Overview

New Moon in Capricorn
 Tuesday January 16th 2018 9:18 PM EST

Whether or not it is more compelling now than in recent months this is a good time to make executive type decisions. As the infrastructure of the cooperate and shared social world continues to change some past methods can no longer work and new ways are needed. The changes to our social infrastructures are far from complete and many systems are in a state of continual change. Dealing with ongoing changes is a necessary function of most all governing offices and corporate managing concerns right now. Even some of the new systems or methods may be short lived. Perhaps the better strategy is to design solutions which are ready for and accepting of changes still to come. Emotional sensitivity can aid one in stretching their incite and grasping what is significant yet it is also important to avoid managing feelings. Feelings are indicators of significance coming from a place outside one's typical ego and so a need to accept and find significance will require an advanced objectivity and openmindedness. All too typical is a strategy to deny and or avoid feelings and sensitivity. This will lead to greater challenges down the road and possible health issues. This is a good time to seek the joy which can be had when expressing and acting on one's own sense of directed authority. If something does not feel right take the time to look into this, determine what past beliefs are needing to be dealt with. Look for the practical common ground when dealing with others. By simply seeing oneself as being in charge and in command of ones experiences and reality a swift change in one's approach and enthusiasm can occur.

In order to come to know and accept one's own admirable quality some will take important actions involving family, or for others one cares for. Those who are less experienced in important life decisions may be rescued by such an individual. Driven by a need to live one's idea of self respect drives them to take actions for others. In some cases there is a back story where some past social ideal regarding correct social behavior is being challenged such that it can be brought forward in one's experiences now and to be released. The past story will parallel current events, the common connecting thing being the emotional feeling about the these two apparent separate events. The degree to which one's self esteem is qualified by an assumed social status quo may have become out grown. This may be difficult for the individual to rationalize or to see from their ego's perspective alone however a bigger picture may be lurking. The individual will as such act out their beliefs creating real life drama where by they can get some fresh new experiences and feelings regarding their hidden beliefs. These hidden beliefs will be in the manner of coming to the assistance of others who are seemingly falling into a dark place. To be effective at assisting others it is advantageous to remember that all create their own reality and as such a point of non-interfering must be respected. Also holding space and sending another solutions etherically can also assist. What we are seeing here however may be more hands on and involved with deeply stuck patterns and so a need to become directly involved is perhaps the only way for the rescuer and the apparent victim to play out their beliefs. This current Moon cycle as well as the next in Aquarius will offer opportunities for the individual to free themselves from long held issues which are are rooted in issues involving social beliefs and social expectations and how one's self confidence is bound to these beliefs.

Liking and accepting authority both in one's self or in some particular others may be easier now. Even though we typically don't like to be bossed around all the time a need for decisiveness and practical responsibility can benefit from some authority type character. At a time when the infrastructures of our communities are being overhauled this can be a good time to accept the need for prudence and selectivity. The overhaul will include physical infrastructure like roads and buildings and things like that however it also includes the systems of governing and regulating the economy of our communities. Also being affected is the eco-system, nature and the environment around us, the land and weather as significant to all creatures and not just us humans. There will be some new controllers showing up this Moon cycle as indicated by Saturn's Capricorn ingress on December 19th of last year. This will now host the Pluto Capricorn ingress which began in 2008, at least it will steer it and place boundaries on it to a certain degree. This will affect everything, not just the previously listed infrastructure changes. It is good as such to recognize the ongoing changes as being somewhat more understood or in some way managed however it will not control the onset of continued change. The changes referred to here are physical changes and these physical changes will have parallels. For example how one understands their relationships and partnerships will also be changing. In many cases many will come to increase the value of these relationships, even though they will no doubt have cause to be more emotional. Our sensitivity and vulnerability can be increasingly more obvious to us and this is a good thing. The difficulties of having one's world shattered is a reality for many world wide right now and most certainly right here in one's neighborhood, and here we can see how this prompts feeling and emotions. It is the feelings and emotions which will ultimately free the individual from the difficulty of this non-stop change. Our emotions will continue to bring us information about what is most relevant to us as we increase our awareness and embrace the bigger picture of the changes we are facing.

Citizens of the world have been unwieldily for a few years now. The hidden control through the front of supposed elected governments, where relevant, has been over burden with maintaining their specific will as the feeling of freedom from the average citizen has been overwhelming to the stealthy secret governments, assuming such exists. It's a simple matter of seeing Uranus transit Aries and knowing thought creates where by the pooling of peoples energy worldwide has made it overwhelming and impossible for deceivers to continue their agenda. A scattering of the deceivers has been occurring as well, those in the past who had a clear handle on governing while remaining somewhat hidden to the general public can no longer participate in such a fruitful greedy life, again assuming such exists. If there has been a hidden or stealth control over fake news and fake governments then those who were in the thick of the secrecy are most certainly experiencing devastating changes. Either way a system of order, real order with integrity and good will, will likely begin to formulate during the coming Moon cycle in Capricorn. Of course this can only happen after the so called bad guys and their control systems are destroyed. It's like the phoenix has risen and phase one is to destroy that which is no longer needed followed by phase two which is the rebuild. Just like the tide at the beach, each time after the tide goes out all the sand castles are reduced to the basic pattern of nature. What castles in our regulated world have been washed out by the tide and what new worlds will we build?

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Capricorn the focus will be on creative impulses which support one's intention to accomplish something in a public sense. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of following one's creative impulse and moving into actives or projects which facilitate a new way of being socially relevant. Such inspirations bring forward an effortless yet dynamic action affecting our world as we intend and seek those experiences which are directed toward some inspired vision. An evolution of self awareness occurs as purpose moves from inspiration into social action. Those born under the Sun sign Capricorn have a natural propensity to creative, public inspired, impulse. They naturally and easily become builders through their sense of focus and purpose. Not to exclude others as we all have Capricorn somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience purposeful directed focus. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public commitment of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience an inspired and directed purposefulness ...

Sagittarius: by observing and accepting everything which comes to my immediate attention.

Scorpio: by maintaining clear direct communications as they pertain to my interest.

Libra: by accepting the way I feel about myself relative to my social involvement.

Virgo: by allowing myself to enjoy the ease of accomplishment which follows my focused agenda.

Leo: by being discerning as to what is and what is not a personal responsibility.

Cancer: by accepting the value and direction of my partnerships.

Gemini: by accepting the new social structures which my dynamic partnerships lead to.

Taurus: by trusting and accepting new ways of being involved with humanity and the planet.

Aries: through my dedication to the public through my career.

Pisces: by seeing and feeling how the public facilitates interaction through defined social structures.

Aquarius: by accepting the congruency of my world and the quality of how all things are aligned to Creator's presence within all things.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Monday January 18th 1:32 AM 2017 EST - new Moon in Capricorn

This new Moon phase and cycle offers an opportunity for the individual to heal or evolve their sense of directness. Our ability to be purposeful and prudent will in some way be examined. Whether we are our own authority figuring out how to be more precisely correct or we are dealing with authority projections where we are minding rules and regulations imposed upon us the boundaries of our behavior will be examined. Our new Moon intentions can include things related to our purpose and agenda, or more appropriately related to our ability to accept ourselves as our ultimate authority. We may wish to see ourselves effective efficient and on time with our goals, taking note of how it feels to see things through in a responsible way, and feel the success of our self responsibility in action. Capricorn as a cardinal sign is creative and those who align and tune to Capricorn energy will be inspired by their creative ideas and new ways of understanding their situation. New choices or simply more choices can be another valuable intention to hold during the new Moon phase. No doubt the Pluto Capricorn transit will come into play for everyone in some way as our world has been dramatically affected since Pluto's ingress back in 2008. This is in itself a good reason to intend to connect to Capricorn's creative aspect as it is new ideas which our world could use to solve some very big problems humanity is facing. Saturn's recent Capricorn ingress in December of 2017 is huge as well as this Capricorn Moon cycle as it is the first since this ingress and since the 2008 Pluto Capricorn ingress. This can be the Moon cycle which issues forth new leadership via correlating plans as solutions unique to the current challenges humanity faces are asserted.

02 Wednesday January 17th - Moon enters Aquarius 3:33 AM

Venus ingress Aquarius Wednesday January 17th 8:45 PM

Being appreciated or some how singled out in a nice way for being socially significant may be indicative of a belief connected to one's self esteem. A desire to be socially attractive can return one to a past experience in which they were involved in a social pattern or social archetype where they were indeed enamored by recognition. It can feel nice and enjoyable now yet it is wise to look at the whole picture. Some may be lead down the garden path feeling they are getting somewhere socially. As always the individual wants to be cool and aware quickly identifying notions of superiority based on social validation. Also a strong desire to assert new rules based on shared property contracts or money can be connected with one's current social experience. The powerful idea that one can gain big things may be based on some truth yet there is an indicator that there is more to the picture and that other details may not be as much fun. A typical experience of becoming lost in and intoxicated by the greatness of positive insistence may be occurring? If is inspiring to come up with good ideas which can change one's practical situation for the better yet it is also important to be vigilant and realistic. Ideally the individual will value the journey and not just the prize. Do the ideas pass the sniff test? Those who are use to embracing their sensuality and feeling the depth of their situation will do well as they will not be so naive, yet those who typically shy away from emotional depth may be easily enthused yet miss something critically important.

03 Friday January 19th - Moon enters Pisces 3:28 PM

Sun ingress Aquarius Friday January 19th 10:10 PM

What may be casual conversation for one individual will be an important matter to another. Why some people need certain things to be so very real is their business. We may notice that their "real" requires the help of another, perhaps ourselves. So this is the power of external validation. In this case behind the delusion, or perhaps to be more fair the fantasy, is their self esteem. Can we see this in ourselves or in others? The need for some version of reality to be realistic can include many many varied and different things. The excitement of a particular TV show or a movie, the character in a book, the music product of different artists, the fashion or style of some group or clique, it's all making some idea real in a shared way. As we navigate the social world we will no doubt be expected to jump and groove with various reality yummys. Our ability to remain focused on our particular objective will be important. We may be also looking at revealing what fantasy or delusion we are needing to be real, and how we are urging, covertly of course, our associates or friends to validate it for us. If we can indeed catch ourselves doing such a thing we stand to benefit. Our ability to become more realistic in an Absolute way is huge for our continuing advancing awareness. As we proceed toward our daily routine and typical interactions we are wise to allow others their version of reality without becoming overly involved in them, and yet joyfully spying on ourselves.

04 Monday January 22nd - Moon enters Aries 1:28 AM

In order to proceed with one's valued agenda some action at home base is required. Some social or community matter may be causing a reaction at home. A need to take some action can feel daunting, even if the purpose or reason is unknown. It may be necessary to focus on keeping one's reactions constructive. A sense of urgency can be felt. What it is about may be known yet it may not be as well. Some social boundary may get popped and an unexpected train of events begins. The need to take control of a shared value, as in property or a contract, can be the avenue by which one's impulsiveness vents. Some may be feeling amplified sensually and feel they want to express this. The matter involving a revolution of grand nature which is an ongoing process (2009 - 2024) may be connected to actions now as well. If this is so again the actions will involve shared values and security. What is believed to be really important in terms of security, on the community or social level, may be the realm in which the actions are triggered or affected. This can have a lot to do with control. Also in the mix is how one has unknowingly allowed themselves to be defined by some social belief. As this becomes revealed to the individual a sense of freedom bottled up with pride and dignity can again trigger actions. Innocently the actions are connected with one's well intended agenda and the pushing forward of this plan, who was to know that some past beliefs and issues would be connected?

05 Wednesday January 24th - Moon enters Taurus 8:41 AM

Mars ingress Sagittarius Friday January 26th 7:57 AM

The true quality of one's optimistic agenda may reveal challenges simply missed. Simplicity is an ingredient which better facilitates security and foundation. Over complication may not be the difficulty although it can appear that way, the real issue is the lack of acknowledgement of the foundational footing upon which our agenda depends. The error may be more in taking this for granted and allowing it to slip away into details which lack congruency. The need of and the opportunity to reset one's value in terms of embracing simplicity can become apparent. The bigger picture for example is more easily noticed when the individual is able to find congruency, noticing congruency which translates into foundation. Over complication can only exist when the basic nature of our foundation is forgotten. Those who embrace the Earth and her creatures maintain a harmonic with a basic simplicity which allows and facilitates a grand congruency to prevail in their life. One's mind can be really active right now, or perhaps it is conversation which is overly volcanic! How can simplicity ease such power driven ideas words and thoughts? Simplicity can be seen as code for congruency and big time foundation. Its like the way accepting leads to peace.

06 Friday January 26th - Moon enters Gemini 12:41 PM

Feeling the difference between frivolous conversation and sticking to the point may be more noticed than usual. A need to stick to the point during what some may assume to be casual conversation indicates a need or concern to attend to some responsibility. If there has been an agenda actively pursued since the new Moon on January 16th then this can cause an amplified concern that time is being wasted with do nothing conversation. Ideally the individual will realize there is nothing wasted and that their focus on what it is they want to accomplish is related to the events they come to experience. Some ideas thoughts and conversations may have been particularly different lately where the needs of some are much more powerfully expressed. An exaggerated need to stick to the point can be possessing the minds of some. Some may seem to ignore the needs of these suddenly strong willed individuals as they are on their terms pursuing their own public image. Professional recognition may be the motivation of some as they push forward with their idea and beliefs concerning their potential. An inspiring plan can be serviced now if the individual is able to objectively discern what they are or have been involved in. It may be time to cut the over involvement in the dramas of others as an example. An ability to use one's time wisely can yield better results as opposed to allowing one's mind to be sustained in the affairs of others. Concerns obviously not one's own can be more sharply discerned during this Moon transit.

07 Sunday January 28th - Moon enters Cancer 1:59 PM

Those expected to be there in one's plan may not be, at least not in the way assumed. An increased sensitivity in the air right now can be changing one's take on their relationships, especially partnerships. It's like suddenly seeing inside one's most inner fears which can be surprising, even shocking. Whether you are seeing inside the inner feelings of another or one is seeing inside your own it is most likely a temporary thing. However it can be a valuable opportunity as the truth is revealed in more detail. We can do well to observe ourselves as we may be more vulnerable and sensitive than usual. In the meantime many will be mining their freedom, social and public freedom, as they seek and search for success which supports their agenda. A matter of who's who can be coming into play at all turns. This means beliefs about what makes someone significant in the view of others. In order to expedite one's plan they may have to deal with this, possibly examining their own self image and revealing to themselves what it is they have previously not been able to see. The added sensitivity can give the individual the edge to get more detail. If you are feeling something and one's vulnerability is exaggerated then it means something. This sensitivity bypasses the ego and so there is a direct line to the higher self, assuming one is indeed treated with the opportunity of experiencing their vulnerability.

08 Tuesday January 30th - Moon enters Leo 1:54 PM

Full Moon lunar eclipse in Leo Wednesday January 31st 10:30 AM

Mercury ingress Aquarius Wednesday January 31st 10:40 AM

Mix ups concerning who is an important person and who is not is occurring during May 9th 2017 through to November 6th 2018. Ideally the individual will finish this period with the crown of significance on their own head. As these mix ups occur a restructuring of who's who, beliefs as to what constitutes significance in an individual, will be examined one way or another. Those who are clearly outside the paradigm of external validation will be exempt. Typically we are involved in some way however. Being in hot water or having one's significance examined because the rules of social validation were broken, oh my, can be seen as an opportunity to bust free of some glorified pegging system which calibrates one's social importance. False significance is not backed by current alignments and so there is a social adjustment which can occur. Currently there is an opportunity to move one's own personal idea of themselves into a zone which is free from delusional social rules. To do so will require impeccable self honesty in accepting what one has created and drawn to themselves. If individuals agree among themselves, not necessarily spoken, that their mutual projection and mutual validation is real for them they may carry on to a degree yet the boat upon which they float may be leaking with an impending disaster approaching. The key is self love, this will lead to power and sovereignty for the individual and will save the day.

09 Thursday February 1st - Moon enters Virgo 2:14 PM

Plans ideas presented as opportunities to create greater security, as in financial security, have been on the rise lately. The soundness and legitimacy of some of these ideas may now be triggering emotional reactions. The individual is perhaps being prompted to examine these ideas as per what it means specifically to them and intend to free themselves from the agenda and reasoning of others. Suddenly we may be able to think more freely when we consider our responsibility in such matters as solely our own. The difference between shared security and individual security may need to be more closely and clearly understood. Once clarity has arrived in one's understanding their focus will be more easily sustained. Recently beginning on January 26th with Mars making a Sagittarius ingress an aggressiveness may have become dominate with those who are on one side of some security designed deal. Also there are some social significance ideas which are plaguing the motivations of some. If something does not feel right in terms of a deal it should be examined more closely. For some this can be a lesson or opportunity to demonstrate to ones self that they will stick up for themselves. Ideally the individual will be able to see how the practical issues of physical living are processed by their compassionate sense yet this does not mean they are deluded in fantasy. The compassionate feeling self has great value and brings opportunity to the individual when the individual can clearly see that this emotional take is allowing them to see beyond where their logical mind can take them.

10 Saturday February 3rd - Moon enters Libra 4:48 PM

Balance in partnerships is a real thing. The individual may be prompted in some way to notice the quality of this balance as the Moon transits Libra. We may witness how a partnership reflects back to us our own self. The uniqueness of each relationship can have a special value to us when we consider this from the perspective that we are being shown something about ourselves we would not typically see. It is not uncommon, unfortunately, for this to be denied. It can be difficult to accept what we see in ourselves as reflected in another yet it is truly of great value and great significance to do so. And we can also see wonderful things which we acknowledge in others and again in ourselves as well. When we are feeling an unusual big drain on our own energy and motivation it can typically indicate we are lacking in our relationships, especially partnerships. In other words when we share a harmonic, an interest, with another we experience a significant energy support and boost. As the Moon transits Libra we can better examine how energy and harmony with another is supported or not. An inspired impulse to take action on many tasks and to prioritize and multi task will be indicative of a harmony present in our partnership right now. Also a natural acceptance of ideas outside the typically approved boundary of significance can also be a positive indicator. A big dynamic right now can be social significance which is being fleshed out and examined on a grand scale. Ultimately this will increase mutual admiration in personal relationships.

11 Monday February 5th - Moon enters Scorpio 10:58 PM

Controlling who we are socially may be an ongoing dynamic, so common and sustained and present it is hardly noticed, we simply got use to it! If however an individual is inspired to create and bring forth into the world a thing which in some way advances the quality of living for many others they would, or may, via their inspiration march forward with an agenda which manifests such a vision. The accepted social paradigm in which one lives is in many ways connected with the agenda of many others. These connections are many many and much may be purposely hidden from the individual. Like the movie "The Truman Show" we are not shown everything because it would not be to the advantage of the producer if their important subjects knew the bigger story. With that framing, plus knowing we are experiencing a Scorpio Moon ingress, we can potentially have some of this bigger panorama shown to us. If we are willing to accept we do not know everything and we have possible been duped, again Truman Show style, we can be given opportunities to bust an oblivious ignorance which makes us easily playable. The opportunity is exaggerated now as we can see more easily attempts to set up new delusions and distractions. This entire Moon cycle will bring out the craftiness in individuals who really want to create something special and positive for themselves and others. As such hidden agendas may be fleshed out. When the quality of one's integrity is aligned with a grand harmonic of higher order it will trump the more local agenda. If there are hidden agendas then now is the opportunity to see behind the scenes. It's like being between the shots, between the frames, between the scenes, and as such there may be noticed a scrambling about which was not intended to be witnessed by the subjects of manipulation.

12 Thursday February 8th - Moon enters Sagittarius 8:55 AM

Venus ingress Pisces Saturday February 10th 6:21 PM

Just like we don't want to over think things we also do not want to act without clear insight. Ideas may well be influenced by beliefs which have been held for a long time, perhaps inherited from one's community and family from generations ago. If one's mind is haunted by historic social beliefs or if one is being confronted by social beliefs which have had a long day historically they may be dealing with a self image which is blocked by these beliefs. As the social ambitious individuals push forward with their agenda to be popular publicly, beliefs are challenged and issues fleshed out. There has been for some time now, since 2011, a social rebellion going on where individuals are demanding their social freedom. Unfortunately in some cases these individuals who are demanding social freedom are projecting their limitation or lack of it on others. Are they in some way responsible for their situation? Depending on how one would answer this will indicate how they respond to beliefs which delineate who one is socially. The way to freedom is through admitting and owning one's situation as if the individual themselves created it. Once an individual will take ownership, acts as if they are in control, they will send the signal to their soul and higher self that they are ready to evolve. As Mercury crosses the Moon's south node in Aquarius an opportunity exists to free oneself of limiting social beliefs and to redefine oneself where their individuality and sovereignty is given an opportunity to grow and evolve. In the meantime the usefulness of rebellion, or lack of usefulness, will be shown to those who merge their energy with others and publicly shout foul.

13 Saturday February 10th - Moon enters Capricorn 9:22 PM

Dark Moon begins Tuesday February 13th 3:58 AM

The rules are the rules are the rules! Or are they? We are heading toward the end of this Capricorn Moon cycle and thus collecting and finalizing certain things. Instead of following the rules of others why not make one's own? If we want to be the boss of ourselves we need to make rules for ourselves. Maybe it's easier to just let someone else make the rules? This Moon cycle has been about self discipline and being prudent. Time and space are the specifics we use to delineate our actions such that we can move our, or someone's, agenda forward. The quality and insight of these specifics is another matter however they are at least initially intentioned to make this happen successfully. Hopefully this Moon cycle has assisted and matured us in how we make and accept rules. Some rules may be ineffective and passe and others may have hidden agendas, it is up to us to be aware and alert to what is in our best interest. Another area where rules and boundaries were possible experienced this Moon cycle is in the communication of rules. Keeping messages clear and undistorted can be an important aspect of effectively using rules. There are a great many rules which a community society country or culture or race such as humanity itself are expected to follow, or it behooves us to follow. We see Earth creatures other than humans also obey and live by rules, perhaps we can learn by observing this. Our understanding of survival, happiness, and harmony is connected with our awareness and respect for rules. What makes this a particularly interesting challenge is the massive global changes occurring to all things here on the Earth, these changes causing us to examine remove and rebuild our rules.

14 Tuesday February 13th - Moon enters Aquarius 10:13 AM

Social actions justified by historic understandings will color the dynamics during the coming Aquarius Moon cycle. The past will attempt to rebuild and relive itself. However the need for some individuals to find self satisfaction which they may have not have been able to in the past may change with these present day current dynamics. The past dramas need to return for some because this is where they left apart of themselves, their attention glued or attached to a past issue. The ego or logical mind may not know or remember however the soul is connected and will naturally strive to be whole and so some way of getting the individuals attention is needed. And here the attention is on how one defines and understands themselves relative to their social situation, or past social situation. This can also and often is connected to so called past life memories and experiences as well. Ideally the individual will be able to feel their sensitivity and vulnerability and be directed to the beliefs which prompt or qualify these emotional reactions.

New Moon Tuesday January 16 2018 9:18 PM EST

Report number 182

Social beliefs which were possible hidden or removed from one's current logical mind and thinking can be revealed, relived and restated, such that the individual can now tweak these beliefs and free themselves from some specific social ignorance.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

Soulstar Astrology readings are based on the belief that thought creates. Our experiences and most especially our difficulties can be framed as opportunities to evolve toward one's higher plan. As humanity has, in the last several years and continuing now, been through identity discernment a questioning as to where one is headed and who the self is that is headed there may occur. The understanding of a particular identity will correlate with particular astrological alignments and planetary placements. Personal astrology charts show us how things are connected from a vast perspective. Knowing these connections and perspectives opens the door for more choices. Astrology works well with dates and so consider keeping a record or make a note of specific dates in which some major dynamic have occurred.

- 03 I can feel the success of my self responsibility in action.
- 04 I am inspired by my creative ideas and new ways of understanding my situation.
- 05 I have many choices when seeking solutions.
- 06 By paying attention to the way I feel about about an offer I am able to benefit from knowing the bigger picture.
- 07 Although I like the prize the experience of the journey is the real reward.
- 08 I can sense support from the spiritual realms as I pursue my Earthly purpose.
- 09 I respectfully allow others their limitations.
- 10 My feeling about certain events connect me to forgotten past issues.
- 11 I am okay with lots of details because my basic foundation is simplicity.
- 12 I practice impeccable self honesty in accepting what I have created and drawn to myself.
- 13 I value my relationships as they show me something about myself I would typically not see.
- 14 My emotional self takes me beyond what my ego or logical mind can know on their own.
- 15 My understanding of survival, happiness, and harmony, is connected with my awareness and respect for rules.
- 16 My partner and I are able to find common ground and are agreeable as to how we share resources.
- 17 My specifically designed agenda is in harmony with the compassion I feel for the living world around me.
- 18 I am appreciated for who I am socially.
- 19 I appreciate my friends and acknowledge them when appropriate to do so.
- 20 I am getting a clearer understanding as to what is permanent and what is less so.
- 21 I am aware how the sensitivity I feel in my partnership is connected to the quality and integrity of my prudent nature.
