Report number 274

Pathfinder Report is a new Moon Astrology report intended to assist in advancing personal significance, equality, and sovereignty through self observation and admission. The report assumes "you create your own reality" an unequivocal fact, at times referred to as "the perfection premise".

“I like there is a sea of ideas here however it is the congruency which can make it magical in some unique special way.” “

Neptune in Aries will call for sovereignty as her host. An individual who possesses sovereignty will find her presence within them as they feel their actions and commitment to their journey becoming ever so enchanted. Neptune can lead to the Moon's north node in Pisces now as well, we can feel the presence of everything and nothing as if they are forever. Our ability to move beyond boundary type experiences can be witnessed by the local human who has evolved sovereignty. The presence of the divine feminine if the resonance is there will lead the individual naturally to this place of forever, while maintaining sovereignty as a single local human individual. Saturn also beginning an Aries transit will show up as rules which are actions, in other words there may be no warning. Built up frustrations can explode as actions which demonstrate the boundary. Pluto retrograde in Aquarius will sextile both Saturn and Neptune in Aries. This also forms a YOD with Mars in Virgo. The past, if it still has some structure, can appear again for a short time, in the form of elitism and attempt to demonstrate their authority muscle. However the energy will likely not be sustained as the new Moon in Cancer also forms a YOD with Pluto and Mars and here it is the established sovereign individual who is seemingly holding Excalibur!

During this Moon cycle some may notice an increase in excitement? Ideas flowing from enthusiasm, so much so that they may need a break peddle to contain the excitement. Then there is the external authority, all aggressive as indicated by Saturn's Aries transit. It is the logic which is driving the aggression right now as indicated by Mars transiting Virgo, and it is likely old stuck logic as the Moon's south node dredges up the stuff from the past also in Virgo. And this can involve past or present agreement understandings, example as in religious structures, or even community models which attempt to gain significance. Who we are as an individual, can it stand up to external authority? Intimidation has been an effective tool, but it spells bully, you know takes one to know one, they're scared, so they try to scare you. We can see this because we can do it to ourselves. We may tell our selves off, just once to soon, and then just leave ourselves? Then what what? When we however act as if no matter what we are okay, that no matter what we are cool, that we are good, simple because we decided so, then we are good! Our ability to own our own stuff with impeccability makes us formidable, why give this away? You simple wouldn't. Yes if one is a newbie they are going to get some past due home work for sure. However it is the journey which is so exciting, every bite into the past leads to new discoveries of oneself which are just timed, so it seems, for today's challenges.

When we are doing well we can be charitable, share it around, it feels good, it feels right. And there are times when we need to be careful and tighten up a bit, at least for awhile. As we except the seasons of the year we can also observe the phases of our own experiences, we go up and down perhaps, yet we also begin to see and witness ourselves, we can see our own repeated behavior, we can begin to predict our choices. As we see this we are seeing a bigger picture. As we see more of what we are involved with, see how things are connected together, we may see that we have other choices in life?

Formulas and the magical powers are possessed by each individual human. Either as potentials or as developed talents. Opportunities for the individual as such are not governed by things outside one's self. Many individuals may come out of this current Cancer new Moon cycle realizing their opportunities are their's to own, their's to explore, their's to go for. Good on ya! As an individual human could you say every sneaky trick to get us to believe in an outside authority has already been used on us? We need to make plans and take actions, we need to intend harmony and mutual benefit with others. If we are stale or non progressive in our life we need to start by looking in the mirror and asking who defines our power. There is so much creative power which can be coming through for each individual during this Moon cycle, it is not necessary or advisable that one would allow external forces to create or limit their opportunities such that the benefit goes mainly to the authority. There have been definite signs, changes are coming? After refusing the opening signs, where we are being shown there are many very real changes coming our way, perhaps during this Moon cycle many are more convinced? Many as well knowing from the get go it was a real thing coming, and here again, waiting? Or are we in it? Or what? Ideally the individual will look to themselves and their own challenges as they witness the outer collective changes. What affects us directly will be the most important thing to deal with. Our increases in excited feelings, some up some down, whatever, it is the increase in feeling which is relevant and as such we want to get the best look at our selves, via our reactions. We want to have the best look ourselves as we can get while the opportunity is here, see ourselves in the raw sort of speak. Our concerns, if any, will correlate with events which trigger a related concern. Our reaction will imply a belief about reality, and right there you have it. The implied belief about reality, why would one be loyal to this, whatever it might be, why react to it impulsively? Once we can feel the belief system and reality we have been giving our energy to we can now begin seeking out the authority, by what order of authority did we agree? Our memory may show us and when it does we can cancel the contract right there, as long as we realize we agreed to something in the first place, perhaps unknowingly never the less, we can now knowingly and consciously claim that the contract no longer exist and is null and void. This can begin to happen almost automatically as the individual gets hang of owning their historic stuff and retrieving their energy from unnecessary and old history karmic snags. This Moon sign can offer a workable itinerary for the intending evolving individual.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Cancer the focus will be on nurturing, inspired creative expression, and domestic related concerns. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing one's own emotional sensitivity and the nurturing and creative impulse which goes along with heightened sensitivity. Accepting emotional experiences as a valid source of truth, a deep rich self awareness becomes available. An evolution of self awareness occurs as influences and beliefs are known as choices and are thus examined from the perspective as to how feelings are handed over to logic. Those born under the Sun sign Cancer have a natural propensity to emotional sensitivity and deep felt sharing. They naturally resonate with the feelings which underline the self esteem of others. Not to exclude others as we all have Cancerian energy somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience an amplified emotional sensitivity. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the nature of their sensitivity and how this sensitivity can lead to insightful truth. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I connect with emotional sensitivity and insight by...

Gemini: trusting my physical senses as they always gives me immediate truth.

Taurus: noticing and valuing how I feel when I communicate with others.

Aries: realizing that my feelings are showing me who I believe I am.

Pisces: allowing myself to expressive my creative impulses.

Aquarius: being responsible for how I feel and allowing this sense of responsibility to ensure perfect health.

Capricorn: valuing my partnerships and allowing them to lead me to my own nurturing impulse.

Sagittarius: accepting and valuing the rebirth of self awareness which comes from my harmonious partnership experiences.

Scorpio: allowing myself to travel into new areas and by taking on fresh new experiences.

Libra: feeling my value to the public through my work and career.

Virgo: feeling the family like relationship I have with all others.

Leo: feeling the nurturing impulse of Earth and acknowledging natural organic awareness.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great life changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

New Moon Wednesday June 25th 6:33 AM EST 2025

Report number 274

01 New Moon in Cancer Wednesday June 25th 6:33 AM EST 2025*Mercury ingress Leo Thursday June 26th 3:10 PM*

An increased feeling about social reform and how it plays into religious or spiritual beliefs can drive analytical analysis. A natural inclination to be more sensitive and feeling about personal concerns can increase, family projects or domestic concerns can be more important to address. For those who's careers and public service directs them to family concerns they will likely notice an expansive increase in their value. This can also be a beneficial time for an individual to get to know themselves better as their real concerns can begin to escalate in feeling, this escalation sustained until it is realistically addressed. Those who are naturally accepting of their psychic talents will also notice an increase in insight and perhaps messages. An aggressive analytical approach to whatever concern can be the outcome of increased feeling or sensitivity regarding the specific concern. A notion that a problem can be neutralized by analytical approach will be attempted, success determined by objectivity and integrity. Vulnerability can lead the individual to recognizing the source paradigm of their difficulty, revealing the authority who rules over those who agree to it's law. The way forward, to align with one's true will, is via impeccable ownership over all and everything which is concerning and distracting to the individual. Thinking and analytics can be directed to social reform and spiritual truths, or a combination of these two ideas. Some will take actions based on either strong religious notions and others will take actions based on social reforms and social justice, in some cases they will be joined either harmoniously or with challenges.

02 Friday June 27th - Moon enters Leo 2:06 AM

Finding one's courage and significance can feel necessary as the foundational quality of one's agenda calls for self confidence. Over the next two decades individuals will be challenged to demonstrate their significance as indicated by the Pluto Aquarius transit. As the Moon transits Leo now we may feel a need to find and register our own significance, or an individual may be reminded of their significance, or we may be expected to acknowledge the significance of another. Either way we are getting a heads up now for what these next several years can begin to bring. Once the individual is aware their thoughts create and they are being called to be responsible for their own individual idea as to why an individual is significant then they will be able to make sense of any funky miss understandings they are experiencing, if such exists. All without the need to project their lesson on another. Individual's will typically project their lesson onto another yet once many are aware that we seem to be privy to each other's blind spots then perhaps we will choose with sensitivity and consideration our personal partner. Speaking of partners an individual may be looking for someone who can share space harmoniously, to show skill when sharing and holding boundaries. As individual sensitivity rises one's intuitive take on their situation can also rise, their connection with their partner can be heightened. As such sharing a vision can mean sharing actions and sharing the boundaries needed to make it all happen. Partners can remain or become close if they are able to share a magically enchanted vision.

03 Sunday June 29th - Moon enters Virgo 7:45 AM

Those who have the courage imagination and self love will have access to a puzzle, the solution to which can have a magnified dividend. This Moon Virgo ingress can be particularly revealing in that one's go to thinking will indicate their basic logical premise. For example it may become evident that an individual identifies with self through their logical mind. Yes we have a thinking center inside us however is this who we really are? Or an individual may be made happy or made sad relative to how they appear to be accepted by others, again what belief about self is apparent? From the perspective of thought creates we see we are not our mind. Our will, what about that? We are not our mind, we however have a mind. Our mind is connected to our senses as we lock into a specific phase or apparent physical reality. Our senses are connected to our body, to our mind, and to our ego. Via self responsibility our mind can follow our will and become impeccable objective. Likened to the eagle who flies above, we witness and feel a grand panorama of ourselves as it unfolds before us. Our ability to take ownership over that which we create and draw to ourselves, as opposed to continually projecting things onto others, no matter how justified, our ability to own our creations, the nice as well as the not so nice, will empower the individual dramatically. As the Moon transits Virgo we can get the briefing of a lifetime in regards to what is a karma relevant thing for us to look at. As an individual intending to evolve this may be a nice opportunity. The Moon's south node also in Virgo will hold many details which call for an empowered individual to decode.

04 Tuesday July 1st - Moon enters Libra 5:18 PM

It would be interesting if the logical path one followed lead them to themselves as being the one they defeated? One's victory would become shallow if their defeated enemy turned out to be themselves? Actually this can be a common realization on the path towards one's own unique excellence. We would not want logical analysis to take over our understanding of our partnerships? If we can keep things about us, act as if we are creating or drawing certain experiences to us, when intending to find our way through challenges we will be better suited to making value of the data our experiences feed us with. The things we would like to change about a partner, if there was such a thing, is it actually something about our own self? What an individual believes about the details regarding their assumptions or agreements will be their actions. In some cases a higher meaning is encouraging actions as well. We can see our own beliefs in action, in our impulses. It pays to be congruent within one's own belief system as this leads to a congruent or common sense sort of impulsive self. Otherwise we could be unpredictable? Many will think or speak or chose ideas which are in some way related to their magnificence! Do they need acknowledgement or are they simply a natural inspiration? Actions regarding one's spiritual beliefs can be forth coming as the means may have some path way in a doable reality.

05 Friday July 4th - Moon enters Scorpio 5:34 AM

Venus ingress Gemini Friday July 4th 11:32 AM

Neptune retrograde Friday July 4th 5:35 PM

If there would be any sort of regret where by an individual had preferred to take more direct responsibility to what was happening to them and their life then they did, this current Scorpio Moon ingress may serve up opportunity. One could intend to see who it was and is who has been allowed to have control over things that perhaps now one feels they ought not to. In partnerships we agree to share ownership of things which have important value to us with our partner. Has our partnership energy, to some degree been hijacked via bills and debts and taxes and these kind of things? Do we participate in false partnerships due to false representation of will? It is this kind of clarity which can be exposed and understood. Once individual's take responsibility for their decisions which lead to these unfair things that act of taking responsibility will bust down the energy matrix and resonance and it will gradually fall away, simple by being honest with oneself. If you are honest with your self no one can mess with you. In some cases partners may be seeking some validation or acknowledgement with their partner regarding the quality of the sharing they give support to. Some may be supportive to help give goodwill to their role in a partnership and thus be significant. Some will sacrifice their value in a partnership as if it is some higher calling. The feeling that sharing in a partnership is special and important can become a big deal, it can feel like an awakening. Family values for example can feel like they are enriched with commitment and multi-generational importance. Those who's partnerships affect their community both local community and also a global community can potentially experience a brilliance and wisdom which generates solutions and fixes to otherwise difficult social challenges.

New Moon Wednesday June 25th 6:33 AM EST 2025

Report number 274

06 Sunday July 6th - Moon enters Sagittarius 6:07 PM

Uranus ingress Gemini Monday July 7th 11:32 AM

The quality of the authority behind one's long held religious or spiritual beliefs is now being shown to them. Action energy based on the remembered understanding of an important long time belief, may be religious, becomes real when times and situations call for immediate actions. It can sometimes be easier to understand someone's logic once you witness them set it into action. Helping an individual understand their own religious beliefs may be easier once they experience things in action themselves? Fast thinkers can show a revisited commitment quickly however this will not work for everyone, and even for those who it seems to, there may be a danger of being reckless. With that said there is on the rise actions based on what one believes spiritually. One's faith may now be called to save them or do something miraculous for them. Logical minded understandings of faith and religious can be come very serious for some, is this real, has it been real, is it still real, where do we go from here? This can be spicy and emotional as new approaches are adopted by many individuals, new ways epitomized by new actions signal a revival of core beliefs and real commitment to them. Of course this can also indicate death to past understandings and their correlating commitments as obvious new approaches are needed and are obviously to one's advantage to follow these new understandings.

07 Wednesday July 9th - Moon enters Capricorn 4:56 AM

Full Moon Capricorn Thursday July 10th 4:38 PM

To realize one's actual position can be an empowering thing. With all delusions aside finally a realistic way forward is revealed. Our ability, or strength of clarity, to embrace our world in an objective way yet while feeling every morsel of it allows us to parallel our thoughts and feelings. Like two rails on a track with a congruent purpose or direction we are on our way somewhere. With out admission, admitting one's creations, only denial remains and with denial there is no track let alone a train. Once we have the track our train is our will, away we go. This Capricorn ingress can open the door to impeccable admission. The folly of lack of responsibility has been carefully orchestrated, so what, it doesn't change anything, admission is still needed to bust denial. Once we own it we can put the pieces together. It may seem as if one's life is like a puzzle an ongoing puzzle to solve and so why not give it a serious effort? When we own all circumstances from the perspective that we are the source of them we will send our logic around in a new way, we will see more of what we have been dealing with. When we take ownership over our own stuff we send out a big signal. We send a signal to our body, when we are in charge we are in charge. We also emulate a self responsible character which can cause some others to be in support, in some special way they may feel inspired. We do radiate out our enthusiasm and self confidence. It all starts with a nice meal of honesty to one's self, some quality admission, perhaps some big time humbling, some real looking into one's deepest caverns and acknowledging whatever one has been keeping there. It's owning all the puzzle pieces.

New Moon Wednesday June 25th 6:33 AM EST 2025

Report number 274

08 Friday July 11th - Moon enters Aquarius 1:22 PM*Saturn retrograde Sunday July 13th 12:08 AM*

False leaders or manufactured celebrities will no longer yield followers. The time for the individual to experience his or her own creative power and responsibility on their own, authentically, is here. We are beginning a two decade experience where the individual who believes in him or her self will be given the opportunity to truly shine, the traps and pitfalls of the past are being removed and a fair opportunity is being prepared. Some social solutions can be truly brilliant and serve value to several, however one must be selective as to what they give their support to. The difference between partnership relationships and social relationships can show up in how we share money or financial responsibility. As social and community changes occur our financial relationship with our community may also change. A need to be cautious about how we share our values with others can cause us to be clear about our social agreements and responsibilities as well as our partnership responsibilities. Our partnership responsibilities will include our social responsibilities depending on if we are married or living life as a single. A need to juggle responsibilities as an ongoing thing will leave little time and energy for charitable acts, however if communities are calling out to us we would be wise to investigate. Individual freedoms and individual rights may be ringing some bells with some individuals and their adherence to justice is strong with commitment and purpose. We will see many elite type controllers revealed and their misuse, if it exist, reversed. Corruption as it is realized and identified will be under the microscope for the next two decades. Any social structure which falsely signified an individual to be significant over others will be equalized and removed by the natural order of things.

09 Sunday July 13th - Moon enters Pisces 7:46 PM

There is an opportunity for an individual to find or tune into their own unique version of bounty. Experiencing good fortune coming from within will have an ever lasting sort of essence about it. We can take this opportunity now, to feel the everlasting quality of our hopes and dreams by acting as if they are occurring for us now. Our clarity is imperative as we want to be excellent in our congruency, our wishes all within an expanding congruent expression. Whatever one's dreams are the opportunity to feel as if one really has the power has a special value right now as the Moon transits Pisces. Actually we always have such opportunities it's just that now it may be more likely for an individual to get their anchor in there and feel their future now. Finding the right frequency is like finding the heart, our natural alignment with harmony can be a real thing. Our ability to accept ourselves is extended to others where we accept others for who they are and for who they need to be, there is no need for judgment. Our ability to move into such acceptance can match this special frequency where our energy can be paralleled multi-dimensionally. As we increase our awareness and begin taking responsibility for ourselves with a commitment and understanding which was never know in the past, we will see a quick and determined reversal. Many are just realizing who they are and are discovering what they can do, new forces are coming alive.

10 Wednesday July 16th - Moon enters Aries 12:33 AM*Mercury retrograde Friday July 18th 12:46 AM*

The way to deliver the rules is via actions. Tasks and time lines can prompt go to actions from those who are known as the governing authority. Just do it, can become authorities go to method? Those who are in charge or in control of specific projects will be involved in aggressive active investigations, aggressive investigations may already be active. The need for reform in the financial industry will also call for reform in cooperate monopolies and controlled financial investing. Everything must be reformed and this is occurring. Those who do not want the reforms have no choice as they are finding out, different strategies and reorganized agendas, nothing is going to help the minority who have been historically the beneficiary. Nothing can move forward for them. A rise in spiritual presence occurs also as Neptune continues to make the Aries ingress. The conjunction between Saturn and Neptune early in Aries is like mixing oil and water, these two energies are quite unlike each other. However there is a mix or harmonious energy resonance which can occur between Saturn and Neptune in Aries. If the individual has evolved to the extend that they are sovereign in their self responsibility, that they are like the eagle who flies over the community witnessing and experience how others make decisions and choices, it is via sovereignty where by one can host this divine feminine presence and direct their own agenda such that it is guided by and congruent with this presence. This will happen naturally as all is connected and moving within the congruency of divine presence.

11 Friday July 18th - Moon enters Taurus 4:00 AM

Good quality time in nature can be beneficial in many ways. For those who enjoy that the Earth can be their ultimate go to partner this Moon's Taurus ingress can feel exciting. Allowing ourselves to harmonize with nature around us can be like calling for a refreshing rebuild, or energy alignment. This can occur naturally when some time with nature is experienced. With the world, especially the digital world, becoming difficult and tiring at times, time with nature can feel really great. We can become balanced and steadied in many ways, we can feel a special connection with nature, we can perhaps feel her comfort and her security. The digital world on the other hand has no comforting presence, it's comforts artificial, all borrowed from her the Earth. The digital world was created for one reason and one reason only, to facilitate AI. There is absolutely no other reason for digital technology to exist. And if we truly knew our affiliation with the Earth we would never ever have any need for digital worlds or digital realities. Digital realities as such can be removed by evolved individuals who are congruent on many levels. AI is not bad, it is indifferent. Who is directing it however, is this an energy that is considerate of a shared world and assisting humanity with evolution? Or perhaps self serving? Makes no difference really as either way the powers seeming from AI are also being directed by forces which must relax into the congruency of Creator's ongoing perfection. Our direct connection with the Earth however will serve us well as she unlocks our many magical abilities and demonstrates the talents and potentials of being organic!

12 Sunday July 20th - Moon enters Gemini 6:23 AM

No more hidden messages or secret communications, all that stuff is going to have rough sledding ahead. Uranus, welcome to Gemini! Heads can become electric so we don't want to have resistors or shorts circuits in our thinking, could get hot or blow a fuse. Many ideas can be made available and yet it is the relationship between ideas which is also registered. Our ability to see the bigger picture will allow us to naturally make many parallel observations which can lead us to an evolving understanding of the nature of our creating. As Mercury continues retrograde in Leo we may be rediscovering some things about our own significance, as if the rest of the story was beginning to appear. Always our road to clarity and personal power or personal healing comes through admission and trusting our vulnerability. Certain shake ups and changes in our social world and in our communities can cause an individual to examine his or her significance in a serious way. As the controllers who are discovered to be improper are removed a space for new energy and new people is cleared, those who truly believe in themselves may be creating opportunities for them to manifest this. With the amount of data and information now available to evolving individuals an ability to see this information from an expanding perspective and to begin to make connections and parallels also exists. New things can be created for individuals and communities. Inventions and discoveries which can improve humanities comfort and survival. Some may have been discovered and hidden or kept from the public, this can be like a dam rupturing. Humanity has the opportunity to think and realize far beyond commonly accepted limits.

13 Tuesday July 22nd - Moon enters Cancer 8:27 AM

Sun ingress Leo June 22nd 9:31 AM

Our emotional experiences may have highlighted our Moon cycle, we may have had an opportunity to get a good look at our impulsive self? And if so we may now be aware of our core beliefs regarding our security and foundation? We may have been able to build on past self discoveries as well. Our ability to evolve as an individual toward our divine path is dependant on trusting and following our feelings. Our feelings are like a common language within ourselves, as we are rich in multi-dimensional character this language serves a special purpose. This can be specially so once the individual discovers who they are as a spiritual being having a human experience. Our dreams are apart of our experiences and we can see the panorama which includes them and our intuition and instant knowing as well. Our read on energy will also parallel our evolving awakening. Our ability to own what we create, have created, and continue to create, will show us our own opportunities to empower ourselves and move toward greater awareness evolution if such is our choice.

14 Thursday July 24th - Moon enters Leo 11:30 AM

The new Moon in Leo will include Mercury retrograde and strong trines between both Neptune and Saturn in Aries. One's glory days may return, in their mind some may believe they are in a time where they were recognized or acknowledged in some way? A new rule may be demonstrated, didn't get the memo no matter here is what the rule would have said, kind of thing. Get ready for action before words from past leaders who still believe they are relevant. Like water and oil Saturn and Neptune no not really mix, unless the frequency is high enough, like finding a higher common denominator, however typically they are separate. Neptune in Aries will call on an individual to be completely sovereign, if they intend to host the divine feminine energy which Neptune can depict.

Next new Moon in Leo Thursday July 24th 3:12 PM

Sample Intentions for New Moon in Cancer

- 09 It seems I have more ideas than I know what to do with.
- 10 I can be charitable and I can be frugal, every moment is unique, nothing is automatic.
- 11 I like there is a sea of ideas here however it is the congruency which can make it magical in some unique special way.
- 12 I like to look into the details however I also can feel when enough is enough.
- 13 There is always a higher common denominator, everything is connected.
- 14 I share my values openly and honestly with my partner.
- 15 I can feel my body has a special connection with the Earth.
- 16 I love the way the Earth speaks truth to me, just like my heart, we are in the same groove.
- 17 I love the sound and rhythm of the Earth, it feels like we are dancing together, creating together.
- 18 I can always call for new ideas.
- 19 The courage that I experience is the by-product of my integrity.
- 20 I can feel a calling to be with family.
- 21 Even though I get lots of ideas I am also careful as to which I begin giving greater energy to.
