Overview

New Moon in Sagittarius
Monday December 18th 1:32 AM EST

This Moon cycle can be seen as a prelude to the Capricorn new Moon cycle which follows this one. Capricorn energy is a bigger player in most everyone's lives than it typically has been. Saturn's two year transit through Sagittarius will end during this Sagittarius Moon cycle as Saturn makes the Capricorn ingress on the evening of Tuesday December 19th. Saturn's Sagittarius transit has sharpened the approach some take when driving toward their goals, especially goals related to public reputation and professional work related agendas. This can appear in many ways, for instance a demand that one's conversation be of value or use as opposed to being frivolous and non-focused. Have you heard the phrase "talking in circles" lately? Professionals can be possessed by an urgency to get ahead in their public value and be quick to call another to stop wasting their time. Knowing this Sagittarius Moon cycle will conclude Saturn's Sagittarius transit we can surmise the end of pushing for control over one's public image via strict conversation and less panicking that one is running out of time in terms of advancing career. We can expect a final push toward these things during this Moon cycle. Those on the receiving end of aggressive career minded individuals will perhaps feel some relief.

So what will Saturn's coming two year Capricorn transit bring us? In general a shift away from controlling an individuals public and career image to a concern as to how community and public systems function. Social rules which guide protect and regulate us as a community will become more clearly known. One way or another rules will become more dominate. We are also beginning to see an increase in rules as to how individuals socialize. Many of these are unspoken rules yet take their claim of legitimacy from the apparent need to always appear politically correct. It will seem to many that these rules appease the shifts in how we socialize and are an evolution, yet they can also be seen as a response to denial. Individuals will not evolve toward greater awareness unless they clearly understand the value of their emotional reactions, trusting vulnerability and emotional sensitivity. If society makes social rules to facilitate a denial of one's emotional vulnerability it is as such in direct contrast to one's evolution of awareness and is instead becomes strategies for managing denial. Emotional reactions will be prevalent as Saturn makes the Capricorn ingress and opposes Cancer. If a society insists that we ignore our feelings as this is a better socializing model or goal to achieve they are asking that people become like stone people. We can see a rise in AI influence (Artificial Intelligence) as we as a society must deal with algorithms and firmware developing on a massive scale. This again signals a concern that a de-evolution of human consciousness is underway as opposed to the evolution of awareness. This can only proceed if humanity is choosing denial management and avoiding their vulnerability and sensitivity.

Jupiter as the planetary ruler of Sagittarius continues to transit Scorpio. Many are taking actions regarding their finances or their security with an optimistic outlook of improving their situation. It is a good idea to allow one's inspiration to be carefully and clearly checked out before giving way to a blindingly optimistic idea. If an excitement to dig deeply into ones typically hidden feelings occurs just remember if this has not been a typical journey and is instead a new one, do proceed carefully and avoid jumping to conclusions. That being said a dive into ones physiological depths and hidden caverns of feelings can be a huge benefit as one follows their vulnerability to the core of their being. Great advancements can be made as one embraces and cherishes their feelings. There is an optimism to Sagittarius and an action plan can feel appropriate as this optimism is given wings. The Jupiter Scorpio transit shows us this discovery will be likely in relation to deep feelings and sensuality.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Sagittarius the focus will be on activities which increase public value. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of discovering and acting upon the interconnection between apparent separate dynamics which make up daily experience. Such realizations bring forward an effortless yet dynamic interchange with our world as we intend and seek those experiences which are motivational. An evolution of self awareness occurs as connections and insights become instantaneous with our experiences. Those born under the Sun sign Sagittarius have a natural propensity to dynamic public involvement. They naturally and easily become leaders through their quick dynamic actions. Not to exclude others as we all have Sagittarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience expanded insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public commitment of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience an expansion of insight when I ...

Scorpio: accept and trust my body to show me and lead me to what is most interesting.

Libra: connect with others and share ideas with those who are immediate to my current intention.

Virgo: pay attention to how I emotionally feel about my public value.

Leo: move on my inspiration with joy and excitement.

Cancer: organize my personal responsibilities.

Gemini: allow myself to become involved in the dynamic adventure of partnership.

Taurus: allow the richness of my partnership to attract public value.

Aries: move courageously forward into new territories of social and public interaction.

Pisces: accept the leadership role which my chosen career leads me to.

Aquarius: embrace the value of social interaction.

Capricorn: allow and accept the opinion of others.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Monday December 18th 1:32 AM 2017 EST - new Moon in Sagittarius

Action energy as in moving toward getting things done can feel really good. Good new Moon phase here to see one's self getting those important things checked off. An ability to organize and prioritize will assist as well. Mercury's hangover retrograde from last Moon cycle will however affect one's ability to remain focused on the task at hand if the individual has some lagging undone's from their past. That is why it will be a good idea for some to picture and visualize themselves actively getting things done during the new Moon phase. If one is getting distracted perhaps it would be best to dial in the feeling of the issue and allow this feeling to thread the connection with past events which linger today. Owning and admitting is a powerful medicine for reliving one's mind and increasing one available consciousness, and there is typically the bonus of discovering a silver lining just beyond one's dark or worrisome past. Nothing hangs around or circles around in ones attention if it is not important to their conscious clarity and evolution. A need to bust down and perhaps to release one's grip on admiring others who were tilted up to famous stature by past social beliefs and influences. Someone we admired decades ago may be receiving more praise from us that we are able to give to ourselves. This is one of many possible reasons for one's mind becoming derailed during Mercury retrograde phases. Also good idea to intend safety during our new Moon meditation and visualization as the new Moon is trine to Uranus and Pallas Athena in Aries as well as the potential for mental focus to be stuck looking into the past.

02 Monday December 18th - Moon enters Capricorn 8:35 AM

Saturn ingress Capricorn Tuesday December 19th 12:50 AM

Solstice Sun ingress Capricorn Tuesday December 19th 11:50 PM

Quickly following the new Moon moment is this Capricorn lunar ingress. A sense of urgency and panic can come over some, especially related to getting things done on time. An ongoing need to feel in control of a situation, or more precisely a shared value, can be challenging if the dynamic is colored by an unresolved important issue. A feeling that something remains unresolved can become a burden as the individual can not seem to dodge this any longer. Saturn will make the Capricorn ingress ending and beginning a new two year cycle. For some this will be like a changing of the guard in the "boss" department. If you are your own boss, aren't we all, a change in priority or focus will change your use of your important time. Some may begin to make executive like decisions in their life where they no longer have time for certain things. Also a change in time related priority where a more serious effort to move a particular goal forward is felt to be appropriate. A more practical approach is committed to as urgency and seriousness grow. And so this is the general synopsis over the next two years beginning now, yet the unraveling of irrelevant reasoning begins now as if this two year window is unconsciously calling the individual forward. Conversation can be affected as Mercury remains retrograde until late Friday December 22nd. Some can feel frustrated because they have an exaggerated fear their conversation is going in circles? Don't panic it's not circles it's more like spirals, kind of like a detective who continually reviews a crime scene, each time gaining a clearer look at a bigger picture.

03 Wednesday December 20th - Moon enters Aquarius 9:30 PM

Mercury direct Friday December 22nd 8:52 PM

Frustrations may be related to social elitism. The who's who thing is driving some people nuts while others are happy to play along, oblivious to what they are creating for themselves just down the road. The folly of external validation creates a growing debt at Bank Karma. The beauty of the current period running May 9th 2017 through to November 6th 2018 is it facilitates the great opportunity to bust and clear such limitation. Yet like the older than old saying "you can't get out of prison until you realize you are in prison" holds true. Fame and social admiration need merely be the by-product of one's integrity and nothing more. The crown placed upon someone's head is placed their by themselves and no other. Much bizarre social behavior which has been occurring over the last several years can be attributed to this external validation belief and the correlating significance of a who's who mentality. The pooling together of like minded beliefs eventually floods over and we have marches and riots, or some form of such. Yet realistically many individuals are logically drained of the reason for their commitment to the viral act, it's just follow the mob rage. On the bright side many are clearing themselves of old social beliefs and are finding they like themselves, they are their own celebrity. As an act of pure joy they sustain interest in their unique inspiration and continue to build a great future simply by accepting the challenge of letting go of blame and instead owning that which they know to be their own creating power.

04 Saturday December 23rd - Moon enters Pisces 9:43 AM

Venus ingress Capricorn Monday December 25th 1:27 AM

This can be a good time to join with others outside dividing beliefs which may have in the past isolated otherwise close individuals. Many experiencing a special holiday and festive family unions can feel goodwill prevail. The Venus Capricorn ingress early on Monday morning is somewhat magical on this day indicating an acceptance and longing for clarity. This merges well with the rise in empathy akin to the Pisces Moon transit. Special opportunities to either reunite with loved ones or create new understandings which consider and acknowledge others in a fond and joyful way can be seeded.

In many cases it can feel real good to make rules. Rules for ones self obviously but also rules for family for work and business for dealing with the general public for managing finances or whatever. What may be coming into question and causing confusion is a version of a situation which is either not completely understood or is the influential idea of another. The beliefs of others can be causing confusion especially if there is lost memory as to how one came to certain notions. There is a strong impetus to move forward yet unresolved or confusing opinion and or information makes it foggy as to just how to do so. This is a good time to admit and accept these interfering opinions and beliefs especially if they are clearly known not to be one's own. Many people can feel the pain of others as if it is their own. This sort of empathy can rise during a Pisces Moon transit. Ideally the individual will acknowledge and support another while allowing the individual to come to clarity on their own in such a way that this other person will benefit from the situation as if it was a carefully crafted lesson specific for them. Allowing others their limitations may be the only functional solution anyway. We will, during this Moon cycle, be heading into some very interesting territory during this Moon cycle concerning planing and effective boundaries as made relative by the community and social systems we are sharing. For now however while the Moon transits Pisces we want to focus on clearing away delusions.

05 Monday December 25th - Moon enters Aries 8:28 PM

A sudden urgent need to take control of a situation can occur. Shared resources or values, like money or property, can be the logical focus yet this is really about addressing a belief or correlating situation which has been left dangling. A sense of panic may be rising yet the reason for the frustration may be unknown. For those who have been and continue to be diligent a fresh sense of getting actively involved in something can bring happiness and joy to their expanding moment. Some wishful desire may feel closer to reality and so the individual acts as if it is happening. However one must be cautious as there is a potential some are blinded by their own excitement. The Aries action energy can also be connected with an urge to hug and embrace others. Empathy on the rise and recharged by the recent Pisces Moon can get some wheels, now an inspired individuals may be fulfilling their desires by embracing others. Letting others know you care about them and their happiness is a very nice thing yet it may be advisable in some cases to step slowly as not everyone can deal with sustained hugging and closeness. We can always find others ways to bring and share happiness. Many civic social systems are being forced into major change, this has been going on for some time well preceding this Moon cycle. These dynamic changes are in no way complete, we are in the middle of a big fat revolution which is global. Both this Moon cycle and the following one in Capricorn indicate opportunities for increased clarity as to the new world we have moved into or are moving into. Those who can look for new solutions, who are inventive as opposed to doing things the typical historic way, can do well. A need to be clear and realistic, practical and accepting, will frame their demeanor as they step forward with clearly understood ideas and methods which are meant to secure and sustain a comforting foundation for their future and others.

06 Thursday December 28th - Moon enters Taurus 1:24 AM

After a lot of excitement it feels good to slow down and relax, take it easy. There are some special authority type individuals who are being appreciated right now. Not everyone of course as many people don't like to be told what to do all the time. Yet there are some special individuals who bring clarity and insightful ideas, suggestions which are proving to be helpful. These people are being valued as their motive is true of heart. Our connection to so called realism feels very comforting. However we must be reminded from time to time that everything which exists in our reality, including our physical reality, is someone's opinion manifested, such is the nature of existence. Thought recreates! This is a good period to take a nature walk or in some way connect to the Earth and give her our acknowledgement. Our security ultimately comes from or is facilitated by the Earth, as such it is not difficult to say to her "I love you dearly". When our basic fundamental beliefs include our acknowledgement of the Earth as well as our understanding that all is energy we can better build a sound foundation of comfort and security. In the meantime what's up with all the social changes? Social changes have been occurring for quite some time and will continue. Things considered permanent and absolute are proving to be nothing but. It helps if we have a clear understanding as to what memory is and the way memory and time dance together. The issues or challenges, if such exist for the individual, right now in terms of our comfort and security will likely involve control over shared resources. Some may find they are questioning a recently introduced idea or plan to make money. Or there is some notion or agenda which was meant to bring security which is now being questioned and scrutinized. Those who know what foundational security feels like will continue to sustain and reinvent it as they flow with challenge and change, just like the Earth does.

07 Saturday December 30th - Moon enters Gemini 3:32 AM

"What are you saying?" Some may insist that what is being said be done with clarity. Others may not want to hear a thing. Now that Saturn is no longer transiting Sagittarius a great relaxing can occur in terms of what some look for and demand in their public and business life. How things are said will not be such a big deal, at least not like it had been for the previous two years. A need to control conversation or to strap it to someone's specific detail and preference will finally be letting up. Mercury's recent retrograde ending a week ago was also heavy on those who are troubled by their inability to have a good conversation. Some of what is said now may be the result of these recent astrological correlations. It may still be challenging in some specific conversations, yet this is really the end of it. It would be wise to not damage or spoil a relationship because one does not like how another is expressing some idea. Just be calm we will be good in a day or so, like January 1st. With that being said there are those who are clear about where they are going and their plan to get there. Now they must connect and network some aspects of their plan as if it is their responsibility and duty to do so. We are heading into a time period which will last for a year or two where clarity as to what is going on socially will be fleshed out and made clear. And so now we may be seeing, or feeling, the dawn of this period. As such it is good to intend clarity and insight into social or community concerns. Recognizing the need to work together harmoniously as a society and community will facilitate an increased clarity as we deal with the ongoing changes in social infrastructure.

08 Monday January 1st - Moon enters Cancer 3:11 AM

Full Moon in Cancer Monday January 1st 9:25 PM

Uranus direct Tuesday January 2nd 9:12 AM

Happy New Year! The current period alignments can be seen as a forecast for the coming new year. Capricorn is well represented with Sun Venus Saturn and Pluto all transiting there. The full Moon will also occur during this transit. Relations will be tested for their integrity and resolve, during this period and for 2018. Understanding sensitivity and vulnerability will be paramount in maintaining focus and staying on track with one's goals. Social groups will be challenged to find common ground among it's members as will families and professional work teams. Those who do find the harmonic of cooperation will do amazing things. For now the individual can get a quick glimpse of 2018 all rolled into this two day period. A need to understand shared values and shared resources, as in partnerships, can become an important topic. Those who are scheduling priorities which involve others will have ideas which they want to share. The control that some bosses or company CEO's were accessing over the last two years will begin to be less effective. Gradually, if they do not accept the change, they will be swamped with unresolved issues and personal relationship blocks which stymie their otherwise successful run. The real reason can appear to be the need to accept social rules, this can be AI (artificial intelligence) type domination within peoples lives at all levels. However it is astute and wise for the individual to be aware that AI is not the begin and end all, there are other factors and forces in existence which trump AI and every individual has potential access to this.

09 Saturday January 3th - Moon enters Leo 2:24 AM

A social evolution prompting social revolution is occurring. The individual will be questioning who they are relative to the society they experience. The evolution is the freeing of one's identity and more so their self value from the barrage of character archetypes which have been dominating their self knowing since birth. The logical mind and individual's ego can very well be completely oblivious to this evolution yet they are still being lead somewhere in terms of their self importance. In a simple way we grow up with heroes which are admired and in a somewhat unconscious way these heroes are copied or mimicked. Celebrities are assigned in many cases to these character archetypes and so there will continue to be a collapse of there stature. Manufactured and false credit can no longer survive and so many famous individuals will be brought down a few pegs as the way is cleared for the individual to get a realistic handle on their specific greatness and admirable character. Along with the collapse of manufactured celebrities is the death of elitism. The inclusion and exclusion of certain individuals from specific social groups will become less and less tolerated. Sexual misconduct and racism concerns is really the basic beginning of this evolution, the real prize is for the individual to find sovereignty as an individual and to remember and embrace impeccable self admiration.

10 Monday January 5th - Moon enters Virgo 3:13 AM

Nonsense! The need to be clear of frivolous beliefs and apparent lack of rational ideas can be a major concern for some. Do you like music, everybody likes music of some sort, and where is the logic in that? Art and its value to affect the individual is a good example or reason to accept the so called fantastic realms. So it's only nonsense when it gets out of hand? During this Virgo Moon transit it can feel frustrating and annoying when it does just that, get out of hand. This as such can be a good transit to find where there are imbalances in one's life, where realism is not given enough respect and escapism is too dominate. Escapism as in going for the buzz of apparent non-real forays such as watching movies or pleasuring oneself with intoxication of some sort can be called to the carpet. In dire cases where habits are like solid rocks occupying one's schedule and are solidly in one's regular routine it can be quite concerning. The first step to busting through and finding a healthy balance is to admit and accept one's situation. A second step would then be to find the parallel between the fantasy type habit and real life. For example how art imitates life, where is this relevant in one's particular fantasy? Judging and denying the value of fantasy is not really a functional solution. Another big clue to accepting and breaking down such intoxicating habits is to notice and see how one is overly involved in the affairs of others. The big trump card here which will be played if we do not deal with our denial is our health. Our health will surely interrupt our ego's agenda and force us to reprioritize our activities if we do not do it on our own. As such no matter what one's current indulgence state is it is always a good plan to consider and embrace optimal health.

11 Wednesday January 7th - Moon enters Libra 7:16 AM

Friendships will be important to those who are seriously focused on their public and professional value. Reputation in business may be an ongoing concern and healthy social relationships can be connected with how one feels about this. Currently friendships can be connected with actively assisting the management of property and finances. Helping a friend understand their financial security will be more common than usual. Assisting another in taking action toward maintaining their security helps both individuals understand their friendship. Powerful forces may be altering the mechanics which one must deal with in order to protect and maintain their investments. Certain actions are being taken now as these powerful forces either open up opportunities or force one to make changes regarding their security. Friends can bond over the then need to apply rules and boundaries of some sort. Shared control or mutually beneficial agreed upon actions may be prevalent. Seeking and desiring to know what the social consensus is can also become popular. A need to define the manner in which we share our community will feel necessary and advisable. Discussions regarding social consideration and community harmony will likely begin to rise, not just now but for the next two years. The feeling that we are in this together, as a community, will become more and more understood and accepted. Of course there can be some spills and disagreements but over all people are looking for mutually beneficial social type solutions. It will become increasingly apparent that some of the older ways are no longer workable or relevant and so the willingness to admit this and let go of this can be a difficult process for some.

12 Friday January 9th - Moon enters Scorpio 3:07 PM*Mercury ingress Capricorn Thursday January 11th 12:10 AM*

There has been so much action lately in regards to values and protecting one's future security. As the Moon transits Scorpio shared actions can come under the microscope. Scrutinizing the actions and questioning motives can become the focus. A need to understand the details of what was a mutually agreed upon course of action suddenly becomes more important. A fear one has been moving too fast with an important financial type decision for example can rise. In the meantime big big big changes are happening which are affecting all of us, our entire world is changing. There is no stopping this and if one does attempt to stop it they will likely make it much worse for themselves. For some events may be disastrous yet for others it represents a long awaited opportunity. In many cases it is merely perspective. Either way there is no doubt about it, things are changing! The feeling that one is not in control must be looked at very carefully as taking reckless actions can worsen a difficult situation. Deep feelings can come up suddenly. It is best to realize that if this does happen it was there all along and the current physical world events are merely the trigger for the feelings. One would do well to search within themselves for the feelings and correlating beliefs which they may be currently dealing with. In this manner a difficult challenge and a heavy feeling may actually lead to the recover of one's sovereignty and the releasing of a long time burden.

13 Sunday January 12th - Moon enters Sagittarius 2:05 AM*Dark Moon begins Sunday January 14th 7:39 AM*

A shift for many toward becoming accepting of rules and boundaries regarding social or community dynamics may have evolved during this Moon cycle. This evolution toward such acceptance may continue now and extend into the next Moon cycle. The rules are becoming important and perhaps being seen as valuable. There will be rules and boundaries and authorities which are not so warm and fuzzy as well. The big thing is to become aware this world we share, our local and global community, is changing, it only makes sense that the old ways are not the best fit for today and the future. In many cases the rules and regulations can't change fast enough. On the more local level the individual may have a personal specific unique experience which is connected to the bigger all inclusive picture. The individual would do well to make their own rule changes for themselves. Becoming one's own guide by making and or revising one's own personal rules will likely include accepting and reassessing ones specific personal situation. The Sagittarius Moon cycle will tend to focus matters on public reputation. The big move of Saturn leaving Sagittarius and moving into Capricorn during this Moon cycle is an indicator that a two year drive to succeed in business and management fields will wain. Especially affected is how one converses with their boss or how a boss will begin to better listen to those they direct.

14 Wednesday January 14th - Moon enters Capricorn 2:43 PM*Jupiter sextile Pluto Monday 11:15 PM January 15th*

Citizens of the world have been really unwieldily for a few years now. The hidden control through the front of supposed elected governments, where relevant, has been over burden with maintaining their specific will as the feeling of freedom from the average citizen has been overwhelming to the stealthy secret governments, assuming such exists. It's a simple matter of seeing Uranus transit Aries and knowing thought creates where by the pooling of peoples energy worldwide has made it overwhelming and impossible for human deceivers to continue their agenda. A scattering of the deceivers has been occurring as well, those who in the past who had a clear handle on governing while remaining somewhat hidden to the general public can no longer participate in such a fruitful greedy life, again assuming such exists. If there has been a hidden or stealth control over fake news and fake governments then those who were in the thick of the secrecy are most certainly experiencing devastating changes. Either way a system of order, real order with integrity and good will, will likely begin to formulate during the coming Moon cycle in Capricorn. Of course this can only happen after the so called bad guys and their control systems are destroyed. It's like the phoenix has risen and phase one is to destroy that which is no longer needed followed by phase two which is the rebuild. Just like the tide at the beach, each time after the tide goes out all the sand castles are reduced to the basic pattern of nature. What castles in our regulated world have been washed out by the tide and what new worlds will we build?

New Moon Monday December 18th 2017 1:32 AM ESTReport number 181

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.

- 16 My life is real to me, I am no longer inspired by fake celebrity life style.
- 17 I am able to access the value of rules.
- 18 I know when to accept the rules and when to break them.
- 19 I am a good listener, I am a good communicator.
- 20 Socially I am appreciated for my fairness and non-judgment.
- 21 I feel good about my plans and enjoy implementing my ideas.
