Overview

New Moon in Virgo

Wednesday September 20 2017 1:31 AM EST

Understanding who we are spiritually absent of getting lost in delusions and nebulous fantasy will be important to some during this Moon cycle, great insight can be gained in this awareness. An astute quality to one's logical mind is supported with the increases in Virgo energy. Pisces opposite to Virgo is also well represented as indicated by Neptune's current transit there. During the new Moon phase Mercury in Virgo will be opposite to Neptune and the new Moon will be opposite to Chiron also transiting Pisces. The critical quality of Virgo influence benefits from a single foundational decree or belief. From this unified or accepted foundational concept, or home base, a building and advancing clarity increases in a congruent fashion. When this fundamental understanding acknowledges our body as our Soul in chemical clothes and includes the realization that thought creates, the individual via Virgo astuteness can make sense of all other things occurring to them. Of course it can take some time to move through all one's issues yet real progress can be made. With high focus indicated in both Virgo and Pisces at the new Moon the individual who intends to evolve their awareness in terms of Spirit having a Human experience can make significant advancements.

Another area of focus indicated for this Virgo Moon cycle is relationship and partnerships. A need to be free from a relationship may trigger some sudden unexpected actions which deny the harmony of the relationship. Who one is socially for example may suddenly demand they be free from a partnership. This opposition or conflict can however be resolved by being rational clear and practical. Note that it may well be best to go separate ways anyway. There has been an increase in testing out the waters of companionship lately, for the last year, as an optimistic hopefulness has been giving many individuals companionship ideas. As clarity eventually finds its way into the awareness of those involved adjustments in their mutual arrangement can be made. If there is an individual who wishes to be free from a commitment yet their ego is unable to make the move directly a small issue may heat up setting the whole thing a blaze typically resulting in termination of the affair. During this Moon cycle Jupiter will ingress Scorpio and will transit there for a year. Romantic partnerships for example may want to shift from the excitement of their potential and move into intense sensual sharing. This can mean a lot of things. Sensual sharing can be sharing one's body with another and it can also mean sharing property and things of value. And also when a relationship moves into this territory it can cause some to become suspicious. It is a good idea for those involved in a partnership which is getting serious in terms of sharing values to be clear that the one you are loving is benefiting as well as one's self is benefiting, win win situations will bode well.

The Sun has been transiting Virgo for a while prior to this new Moon, a sense of Virgo is well established yet the previous Leo new Moon cycles, one accented by a solar eclipse, has been dominating. A sense of public value for the individual where self admiration has been considered has colored these recent Moon cycles and will continue to do so now. With the Virgo new Moon we will feel the importance of being more critical as we make decisions regarding the value of some interests opposed to others. We will speak with clarity and take action with precision simply because the nonsense of overly valuing frivolous notions can become too messy. A need for the individual to feel important can still be here as this is a major cycle affecting many Moon cycles, yet the time to clean up one's priorities will begin to increase and dominate. Because one feels good about themselves they can make critical executive type decisions concerning how they manage their life, which in turn supports good health. Personal health and wellness can be the chosen direction of many, they will feel good about who they are as they see themselves as being vital strong and healthy. A need to clean up one's public image can also motivate specific decisions. Partnerships are examined as this cleanup extends into the area of what was expected and what can still be established within a relationship. This Virgo new Moon can also see some public assertion where a social consensus has brought some group together in their ideas and now a powerful spike occurs where the minds of many sync up and through an act of unexpected decisiveness make major social breakthroughs.

Practicality and fantasy can collide. Partnerships can be challenged as one is needing to see beyond the shoebox of beliefs which stifles them where as the other wants the practical apparent real empirical data to guide their mutual decisions and efforts. Such a setup can be ideal as it stands to resolve issues from both individuals. It is up to the individual to value the opportunity to resolve the situation and see things another's way. It helps greatly when those involved are aware that partnership is always about reflecting oneself back to them by another.

For the most part this paragraph is a restating of period 10 and is included here as the relevancy of Jupiter's Scorpio ingress will be with us for a year. Jupiter's Scorpio ingress will most likely be a challenging time for many partnership people. Jupiter will remain in Scorpio until November 2018 so get ready for a year of this. This Jupiter ingress represents a year where many will be optimistic about sharing their values, their wealth, the things which create a sense of security and comfort. As such communication regarding these important values will be critical. It is a good plan to intend clear communication with any partners when speaking about shared resources. Any suspicion should be dealt with immediately, do not allow some concern to fester. The color of the alignment during the Moon transit Gemini period when Jupiter makes the ingress will be attached to the Jupiter Scorpio period. Communication may be challenged, or assisted, by an authority person who is actually quite concerned about public image. Ideally the recent objective clarity indicated by this Virgo new Moon cycle will set things in a good way as we begin the one year Jupiter in Scorpio transit.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Virgo the focus will be on bringing things into order. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of maintaining impeccable discernment and personal clarity. Such forged character supports personal health, a Virgo attribute. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of clarity is considered and cherished. Those born under the Sun sign Virgo have a natural propensity to order and practical congruency. Not to exclude others as we all have Virgo somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience a heightened sense of being self responsible in a discerning and natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic self responsibility harmonic of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I focus on the details of self responsibility by...

Leo: paying attention to what I perceive and experience in my local environment.

Cancer: how I communicate and share ideas.

Gemini: how I understand my feelings and self definition.

Taurus: maintaining congruency and order in my enthusiastic self expression.

Aries: accepting the need for independence when being self responsible.

Pisces: being clear as to how my partnership is rationalized.

Aquarius: what I accept as a valid shared resource within my partnership.

Capricorn: paying close attention to what new experiences I am lead to.

Sagittarius: my work and value to the public.

Scorpio: paying attention to who I am socially.

Libra: clearly discerning what is my personal responsibility and what is my social experience.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Wednesday September 20th 1:31 AM 2017 EST - new Moon in Virgo

The Sun has been transiting Virgo for 27 days prior to this new Moon, a sense of Virgo is well established yet the previous Leo new Moon cycle accented by a solar eclipse has been dominating these days. A sense of public value for the individual where self admiration has been considered has colored this Sun Virgo ingress. Now with the new Moon upon us we will feel the importance of being more critical as we make decisions regarding the value of some interests opposed to others. We will speak with clarity and take action which have a considered precision because the nonsense of overly valuing frivolous notions can become too messy. A need for the individual to feel important can still be here as this is a major cycle affecting many Moon cycles, yet the time to clean up one's priorities will dominate. Because one feels good about them self they make critical executive type decisions concerning how they manage their life, which in turn supports good health. Personal health and wellness can be the chosen direction of many, they feel good about who they are as they see themselves being vital strong and healthy. A need to clean up one's public image can also motivate specific decisions. Partnerships are examined as this cleanup extends into the area of what was expected and what can still be established within a relationship. This Virgo new Moon can also see some public assertion where a social consensus has brought some group together in their ideas and now a powerful spike occurs where the minds of many sync up and through an act of unexpected decisiveness make a major social breakthrough.

02 Wednesday September 20th - Moon enters Libra 6:07 AM

Looking for support from a partner can feel necessary if one is to get the push to actually take action. The Sun will ingress Libra on Friday at 4:04 PM EST increasing the value of partnership in terms of expediting a plan or raising one's personal action energy. For now the Moon's Libra ingress will emotionally suggest the value of partnership. This can feel like a partnership needs to be corrected, or respected, or established, the idea being that one feels partnership is the vehicle by which things happen. This ingress can also flesh out one's need to be independent. Always counting on partnership may not be the best strategy if it has become an ongoing pattern. Ironically harmonious partnerships facilitate independence, look to see how one mirrors their partner and vice versa. Analyzing partnership for some will be a major theme for this entire Moon cycle. A critical look at the logistics and the forecasted expectations of a partner can consume one's critical thinking. The details of most everything will be examined and acted upon and this will include the ideas and values believed to be associated with partnerships. With Juno transiting Capricorn some will desire acknowledgement associated with their ability to stay on track with their finely tuned plan. The Moon's north node transiting Leo indicates a desire for some to be recognized socially for their wonderful admirable character. Jupiter's year long journey through Libra will soon end, October 10th, and so the great optimism many have felt about their partnerships over the last year will be yielding to an evolved clarity as Virgo criticalness objectively takes the lead.

03 Sunday September 22nd - Moon enters Scorpio 1:41 PM

Sun ingress Libra Friday September 22nd 4:03 PM

Sudden unexpected actions and events crack the shell or pop the bubble of overly optimistic partnerships. As the Moon transits Scorpio a need to know who is in charge of what can dominate one's concern. The material value of a partnership for example can become the prime area of interest rather quickly. Consider how partners mutually own things, things of substance and monetary value will be looked at, in some cases with fine detail. Jupiter's Scorpio ingress on October 10th will seal some of these concerns and many will be dealing with or considering the issue of who owns what for some time. Another way to look at this energy dynamic is in terms of control. Who controls what? If this is a concern it will be exploited big time over the next year, especially if it is an issue during this current Moon transit. From 2009 to 2023 Pluto's Capricorn transit indicates a collapse of structures and beliefs which do not connect with a galactic harmonic of congruency and harmony. In other words rules made by man which are not universal law will not stand the storm of Plutonian change, we are truly as an individual and as a global society living our integrity. Scorpio in its most ideal form is about sharing, this sharing is comforting and sensual. The damage done to this potential experience is being cleaned up yet it is still a few years ahead of us before we see the light of selfless sharing once again. In the meantime we will see the bustle and hustle of those who believe otherwise about what control is and how they can harness it.

04 Wednesday September 25th - Moon enters Sagittarius 12:02 AM

Understanding one's critical thinking will bring them face to face with how they expect to be seen publicly. And so what drives public reputation? Ideally one will follow their joy and inspiration and allow their public reputation to be the extension of their integrity. In other words do not be so concerned about public reputation. Servicing public reputation can be a slippery slope and typically the individual must explore their desire to be acknowledged publicly yet the final outcome, either this life or some future life, will hinge on one's ability to practice non-chaunce. True our gifts of character are Creator's gifts to others and so the best way to deliver the package is to always follow your own joy. It's like accepting that you have no choice you must have your cake and eat it too. As the Moon transits Sagittarius we will in many cases explore how our partnerships have facilitated effective actions in gaining ground in our mutually considered goals and projects. In many cases optimism about a relationship has either panned out or busted. And it has not been easy with Saturn transiting Sagittarius the whole time, while Jupiter, Sagittarius ruling planet, has been transiting Libra. As rules and guidelines and timeliness dictate partnership dynamics, the expected harmony in the partnership may have been tested. Virgo focus during this Moon cycle will bring a critical analysis to the mix and many will, ideally anyway, begin to see their own projection onto others. Jupiter will ingress Scorpio on October 10th and we will experience a change in this dynamic with a shift toward control.

Unfortunately many will want to control their public reputation by controlling the resources which they believe will secure their desired public image.

05 Friday September 27th - Moon enters Capricorn 12:25 PM

Pluto direct in Capricorn Thursday September 28th 3:37 PM

Mercury ingress Libra Friday September 29th 8:43 PM

During the process of exploiting one's own critical nature a sense of fulfillment and satisfaction can be associated with going after what one wants. As such having a specific goal which yields a specific agenda can feel good as one moves toward their desired target outcome. A feeling that we need to maintain such a schedule or mind a particular time line can be felt. Following through with Virgo influence this can be a rather fun exploitation. If the individual is not so inspired this feeling can be more of panic, as if required actions are quickly becoming overdue. It can also bring one into contact with the needs of another who is seen as an authority. Authorities may need certain things done and can in some cases appear desperate as if their reputation is on the line. Another manifestation of the Moon's Capricorn ingress is a further insight into the revolutionary changes currently occurring on a planet wide scale. These changes can include anything from the weather, to government scrambling to stay current, or corporations maintaining control over valued resources, as examples. The hidden agenda of controllers and their correlating authorities over the so called regular individual can become clearer, hidden agendas continue to be revealed. However the individual may experience this Capricorn feeling it can be considered an ideal time to take stock of where one stands in relation to their bigger plan or master agenda, assuming of course one would have such a thing.

06 Saturday September 30th - Moon enters Aquarius 12:41 AM

There is a potential for many to have to deal with some sort of social issues. This likelihood is associated with the individual's ideas and beliefs as to what makes some specific type of individual significant and their assumed relationship to this type of character. Those who continually strive to be socially noticed will be most affected. Those on the other hand who are typically non-chalant about this recognition thing will be unphased. Or the non-chalant individuals will become inspirations and heroes as this is a by-product of their integrity and astute awareness. In the meantime there is a great many who's significance is in some contorted way measured against some belief or ideal as to what qualifies one to be admirable and important. Models for such important "Who's" have been bred into our beliefs and minds, we can see this in how celebrities are embraced. One need only look clearly at how many of today's celebrities have been manufactured. Actually the manufacture of celebrities has been going on for many many decades, since the invention of mainstream media really. How many current celebrities have actually authentically earned their reputation? It's scary yet real how our sense of self admiration have been so manipulated. All is not lost as the Moon's transit through Aquarius will create opportunities to bust fake celebrity for those who are ready to wear the crown upon their own head. Ideally the individual will look out for and completely own any need or urge toward having their self admiration qualified by the actions of others.

07 Monday October 2nd - Moon enters Pisces 10:27 AM

The current new Moon cycle which began in Virgo can have us enjoying our own astute nature. We may have found we enjoy being critical as the resulting clarity it yields when directed to those things important and inspirational become better understood. Our personal health is a very good example of this embraced clarity. As the Moon makes a Pisces ingress some will be given their biggest challenge in terms of holding and maintaining this astute clarity. Ideally the individual will feel the value of certain notions and beliefs and discern the frivolous from the real. Of course everything has its value from some perspective. The challenge, maintain a healthy balance. There are certain restrictions we have agreed to as we are indeed human creatures with particular requirements, hence our health is a guide to being appropriate in terms of how much fantasy we can balance. Too much fantasy and delusion for example will eventually facilitate health issues. For now it may be advisable to pay attention to precisely what is our concern and what is the concern of another. In other words we need to mind our own business if such is an appropriate self guideline. We may feel great love and compassion for others and it is a beautiful thing, we mutually benefit from such acknowledgement and participation. Praying for others or sending others good will and love is a wonderful thing. Our feelings will however inform us when we are going too far, for example using the victim nature of another to distract us from dealing with our own denial.

08 Wednesday October 4th - Moon enters Aries 4:41 PM

Full Moon in Aries Thursday October 5th 2:41 PM

Impulsiveness will be on the rise. Impulsiveness is neither a good or bad thing, if it had to be one or the other it would have to be good. The good thing about impulsiveness is we expedite things via action in a spontaneous nature, as if we have been blessed by a quickening. For this to be functional in an advantageous way we must have developed within us a congruency. This congruency is integrated into all our beliefs, our beliefs about who we are, what we are responsible for, and where we are going. When we have a foundational congruency linking harmoniously all our beliefs our impulsive nature will work in accordance with our joy and our bigger plan. Our local immediate needs will be congruent with our grand needs. As the Moon transits Aries the warrior self can be challenged, poked at, enticed. Will we take action? Virgo energy remains high for all of us and this can cause, for some, a surge of warrior power. A personal unified sense of both giving and accepting can be related to Virgo influence, we may feel comfortable with our rationalization of something and feel great when taking action as if we have reassured ourselves with our own logic. There is a potential for some partnerships to be tested and even busted as the sense that one is giving up their freedom is too much a price to pay. Here ideally the individual will comprehend their relationship dynamics by simple tuning into the parallels between themselves and others they are engaging.

09 Friday October 6th - Moon enters Taurus 7:57 PM

Seeking a basic and simple solution to whatever has been complicating one's life recently can work more easily than usual. Partnership concerns can be especially benefited by a cool look and a new insight. When things are overly complicated it can be more difficult to find common ground with those we intend on working with or living with. Some ideas may spring from beliefs which are fantastic, or religious, or spiritual, yet an ability to keep it all real and practical is present. There may for some be a concern about their personal security or their personal comfort. This can include the availability of resources or anything which contributes to one's sense of feeling safe. In our partnerships the concern is for both involved to be feeling secure and safe and so the challenge is to respect one's unique needs while acknowledging the needs of what is owned together. Communication between partners can be good now as well. The sense that a partnership was looked at optimistically in the recent past could have led some individuals to believe things were much more different than the way they have panned out. Hopefully these delusions or misconceptions have been realized and dealt with. A shift in partnership energy is about to occur as indicated by Jupiter's Scorpio ingress next Tuesday. It is wise to be realistic about one's partnership agreements now especially in terms of both shared and individual security.

10 Sunday October 8th - Moon enters Gemini 9:46 PM

Jupiter ingress Scorpio Tuesday October 10th 9:21 AM

Partnership communication has been going well lately, hopefully this has been the case. The value of maintaining this quality communication becomes important and more challenging. We always want to have good clear communication with our partner. All relationships can benefit from clear communication. Using words to wrangle another into some personal agenda can on the other hand render difficult times ahead. There is an added sensitivity to how one chooses to say something, or what is said may be the result of what one needs to hear. Reckless words for example can lead to uneasy feelings. Jupiter's Scorpio ingress will most likely be a challenging time for many partnership people. Jupiter will remain in Scorpio until November 2018 so get ready for a year of this. This Jupiter ingress represents a year where many will be optimistic about sharing their values, their wealth, the things which create a sense of security and comfort. As such communication regarding these important values will be critical. It is a good plan to intend clear communication with any partners when speaking about shared resources. Any suspicion should be dealt with immediately, do not allow some concern to fester. The color of the alignment during this Moon transit Gemini period will be attached to the Jupiter Scorpio period. Communication may be challenged, or assisted, by an authority person who is actually quite concerned about their public image. Ideally the recent objective clarity indicated by this Virgo new Moon cycle will set things in a good way as we begin the one year Jupiter in Scorpio transit.

11 Tuesday October 10th - Moon enters Cancer 11:39 PM

The typical cool minded objective individual can become increasingly sensitive. Vulnerabilities begin to rise and dominate one's concern. Being able to feel and own one's emotional reactions is a valuable ability as this will lead the individual to increased awareness and facilitate an evolution in their divine journey, if this is what they have been intending. Combined with Virgo objective astute critical thinking great strides can be made in busting through karmic dilemmas where the individual is able to move beyond their historic limiting paradigms. Areas of challenge can be any of the following: people who see themselves in charge and tell others what to do, a concern or suspicion involving security or wealth, feeling limited socially because of the need to be recognized in some way. Of course there are many examples and each has their own unique challenge. The magic of our sensitivity and vulnerability is that we get the exact information we need which is perfectly suited and designed for us alone. We can think of our emotional reaction as like a telephone call from our higher self. It can be difficult to remember this in the time of receiving some emotional flood. Knowing that at times, like while the Moon transits Cancer, our emotions can be exaggerated, can also assist us in feeling our stuff while remaining objective as in being perfectly Virgo like. A good objective approach can be for example to ask our selves when faced with a challenge "how did I create this?" Another example which can come to one's attention now will be related to nurturing issues. It is important to be clear about who is family who is a dear friend as these are indeed both beautiful relationships, yet they are different.

12 Friday October 13th - Moon enters Leo 2:42 AM*Venus ingress Libra Saturday October 14th 6:12 AMMercury ingress Scorpio Tuesday October 17th 4:00 AM*

In recent months it may be noticed that some individuals have an exaggerated concern about their importance. A need to be admired, recognized and celebrated as a significant individual is the result of a karmic clearing occurring now on a global level. Self admiration is an important thing, something to be embraced and encouraged. The hiccup here is in the validation, specifically social validation. This validation implies beliefs which qualify external authority. When we are aware our thoughts create, that we are and always have been creating our own reality, then this notion of validation and external confirmed significance becomes a distraction. An ever increasing buildup of issues occurs simple because the individual is not aware that they are in need of taking responsibility for what they create. Simple put an individual who is unaware they are the designer behind their circumstance will not examine their beliefs and thoughts which create these challenges. On the other hand an individual who is aware of the nature of their thoughts will find peace as peace is in their acceptance and allowing. As the Moon transits Leo it will be revealed that some will feel the need, the desperate need, to be admired by others. They will, no doubt, seek social confirmation based on these feelings. This confirmation will imply certain beliefs to be real. If the individual is not feeling they need external admiration then they are likely free from beliefs which lead to others admiring them. The beliefs which will be exposed will most likely be linked to some form of elitism, a who's who sort of thing.

13 Sunday October 15th - Moon enters Virgo 7:20 AM

As the Moon returns to Virgo and we near the end of the current Virgo Moon cycle we may benefit from taking stock of how we were able to harmonize and flow with the increase in Virgo energy. As the Sun's Libra ingress occurred fairly early much focus may have been directed toward rationalizing relationships. Seeking meaning of our partnerships can be best understood when we are aware our partnerships reflect ourselves back to us. As a Virgo empowered individual ideally we will have been able to feel and discover the active harmonic between ourselves and another. This can be an important thing because we now know that Jupiter made a Scorpio ingress during this Moon cycle, on October 10th. A concern over shared resources will cause some to dig into their relationships and sort out what logistics are there, what controls major decisions concerning values and resources. This Jupiter ingress will be in place for just over a year. Some may feel optimistic about sharing their resources with another yet if they are not clear about the rationalization and understanding which frames their partnerships it may come to difficult challenges. An opposition between Mercury and Uranus indicates possible mental stress, some ideas or words may be unexpectedly challenged. Also this can indicate headaches if the individual is expecting more from a partnership than can be delivered.

New Moon Wednesday September 20th 2017 1:31 AM EST

Report number 178

14 Tuesday October 17th - Moon enters Libra 1:36 PM

A year of optimistically creating or involving one's self in relationships has just past. Many of these relationships will be challenged and there will be those relationships which are now understood to be not functional, or it may now be concluded that the relationship was not what one initially hoped for. Of course there will those relationships which will be sustained. Relationships will carry on because the individuals involved moved beyond the initial infatuation, they mutually took their companionship to the next level. Public reputation and feeling socially significant have been major issues for many during this time, and will remain in the future for some time yet. Beliefs related to these concerns may have had to been looked at. The coming new Moon in Libra will bring forward the beliefs related to reliance on another. Ideally the individual will understand their partner or companion is a reflection of themselves in some way. An ability to pay attention to one's energy level in relation to a partnership dynamic can bring much clarity as to why they are in a particular relationship. One's ability to independently go after things they want can be related to quality of harmony and acceptance in a partnership.

- 19 As an organic creature I am included in the kingdom of Earth beings.
- 20 My body springs from the Earth, I love the Earth and she loves me back.
- 21 I am comforted by the knowing that Creator has endowed me with freewill.
