

PATHFINDER report

New Moon June 22nd 2009 3:36 PM EST

Report number 76

New Moon June 22nd 3:36 PM EST
Mercury ingress Cancer July 3rd 5:21 PM
Venus ingress Gemini July 5th 4:24 AM
Full Moon Lunar Eclipse July 7th 5:23 AM
Mars ingress Gemini July 11th 10:57 PM
Mercury ingress Leo July 17th 7:09 PM
Dark Moon July 20th 2:16 AM
next New Moon July 21st 10:36 PM
Jupiter retrograde in Aquarius through out cycle
Neptune retrograde in Pisces through out cycle
Pluto retrograde in Capricorn through out cycle

Overview

Moon Beams

Fourteen Periods

New Moon Intentions

Pathfinder Report is a new Moon Astrology report intended to assist in advancing personal significance, equality and sovereignty through self observation and admission.

Multi-Dimensional Blueprint

Soulstar Astrology readings are intended to assist an individual in locking into the frequency resonance of their multi-dimensional memory. Are we more than just human? As electro magnetic patterns of the linear minded human are shed and busted an alignment to multi-dimensional self knowing is in the wings. Nobody tells you who you are as this would be a direct contradiction of your intention to achieve complete sovereignty during your current human life time. The uniqueness of your holographical self supersedes the uniqueness of human self knowing by an extended margin. By adding conformation to your expanding self awareness you are able to identify your home station as a holographical being having a human experience. The awakening of your multi-dimensional self is a remembering process. A familiarity of self occurs as you are able to locate your divine frequency id outside typically accepted human concepts. For your current human sojourn an exact match is set up between your divine purpose and divine intention and your current bloodline resonance.

There are many very special astrological alignments which signal the awakening of multi-dimensional memory. Many are incarnated now as this is a grand experience and party for those who are adventurous light beings. Neptune and Uranus are currently mutually accepted, in each others sign, and Pluto is beginning a lengthy hike through Capricorn. Freedom from electro-magnetic patterns occurs as many layers of self identity are released from the folly of misunderstanding as to the true potential of what being human is. Every concept and self definition which has been learned through current human social conditioning is to be revamped and realigned to an evolving self identity. You have a home station. As a human you have a home station. Just like if you were to leave a busy shopping complex you would identify your car in the parking lot and drive to your home. You would not take the first car you come across and drive to any house or home. You take your car and drive to your home. As limiting patterns of self identity are released and a grander picture of potential and possibility is formulated your human vehicle is to be recognized from an expanded perspective. No two divine humans are the same and yet we are one within the grandness of Creator's presence. For more information about Soulstar Astrology readings follow this link:

<http://www.williamoulton.com/Soulstar/readings/freadings/freadings.php>

Overview for New Moon June 22nd 3:36 PM EST

Several astrological alignments pertaining to the current new Moon suggest that this will be a valuable opportunity to expedite many inspired advances in personal clarity. Cancer is well known for its link to domestic affairs and so much attention to home energy dynamics is called for. Our body is home to our spirit and it serves us well to read the correlations between personal significance and what we are manifesting in the physical place we call home. The retrograde stellium in Aquarius, the south node in Aquarius, and the four planets trine in earth signs will bring community and socializing into the picture as well. The stability we have acquired within ourselves and in our home will be potentially extended into our community as new energy structures provide fresh new enthusiasm to share creative expression in harmony with mutually accepted individual magnificence.

There are several notable astrological alignments which color this current Moon cycle.

- New Moon conjunct Vesta
- New Moon opposite Pluto
- Mars & Venus conjunct
- Saturn & Ceres conjunct
- Mars Venus conjunction trines Saturn Ceres conjunction,
- Stellium Jupiter Neptune & Chiron all retrograde
- Full Moon Lunar Eclipse, and there will be no Sun ingress this Moon cycle.

Self trust pays big juicy dividends! Those who teach us teach us by their behavior. We learn things from our parents and children, our leaders and followers, our peers and associates. By accepting their behavior as a valid portion of our experience we feel things. In an astute recognition that we are creating our own experience we look to see how we respond to things. Significance is known by our feeling response, this can occur when sharing our experience with others. To advance our awareness we value our emotions, we take a giant leap in self awareness when we make an agreement with ourselves that we will recognize the value of all of our emotions. By exploring emotions which we have been hiding from ourselves we introduce ourselves to what it is we are not wanting to deal with. The patterns of denial management, of distraction, of attempting to avoid feeling, become less and less functional as planetary energies continue to rise. Planetary alignments correlate with these increasing energies. We are now taking this giant leap. Resistance is painful, pain makes us feel, feeling is emotional experience, emotions give us the scoop, and so we are right back on track with our personal evolution. Teaching by words alone has a decreasing value, as in Pluto is now in Capricorn, no longer is Pluto in Sagittarius. The awareness that it is our emotions which will show us who we are will be greatly increased now. The personal evolution which has been currently acquired occurred because of our courage to accept our emotions. Emotions hold feeling, feeling resisters what is real. Our currently acquired awareness is an expanded recognition of what is real. The testimonial is all the wonderful talents which are coming on line within ourselves and extend or reflect out into our external world. We have special abilities. Having busted and shed false self ideals this learning is recognized and experienced as memory, we are remembering who we are from an expanded congruent perspective which simply extends our self awareness out beyond the local fiefdom. Within the fiefdom then we possess developed talents which have not been typical in community for some time. Many many generations have preceded our current expanding memory experience and so we recognize the degree of folly and ignorance which we are called to bust and deal with. We recognize this stuff, assignment if you will, by the opportunities it presents to us. We recognize it because it causes us to feel. Accepting everything as a set-up, no matter what, a new expansive perspective is energetically anchored because we had the courage to, not question our feelings, to question our mind's interpretation and the seeding influence or belief which qualified the mental outlook.

Moon Beams

What does this Cancer Moon Cycle have in store?

The Moon as our most potent Earth satellite receives and beams signals which can and do affect our feelings. The idea is to become aware of this process and create opportunities simply by harmonizing our intentions with these collective interacting signals. Moon Beams is a list of topics which are addressed relative to the current Moon cycle. Descriptions are simplified such that they can act as a summary. Moon Beams can be seen as examples as to how challenges can be re-framed as opportunity. Are there energies which are being sent from the Moon which collectively mirror human anxiety? In any case negativity, as a perspective, is turned to opportunity when we choose to see each challenge as a set-up. Signals from this massive satellite do indeed affect our personal feelings. With the intention to evolve our own personal self awareness we can begin to see where we are caught in shared patterns which demonstrate the obliviousness or denial of our greater self. With Moon Beams a potential control pattern is revealed and a correlating elevating perspective shared.

Career:

Control Element: Professional integrity is questioned as in fear that one's ethics will be questioned.

Opportunity: You have nothing to hide so speak up immediately. If others want to create an opinion let it be none of your business as the facts will support you. In the meantime flesh out any emotional reaction which has to do with the fear of being questioned. The opportunity is related to self confidence in your professional mastery. What beliefs are you being called to look at which relate to professional integrity, what professional impression are you positioned to out grow? How are you trapped in your career because you rely to heavily on external validation?

Intention: As a professional I am immediate with my expression.

Health:

Control Element: Some people are born into privilege, you have to work harder than them to prove yourself, do better than them, make them jealous.

Opportunity: Our body's health reflects back to us in the external world as to the harmony we have or do not have in partnerships. Specifically here is an opportunity to see how one's responsibility slipped into competition, where one believes another gets more opportunity, has the silver spoon. This is typically an inherited family issue. A child can feel not good enough simply because of their genealogy. Health issue would be adenoids. If the issue is gripped onto long enough knee problem can develop. There is an opportunity here to see how expertise is reflected in a friend or business partner, as in greatness attracts greatness, as opposed to seeing your relationship as a competition. Acknowledging their expertise you acknowledge your own. If you are having these sort of symptoms you, or your family, are likely highly skilled in some way. Acknowledge this, be well.

Intention: At the scent of jealousy and undue competition I choose to acknowledge and cooperate.

Romance:

Control Element: I am excited about a new romantic interest but I am not going to hazard my security to pursue this.

Opportunity: The new Moon in Cancer and the Summer Solstice offer a huge opportunity to anchor and expand personal equality and significance. We know others are drawn to us, or moved out of our lives, paralleling our evolving self awareness. This is simply the nature of human relating experiences. If a blossoming romantic experience threatens then choose to see what it is which is being griped onto. What beliefs do we hold about safety and security? The coming alive of the sensual passionate self is likely being mirrored in the romance. You can know whether or not this is so by trusting your feelings. In the meantime what relationship pain from the past is being held onto now which you have the opportunity to resolve and proceed beyond? Do you want to hold onto to this pain because you do not know who you would be without it? It is the interpretation and not the emotion which is to be evolved. During this Cancer Moon cycle your personal inner enthusiasm will be sensual and passionate and be in anticipation of sharing this. The outer manifestation, as in being romantically involved, will be an enhanced sense of allowing and sharing and will occur without effort, it will simple be. The outer manifestation will also include an evolution in both partners of how society and community are understood.

Intention: I am resolving past pain by noticing that my inner enthusiasm is being mirrored in my romantic partner.

Money:

Control Element: My challenges and opportunities are controlled by how wealth is shared in my family.

Opportunity: Self importance as considered relative to one's position in a family may turn out to be self delusion. Even an unexpected beneficiary can be overwhelmed by an increase in wealth. What importance does the sharing of wealth within a family have? The Cancer Moon cycle allows us to birth new versions of ourselves. We have the opportunity to bust any belief we may have been gripping onto where our social confidence has been founded in, or limited by, family finances. Family unites who's sharing of ideas, their conversation, is dependant on the wealth they share may indeed have other things they could be talking about. If you are, in financial terms, either included or excluded in an exaggerated way, to the extent that it gets your emotional attention, then your identity is being set-up to be reformed. You are not defined by family dynamics alone. The opportunity to move into enthusiastic expression during the Cancer Moon cycle will include a passion for the fair sharing of wealth. This enthusiastic creative self has the opportunity now to be more observant on a grander congruent scale. The platform for enthusiastic expression is either revealed anew or is increased. The opportunity is to find new foundations which support one's excitement for sharing wealth. New foundations which will call for the release of how self has defined their relationship harmony as this definition was tied in to closely to family hierarchies which define the dynamics of wealth sharing.

Intention: My awareness of wealth sharing is expanding beyond family paradigms.

Home:

Control Element: I have a fondness for adventures in nature but outside my home I have little control over my survival, I need to keep nature journeys short and controlled.

Opportunity: The self awakening evidenced by our ability to define and direct our experience is poised to redefine our home. By re-framing our interpretations of our feeling awareness we introduce new choices - new opportunities. Many classic self definitions are collapsing as their redundancy no longer draws our creative attention or interest. We value our challenges, our fears, for the opportunities which can be fleshed out from them. Our healthy respect for our human self, for our flesh and blood, for our immune system, for our innate bio-intelligence, leads us to discover the value of our organic integrity as we experience and journey here on Earth. Earth can now be reintroduced to ourselves as our real human home. Many fears of being consumed by the wild are based upon depleted paradigms supported solely by Darwinistic notions which define human experience as a struggle to survive in nature, as if we need to defend ourselves from her, Mother Earth. We will indeed attract that which we fear. As we become aware of our power, such as the power of our immune system, and as we become aware of the holographical nature of reality, we can intend to extent this harmony out into our external world. What better world to extend this bio integrity out into than Mother Earth herself. The opportunity here is to take a deeper look at any fears of being out in nature and to find out what belief pattern is still being given energy. As all is connected these hidden (or not so hidden) beliefs do indeed affect our home harmony, no matter how much insurance one has purchased.

Intention: I am ripe to discover my truest sense of comfort and harmony, I am accepting my true human home.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Monday June 22nd - New Moon in Cancer 3:36 PM

How creative are we? There is no end to our creativity. As we discover this truth we also discover the denial of it and the correlating dramas which mirror this. There is much more to discover and recover. What we can claim is that which is first pronounced to us. Merging our magnificence with our local human self causes many things to happen. We affect our health, our use of energy, our community, our world. We affect our existence as we currently know it. Just like when we remember something we may have forgotten about which occurred in our past we become aware of things in an instant. Our creativity, our imagination, is a powerful asset which when rediscovered through expanded awareness, changes virtually all notions of our identity.

Our domestic identity correlates with our human identity. Our human self as the vehicle for our terrestrial experience is home to our spirit self. How comfortable we are at home has a layered meaning.

Habits which dictate to us our easiest road, our automatic choice, have effects which are not necessarily considered at the moment the habit is acted upon. How we relate to others in our home is prime territory to observe our harmony in action. The quality of the harmony we experience as we share our domestic space with others is of course malleable. We can increase the quality of co-operation in our home by our willingness to take ownership of any automatic decisions we make as we encounter the energy opinion and intention of others who live here as well. What better time to do this than during a new Moon phase. We can intend to set the frequency and tone of harmony, we can choose to focus on those things we do have in common. Our new Moon intentions work like magic, our experience is given a directive to follow, a holographical blueprint. Although the logical mind through the ego may act as if independence has been achieved through some habitual actions the feeling self will have a different knowing. What kind of privacy do we have when we are either on guard or on the lookout for another's energy? Even if they are not physical there in a particular given moment we can feel their presence. We are able to make effective intentions which will allow us to be in harmony at home by valuing the presence of their energy. What is it that is being mirrored to me? What identity do I have which is connected with my domestic experience? What identity do I assume about myself which is connected with my need for privacy? Where does my idea of privacy come from?

02 Wednesday June 24th - Moon enters Leo at 12:51 PM

The final phases of disconnected self importance are upon us. The taste of external validation may not be for you. "Who will I be if I am not who I thought I was?" The courage to look beyond the brim of the hats we have been wearing introduces us to an evolved self who holds a frequency awareness which allows the perception of a multi layered sense of existence. This will now begin to expand into social harmony. The courage to accept nothing in terms of a self definition which requires external validation or approval makes the space for the return of sovereignty. This sovereignty has a congruency, a lightness of expansive quality. In order to flesh out the residue of dysfunctional self admiration we pay attention to what the Moon causes us to now feel. Defining self by appeasing the grandness of another will be included. How social elitism has been seeded by someone's self assertion is revealed. This is all related to the recover of the will. The will, as a very active dynamic presence, will change the world. This has always been the case and so now we are paying attention to how the will has been allowed to participate and support the agenda of others while at the same time contributing to the manifestation of experiences which are perhaps no longer desired. The Moon in Leo is going to have us feeling those things which are related to our significance. It is up to us as individuals to decide who influences our will.

03 Friday June 26th - Moon enters Virgo at 1:48 PM

We may be shifting our communication style in some way. A changing self awareness alters our spontaneous thought process, it no longer seems necessary to say certain things. Our mind functions in a more precise manner having evolved a congruent stable wholeness pertaining to prioritized responsibilities. Noticing how we feel about certain conversations or communications we involve ourselves with we may have decided that some pretense for associating is no longer be for us. This can be felt. If it is no longer for you, acknowledge this, make an agreement with your self. If we do decide to advance our discretion in how we think and communicate we imply something about our mental stretch. Something has to replace that use of energy. A reestablishment of self identity has been an on going process and now we may well be in a re-birthed state. A sign of this rebirth is an astute discerning mind with a prudent approach toward mental interaction. We are taking a much more active role with what we allow our mind to participate within. "This is not where I will concentrate my attention." And. "This is where I will concentrate my attention." As the Moon transits Virgo we are called to clean up our mind space.

04 Sunday June 28th - Moon enters Libra at 5:26 PM

At the core of personal significance is the embracing of harmony with others which occurs spontaneously in the moment. Each moment is fresh new and simply irresistible. To be able to be spontaneous in our interactions we prioritize our experience around the energy which is created, or tuned into in the very moment of our interactions with them. We experience how we value harmony. As the Moon transits Libra we are provided the opportunity to notice how we anticipate this spontaneous harmony. The mental ideals which are associated with this harmony experience, what the ego locks into, is now available to be objectively witnessed. The birth of our sovereignty is supported through our admission of any preconception which would define this harmony external to its natural occurrence. For example a concern for financial security which carries with it electro magnetic patterns, beliefs, which are allowed to prioritize our immediate experience will remove or alter the foundation of our authentic inspired expression. These electro magnetic patterns which are allowed to define self significance are associated with belief systems which influence our decisions about what we want in our relating experiences. It is these patterns which the Moon will now show us. The management of family wealth, or family dept, can be observed as a distraction subduing spontaneous harmony. It doesn't have to be about family or money although these are good examples, it could be about acknowledgment pride or seeking respect at work or through peers. As we develop and evolve our awareness and shed false self definitions we position ourselves such that we experience increased moments of enlivened harmony with all others.

05 Wednesday July 1st - Moon enters Scorpio at 12:20 AM

Humanity likes to share. When we really value something and we take this something and share it with others we experience a particular inspired motivation. Our child like enthusiasm possess a creative impulse which supersedes many rationalized opinions, opinions which could stand in the way of playful expression. As the Moon transits Scorpio we experience this collusion as emotional reactions. The collusion between the yeah "lets do it" and the "better not" thought forms as they parallel the dynamics of how sharing is expressed, or not. We as a local society, and a global society, are poised to deal with those belief structures which stand in the way of an evolved realistic sharing experience. On the personal front we can now pay attention to those impulses which come to us via our body and spirit. As these impulses charge our enthusiasm we can uncover any influences which would halt or crush the actualization. Are the beliefs behind the "better not do that" reasoning in accord with our intention to advance our evolution? Where can I share more freely now that I have expanded my awareness? How has humanities natural impetus toward sharing been altered? No matter how discombobulated human may have become, when individuals express their spontaneous sharing, with motivation and pure excitement, they step into the timeless realm, the expanded moment, and align themselves with a powerful portion of themselves. They become a conduit to massive charge. Depending on their degree of evolved sovereignty they broadcast a signal which is formulated or fused within a congruent grid which extends into and through all related holographic structure related to it. A potential altering of reality for themselves and many others can occur. Do you possess the ability to move the world? Absolutely, and so now we get to see how we have been distracted from our magnificence simply by observing how we feel about the influences and beliefs which would suggest otherwise.

06 Friday July 3rd - Moon enters Sagittarius at 10:12 AM

Mercury ingress Cancer July 3rd 5:21 PM

Venus ingress Gemini July 5th 4:24 AM

With the Moon transiting Sagittarius we want to include a look at Jupiter (ruler of Sagittarius) as well to see what's up. Jupiter retrograde, in Aquarius, is in conjunction with retrograde Neptune and retrograde Chiron. We will be, through our feelings, prompted to reiterate some of our social relationship experiences. A prime area of confusion which can be fleshed out now is how partnership relationship (one on one) can be confused with social relationship. To service our personal health and well being we may be called to deal with our social beliefs as they are mirrored in others. These planets have been dancing around like this for awhile now so some of this should not take us by too much of a surprise. What is unique in this particular period or Moon phase is the opportunity to flesh out personal health issues which are tied into social dramas. Especially significant are issues revolving around public and professional reputation. Specifically it is for us to decide what is our personal responsibility and what is not. We may be called, by our body's signal, to redefine our self admiration if this self admiration is being qualified by the external validation of some social dynamic. How many responsibilities have we taken on which now can be seen to challenge our body's wellness, which are really not that much interest to us? What activities which are certainly our duty to attend to have we allowed ourselves to be distracted from? This is a great time to redo our personal to do list.

07 Sunday July 5th - Moon enters Capricorn at 10:09 PM

Full Moon Lunar Eclipse July 7th 5:23 AM

The power of Cancerian energy to nurture and support new life cannot be under estimated. Pluto, now in Capricorn, was directly opposite the Sun and Moon on the new Moon. For Cancerian energy, as in the Cancerian individual, to find comfort the quality of Capricorn structure must be aligned to this pure nurturing impulse. The Summer Solstice marks the moment when the Sun moves into Cancer each year, this year this Cancerian ingress, the Summer Solstice, are very close. A rebirth is occurring. The structures which can no longer support the new structures which correlate with this rebirth are redundant and will be devoid of attracting the nurturing energy which is required for a continued existence. Pluto, like the phoenix, is a destroyer creator, and so its out with the old and in with the new. If your are the supportive nurturer type, we all are in some way, then you will be apart of a grand unfoldment. As the Moon moves into and through Capricorn now our opportunity is to witness and notice how we may be still attached to the old school father energy. Limitations, distractions, or tethering, which blocks your excited inspired anticipation of reestablishing your new identity through your individualized human experience will be indicated and revealed to self through some form of objection. This objection may come in the form of a child like reaction "where's the fun in that"? One on one relationships, romantic relationships, partnership relationship, will be the prime mover of the emotional self who will feel the obstructions. The key is to study the triggering relationship with the understanding that the partnership is mirroring something. Two astrological entities which are associated with Cancerian energy are both now in Virgo, Saturn and Ceres. A reunion of sorts is occurring, mother and father energy team up and share notes on what is best for their children. This will cause a questioning of some of the current structures which seem to bind our experience to some ones opinion. "We want the best for our children". Parents are being directed to question what is the best for their children as they align with Virgo rationalizations and honor the virgin innocence of those young children they have been privileged to nurture and protect.

08 Wednesday July 8th - Moon enters Aquarius 11:04 AM

As the Moon moves through Aquarius we will once again experience and feel the Aquarius wave which is so dramatically present on the planet now. The three big players, Jupiter Neptune and Chiron, are all retrograde and conjunct, a stellium. How does Aquarius align to this Cancer Moon cycle? The establishment of clearly defined boundaries is necessary for Cancerian energy and individual to maintain a sense of comfort. Once an experience founded in nurturing and supporting seedling birth and development is established the experience moves into enchanted Aquarian sharing. It is these Aquarian experiences which are being beamed to us from the three planets which form the stellium. What is being busted now is the social isolation and the elitism which has, until now, been allowed to occur. The elitism is tied to leadership energy which had formulated from old school father energy due to its ties to the separation paradigm. Each social group or elite capsule emulates some individual's self confidence and the energy wave of their opinion, eventually forming a social group. As the seeding influence is removed, questioned, a cascade of collapse occurs. We can see this occurring as it is reflected in the economy. A specific example would be Lehman Brothers collapse and systematic meltdown. The new paradigms, or ancient paradigms if you prefer, are enhanced and supported for a revival and return and are currently supported by the one on one partnership experiences which hold Cancerian energy. Cancerian partnerships enchant social harmony allowing new social interconnections to occur. This harmony is elevated by integrity and respect for each individuals creative connection with source. Our inclusion within the organic symbiosis of Gaia epitomizes how we are a member of the greatest planetary social club of all. When we extend this organic integrity from within us out into our community we become apart of the enchanted Aquarian wave. Stickiness, as being in fear of our survival, will be fleshed out by the Moon's transit through Aquarius. "How am I stuck to the fleeting paradigms of separation?" The charge behind "I am nobody unless I am validated by a superior accomplishment in the view of others" can wipe out those who have not yet acquired a stable and congruent will. Wiped out means they will stick to some form of social elitism as this simply appears easier than believing in themselves. High diplomacy is supported by Pallas Athena currently in Leo, new solutions are hatched and much pain can be avoided by those who ride her wisdom. She inspires self admiration and self respect simple by being courage.

09 Friday July 10th - Moon enters Pisces at 11:45 PMMars ingress Gemini July 11th 10:57 PM*

Our potential to discover a new form of freedom increases now simply because we are able to move our understanding of thought creates into paradigms of apparent victim-hood. Being saved, or being a savior, what does this mean relative to thought creates? The notion that someone is going to save you, or that you are going to save another, is founded in a paradigm which is being busted by Uranus in Pisces. Now with the Moon moving through Pisces during this Cancer Moon cycle these beliefs (implied victim/savior drama) will be painful to hold onto. Our new form of freedom is right there on the other side of the victim/savior belief. Our creative expression, as in Cancerian energy, knows harmony as an absolute acceptance of the source of existence which exists in each individual. The Cancerian individual is typically quite nurturing. When we choose to honor this, when we say, "I choose to focus on what we do have in common", when we choose to say "I intend to enhance the creative inspired expression of others", we begin to experience a new freedom. We actively participate in a form of sharing which implies that our identity is grounded and stabilized within a particular acceptance and understanding of who we are. With Mars and Venus conjunct in Taurus at the new Moon this expression is personally supported in social dynamics. In the meantime the Moon will assist as always by fleshing out where we have become overly involved in other peoples stuff. Their dynamic after all is a set-up, whether they are aware of this or not, and so who are we or anybody to act as if we know better? Again external validation will be the culprit. "How has my self admiration been attached to and qualified by the approval of others?" Perhaps we will choose, manifest, a version of the world where humanity, one by one, redefines themselves. Either way we are in for a new world where the quality of harmony we experience is the reflection and extension of our own self awareness. Perhaps you will inspire a new form of freedom, perhaps that is all the help anybody else really needs.

10 Monday July 13th - Moon enters Aries at 10:41 AM

As a sovereign self it is no big deal to take immediate action and move forward with the joy and enthusiasm of your commitment. If we are unclear about our commitment yet still feel the urgency to move forward what kind of drama will we create for ourself, what kind of stuff will we end up landing in? As the Moon transits Aries we are poised to take some action to start forward with something. Much action can be prompted by an attempt to secure personal security. Such action can be observed, an agenda revealed. Being enamored by the physical, discounting the many other layers of who we are, can cause much anxiety urgency and panic. It is this very response which we have the opportunity to observe, either in ourselves or others. With Aries ruling planet, Mars, being in Taurus, we can attend to things which require physical effort. Mars in Taurus can also manifest as being aggressive with our opinion, spoken or unspoken. If this manifestation occurs then we are looking at beliefs concerning victim hood and savior. Bosses may be bolder than usual. Are they coming from a place of clearly defined commitment or are they questioning their own independence? If you do meet up with some exaggerated aggression now know that the Moon is in Aries and that Mars is in Taurus and accept the way you emotionally react to this behavior. What is it causing you to feel? We have an opportunity to find out how we can either refine our commitment or take action on what we have already acclaimed as our calling.

11 Wednesday July 15th - Moon enters Taurus at 6:31 PMMercury ingress Leo July 17th 7:09 PM*

Our inclusion within the symbiosis of Mother Earth makes us effective, if we so choose to be, at contributing and supporting her current changes. Our inclusion within this symbiosis can be seen as our inclusion within the Greatest Social Club Of All. If we choose to accept that we are here for her, as we choose to actively acknowledge her, we send a signal to our body, our body begins to come form a certain command, a command that empowers our body. We begin to evolve to standard of being which best accommodates our effectiveness within the club. The stability of who we are increases as this stability is relevant to her agenda. Our bio logical self, our human self springs, from her and contains her intelligence, her intention to be healthy. We can choose to acknowledge this. If this is our choice we can feel it inside us, we feel and experience dynamic rejuvenation. Her intelligence within us, our bio innate knowing, is allowed to be extended out in to our social landscape. The harmony which functions within us, our cellular harmony, our bio magical harmony, begins to be projected out into our social landscape. When we agree to this, to this extension of bio harmony out into our social landscape we inspire a new community to come alive. We demonstrate an acceptance of the goddess energy and enjoy the expression of support for her social club. As the Moon moves now thorough Taurus we may be called to look at some stone monuments erected in the name of separation. These stones are beliefs and their correlating thought patterns. How the Earth is not being acknowledged will cause emotional reactions. We can choose to take an active role by acknowledging her when such an insight occurs. The main thing called to be busted now are the bricks, the thoughts, which were masoned absent of her consideration.

12 Friday July 17th - Moon enters Gemini at 10:42 PM

As humans have been cultivated to act as if they are separate, in a nonrealistic way, the astral air waves are filled with thoughts of personal considering. For those who have achieved an evolved sense of personal significance it is now that these astral airwaves will be picked up. The sovereign self knows the difference between what is their thoughts and that of others because of the frequency song which carries the signal. It's the same as knowing one song from another. The opportunity now is to clear the astral airwave such that more inspired signals can be asserted or received etherically. We can choose to become holographical broadcasters. Mercury, now in Leo is the ruler of Gemini. At the moment of new Moon it was in Gemini. Our new Moon intention to do some thought pattern tidying up will show us how the astral realm is filled with thoughts where individuals continually question their significance relative to separation notions. If we have indeed evolved ourselves sufficiently we are in a position to transmit our own signal now. How awesome is that? This ability is directly related to our ability to stabilize ourselves within a holographical awareness, we are approaching service from a perspective which implies an awareness of congruent wholeness. As we balance and service our own inner dialogue such that it includes the acknowledgment of our own multi dimensional proportions we parallel the arrival of a new world. The Moon will show us where we can make some adjustments to our signal broadcast play list.

13 Sunday July 19th - Moon enters Cancer at 11:52 PMDark Moon July 20th 2:16 AM*

As the Moon returns to Cancer we are nearing the next new Moon, which will also be in Cancer. Cancerian energy, so connected with family, reminds of our connection with parental dynamics. Our urge to be parental, our expectation of being received by our own parents in a nurturing way. Before we complete this Moon cycle and begin a new we can choose to review this parental urge, our experiences in our own early home, the expectations and disappointments as well as the secure feeling of being protected and cherished within our childhood home. The Moon will move these things to the surface now creating an opportunity for us to find pieces of ourselves which are caught in a past family trauma. If such is the case our current day relationships will be affected. We may look for relationships, social relationship or partnerships, which can parallel the feelings we thought we missed. The opportunity is to evolve any judgment of our own family by expanding the perspective. Our view of reality, our awareness of things, has likely evolved and so if we are feeling any type of emptiness or longing for family comfort which did not occur in the past the way we wanted it to we can follow these feelings and discover what influences and beliefs supported them. We expand our perspective by trusting that our feelings are working for us, that our well being is being considered, we move any judgment into discernment. Now as the new Moon approaches a very special opportunity is at hand as this new Moon is also in Cancer. The Leo ingress will occur quite immediately after the new Moon and so it is as if we are leaving the nest rather quickly. This time we do not want to leave too much of ourselves behind.

14 Tuesday July 21st - Moon enters Leo at 11:29 PM

This is one of those rare Moon cycles where this period fourteen does not exist. Technically the reason there is not a fourteenth period this time is because the Moon returned to conjunct the Sun before the Sun made an ingress into the next zodiac sign. If you are playful and imaginative in a holographical way then you can conceive of this fourteenth period as being the entire Moon cycle which begins on July 21st at 10:36 PM. The following Moon cycle, which will again be a Cancerian Moon cycle, will quickly see the Sun ingress into Leo. In a sense we can see this second Cancer Moon cycle as a beginning birth and then straight into the Leo game of expressing one's significance spontaneously. What makes this significant, such an immediate Sun ingress following the new Moon, is that it comes on the final days of a lengthy period where the south node has been in Leo since December 18th of 2007. The south node will move from Leo to Cancer on August 21st, one day after the Leo new Moon on August 20th.

Sample Intentions for New Moon June 22nd 3:36 PM EST

- 01 I am excited about the opportunity I have to share my creative expression.
- 02 I am employed by Spirit.
- 03 I attract greatness.
- 04 I feel inspired when I trust the experience I am sharing with another.
- 05 My personal security is supported by my clearly defined commitments.
- 06 I am expanding my awareness of what home is to me by trusting and following my feelings.
- 07 I am experiencing what it feels like to be nurtured and to be nurturing while expanding my sense of personal significance.
- 08 I am actively setting a tone of harmony here in my home.
- 09 I am paying attention to how comfortable I am with my professional reputation, I am removing work related distractions.
- 10 By objectively observing the feelings of validation and approval I have shown myself the distance I have moved and the step I will continue to make.
- 11 The grandness I admire in another begins in myself.
- 12 I am continuing to develop a most practical means of maintaining clarity as I interact with others.
- 13 My evolving self understanding alters my communication style.
- 14 When relating to others I am drawn to excitement which is spontaneously stirring in the moment.
- 15 By intending to value that which we do have in common I am purging preconception from my social experiences.
- 16 I am cultivating an expanded congruent view of community, insight comes to me in a flash.
- 17 I enjoy social groups which support the creative inspiration of all of it's members.
- 18 My enhanced shared experiences begin with mutually supported and clearly defined boundaries.
- 19 I am finding myself to be courageous as I adventure into the unknown.
- 20 I am trusting that I will be safe and in harmony as I know that whatever I meet will be a set-up.
- 21 My drive for personal security has a certain buzz to it. Knowing that my feelings keep me informed and that there are always more choices I am placing myself in a new position of personal command.

William Oulton

June 17th 2009