Overview

New Moon in Taurus
Sunday April 27th 3:32 PM EST 2025

"I am appreciated for my generosity."

As individuals it is only natural that we would consider our personal security and comfort as we must live and survive here on planet Earth. What we need to survive and what we need to be in comfort can feel like the focus as we experience this new Moon cycle beginning in Taurus. In our concern for personal stability and foundation we may be involved in shared resources. In fact every individual in some way will be involved in shared resources to some capacity. Every time we agree to share a value with another we are setting up a partnership. When we agree with another individual we can see and feel the truth of our agreement, we know what we signed up for, or have a confident idea. When we make a deal with a bank or corporation however do we make the deal with the specific individual? No, it does not appear so. Why is this significant? A person to person partnership has a different frame work and function than that of a deal between a person and a non-living thing. In fact a non-living dead thing cannot create a partnership, obviously. So we have these two different truths each considered a partnership. The focus during this Moon cycle is personal security. As such shared security which has been affecting personal security most likely will be looked at. Some sacred deal for example may be lost in a past mechanism and is unable to yield the benefit expected today. On the other hand unknown mechanisms which function for the non-living partner benefit may be exposed and as such is failing? Mechanism which mimic real people yet function to the benefit of non-living entities are being exposed and this will continue as real individuals look into their shared security arrangements.

Some partners may suddenly break free from some deal. New insight or awareness, new data or new findings, and suddenly it's all different. Sudden changes in how the Earth provides for us real individuals can occur. These same changes may be a thundering challenge for non-living corporations disguised as real living breathing individuals. A driving need for a partner to be recognized for the role they play in maintaining mutual security for themselves and their partner can reach a climax as they simply what to be noticed for the role they play. In the meantime a lack of complete clarity between partners can cause some unnecessary security challenges. Seeking acknowledgement within a partnership for the security one feels they bring can act as catalyst where by an innocent investigation opens up a can of worms. We have heard lots about fake news, many know lots about this corruption. Yet how many are aware of the fake humans?

The phrase "Be careful what you wish for" suggest one is to learn to be responsible. Be responsible for what? One's creative power no doubt. If we are to become whole, strong, congruent, and, aware and happy, perhaps we need to be objective. Can we be objective as we observe our own emotional body weathering storms? Our vulnerability is on our side, if one is determined to be aware and happy. Our vulnerability is telling us something about our beliefs. Who we believe ourselves to be, how well do we know this? It's as if our vulnerability is following some ideal of who we are, or is following an ideal which defines what life is, and how we belong in it. If things turn south and we suddenly don't know who we are, or what is happening in life, our vulnerability may ring like an alarm bell. An individual may feel they want something, a desire, an instant notion, only upon receiving the exact thing they wanted, well they find there is more to it, and they have some responsibilities. There may be some things regarding contracts or shared values or deals which are more complicated than once figured. If an individual experiences challenges regarding shared resources, or by making a choice they didn't think through well enough, then the correlating opportunity would be regarding shared values and finding a more reliable means to secure security. Our connection with security and comfort begins with acknowledging our connection with the Earth. Do you believe in magic? If one thing can influence another via an energy connection would this be magic? If so then life is magical, we are all energy beings. The Earth hosts us as organic energy beings, our group our club, club Gaia if you will, is exclusive and we as natural organic creatures are included. We are members in the greatest social club of all, Gaia. Our affiliation has benefits. When we take the time to acknowledge our place within her organic kingdom she or the Earth if you will, becomes aware of us, we create a mutual resonance, we are all connected. Our cornucopia of riches and comforts, our stability and foundation, comes from our health, comes from our happy state of being, comes from our affiliation with the organic resonance hosted by the Earth. Any dealings or contracts which do not honor this elite connection with the Earth will have difficulty holding their frequency in terms of foundation steadiness comfort and security. And yet we may see this very basic building block coming forward for us.

Depending upon the individuals degree of congruency within their beliefs and thoughts, a divine conceived clarity can occur. It's as if some have achieved an ideal left right brain balance. Ideas when shared with others are kept simple and to the point. And at the same time things needing to be said are said. Those who typically analysis pretty well everything will likely be off in their mental landscapes as there is lots to analyse. Within the flood and avalanche of ideas are some real gems however. Look for wisdom and diplomacy as it can be there somewhere. Look for real win win situations. That being said there is also the potential for lots of hash and over talking and over analyzing. Expect to find these real gems however. Ideas may be driving some public reputations right now. How real are things outside their words, can they show us real wisdom? Wisdom will visit those who's ideas are founded in fairness to all others and commit to self responsibility. this paragraph from Period two below.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Taurus the focus will be on personal beliefs and thoughts which spring from issues pertaining to foundation and security. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing these beliefs as they flood into the mind and are extended to others through communication. Thoughts and ideas communicated reveal beliefs which have been encouraged by notions which detail where security comes from. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the influence behind the beliefs becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Taurus have a natural propensity to seek solid ground through beliefs, they know value as it is measured in the comfort and security beliefs support. They naturally locate a steadiness within a sea of communicated ideas. Not to exclude others as we all have Taurus somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Taurus propensity for locating and being steady. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify a basic location or activity where an individual can find or manifest into their experience comfort and security and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I manifest a natural comfort and steadiness ...

Aries: by valuing and trusting what I see and witness right there in front me.

Pisces: by listening for and speaking from basic understanding.

Aquarius: by trusting my feelings and extending this to self acceptance.

Capricorn: by being selective as I accept those ideas which will facilitate inspired action.

Sagittarius: by being discerning and realistic as I focus specifically on what is my own concern.

Scorpio: by accepting my partner for what is mirrored back to me.

Libra: by paying attention to the common ground which prevails from my partnerships.

Virgo: by allowing myself to discover the unifying nature of the Earth, no matter where I find myself upon her.

Leo: by bringing a realistic and solid foundation to the public I serve.

Cancer: by keeping my involvement with friends and community simple.

Gemini: by allowing myself to merge with nature and accept her constant state of welcoming as she provides for her entire organic family.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 New Moon in Taurus Sunday April 27th 2025 3:32 PM EST 2024

Authorities who understand the absolute need for balance and harmony are being provided a clear space such that they can organically and naturally move into place, a return to integrity within governing is possible. An effective look at one's confidence and courage occurs as a time to take action can feel like it is due. Many individuals may be inspired or influenced to move and take actions supporting an agenda. If this is so it is wise for the individual to be certain they are not over thinking something? The typically confident individual will already be there taking the actions they believe are best for their interest. Those who dilly dally or pause may be influenced by contradictory beliefs. Many have gained an independence in the last couple of years and so now they are given the opportunity to move forward confidently and independently. Even if one is in a solid partnership their independent actions are still there, supporting the partnership. There is lots of logic going around right now on all levels where logic would typically be called for. A need to clear humanity of delusional ideas which are interrupting their connection with creator, their direct connection that is, is challenged, as in "show me how that makes sense?". As we experience this Taurus Moon cycle we may feel inspired to envision comfort security foundation and steadiness. The individual who is leaving gullibility behind benefits from such a solid foundation. Many of their current ambitious actions are based on a new found independent like confidence which is supported by their security. Some partners may suddenly break free from some deal. New insight or awareness, new data or new findings, and suddenly it's all different. Sudden changes in how the Earth provides for us real breathing individuals can occur.

02 Tuesday April 29th - Moon enters Gemini 2:36 AM

Venus Aries ingress April 30th 1:17 PM

Self responsible acts lead to opportunities. One's higher emotional body, or their higher spiritual self, becomes present via admission type logic. When we own up to our own involvements it is because we are simply being our integrity, our responsible acts are simply the extension of our integrity. When one chooses to admit as opposed to deny they are given a bigger picture. Depending upon the individual's degree of congruency within their beliefs and thoughts, a divine conceived clarity can occur. It's as if some have achieved an ideal left right brain balance. Ideas when shared with others are kept simple and to the point. And at the same time things needing to be said are said. Those who typically analyze pretty well everything will likely be off in their mental landscapes as there is lots to analyze. Within the flood and avalanche of ideas are some real gems however. Look for wisdom and diplomacy as it can be there somewhere. Look for real win win situations. That being said there is also the potential for lots of hash and over talking and over analyzing. Expect to find these real gems however. Ideas may be driving some public reputations right now. How real are things outside their words, can they show us real wisdom? Wisdom will visit those whose ideas are founded in fairness to all others and commit to self responsibility. Also there can be wisdom coming forth in dreams these days. An intention to receive wisdom while resting can be a useful experience leading to an expanded understanding and leading to more choices. It may be observed by the individual that their self confidence brings forward their ideas.

03 Thursday May 1st - Moon enters Cancer 3:24 AM

A sense of seeking appreciation for being in control of an important situation can cause one to imply something is far more real and urgent than it is. As the Moon transits Cancer we may consider keeping our communication centers clear. Our belly is a communication brain and it is here where as human we are blessed with gut reactions. Our gut reactions rival quantum computers, no contest really. Love and value yourself and there will be no tyranny for you. Can we hear with our feelings? We can feel truth from our belly and what we hear from others may be one thing however the signal we get from our belly may disagree. We prefer congruency of course and so when we feel truth as well as hear it then things are likely okay. One may feel reactive as to what is going on in their home. One's basic instinct may cause them to question who is in charge of their home base. Discoveries concerning who or what is affecting one's domestic experience can cause an individual to question their loyalties. Again it's as if our belly is our truth detector. As individual sensitivity increases a sense of urgency may be felt, and as such the individual may begin to question the quality of some relationship. Our ability to trust our feelings will give us another means by which we can gauge our relationship dynamic with others. If things are truly urgent can we not feel our body telling us this? We can share ideas and keep each other informed as to what the shared details are however how one feels about these details can shed a different light completely on the shared value. Events can remind us of patterns, or events can contain connections to other events typically not considered. When we choose to feel we can look with an increased detail and discover subtle things which can be big in influence and significance. And once we feel we have ample data, all our feelings, and we clearly witness an expanding panorama, now we can consider our choices.

04 Saturday May 3rd - Moon enters Leo 7:30 AM

Pluto retrograde in Aquarius Sunday May 4th 11:28 AM

Well it's a wonderful day to take action. It's like living in a musical if you will, you can hear the soundtrack. Not everyone may be so happy and harmonically tuned to life however. For others a feeling that one's inspired actions are not compatible with some social or community feeling can break up the party and even block both parties. Ideals related to social significance and self confidence are likely meeting and playing out. Yet there is also a harmonically entrained dance of happiness occurring. A feeling that life is love. Here dramas of love and relations may be influencing lyrical words, and affecting one's step and stride? If we can see behind unkind or hurt feelings, again especially related to social acceptance and being socially significance, we may discover another current of shared energy, this one much more pleasant. Not to say one stream is more valuable than the other however in terms of comfort the feeling of harmony has all the big pluses. Better health better fitness it is simple life giving. Whereas being defined by external social ideals which cause individuals to confront one another, can be playing out via one's beliefs of desperation. Well it must be worked through and so we may see some of this. Our ability to admit our own folly, as usual, is our ticket straight out of our own self imposed jail. And so as the world turns, as it always does, perhaps the sunshine will bring in the bliss and the pluses of harmony. Either way we will as individuals experience our own self defined values of self significance.

05 Monday May 5th - Moon enters Virgo 3:41 PM

Unconditional love shows up in the form of caretaker energy, a rescue may be triggered? One's newly affirmed confidence quickens their words. Communications may be impulsive as an individual beams with confidence. The concern about something being real and or significant can be occupying an individual's mind. With a well established foundation one can now enjoy an analytical investigation. A chance to get picky over the details. To bring this pickiness to order, Where a musical parallel or some form of artistic parallel can act as a focusing agent bringing one's thoughts and feelings together in a cooperative way. Including both left brain and right brain function in one's intentions and actions one's energy frequency is shifted into an alternate harmonic order, their life experienced in an expansive way. Like a magical common denominator at some level there is acceptance and bliss. If or when we do have such an experience we can see our life and karma all under one single panorama, we can see/feel what is significant and what is less so. From this awareness we may see we have more choices in life, we may even make different choices. If we are happy with these choices we will continue with them. And there we have made what some may call "real change". If we are getting picky right now perhaps there is a fantasy which is like a bubble, a bubble just waiting to pop. Here come pickiness so there may be a few paradigm poppings happening. If so look to feel a divine common denominator in the direction of empathy, compassion, love, bliss,...

06 Thursday May 8th - Moon enters Libra 3:07 AM

Mercury ingress Taurus Saturday May 10th 8:16 AM

Courage and the ability to take confident action can be strong and mutually shared. One's intention to create harmony with another will yield a possible boost in their self esteem. If we have some things we need to do and it is a bit much why not call upon a friend for help? It is nice to have such a friend, and to be such a friend. A friend to assist and team up with right now can potentially trigger one's best inspirational self. A strength can also come along with confidence, if we choose harmony we get strength and confidence, sounds healthy. Partnership details from some past drama may return and occupy one's mind. If so it is wise to find the reasoning which is causing one to feel included. Once the experience can be witnessed from an acceptance and feeling foundation a understanding as to the why of one's specific involvement can be noticed. When an individual chooses to believe they are their mind, typically unknowingly, they trap themselves in logic. The way out of this self imposed prison is through the heart. When we choose to feel and to trust our sensitivity we are given the details we need to break our fixation with whatever logic possess us. When we ignore our feelings we function differently and make different choices, such as the way a machine functions. In order to complete some task or to take charge of a responsibility one may find they must accept a belief or notion. A belief not necessarily to their liking yet facilitates the valued cooperation. And so they choose to be in harmony to create the mutual benefit, and perhaps they will also notice something about their friends beliefs previously not noticed?

07 Saturday May 10th - Moon enters Scorpio 3:59 PM

Full Moon Scorpio Monday May 12th 12:57 PM

The stability of one's shared security can be more concerning now as the Moon transits Scorpio. In some cases partners are taking certain actions regarding shared values or shared property as they are wanting to send a message to their partner. We can see this on the world trading stage as world partners work toward finding mutual harmony, or also in the home where partners share an address together. All levels of shared ownership regarding security can become hy-lighted. A focus on parental values and authorities can feel deeply significant. The role parents play in one's life and the role an individual plays as a parent can all become the focus in some way. Ideas are lots and easily shared so it seems, however not all ideas may be of equal value? There may be some real gems out there in idea land, these functional, ideas can solve problems and be mutually beneficial to many. The social ideals some may have dreamed about or wished for can feel real or like they are becoming real. An increase in empathy has many opening their hearts and recognizing the humanity in others. Using resources as a means by which a partnership can be controlled is being called out during this Taurus Moon cycle, and it is now as the Moon transits Scorpio, that a sudden change may be issued. Shared finances may become the focus of attention with expected changes freeing up resources for some and maybe not for others.

08 Tuesday May 13th - Moon enters Sagittarius 4:36 AM

Both organic life and human innocence is guarded by those who know themselves as stewards for the Earth. Some may feel a divinely guided presence which is world wide, a feeling that rights of the innocent are guarded, looked over by this presence. As a local human we may as individuals or groups, find our own local version of this. Our ability to share ideas and hear ideas congruently with others can be valuable to ourselves and others. Although there is a lot of talk headed directly to the public mind through various media, and lots of this may be of little concern or value, there are some things being shared, ideas, which are truly paradigm shattering and if followed will offer a higher road for all those considered within the idea. Problem is there are those who would speak only from their past in order to secure their public power. And if this is the case such power will be anything but a blessing. Public truth is actually quite congruent and easy to follow if one is being their own authority and following their heart. Those who can accept public influence as the happenstance of their integrity will not cling to it, they will likely be an inspiration to others. Basic ideas from the individual may feel like they are being tweaked to suit a current change in dealing with elite portions of humanity. The basic quality of one's personal partnership can echo in the quality of their shared resources. In this case the resource one shares with their partner is "access to the public" facilitated by the good will they created together.

09 Thursday May 15th - Moon enters Capricorn 3:59 PM

In our wisdom to keep things simple and in our commitment to do so we may find we have earned certain opportunities. Having been able to manifest a foundational sense of security one may now set out to discover things a new. It is our future which requires us to invest into certain expectations and to realize other things which change and disappear. Our ability to adopt and share basic guidelines with others in regards to our home and then others in our community begins with the simplicity of being congruent and self honest as an individual. The idea that boundaries can be helpful is a good one. Even if in the past humanity may have been imprisoned by zealous or abusive self serving forces who disguised themselves as our authorities. It is to our advantage that these authorities cannot remain in our now let alone our future, however we must take responsibility and create some form of a unifying consensus such that we can easily and naturally share our harmony with each other. Who's the boss may be a question one may ask themselves as the Moon transits Capricorn. Is it a religious authority a medical authority a financial authority, or perhaps it is one's self? If we are not our own boss how can we take responsibility for what we do? And if we are our own boss we can chose, with commitment, to support others when it is founded.

10 Sunday May 18th - Moon enters Aquarius 1:31 AM

Did we have our freedom and rights taken away or did we give them away? Either way we are destined to have our freedom and rights returned, a good thing right? With this upgrade however comes responsibility. If we come to Earth to learn something, to be human and learn then hopefully we have learned because the enslavers are having quite a time surviving, they will likely not survive. And so who governs us? We do of course. We are inheriting our own governing responsibilities. Once communities are able to communicate with each other the truth of their situation and to share this with other communities, they can then agree upon a consensus. Once a community has predictability within its self governing, once it has internal trust, this same rhythm can synchronize a community with other like communities. It can all happen with harmony and love, an enjoyable journey. However it begins with responsibility on an individual level, perhaps a level of responsibility one has not known before. There will be little time for blame or filling our forms or running from trouble, none of that can fit in with where we are going. Those who relish and enjoy the journey with acceptance and ambitious discovery may well inspire others. In an effort to sustain or to bring harmony back to community there are individuals who do have some viable solutions which can be mutually beneficial. We may suddenly realize something, our basic connection with life may send us a pulse, a signal, we may discover our body has a special connection with organic life. This can be a good time to be outside, especially if the weather is grand, how can one say no?

11 Tuesday May 20th - Moon enters Pisces 8:30 AM

Sun ingress Gemini Tuesday May 20th 2:56 PM

Choose your paradigm wisely. Like being in a movie theater with all the ad posters and ad trailers, which movie will you pay for? When we consider Pisces as the willing reflection for whatever paradigm an individual can imagine we can see there is many movies playing on here. Pooling energy will occur where several individuals agree to share a belief. As the Moon now makes the Pisces ingress we may imagine that we have just entered the theater, which show will you choose to give energy to? Or better still which one has been having our energy without our explicit awareness? Saturn has been in this Pisces water world for two years now yet will soon begin to make an Aries ingress, this should be quite a shift for many, we may see new found authority want-a-bees taking actions which would suggest there is a mutual consensus to which these Saturnian rules are founded. For now we can take a look at our own version of authority, we can get a feel for what is most correct for us while Saturn is still in the ocean swimming with the fish and what not. Once Saturn reaches land well we may see authorities testing things out. Our intention to hold our space now and clearly define how, what, and who, holds the space for a desired outcome, will perhaps effectively create a pathway for Saturn to follow, which can be to our advantage. As opposed to having our rights controlled and that crap we know too much about already. This time authorities will be much more empathic to innocence, and to nature, and to children, as they themselves are young like children themselves.

12 Thursday May 22nd - Moon enters Aries 12:27 PM

Mars can indicate how we as individuals go after the things we feel we need or want. Here as the Moon makes the Aries ingress we will perhaps feel our own Mars sticking up for us and showing us our own commitment to compassion, sensitivity, and empathy. Transiting Mars is currently in Leo and as such there is a pride like impulse which can trigger an individual to follow their spiritual path. For some impulsive actions can feel refreshing. For those who are competitive and athletic this can be a time where a game or two can feel good. There is a sense that one's significance must be real in order to take action with whatever one's specific agenda may be. We may also feel the challenge that some experience as they compete and rush for comforts and securities, as in competing to put food on the table. If one has been delaying or putting something off this transit can trigger them to go for it. The individual may feel their significance in a particular way and this can cause them to make adjustments in their home or to their domestic situation. A need to be aware of the challenges an individual can run into if they were to confidently step forward with their agenda can uncover any, here to unknown, blocks or challenges. The current changes to the private elite portions of communities can challenge an individual's sovereignty and as such the notion of who is in charge can be brought out into the open. One's spontaneous courage can also be aligned with Chiron, also transiting Aries. A version of one's multi-dimensional self or one's spiritual self, may appear as an influence and inspire a positive action.

13 Saturday May 24th - Moon enters Taurus 1:39 PM

Saturn ingress Aries Saturday May 24th 11:37 PM

Mercury ingress Gemini Sunday May 25th 9:00 PM

Something totally unexpected may happen? Who is known as a property owner may suddenly shift? This can be an advantageous time to be in nature. Uranus, which is known to indicate sudden unexpected things, is strong right now so intentions of safety can be wise before adventuring into new or unusual worlds. Speaking of unusual this can be a time of unusual things. We may feel our body longing to connect to the Earth through us. Our body's electrical system may be more charged up, we may be more electric than unusual. It can be good to be close to the Earth as the assured grounding may well allow a healing frequency to flow through us. We may become a conduit for information flowing between the celestial heavens and the organic Earth. Some may experience a heightened awareness, especially with their intuition. It can for some feel like their body is suddenly very alert or aware of things around the individual. We may discover something important and special concerning our connection with organic life, with nature, and with the Earth. This can be a good time to simply acknowledge the Earth.

14 Monday May 26th - Moon enters Gemini 1:23 PM

The value believed to come from an agreement can affect the manner in which one speaks out now. Words can be said with solid assurance as there is a dedication to a shared foundation or value. A valued common understanding may be approaching. Things begin to happen, a fresh new feeling of moving forward can inspire some individuals to strike up in some new direction. New ideas leads to commitment, actions may begin. Again within a cascade of ideas which has been occurring there can be some real gems, by being discerning and objective we can perhaps find these, or perhaps be the source of them. Developing an ability to tune into the a common denominator will facilitate an avenue toward objectivity which can prove valuable now and in the immediate future.

- 18 I am given the resources I need to move forward with my ideas and inspirations.
- 19 My self love and value displaces any tyranny, I am free to create and live.
- 20 My belly is my truth detector.
- 21 I am my own boss.
