Overview

New Moon in Cancer

Friday June 23 2017 10:32 PM EST

The Cancerian new Moon cycle will bring forward one's sensitivity. This if and when it happens can be of some value. Sensitivity increases our ability to notice things. The more we are able to notice things the more conscious we are. If we think of our thoughts and logic as occurring through time, when sorting thorough an issue in our mind we can see how our logic has a time base constraint to it. "Give me a minute and I will give you an answer." We can see our mental logic as being horizontal. Our emotions also have a logic. We can remember a feeling we may have had in the past while experiencing something now. Our feelings have a vertical logic. Our emotions reveal the parallels between apparently separate things. Our emotional logic is not within the limitation of time but exists beyond this parameter. By noticing the metaphoric correlating parallels between things we can see a bigger picture. Our ability to influence via this awareness allows us to pierce both time and space barriers. And our connection to this vertical is through our emotional sensitivity. Emotional sensitivity is a very useful and powerful thing. However the individual must be aware of this, that thought creates and that they are connected to everything, that there is only one real. This Moon cycle as typical with a Moon cycle beginning with the Moon Sun conjunction in Cancer, is an opportunity to get good with who we are emotionally. As the Moon rides through all twelve zodiac signs the complete download of everything we need emotionally will be made available to us. It is our ability to catch it and to integrate it with our intentions and insights which will turn it to value for us.

The new Moon in Cancer can trigger an action of creative expression. Expressions of the individual will likely be due to an increased connection to one's sensitivity. Activities planned and committed to have a personal desire or fulfillment connected to them. Some individual creative expressions although playful and fun for some may be challenging for others. An idea which was leading toward or facilitating a partnership may now be challenged to be more accepting of the individual nature of others. Powerful forces are out there to be dealt with. The manner of how this is going to unfold will continue to be revealed yet for now we can respect and feel the changes which are going to affect us all. In some cases we may find ourselves taking on a number of responsibilities as a sort of preparation. Finding consensus with others however at this stage may be challenging as many are extrapolating their data and finding different things. Eventually we will clearly see how we are going to need to work together. Our connection with the Earth will keep us real and steady, this in turn will assist us in knowing when to make a choice and what choice to make.

Tension between bosses can rise. Since Saturn has been in Sagittarius for quite some time, since 2015, there has been an elevated interest in getting ahead professionally. Someone at work may be making the rules and being rather me me about it. The need to make rules however is very important as there are changes going on which are huge and these rules may just be a last ditch effort to remain afloat. Reputation is very much at stake as well, or so it seems. The new Moon in Cancer is interesting as Ceres will be in opposition to Saturn during the new Moon phase. A challenge between ruling members of an establishment, could be the home, where one acts as protector and the other is concerned about public position can trigger some serious conversation. It can be quite emotional as feelings are expressed and strong commitments are voiced. In the home this can be between Mum and Dad, at work union and management. Some sort of confrontation between one who is concerned about the rules necessary to run things is either challenged or confronted by another who feels strongly that the needs of others must be attended to right now. It can also be an environmental issue where a discussion between a boss of some sort and one who is an environmental guru or expert occurs.

This can be a good time to pay attention to the Earth and Mother nature. A fondness for the natural organic way of the Earth can lead to special insight regarding the more revolutionary aspects of these times. Many levels of secrecy may exist but how would we know, after all they are hidden. If there are hidden secret forces playing with humanity even these would not escape the Pluto Capricorn transit. Now that Venus in Taurus is forming a trine with Pluto the integrity of the Earth will work in accord with these changes in an even more powerful way. Our love of the Earth may call out the integrity of these forces which like to believe they are the epitome of knowing what is going on and believe they are safely in control.

Families may feel they are being challenged by social changes. Some community activities may be needed in order that a shared concern can be dealt with. The need to accept certain changes is necessary and as such dealing with the changes does not include acting as if things can go back to the way they were. Families can and will team up as necessary, communities can act as families as well mutually supporting the needs of each other. Those who are apparently in control, community leaders, government people, cooperate bosses, will be challenged if their solutions and rules are unfriendly to family or to the environment.

Since May 9th we have begun a cycle which will call peoples attention to their social significance. Societies heroes celebrities leaders, and from the past legends and noted historic figures of major impact, all these, archetypes if you will, will be challenged. Social elitism as well will be boiled until it is dry. The need to resolve one's own self love issue may be tied into the admiration of another or others who apparently hold the key to what is respectable. This comes down to the simple fact as to whether or not the individual is seeking validation in order to be significant. Those who seek short cuts to fame will be trapped and played. The need for society to embrace you can for example be a difficult lesson. The fame a person may attract works well, is healthy, when it is the by-product of their integrity. Those who seek fame as a first will however be partial to elitism. This sort of private energy is not supported, not ever, and so those royal energies or beings, or individual's who have attained a god-hood, a worship, a false importance will be challenged. If there is integrity then all is well, if not well....?

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Cancer the focus will be on nurturing, inspired creative expression, and domestic related concerns. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing one's own emotional sensitivity and the nurturing and creative impulse which goes along with heightened sensitivity. Accepting emotional experiences as a valid source of truth, a deep rich self awareness becomes available. An evolution of self awareness occurs as influences and beliefs are known as choices and are thus examined from the perspective as to how feelings are handed over to logic. Those born under the Sun sign Cancer have a natural propensity to emotional sensitivity and deep felt sharing. They naturally resonate with the feelings which underline the self esteem of others. Not to exclude others as we all have Cancerian energy somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience an amplified emotional sensitivity. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the nature of their sensitivity and how this sensitivity can lead to insightful truth. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I connect with emotional sensitivity and insight by...

Gemini: trusting my physical senses as they always gives me immediate truth.

Taurus: noticing and valuing how I feel when I communicate with others.

Aries: realizing that my feelings are showing me who I believe I am.

Pisces: allowing myself to expressive my creative impulses.

Aquarius: being responsible for how I feel and allowing this sense of responsibility to ensure perfect health.

Capricorn: valuing my partnerships and allowing them to lead me to my own nurturing impulse.

Sagittarius: accepting and valuing the rebirth of self awareness which comes from my harmonious partnership experiences.

Scorpio: allowing myself to travel into new areas and by taking on fresh new experiences.

Libra: feeling my value to the public through my work and career.

Virgo: feeling the family like relationship I have with all others.

Leo: feeling the nurturing impulse of Earth and acknowledging natural organic awareness.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Friday June 23rd 10:32 PM EST - new Moon in Cancer

Sensitivity and vulnerability are amazing gifts, they are the assured attributes which make being human so wonderful and powerful. Our ability to notice things comes from our sensitivity. The more we notice the more conscious we are the more aware we are. An individual who values their sensitivity will evolve their conscious awareness. Trusting vulnerability as if it is a key to being aware of what is most specifically significant to the individual will change one's life as it will expedite advancing insight and clarity. The new Moon in Cancer will facilitate this advancement yet it must be chosen by the individual, the individual who chooses to trust their emotional sensitivity will find a pathway to higher consciousness. As sensitivity rises throughout this Moon cycle it may be desired that one will, here at the new Moon phase, intend to get to the bottom of whatever issue is following them. Our sensitivity moves through time and through linear logical understanding, our sensitivity validates correlating metamorphic parallels. Potentially we can see, or feel, the bigger picture. A Pluto Venus trine in Earth signs indicates a willingness to adventure into new regions of practicality. Intentions directed toward discovering new types of security can apply. Also an avenue to accept the loss or removal of what was and to begin to move forward with excitement and courage can be interpreted. Seeing oneself as an adventurous explorer seeking new ground and foundation in cooperation with nature and all things organic and of the Earth leads to a new bounty.

02 Sunday June 25th - Moon enters Leo 6:08 PM

Are there physical things which a person owns or wants to own which are some how tied into their sense of self significance? This can include money or anything which creates a practical value or lends toward a sense of security. If so the Moon's Leo transit may trigger reaction depending on where one stands in terms of ownership of such things. There has begun, May 9th 2017, a need to balance one's public or social significance with their own private sense of self worth. This can also be connected to one's job or profession and how they feel it is connected to their importance or value as a public individual. For example the need to know or believe one has accomplished something in order to be publicly or professionally significant can cause one to worry or panic. Ideally the individual will discover their Leo power, their ability to change their world via the power of intention and be less dominated by what is transpiring in the external world. The external world gives us the result of what we have been manifesting yet it is not the source of our manifestation. The current window for exaggerated concern in this area will be extended to November 6th 2018. This period can be experienced as an opportunity to let go of certain beliefs which define personal value and importance from social recognition and instead allow the individual to align with their intention power. We must always be responsible for what we have created, what we have drawn to ourselves so there is no denial when expediting the opportunity. The Cancer Moon cycle will perhaps trigger any hidden or ongoing issues the individual may have, especially if it is concerning physical security or being important in the view of others.

03 Tuesday June 27th - Moon enters Virgo 8:42 PM

Routine interactions can become critical, sensitivity with some may rise when simply attending to routine affairs. A rise in criticalness will be the tell tale sign that someone is getting their emotions triggered. For each the root or source of the issue, the process the individual is being called to deal with, will be unique to them and their belief history. However at some point a connection to being involved in things which are not directly one's own stuff will be in the mix. It may feel like there is an exaggerated need to get to the facts. Or facts will trigger some as they feel challenged to step up their logical approach while dealing with routine issues. On the beneficial side if there is some delusion or fantasy being taken as more factual than would be recommended this Moon transit can point it out. An ability to own one's own faulty conclusions in other words can lead them to a new clarity. With Mercury and Mars moving thru conjunction there is more natural energy from many to think creatively and to speak up because one is feeling strongly about something. If one has an inspiring idea or thought it may be expressed enthusiastically and can even be contagious. There may be lots to object to as well and yet these things have perhaps been dogging around for quite a time and so it is wise for the individual to pay attention to what is happening immediately and act on what can produce an achievable result.

04 Friday June 30th - Moon enters Libra 3:03 AM

Companionship may be needed in order to satisfy one's sense of foundation. The sense that relationship is necessary in order to feel steady and secure can be exaggerated. One may be reviewing themselves, looking internally for their value in a relationship, considering others in a harmonious way. This can also be externalized as an individual is thinking more seriously about the harmony they create with others than usual. Relationships that challenge or support one's social situation may come to mind and be considered relative to some belief. One's personal significance may be the root trigger and as such their social situation may imply what qualifies their significance. There are lots of creative thoughts moving around in people's heads and this may also be what is causing reactions or triggering their motivations. An ability to adjust one's creativity such that it is aligned with things which are occurring in their external world is beneficial. It may seem as if one's wonderful creative ideas or expression is getting destroyed by things which they have no power over. If this is the case it is important that the individual realize the dramatic big time changes which are occurring right now. In some cases it may be futile to combat what is occurring out there and the sooner one can move into acceptance the better. For now it is learning how these changes are affecting one's companionship and particularly their social relationships.

05 Sunday July 2nd - Moon enters Scorpio 1:00 PM

Venus ingress Gemini Tuesday July 4th 8:13 PM

Now that many have been experiencing an increase in creativity an urge to dig in a bit deeper may be growing. If there has been, and continues to be, unresolved challenges which consume one's attention this current energy may trigger an increasing suspicion. Either way an increase of wanting to get to the bottom of things or wanting to dig in deeper can be felt. Also a child like innocence may be felt where an excitement to playfully explore some new idea inspires and motivates one into some spontaneous pursuit. Challenges with authority can instantly manifest as there may be an objection to someones ideas of just having fun. It may come down to someone in particular being overly dependant with rules. However rules are being brought forward to be challenged on the bigger scheme of things. This is an ongoing dynamic and for now may appear as one is threatened by the freedom like expression of another. The real energy here is sensual sharing and in some manner the urge to feel life as a sensual being can prompt and trigger one to seek out such experiences. Self love and self confidence as core impulses are also striking their way through human beliefs and can begin a process for an individual where they are challenged to identify and resolve denial. In this case it will most likely be associated with social significance and the need to be validated by external social experiences.

06 Wednesday July 5th - Moon enters Sagittarius 1:09 AM

Mercury ingress Leo Wednesday July 5th 8:21 PM

There are those who like to set the rules for others. Who is to say if this is good or bad? If it is your call then make it so. An individual should know what their responsibility is and what is not. Triggered to stick up for oneself may mean rejecting the authority of another however this is in conjunction with showing oneself they can independently manage their responsibilities. Conversation, or whatever type of dialogue one is involved with, can be challenging as some want to stick to what is relevant, yet even this is opinion? We may be feeling good when we think about our friends and companions and yet on the other hand there is this lurking need to apply rules to the relationship? The need to get clear about this may be what is triggering emotional reactions with some. There is an indicator that we will play by the rules in order to get some acknowledgement however this can lead to challenges. The main thing to look at while the Moon transits Sagittarius is the bank of "to do's" we may have built up, to determine which are legitimate and which are more grist for a relationship. The area which can be challenging whenever the Moon transits Sagittarius is to be aware of what it is that establishes our public image. There is a need for many individuals to seek freedom from social beliefs and social roles such that they can be self confident individually. The reality of this will in most cases require some prudent looking at what has obviously been accepted and believed as opposed to merely acting as if one is socially independent because it feels good. We will get there but we must own that which we have given energy to.

07 Friday July 7th - Moon enters Capricorn 1:46 PM

Full Moon in Capricorn Sunday July 9th 12:08 AM

Some level of urgency may be experienced, an idea or plan involving a partner may need specific attention. There can be a few things in the mix. A ploy to get the good opinion of another, someone special who's opinion seems to really matter. Or a need to deal with mounting changes in an ongoing mutual plan or project. Or the need to take care of some issue which is currently demanding attention. Just a few examples as to what can trigger urgency. The good thing is, there is lots of creative energy and new ideas or ways to deal with things which can be realized. On another note a feeling or notion that a relationship has great potential because the empathy and mutual consideration is high can be experienced. Finding the spiritual aspect of a companionship experience can occur. There can be great optimism even to the extent that the individual can become blinded to other realistic concerns. The flip between urgency and bliss in a relationship or partnership experience can occur. If so it is valuable to the individual to make sense of this in a congruent way, to seek the commonality of these feelings and reactions. The ability to make this work can signal that the individual is able to see a bigger picture and is able to objectively move beyond denial judgment and projection.

08 Monday July 10th - Moon enters Aquarius 1:36 AM

That which defines significance socially will begin to be a major issue for some, it will be an issue to some degree for most everyone. This has to do with beliefs which have been held for a long time. Such beliefs can be invisible to the individual at least in terms of their ego, however they will experience the result of their beliefs emotionally on an on going bases. In turn decisions and choices will be made as a result of these feelings and the associated hidden belief. Ideally the individual will reveal the beliefs to themselves. These beliefs will be in relation to what makes a person significant socially. It's all about "who's who". Everything from false gods to sports heroes to government leaders to authority people to work bosses, to older generation people in a family, and so on. Mostly it will be about established celebrity and what our society has deemed "an important person", more important than you. Of course it is not directly said that so and so is an important person, more importance than you. No. It's more like it is implied. For example "how can you be important , what have you accomplished?" We are keeping it simple here in order to establish the basic premise of this insight. That being that this time window (May 9th 2017 thru November 6th 2018) can be an ideal time to free oneself from a prison of looking up to false importance as portrayed by so called important people and to recovery one's own sovereignty. The wise will know that one cannot escape the shackles of prison until they first become aware that they are imprisoned. As an example of this dynamic notice that during this extended window of time how celebrity is being scrutinized, and look to see how importance has been manufactured via media, and finally to discover how one has become bound by the false need of being validated by society.

09 Wednesday July 12th - Moon enters Pisces 11:52 AM

A Jupiter Neptune quincunx will get some launching help with the Moon's Pisces transit. Some may become spiritual all of a sudden, or it may appear that way. If there is a sudden interest in knowing who we are beyond the physical it has most likely always been there just buried a bit by other interest and priorities. Ideally the individual will begin to think in terms of "everything is spiritual" if they are not already seeing life this way. With the quincunx it is the power behind this truth which comes forward. The Libra influence suggest an awareness that our companionships have a spiritual foundation. The harmony we create with others, the love we share with others, will open us up and transport us to higher emotional frequency, we can feel the presence of amplified love pouring into our awareness. For some it can be like a discovery, or an awakening, where they connect to a part of themselves which may have become forgotten. If it is one's destiny to come into an evolved awareness of their spiritual truth they may have to deal with that which has been their distraction. In this case this Pisces transit can trigger some dynamics which flesh out the beliefs which have been circumventing their memory of their spiritual self. Also indicated creative expression remains high as does reacting to one's emotional sensitivity. And challenges can be ongoing in term of dealing with practical living issues. Even in these the individual who makes this higher emotional connection which is available now will see these from a spiritual perspective and as such see a bigger picture in regards to their specific practical concern.

10 Friday July 14th - Moon enters Aries 7:53 PM

The Moon's Aries ingress will come as a sudden shift for some. Just as one was ready to forgive and forget, as an example, and now its back to being independent and aggressive. A sense that one needs to take action right now can haunt them if they do not look at it honestly and objectively. An ability to look and own one's feelings and emotional reactions can go a long way in opening their book of choices. If there is some immediate reaction it will likely be in the area of feeling left out as if left behind in some way. The need to express one's self to family can be high right now as well. Some may appear moody. The creative individual who is naturally sensitive may find this transit connecting them to their work or professional service. They may feel some public responsibility challenging their courage. In such cases it is wise to consider the changes occurring to our paradigms and realize that community government media social networks, all these things are changing, going through a big time revolution. As such the method one goes to in order to deal with public or professional challenge may be needing a new strategy. Ideally the individual will trust their emotional reaction and be lead to their own hidden beliefs. Something hidden from them because of perhaps an overreaction can be revealed, a letting go can occur. An impulsive need for the masses to follow their call for freedom and march with others is an ongoing dynamic. This too can be triggered into action. Once again many express their feelings of being individually significant by being critical of that which appears to limit their natural rights.

11 Monday July 17th - Moon enters Taurus 1:05 AM

If one's security is threatened they may react more easily to this, they may be more sensitive to this than usual. As such an individual can use this sort of experience to flesh out where they could use some extra support and focus in terms of setting up a more desirable experience. Once an individual is able to find steadiness and foundation in their social experience they will better understand their vulnerability. Sensitivity is related to our ability to notice things yet too much sensitivity can be overwhelming. A comfortable social experience is a signal that an individual is able to evolve their sensitivity to a place of insight without becoming overly rocked or triggered by their emotions. During this Moon Taurus transit the individual's emotional reaction will most likely be associated with their steadiness and their ability to remain in a place of security or comfort while other things are occurring. Challenges such as maintaining a healthy self confidence while seeming unstoppable changes are occurring in one's practical life can test one's steadiness. The manner in which ideas and conversation can feel enjoyable to share can be the current challenge. True there are those who are headstrong into their mission and these people may not be receptive to much outside their immediate interest. Yet there are those who are optimistic about their relationships, new ones old ones, social or work related. Noticing how self confidence and making choices which lead to sustained security are linked is better supported during this Moon transit.

12 Wednesday July 19th - Moon enters Gemini 3:32 AM

Mars ingress Leo Thursday July 20th 8:21 AM

The course of a communication may take a turn. It seems as if there is an interpretation which may be either exaggerated or completely misunderstood. As if being setup some individuals will activate their perhaps dormant sense of self respect and begin to react with self preservation in mind, as if this quickly became their root motivator. Things do not have to be too exaggerated however and a shift toward self consideration can drift into one's demeanor with a more gradual ebb. Again as has been stated quite regularly in the last year some conversation will not be welcome by some people because they are just too concerned about their reputation and they get a bit crazy when conversation seems to be not useful or endlessly casual. Words are important yet the individual can use some prudence when interacting with others, paying attention to what another is ready for, what they are comfortable with. Mercury currently transiting Leo shows an increase in thoughts and words directed toward one's beliefs regarding social significance. There is an on going impulsiveness within the individual which is rooted in the idea that we have natural rights. As the blockages appear limitations which seem to repress the individuals right to be great also appear. The individual would be wise to intend on discovering their beliefs about significance by paying attention to what they say spontaneous and by paying attention to what they react to.

13 Friday July 21st - Moon enters Cancer 4:11 AM

Sun ingress Leo Saturday July 22nd 11:16 AM

Now that Mars has made a Leo ingress and the Moon returns to Cancer we can take a pause to notice how our vulnerability and sensitivity became more volatile during this past Moon cycle. Perhaps not all would confess this which is understandable considering the way emotions and feelings can be denied in current societies. Has been for many an ongoing active repression of emotions? If so this Moon cycle and this Moon ingress may merely be grist for excuses for more denial? Once the value of our emotions are understood however we would in no way discount them. Our emotions are our messages from our higher self our spiritual self, from our self that knows stuff, stuff important to us right now. It is our ego which may falsely be considered to be the self. And if this is so again denial can be worked into one's choices avoiding the true insight. Our emotions know what they are doing! Our emotions correctly direct us to beliefs which are contradictory to our desires and wants. It is like getting to know ourselves, all our selves, and not just the immediate ego. Now that the Sun also makes a Leo ingress and we head toward the Leo new Moon the added maturity of knowing how our emotions are our impeccable ally we will better understand the upcoming shortfalls of allowing our significance to be defined by our social and cultural history.

14 Sunday July 23rd - Moon enters Leo 4:35 AM

We got like 72 minutes here so this time would be well spent considering the new Moon in Leo. For example one may find a place to sit in silence and begin to connect with a version of themselves which is greatly admired. To see and feel this self as being supported by a great Love and an all knowing Light. The freedom we seek is the love we seek, and so it is.
