Overview

New Moon in Taurus
Thursday May 7th 11:23 PM EST

"I am enjoying being independently courageous."

Partnership arrangements may have led to one's current shared experiences. These experiences may be wonderful or they may be challenging, likely a mix of each. A relationship with a significant other can become dynamic with impulsive action and fired up ideas. The shared ideas, or assumed shared ideas, between those who are considered significant other, can be behind the impulsive action and sudden bouts of courage potentially exhibited. Some faulty or dysfunctional ideas may have to be fleshed out. Notions and beliefs shared are purified if you will, by one's ability to take responsibility independently. As Venus transits Taurus a focus toward sensual experience is more likely. A focus on one's basic idea of security can also be highlighted or prioritized. Ideas in this regard may be explored and experienced. In many cases things can go very well between couples. For example this can feel like a sensual rebirth, or a return to an enchanted attraction, a feeling that one belongs with another on a sensual level as well sharing security concerns. If one is not currently with a significant other they may still feel a burst of courage and action energy. A past unsettled relationship may cause one to take actions now even if it is months or even years later. What is happening is an individual is being shown where their independence has got locked or tied into a relationship experience which has never really been harmonized. If memories of past love pain return it is ideal for the individual to review this emotional drama from their current wiser perspective. If we allow our emotional self to do it's thing this portion of ourself will essentially show us what makes us angry or what scares us, with this information we are better able to understand the belief which qualifies these reactions. Ultimately the admitting individual will see a bigger congruent picture and as such begin to see they have other choices available to them. A shared sensitivity regarding social freedom as shared by couples can become very important. Security can change suddenly affecting partnerships.

Have some historic authorities lost their footing? For the last few years authorities have been undergoing changes, their integrity put on display. Religious authorities are in particular under an integrity spot light right now. Fake authorities can rise up right now as well, their bad misguided ways will seem more easily effective when tricking and fooling others. All will meet their own projection so these corrupted individuals or forces will find their end soon enough. However in the meantime the individual is wise to realize there is indeed a very big shake up occurring in the realm of authority. It is essential for those who are to be playing an ongoing authoritative role, that they have congruency and integrity. This isn't for show or appearances as it may have existed in the past, where an authority was an idea or an illusion, where in the past an authority may have been a fake wizard behind a curtain. All has been or continues to be exposed, authorities going forward must have impeccable congruency or they will not be able to hold the frequency of their intentions. It can feel as if time is running out. In such cases the individual can use this feeling, or insight, to better understand their mission. Ideally all will be planned well and the time and resources are there when they need be. Also included in this report as Period 9.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Taurus the focus will be on personal beliefs and thoughts which spring from issues pertaining to foundation and security. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing these beliefs as they flood into the mind and are extended to others through communication. Thoughts and ideas communicated reveal beliefs which have been encouraged by notions which detail where security comes from. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the influence behind the beliefs becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Taurus have a natural propensity to seek solid ground through beliefs, they know value as it is measured in the comfort and security beliefs support. They naturally locate a steadiness within a sea of communicated ideas. Not to exclude others as we all have Taurus somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Taurus propensity for locating and being steady. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify a basic location or activity where an individual can find or manifest into their experience comfort and security and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I manifest a natural comfort and steadiness ...

Aries: by valuing and trusting what I see and witness right there in front me.

Pisces: by listening for and speaking from basic understanding.

Aquarius: by trusting my feelings and extending this to self acceptance.

Capricorn: by being selective as I accept those ideas which will facilitate inspired action.

Sagittarius: by being discerning and realistic as I focus specifically on what is my own concern.

Scorpio: by accepting my partner for what is mirrored back to me.

Libra: by paying attention to the common ground which prevails from my partnerships.

Virgo: by allowing myself to discover the unifying nature of the Earth, no matter where I find myself upon her.

Leo: by bringing a realistic and solid foundation to the public I serve.

Cancer: by keeping my involvement with friends and community simple.

Gemini: by allowing myself to merge with nature and accept her constant state of welcoming as she provides for her entire organic family.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Tuesday May 7th 11:23 PM EST 2024 - New Moon in Taurus

A shared sensitivity regarding social freedom as experienced by couples can become very important. Security can change suddenly affecting partnerships. It can seem as if the Earth is coming alive in an unexpected way. Those who feel married to her the Earth can feel this as well as their sensitivity is perhaps buzzing more often and at an increasing frequency. The freedom of the Earth is known by her, it's as if she is waking up and becoming more present in all our lives. The air we breath the water we drink the food we eat it is all apart of her presence her dynamic, we as organic human creatures are apart of this extended sensual experience. As the frequency of the Earth increases so will our own frequency increase as we too are present within it, where the Earth goes we go. Independent actions can be a testimonial of love for one's partner. A shared belief which in some way defines "what is the character of courage" can become real, real actions manifesting. Authorities who are extra sensitive to the well being of the Earth and are protective of family integrity can become empowered by Earth's changing and increasing frequency. Historic authorities who have typically ignored the Earth's special role in our lives will be searching through their religious and spiritual beliefs looking for something which can feel real in a solid way to them. If they choose to acknowledge the Earth their journey and can change dramatically right now. The meaning of security and comfort can become more directly related to abundance as a simplicity begins to return, ideally paralleling a refreshed functional economic infrastructure.

02 Wednesday May 8th - Moon enters Gemini 7:22 PM

Communication can feel necessary as this is what it takes to secure one's foundation or bring their intentions into manifestation. Ideas communicated can feel like a string of cliches, or prepackaged ideas. This will shift to more detailed and intrinsic idea sharing soon enough, especially after May 20th and the Sun has made a Gemini ingress. For now we may be repeating our words or hear stuff we have already heard. The quality of communication is in no way limited however, in fact sudden physical changes, imperial type changes, can affected how these canned ideas are understood, in other words even though we may have heard certain things before it will not be surprising if there is new insight extending from these already known ideas. A powerful force for justice can appear, especially if there is known reason for it. In such cases an individual may be challenged to be diplomatic and wise, doing so can yield this power over to such a wise owl. Or an individual may connect with one who is diplomatic and wise? There is less hesitation to speak up now. If there are important matters going on in one's life they may react in a courageous impulsive way, stating ideas or inquiring in a direct way. Communications will likely concern security or in some way be related to foundational steadiness. There is a potential for some who are unsettled to become more active and possible show more aggression than usual.

03 Friday May 10th - Moon enters Cancer 11:14 PM

A discerning look at what is worth pursuing and what is not, proceeds what will likely be a decisive physical action. A dedication to family and home, children or parents, can feel more important right now. One's sensitivity can affect the way in which they communicate or connect with others as daily affairs are attended to. Changing and evolving foundational ideas or concerns can affect the urgency in which information is communicated. An unexpected change in one's security can affect an individual's home and or family. A sense of dedication to home and family can be felt more intensely now, it can feel like it is one's sacred calling, to protect their home and family. An individual in one's home or family dynamic may be requiring serious assistance. Such assistance occurs as an attention to security. It is the foundational elements of comfort and security which are perhaps called for review. A reestablishment of home security may be necessary. One's home security may be more closely connected to natural settings around them, their connection with nature may become more important to them. The natural life around one's home or family can begin to be more important to their harmony and comfort. Actions based on real physical strength can be effective, as opposed to frivolous actions. The sensitivity of others can become more apparent, especially if concerns over home security are threatened. Ideally the individual will feel a need to hold space for discipline, principal, and commitment, in a shared collective family experience.

04 Monday May 13th - Moon enters Leo 6:37 AM

Opposition to cults and elitism can flare up easily. Typically things may have been said or suggested, however now we can use a heads up as impulsive actions can create unexpected dynamics. Unfair elitism will soon meet it's own end, and it has already begun, we will see, especially after November 19th later this year, a steady sustained erasure of unfavorable elitism. Hidden elitism will be exposed and we may see some exposing here as the Moon transits Leo. A clash with a superior, a class stand off, a blockage of one's will by the intention and priority of another. On a positive note a self responsible perspective will yield good things. Increases in abundance can occur yet the individual may be asked to suck it up, or be mature in some way. Some thing will likely have to be accepted, acknowledged, something which will act as a road block until it is. It will come down to how an individual feels about them self. Must they get trophies from others to feel good about who they are? When the individual is aware they are the command center to all which is happening in an apparent external world they will naturally let go of external validation. The external world is still important to them however the difficulties they experience, as well as the joys, are all connected with their continually unraveling journey. We are king, or queen, of our own world when we take such responsibility. So why would one allow a group of elites to dictate or rule over one's self? The Moon in Leo is the exact medicine for the awakening individual as this Moon transit can urge the individual to stick up for them self as if they are a significant individual. In the process of sticking up for oneself denial can be revealed. Self honesty is the golden ticket to sovereignty and freedom.

05 Wednesday May 15th - Moon enters Virgo 5:34 PM

Mercury ingress Taurus May 15th 1:06 PM

Figuring out ways to become appreciated by one's mate or partner can trigger dynamic actions. Perhaps a demonstration of fearless courage would be impressive enough to draw attention? To protect create or secure our fundamental stability our comfort and security we will perhaps need to analyse our situation. Analytical perspectives may feel necessary, especially if an individual is dealing with a security situation. With Saturn centered in Pisces opposing Virgo our analytical process may just lead us to a somewhat lost or delusional authority, perhaps religious or fantastic in some way, and this would be a congruent conclusion. There can most certainly be something off or amiss with established authorities these days. Can we trust our intuition? The joy of being analytical is an organic truth. Such a truth can be juicy, sensual, enchanting. There is a mental aspect or perspective however the center of gravity, as always, is within one's heart. We may know this, innately, as if our body is already aware of the juiciness of truth. Our emotional reactions as correlating with this current Virgo Moon ingress, can be indicative of this innate knowing? If so there is valuable insight into understanding one's individual power. At that point of understanding and admission it can become so many different things to different unique individuals, however the mechanic remains the same, in what way are we to become better aware of who we really are? Look for "seeking attention in partnership or establishing a heart centered base of responsibility" as possible correlations.

06 Saturday May 18th - Moon enters Libra 6:24 AM

Sun ingress Gemini Monday May 20th 9:01 AM

Those who are aligned with the Earth will resonate with her galactic entry today! An individual's intention to be grounded and realistic will lead them to experience a high frequency augmentation of this grounding. Our marriage to the Earth can potentially parallel our partnership with our spouse or special mate. As all species of Earth bound creatures must mate in order to sustain their presence we can see the enchanted means by which she functions and supports the sustained presence of all species. It's as if our marriage to Earth must be first harmonized before we can be properly married to our romantic love partner. We may feel this enchanted role of man and woman today as an electrical yet sensual stream of energy in our organic embrace with life. The Moon's Libra transit can have some searching for their better half in some special way, in an organic sensual way. Both Mars and Venus are quite significant during this Libra Moon transit. The action to demonstrate to one's self and their partner their affection and caring for their partner can induce in one a powerful courage, a divine courage. Humanity as individuals is being given the opportunity to birth a warrior self, if this has not already occurred. For some individuals this birthing of the warrior self is encouraged by the sensual impulse to experience the enchantment of partnership love as it is in resonance to the natural sensual truth of who we are. When it comes to evolving one's awareness the individual will find they have no choice, they must have their cake and eat it too.

07 Monday May 20th - Moon enters Scorpio 6:35 PM

Communicating in regard to one's values, one's assets, may feel more natural now. The Moon's Scorpio transit can however cause some to feel cautious, some may even feel suspicious. Communication kept simple will work best for now. An increase in bounty will feel exciting, a realistic sense of amplified abundance can be felt however it may be over active optimism. Within the bounds of one's complete picture of things this runaway optimism may be better placed and understood. Never the less there is a potential for an increase in bounty. Someone's optimism may be obviously their own, their enthusiasm is not necessarily shared with their partner. The dynamics of a partnership may suddenly change as an individual involved may have a quick change in their own security. Some will communicate via actions, this can be unexpected actions, it may not be so difficult to see what it is they are saying? One's desire for independence from a difficult partnership may come as freedom resources are suddenly available, their challenge is to be courageous and take action, independent action. Individuals in partnerships who feel they need to step in and make suggestions can show some fine wisdom, their ability to service their partners issue as well as make things extra rosey for all around makes them a hero, however this is far from the motivation.

08 Thursday May 23rd - Moon enters Sagittarius 4:25 AM

Full Moon in Sagittarius Thursday May 23rd 9:54 AM

Venus ingress Gemini Thursday May 23rd 4:31 PM

Jupiter in Taurus sextile Neptune in Pisces Thursday May 23rd 6:45 PM

Revolutionary ideas can come into play where justice is sought to challenge elitism. Information can come to light which is connected with the demise or breaking up of some private cult like elite controllers. Some of these authorities or controllers have remained hidden for so long yet now it seems their number has come up and there is some explaining to do. Foundational truth can become extra important to some. As a matter of justice the bases for one's truth must be fundamentally solid. Justice must stand on solid ground. Both reputation and justice can seem more important and critical than usual. A feeling that if an individual would be stronger and do more physical effort their intentions will yield their desires. Some individual's may feel they can move mountains, it can seem as if they are stronger physically than usual. This can be true however it is important the individual is not deluding themselves. Delusions as to who is the authority and what is their real strength can also seem like a maze of contradiction. For issues which relate to values where there are several individuals involved a diplomatic wisdom can appear. An excellent idea is possible where all parties involved in a shared concern are beneficially served by insightful and creative ideas and suggestions from a wise minded individual. Communication and clear idea sharing are one's allies right now. As some individuals may be intending to do more than they can do easily, it is best to perhaps make sure the ideas and beliefs of self and others are well understood before moving forward.

09 Saturday May 25th - Moon enters Capricorn 11:37 AM

Jupiter ingress Gemini Saturday May 25th 7:16 PM

Have some historic authorities lost their footing? For the last few years authorities have been undergoing changes, their integrity put on display. Religious authorities are in particular under an integrity spot light right now. Fake authorities can rise up right now as well, their bad misguided ways will seem more easily effective when tricking and fooling others. All will meet their own projection so these corrupted individuals or forces will find their end soon enough. However in the meantime the individual is wise to realize there is indeed a very big shake up occurring in the realm of authority. It is essential for those who are to be playing an ongoing authoritative role, that they have congruency and integrity. This isn't for show or appearances as it may have existed in the past, where an authority was an idea or an illusion, where in the past an authority may have been a fake wizard behind a curtain. All has been or continues to be exposed, authorities going forward must have impeccable congruency or they will not be able to hold the frequency of their intentions. Somewhat typical for when the Moon makes a Capricorn ingress an individual may feel extra pressure to get something happening. It can feel as if time is running out. In such cases the individual can use this feeling, or insight, to better understand their mission. Ideally all will be planned well and the time and resources are there when they need be. A nurturing care giving parental like individual may become actively involved in assisting one who has found trouble, this could be within a family dynamic. Some form of domestic sacrifices can come into the family or home dynamic. If so this will be related to a sacred meaning or energy which holds the family together in a spiritual way.

10 Monday May 27th - Moon enters Aquarius 4:46 PM

There are many community infrastructures which are common place and function as a means by which we as individuals can form community and society. Which came first the community or the social infrastructure? We can deduce they grew together, for the most part, as a social evolution. Each individual can see this for themselves as we are living it and experiencing first hand. Depending on an individual's age they will be witness to this ongoing social evolutionary change. Current global dynamics are set to move this evolution forward in a fashion which will be intense and revolutionary. The true or real meaning behind any or all social infrastructure has been or will be exposed. This will occur over a two decade window beginning late fall this year. An unrelenting revealing of who's who. Ideally the individual will be concerned as to what is real as opposed to who is running things. Over these two decades the individual will become their own authority in ways which may currently be unimaginable, for some it may be unimaginable however there are those who were ready yesterday. The need to be responsible for one's self will become increasingly important, as the idea that one will be saved by some one or something is becoming increasingly nonfunctional. Also what is occurring big time to all humanity regarding community infrastructure is the unavoidable necessity for individual's to be closer to Earthly integrity, to acknowledge who we are as being guests, if you will, to her home. The biggest social club of all is Gaia, and we as organic humans are included in this extensive sensual organic infrastructure. As machines and non human intelligence as extensions of fading crumbling authorities continue to make their final push, revealing their presence and agenda, we can be sure something big is going on here. An evolution away from machine type authority to organic integrity is most certainly occurring and it is to our advantage to move into impeccable self love and self responsibility such that we can be included in her cornucopia of abundance and values.

11 Wednesday May 29th - Moon enters Pisces 8:34 PM

Our security is important to us as individuals, and as such our survival instinct may be broadcasting to us. Where is our foundational security coming from, how dependable is it, can I, or we, survive? The feeling for the individual that their security is assured or they are on solid ground in regards to their personal security will include some sort of belief regarding who the governing authorities are. It is this Taurus Moon cycle which can flesh this belief out. In many instances the individual may be unaware they are making such an assumption rather automatically. We as individuals may have become aware during this Moon cycle that who we thought was the governing authority, well is not. Or they are not who they have been. It is to their advantage that the individual becomes informed as to the reality and truth of the assumed authority. Some authorities may be complete fakes and frauds from the beginning, their presence a dash in lives of honest individuals, just a complete scam. Other authorities who have been there historically may be experiencing a waning in their ability to govern, their powers falling. The individual must be able and ready to accept this changing landscape within the governing of their community. Many will have had their spiritual or religious authority involved in this revealing and discovery as well. When we consider the fundamental source of our survival, as an individual, as a family, as a community, as a nation, and as a global community, we would do well to keep it simple and get down to absolute basics. Man made things and concepts depending on which are relied upon may not have the congruency to keep us connected to our survival and comfort needs. We will likely see in the next several weeks a desire and concern for many individuals to get more information, to investigate and learn more about the system they thought was okay. Our need for clean air and water, for sunshine and healthy food, is still the same however. If there has been a middle man in our method of acquiring and sharing such important resources we need to know how real their role is or continues to be. Ultimately the simplicity of the situation will lead the individual to truth of our survival and how important it is that we can admit, accept, embrace, and acknowledge the Earth as our survival provider. The so called middle man may have to be changed however the Earth her self is still there to create and share a healthy bounty with us.

12 Friday May 31st - Moon enters Aries 11:29 PM

Mercury ingress Gemini Monday June 3rd 3:38 AM

Got something to say, or something to do? After a head spinning rally with truth it can feel like it is time to start getting clear about what is going on. Or it can start to feel if one needs something important attended to they will need to make the major effort themselves. We may experience an up swing in communication. An increase in the broadcasting of ideas, or an increase in inquiries?

In regards to important tangible values who is controlling what? If there has been big changes in the social infrastructures which govern our local and global resource sharing it would do well for the individual who is dependant on this to become better informed. Decisions may have to be made. Getting clear of misconception and delusion can be an early step however eventually the individual may also require different ideas and different actions than what may be considered typical. A need to get over some recently revealed and discovered facts about how our survival will roll out in the near future and to turn this into a sensible plan where both communications and actions are required may be occurring. This can mean a complete turn around for some. Our ability to understand our partnerships is also critical as we may have partnerships which do affect how we connect with basic survival and domestic comfort needs. It is for the individual to wake up to their own personal sovereignty first and this can mean being honest with themselves about the quality or need for certain relationships. If there are dramas occurring for the individual it is most likely related to the wakening of their inner warrior self. As we, as a global community, are experiencing the awaking of an inner warrior which is aligned to one's spiritual or higher self.

13 Monday June 3rd - Moon enters Taurus 1:56 AM

Being discerning as to what to listen to and follow is an astute skill required to navigate these times. Accepting some apparent outrageous truth will require a clear mind and a courageous demeanor, both of which are supported by current energy alignments. Some actions we are now willing to take will perhaps require some resources? We, for example, may ask our body for more physical strength, or we may be challenged to keep our minds clear, to avoid known nonsense. These are signs of taking responsibility and are most likely heading us in the right direction. Many may now be willing to hear and contemplate ideas which recently they had quickly rejected. A common phrase these days "unbelievable". Getting over some shocking situation is important as there is now a new direction appearing before the individual. Many authorities of all sorts may have been revealed as delusional or broken. So what now? Ideally the individual will keep it simple and allow their own life experiences to educate them. Changes in security are occurring, many may benefit. Sometimes these benefits are slightly hidden, or they require the individual to commit to something which they may be in the processing of doing. The Earth is coming alive and we can feel this in our body as well. This organic awakening is most certainly connected with immediate survival issues, if survival issues are currently relevant. Our ability to see the grand parallels is comforting and reassuring, allowing us to feel all is well and wonderful.

14 Wednesday June 5th - Moon enters Gemini 4:37 AM

The coming new Moon in Gemini, 8:39 AM EST Thursday June 6th, indicates a dramatic up swing in communications. Ideas shared with enthusiasm, and some shared with urgency. It can for some feel as if a bubble has burst, old ideas get those outta here. New information, or updated information, is now more willingly sought and accepted. Recently a resistance to knowing the bigger truth was squelched and now the flood of information begins. This will be an interesting Gemini Moon cycle for those who see the light and have busted some pesky delusions recently. A need to admit one's past follies in terms of what was accepted or acted upon as if it were a truth is important now. A new understanding has with it a whole new direction. This coming Moon cycle in Gemini will focus on sharing of these new truths. It is not really that these are new, they will be for some, it is more like finally being able to share real truth and knowing with confidence, and knowing precisely which past accepted truths are not so true.

Next new Moon in Gemini Thursday June 6th 8:39 AM
