Overview

New Moon solar eclipse in Aries
New Moon Solar Eclipse Monday April 8th 2024 2:22 PM EST

"It feels good to take action in a self confident way."

The new Moon solar eclipse will awaken the sleeping warrior in many. This is nice however we must realize the impulsive self will be released from its tether. We may see a repressed aggression surfacing. For those who are congruent and empathic this new Moon solar eclipse can be a wonderful spiritual experience. If one has typically placed their authority outside themselves, and unknowing to them this external authority has been neutralized, their impulsive self may fearlessly take on this non-existent authority, with a huge dose of courage they believe they are the boss within this reality. If one's action or courage energy has been repressed due to an authoritative past relationship then it is this, their cage which is about to be opened. This can be a very emotional experience for many as well as they may not be a typical warrior. They will fight with their feelings, showing to whoever it is necessary, their empathy. Some may show empathy more naturally than others. Those who find empathy new or difficult may have to go through some karmic layers of repressed expression before they reach compassion and empathy, yet it is there near the root of one's self ideal. Ultimately like all of us the individual will be challenged until they move into self love. We need to accept what we have allowed ourselves to give energy to over our life, and speaking of this incarnation, not past life issues. Our emotional reactions will reveal related to the new Moon solar eclipse, the quality of our self love related to the history of our partnership experiences.

New Moon Solar Eclipse in Aries Monday April 8th 2:22 PM ESTReport number 259

What an individual believes may be based on fantasy, something which is not real. Could be a miss interpretation, could be a deliberate deception? And this belief will be know to others as their misplaced self confidence may feel really good even if it is based on a false understanding. If an individual was feeling courageous for the first time, enduring years of being dominated in relationships, then when they finally get to look up they may react to a false understanding of what it is like to be courageous. These are like a warriors baby steps. They will take action based on their assumptions of being their own boss as opposed to acting on the history of experience of being their own boss. We may witness strange actions from these lost individual's.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aries the focus will be on the impulsive aspect of self. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing how one goes after things. How an individual responds with action implies beliefs which are integrated within the individual. These actions reveal the presence of beliefs which are more foundational than what the same individual may assume or claim to believe, as in "actions speak louder than words". An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of one's courage becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Aries have a natural propensity to be immediate as desire and ambition is expedited through impulse. They naturally and easily respond to their impulsive self. Not to exclude others as we all have Aries somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aries propensity for action and courage. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination that an individual has to harmoniously and effectively go after things by being specific to each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience courageous action ...

Pisces: when paying attention to what I experience immediately around me and servicing my immediate needs.

Aquarius: when I listen objectively to others and am clear with what it is I am to communicate.

Capricorn: by observing and accepting my feeling responses which are related to my agenda.

Sagittarius: by following my intentions to have a good time when involved with others.

Scorpio: whenever I embrace my responsibilities.

Libra: when I am in a partnership which shares an agenda.

Virgo: when I feel the power of what a harmonious partnerships can lead to.

Leo: when I expand my world by adventuring into fresh new territory.

Cancer: when I move on my ambition and desire to be of value to others though my work.

Gemini: when I associate with others, either friends or the public.

Taurus: when I fill my thinking concepts with emotional truth and extend my awareness out beyond mental boundaries.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Monday April 8th 2:22 PM EST 2024 - New Moon Solar Eclipse in Aries

It feels good to take action in a self confident way. The courage one may gain during and following this solar eclipse new Moon in Aries will be in accordance with their multi-dimensional congruency. If one is nicely affiliated with their higher self, or spiritual guides, it will be a powerful courage. Although it can be somewhat foreign to the local human portion of one's complete conscious it will not be foreign to one's heart. An awakening of the warrior will have multi-dimensional proportions. There is a strong potential for some individual's to tune to this action courage energy and show a powerfully assertive empathic type impulsive action, feelings may be expressed with directness, courage and aggression. One's special mate may have a completely different take on some matter than one's own understanding? A recent past understanding may have to be revisited. Sudden changes in one's security can occur, suddenly there is an increase in comfort and security or suddenly the reverse. There is most certainly a sense of freedom behind whatever sudden change, if an increase in security yields freedom to self and others, to be self expressive and self responsible, than one is a good candidate for an increase. Those who's frequency cannot be in a resonant lock with the bigger picture will potentially suffer a loss. It is not really a loss if they are able to look at and decode what they are creating, if they are able to move into admission they will receive more than any financial reward, however the increase in security will happen on many levels and so a financial increase can yield to them as well. It is time to work together in harmony. Seems authorities who can typically enforce law can not do things as directly as they are accustomed to right now, yet not for lack of trying. Expressions of authority can be aggressive yet there expressions seem to veer off and become limited to fantasy like beliefs or religious ideas, or rules about empathy, something to do with feeling or non solid realities, this is the current state within the domain of authorities.

02 Tuesday April 9th - Moon enters Taurus 7:24 AM

There can be a ton of emotional energy right now, many are expressing their feelings, as if the inner warrior in many individual's has been awakened. A feeling that one wants to move into action may call for one to seek out the boundaries which would delineate their actions. However it may be found that these boundaries are real but not real? Our boundaries may be totally emotional, and we may be seeking out the courage to look at our spiritual or religious beliefs? A more solid action plan may feel needed. The need to take action may be present however the territory which is connected to the action may be different or new in some way. Since the new Moon solar eclipse on Monday a feeling that some belief or idea must be understood or included in one's typical consideration of the nature of things, the nature of reality even, can feel pending. We may for example notice others who are needing to express their feelings about some shared concern, as in a shared group or community concern. And again as since the new Moon a sudden change in one's state of security or comfort can occur, typically an increase for the better, yet it is possible in some cases for things to shrink although this is less likely. The organic life which we are and which is around us can be affected in many ways, an electrical quality to all things organic is occurring. The new Moon solar eclipse may have a parallel with the quality of leadership we are attracting, some typical leaders for example may be dealing with challenges since the new Moon.

03 Thursday April 11th - Moon enters Gemini 8:29 PM

It can seem for some as if they do not possess their own mind, they keep saying things impulsively, things from the past. Or we may hear ideas from others we thought were long gone in the past yet here they are being brought up again. We are experiencing an impulsive nature which can now affect the ideas an individual holds or ideas they believe others hold. Either way their impulsive reactions, if any, are going right to their thoughts. Some may find it difficult to quite their mind. Some who have been quite to a fault, they may now speak up. However once again their impulsive trigger is likely coming from a past unresolved issue. This issue may be a partnership issue where a shared energy was assumed to be present, and yet now there feels a need to act independently. For some it can feel to them as if this is their chance to speak up, they are finally going to make their voice heard. Those who are reacting this way are actually releasing a mental break pedal which they may have held down for a very long time. As Mars makes the Aries ingress on April 30th many will shift their gears from sharing their feelings to taking more aggressive actions. It may be wise to deal with things now if such an issue or drama is buzzing. The awakening of the individual warrior is a nice thing however it can be a bit awkward for some in the beginning. Patience would be nice, especially if we are involved with one who is awakening such.

New Moon Solar Eclipse in Aries Monday April 8th 2:22 PM EST

Report number 259

04 Saturday April 13th - Moon enters Cancer 1:46 PM

Our home, where we live can feel like sacred space, it is really our heart and will which is this special space, yet we may be associating this with our home. Our emotional sensitivity will lead us to our vulnerability. We can choose to look with impeccable objectivity at this. Doing so we can see the belief we have which seems to betray us? If our idea about something is to be reconsidered or corrected this will be implied in our emotional reaction to something. There is an important need for individuals to be self-reliant and sovereign yet this can be difficult to understand, it really depends upon the paradigm an individual has bought into. We can always count on our vulnerability to signal the alarm, that we are in some way in a paradigm contradiction. As a theme for this New Moon cycle in Aries emotional reactions can be triggered by partnership misunderstandings. A typically nurturing parent or family member may be more direct than typical. There is a need for this guardian to look out over someone, someone may be in danger from their perspective, and they seem willing to go to hell and back if that's what it takes to make the rescue.

05 Sunday April 15th - Moon enters Leo 10:25 PM

Our sense of personal responsibility may be connected with our need to either feel admired or to be special in some way. To be admired you need to have accomplished something? If one were to believe this then they would need a testimony from someone in order to justify their social confidence. We can feel more strongly about self-image and how we are known to others as the Moon in Leo fleshes out our quality of our self-acceptance. If external validation is given authority by the individual they will at some point need to back through this karma, perhaps now. During this Moon cycle we can perhaps have a situation where a mate or partner has altered their feeling with a partnership and now they or their partner is at a loss in terms of their self-significance. In some way their partnership harmony was directly related to their individual self-admiration. As such an opportunity can exist for such an individual to recover their personal sovereignty as an individual thing and to allow the partnership to mirror or echo this self-confidence. If on the other hand an individual loses their self-confidence because someone they are involved with is no longer sharing an energy space with them, to them it can feel as if what was acting as a confirmation has been lost. We may see some individuals wanting to prove their significance in order to gain admiration or superior respect. Ideally the individual will feel confident as a divine source being and accept their challenges as current opportunities to increase their evolving awareness.

06 Thursday April 18th - Moon enters Virgo 10:12 AM

Sun ingress Taurus Friday April 19th 10:01 AM

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus Saturday April 20th 10:28 PM

Justification for courage can seem to be coming from everywhere. "This is why we need to take action" a common concern. Again a heads up, a sudden burst of courage may be based on a delusional authority, an authority is far more local to the individual than they may realize. As the Sun makes the Taurus ingress a sudden drop in action may occur as many will look for the practical support which facilitates their actions. With Mercury retrograde in Aries for a few days yet it can be like driving the car alone and looking out the rear view mirror, while being heavy on the gas. Jupiter and Uranus conjunct in Taurus indicating a grand electrical storm, perhaps lightning. An individual plugging into one's galactic self and receiving high spectrum organic stimulation. As the individual is able to align and harmonize with this tremendous surge, a grand recalibration of their physical aspect will in some way occur. There is also a danger or difficulty if the individual's spine or organic integrity is in a contradictory state, energetically there may be blockages or traffic jams sort of speak. In terms of the public we may see some unexpected things, especially concerning electricity. A positive note there is an opportunity to move into personal alignments, where the increased energy is consciously channeled, many wonderful things are possible.

07 Saturday April 20th - Moon enters Libra 11:09 PM

As individual's our old relationship patterns may show themselves, if there is any for us to witness. These patterns will be in some way related to sharing energy with a specific other. It may not seem specific as there may well be multiple occurrences for an individual to deal with. Vulnerabilities involving courage are routed or steered to aggressive expressions of feelings and empathy, as if an individual has been waiting a long time to express this. One may, for example, feel a sense of uncomfot if an individual they are use to sharing space with is not there, or if this familiar person has changed, a feeling of loss can occur, a motivation to do something may have died. As individual's our challenge is to maintain our sovereignty. We must have sovereignty first before we can expect to experience sovereignty with our mate as a couple. So we can feel their absence in our energy. And yet all we need do is act as a sovereign individual and take the action independently. As Venus transits Aries there is an attraction in a partnership to act independently, as if the independent action is actually dependant on something defined by the partnership. With Mars transiting Pisces so close to Saturn also transiting Pisces independent actions will be emotional and can be qualified by past beliefs, influences from religion or past dramas influence from TV or movies, actions influenced by delusional constructs via churches, governments, banks, schools and so on. An individual who lacks an integrated sovereignty can possible take one one or more false or fake identities connected and qualified by one of these influences. Ideally the individual will allow their sovereignty to be the home and steadiness of their will which in turn supports their commitment which they share with their mate.

08 Sunday April 23rd - Moon enters Scorpio 11:21 AM

Full Moon in Scorpio Tuesday April 23rd 7:50 PM

Mercury direct in Aries Thursday April 25th 8:55 AM

The individual's will is set to respect the rights of others while at the same time be offered a new substantial security. An alternative method to maintaining one's foundational steadiness may be called for. Changes affecting how we sustain our security and comfort are happening unexpectedly. An increase in new mechanics which are affecting how we share wealth and responsibility within our communities can be occurring. For some their old ideas translate to expressions and feelings which delineate their past difficulties. These feelings hold the key for them as we are all called to own and be responsible for the space we hold. A past relationship may at times feel stuck to us, it is this which we can evolve to a grander perspective, where we can see how we have created such and such. Our ability to admit is the biggest healer we will know, as soon as we admit it's as if we are given the remaining pieces of the puzzle, the puzzle of our local human concerns. Much of our past pain involving security may come forward now, an opportunity to perhaps revisit how ourselves and our mate shared survival concerns. Being fair and just about who is responsible for what in a partnership can lead to new understandings and possible benefits for those involved. One who has for a long time agreed to acknowledge the Earth comes forward to protect and assist those who from their perspective have been taken by dark forces. A need to bring balance back into the lives of others requires some solid rules. Also a mate or partner may be holding onto some logic which was supposed to enhance their relationship yet instead it has triggered an investigation where real facts and truth are fleshed out. Unfairness in sharing resources, resources which bring security and comfort in an organic way, is being fleshed out. And new resources are quickly and suddenly becoming available. However it is difficult for these values to reach innocent individuals as there are those who are accustomed to controlling this flow, they may no longer have the control they once knew yet they may be stalling things as they desperately attempt to hi-jack these values.

Report number 259

09 Thursday April 25th - Moon enters Sagittarius 9:38 PM

Our ability to admit is the biggest healer we will know, as soon as we admit it's as if we are given the remaining pieces of the puzzle, the puzzle of our local human concerns. Foundational changes are likely occurring, for individual's and communities. For those who may be experiencing public image or reputation concerns, there is a wisdom available which is needing to solve a partnership dynamic, this can feel like a hold up. And yet at the same time there is an unusual increase in foundation, as if a window to a new concept, or an awakening to a new layer of cause and effect, has been opening and it's treasure is destined to pour into the lives of many? If established authorities have not moved into integrity with the Earth then their efforts will not contain the resonant frequency to remain relevant. Long time established authorities have been rendered obsolete, this is still occurring, as of November 19th later this year 2024 we will see the last of it. As individual's become their own boss, as if they suddenly are ready to be responsible for themselves, these individual will get their authority, and ensuing actions, from where? Ideas can be inspired by many things and again one's influences which over their years evolve their personal social character can possible replace the now absent authority. What can happen? As reputation can be a major issue as the Moon transits Sagittarius we may see some reacting in a public way which makes sense to them yet can be totally delusional to others. Nutty public displays may occur.

10 Sunday April 28th - Moon enters Capricorn 5:39 AM

Venus ingress Taurus Monday April 29th 7:32 AM

A situation concerning the management of one's affairs can begin to feel pressing. A time or location detail out of place is enough to trigger concern. The actions required are difficult to follow or commit to unless one is able to feel compassion or empathy. There can be much confusion as the need to get a move on may be gaining concern where as the thing to do or how to do it is confusing and possible fantastic? A senior family member or associate may feel the need to save or rescue another as a personal drama may be overwhelming them. There can be a deeper meaning where organic life and respecting organic integrity is at stake, some will go a long way to protect either their own flesh and blood or protect the Earth. A task intended to service the general public may become increasingly concerning. The beliefs of the public are in a difficult state if a local community is unable to know or share a common consensus as to how to manage shared community concerns. This will become evident as individual community members may have completely different ideas as to what reality or paradigm the shared authority governing them is aligned to. In a sense we can also see the presence of spirit in all this however the individual again would do well to find their own local harmony with others in their community, and not all will likely share the same spiritual understanding. Ideally the individual will stay in touch with organic life and remain grounded. In this way they will be better able to discern those truths which will stand beyond the fog of confusion currently plaguing many regarding authority.

New Moon Solar Eclipse in Aries Monday April 8th 2:22 PM EST

Report number 259

11 Tuesday April 30th - Moon enters Aquarius 11:21 AM

Mars ingress Aries Tuesday April 30th 11:34 AM

Pluto retrograde in Aquarius Thursday May 2nd 1:47 PM

The rhythm of community may begin to remind oneself as to their involvement with others, either local community or national community and even global community and beyond. It all starts with one's most local community. Our idea of who we are is key in understanding our link to community, and expanding communities. As we are congruent and clear within our own understanding of who we are we build, sort of speak, a ladder or stairway to our grander communities. We can see this ladder as correlating metaphoric parallels, there for our heart and will to parooze. These enchanted corridors and gateways open when we are clear about who we are and have been able to admit and thus harmonize ourselves with our ever expanding truth. The clearer one is about who they are within their self idea the more they will naturally resonate with higher frequency version of themselves. As the Moon transits Aquarius we get to see, actually to feel, the quality of integration with our communities. First with our local community via the natural resonance we have within ourselves, followed by mutual resonance with ourselves as we participate in these other grander communities, which we are also apart of. The Moon will show us where we are holding a frequency pattern which fits in harmony with or bangs into who we are on these other levels. It is key for the individual to realize we already exist on these other levels, and to feel the distraction from it to which the Moon will trigger. Our gut reactions are literally paradigm collusions. We can see how Pluto has been in Aquarius since January 21st earlier this year, and we can also see Pluto will retrograde now May 2nd, ingress Capricorn mid September, then Pluto will return to Aquarius for a couple of decades. Pluto's Aquarius ingress for many will define their world, simple because they will be challenged to evolve their awareness such that they can be conscious on every level at the same moment. Get ready to go galactic!

12 Thursday May 2nd - Moon enters Pisces 2:53 PM

Now that Mars has done it's fifty day swim through Pisces this warrior is ready for some real action. Some people's concern may switch from a lot of feeling expressions to more physical methods of going after what they want. In the meantime Saturn remains in Pisces and we may be noticing how clumsy and awkward and unsure many typical authorities have become. And some individual's may be acting on an authority which they choose to trust because that authority allows them to maintain a personal self denial. It is very difficult for those who believe in established authority as many things have become questionable. Honesty and truth for example, where is this, who is this? One may find this in their own will and heart, it is a matter of impeccable self love. Anyone who moves into an authority position over others right now must have self love locked in sort of speak or their orders to others will appear unbelievable in some way. It is like being grounded. Many delusional paradigms are currently being expressed through confused authority structures. Those who are grounded and able to resonate with self love and self responsibility will naturally tune to the Earth's enchanted broadcast as her creatures, including us humans, become enhanced. An organic sensual presence on this Earth will be able to hold the frequency of authority simple by embracing divinity. Gaia's sustained sensual orgasm is tuning to patterns of congruency which have spectrum resonance beyond our typical human experience. It is the challenge for our local authorities to find this resonance and allow themselves to be congruent with these expanding energy patterns which now is including our world.

New Moon Solar Eclipse in Aries Monday April 8th 2:22 PM EST

Report number 259

13 Saturday May 4th - Moon enters Aries 4:42 PM

We may feel our impulsive nature is a buzzing, as if we want to take an action, right now, but what action is this? The current Mars Pluto sextile can forward to the impulsive self a need to take action, most likely in relationship to community concerns, especially pesky elitism. Feelings about elitism, that elitism must go, can potentially be a big matter, qualifying actions by many newly awakened warriors. Although the acts now taken by individuals may be not so well thought out, actions based on delusional understandings, however the death to elitism is real, and the awakening of the inner warrior is also very real. As such we will see a sustained effort to rid our worlds of elitism, even if this forceful impulsive early wave seems to at times miss it's intended mark. False understandings must be admitted such that the emotional self is given back to one's heart and will, and then only then will the individual begin to see the bigger picture and know what one is really dealing with. Self love will bring the warrior to a steadiness where their vantage point will be clearer and their concern easier for them to see. What actions will they take? We can feel this in ourselves, especially since Mars made the Aries ingress on April 30th, suddenly everyone seems untethered. Again some individual's may be acting impulsively based on their acceptance of imaginary paradigms supported by imaginary authorities.

14 Monday May 6th - Moon enters Taurus 5:43 PM

Does the Earth feel different now than it had felt say ten years ago, or even three years ago? If so what is different? For those who actually thought they owned the Earth, if there are such, their hot hotter and burning hands would now be incinerated, which would leave room and space for new occupying energies to participate within Earth's organic sensual experience. Our connection to her magic is naturally unfolding, like a garden in spring, we will perhaps be introduced to her love in new ways. Our evolving awareness is opening as this is the natural by-product or extension of our personal admission and integrity. We are, after all, as human springing from her, the Earth, and she sustains our earthly experience with the energy we need to survive here. Yet many call this a prison, this of course is theirs to choose, as their own idea of who they are and the what they believe the external world to be. They are in a sense trapped in their own magnificence, their self love hy-jacked. There is as such no prison other than the delusional one the individual has every right to create for themselves. Existing hierarchies which denied the Earth's integrity, her solar, galactic, and universal resonance for example, are being or have been electrically and magnetically removed. As all organic living species take part in the Earth's current frequency makeover we are all beginning to see our denial, yet as we deal with this denial we now begin to experience the enchanted presence she is, and the exalted connection we have with her and existence.
