capricorn 10:13 AM

The coming new Moon in Capricorn is specifically accented by a conjunction with retrograde Mercury. A review focused on social infrastructure will occur. A call to pay attention to what social governors or social architects have been doing or have done is needed. Knit picking and combing through our historic ways, the ways that ended up designing our current social infrastructure, will be greatly scrutinized. Lets envision harmony between all peoples increasing. For now however we need to own what we have been living and doing as a world community. Mars was conjunct the Moon's south node in Pisces on Christmas day, how auspicious is that? And today Mars remains near this position indicating many are reacting to and continuing feelings of compassion they may have been silently holding onto in the past. Many things are flowing out and we are getting to see perhaps the smelly side of our social denial. Yet this is also very pleasant because it feels good to feel, yes? Some may cry tears of joy because they love others so much. Again envision a great tsunami of compassion and love flooding us all, providing us the strength to deal with the stuff which in the past seemed some else's problem.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.
