Overview for New Moon Saturday June 12th 7:16 AM EST

Many ideas of how one participates within community are turning out to be limited in some way, and in other ways new ideas and inspirations are occurring. All depends on one's intentions beliefs and thoughts. As we re-cap Uranus in Pisces and move forward with Uranus and Jupiter in Aries during this Gemini Moon cycle we will see how some notions of reality are but limited delusions. It may seem that personal vaults which contain paradigms qualifying the ways and avenues of particular expressions have been thoroughly checked in upon and in some cases completely cleaned out. Yet there are still ways to express desire for more life. These other ways may have been dusted over or considered irrelevant or possible unattainable and yet as the urge for joy and wonder continues to tease a sensual self these other imaginings become more realistic in their potential and viability. The diminishing relevancy of what was once considered standard avenues of expression makes room for the re-alignment and recovery of some ancient truths having to do with human expression and sharing. As the current Moon cycle in Gemini is upon us the internal dialogue of the individual will now be observed. Habitual inner thoughts, as in inner considering, will parallel outer dramas. Many inner thought patterns can be noticed and identified as being from an old world, recent perhaps yet old and really not that interesting. Such is the nature of these times where growth in terms of self awakening is accelerated. This is an ideal Moon cycle then to come to terms with the truth that we are not our thoughts, that thought is a bio-chemical reaction. Indeed our thoughts are powerful as they guide and steer our experience. Is is the size, the grand size of the vesicle which we are, which may have not been acknowledged within the content of older thought patterns. Inner dialogue shifts between our actual conversations and with our more private inner thought. As we witness and acknowledge the nature of our externalized communication and our inner thought process we begin to notice, thought is an automatic process. It is the will and the juiciness of joy to be which begins to be our identity. As we acknowledge accept and know the grandness of self we birth an authentic self whose expression is delicious and expansive. The by-product of such awareness is the quite mind. To quite the mind is to know thy self.

Uranus, now in Aries, marks a dynamic shift in behavior pertaining to security. Uranus, through retrograde motion, will return to Pisces on August 13th followed by a return to Aries on March 11th 2011 where it will remain in transit until May 13th 2018. The current Uranus in Aries period, May 27th 2011 through August 13th 2011, gives us a seventy six day preview followed by a two hundred and nine day return to Pisces before the more lengthly six plus years in Aries. Mars, planetary ruler of Aries, will become unburdened by Uranian energy, and so as we follow Uranus through Aries it is Mars which will give us the scoop on what to expect in terms of personal response. Mars will be in three different zodiac signs during this first Uranus in Aries period. The table indicates the three periods.

MARS PLACEMENT DURING URANUS IN ARIES
DATE	SIGN	AVENUES FOR OBTAINING SECURITY	DURATION
May 27th - Jun 7th	LEO	Acting on self admiration	9 days
Jun 7th - Jul 29th	VIRGO	Establishing partnership agendas	51 days
Jul 29th - Aug 13th	LIBRA	Making use of shared resources	15 days

It is the second Mars ingress, Mars in Virgo, which will be placed in this current Moon cycle. The qualifying factor which drives relationship action will be related to the recovery or establishment of either safety or security. With the first Moon cycle, new Moon in Gemini, pertaining to Mars in Virgo the focus will be on communicating or sharing ideas. This idea sharing will establish a foundational network where further ideas plans and interests, which require some form of team to implement, can be shared. As this moves into one's experience it can be interesting and valuable to notice how relationships are assumed to be designed. This becomes important to notice if an individual is getting some emotional reactions because another team player is implying something through an aggressive approach. Some avenue of expression, some design, will be assumed as Mars fuels and charges the individual to take some relationship qualified action. The opportunity then is to take notice of the design and the implied belief system which qualifies the design. When people move forward, in this case aggressively, with a relationship situation, they are able to do so because they have established within themselves a notion or idea about how that particular relationship is designed. Their actions imply the design which they have accepted as the relationship definition. As many now begin to act out what they have accepted in terms of relationship design others will begin to notice and observe who they are to be in order to maintain camaraderie within the implied design. An individual's historic choices as to how they choose to rationalize their relationships is fleshed out by the action power of Mars in Virgo.

Partners or groups may become more aggressive and assertive with some inspired agenda. Something which may have seemed too outrageous in the past is instead seriously considered and acted upon. There will be much excitement and inspiration, perhaps even a rebirth or rejuvenation of an existing partnership.

A thing to know about Uranus is that Uranus doesn't do separation. From the perspective of our most informed or free self we are aware that all is connected. Where Uranus shows up in an individual's birth chart shows where they possess a potential for busting through paradigms constructed on anything less than this degree of personal freedom, as say in separation notions. If we follow historically where Uranus transited the zodiac signs now being transited by Mars we can see a generation of individual's who can be strongly affected by this current 76 day window. Of course everyone will be affected even if their birthdate is not listed below. The following table is included to assist in gaining an understanding as to what is occurring through the process of providing some additional confirmation . Once Uranus begins the six plus years transit through Aries everyone would be included in such a table. NOTE: Due to the retrograde nature of Uranus's journey around the Earth there are some gaps in the following table. If your birthdate lies within one of these gaps your Uranus placement will be in either the preceding or following sign. If you are further interested you can check an ephemeris or with an astrologer.

PLACEMENT OF URANUS IN A PERSONAL BIRTH CHART
BIRTHDATE	SIGN	DESCRIPTION	AGE
Jun 9 1956 - Nov 1st 1961	LEO	Freedom to act on self signifiene	48 - 54
Aug 9th 1962 - Sep 27th 1968	VIRGO	Freedom to design partnership	41 - 47
Jun 23rd 1969 - Nov 20th 1974	LIBRA	Freedom to entice others	35 - 41

Within the fiefdom of separation life isn't fair. There are authorities which are taken on to be absolute which are false. A make over of self identity is not doable as long as one remains in the loop of fiefdom ignorance. The injustice of it all causes emotional reactions. Until the higher picture is recognized the avenue of self responsibility is missed. Complaining or feeling hurt at the unfair nature of how one is being treated will be the individual's experience until they are able to see a bigger picture. Assumed authority can be likened to the hall monitor in a public school or a parent who polices behavior between two toddlers. Incidents at younger ages carry on in one's emotional body tagged with either the fear of being treated unfairly or with being rescued by the god like figure. Life is fair, once this is realized a process of becoming responsible for what one is involved with begins. Absent of this outlook adults will be reminded of their oblivious belief that someone is monitoring the fairness of their shared reality.

Mars in opposition to Chiron at the new Moon shows how creative expression is acted upon bringing out deep feelings of connection to Earth and her ways of harmonizing within an organic landscape. The natural impulse to nurturer is uncovered through artistic expression. The value of harmony is that it connects individuals with a rich power. This strength, this power, is sensual in nature and connects the individual to ancient energies which are coming alive as their organic truth and connection with the Earth is embraced. When the lid on this pure dynamic state of nurturing and harmonizing is peeled off there is a letting loose of social involvement founded by an individuals understanding as to who they are as qualified by the great freedom they feel within a grand system of organic harmony. Chiron's association with the centaur shows us our connection with the Earth and is well harmonized with the pure innocence of Virgo. Chiron's recent ingress into Pisces follows a seven year period where Uranus busted down limiting delusions which have been distracting the individual away from advancing their self awareness. Now Uranus is in Aries and Mars, Aries ruling planet, is becoming unburden. Action impulse is freed and Chiron is the discerning factor. Sustained artistic expression will challenge fleeting separation beliefs such as being overly concerned with one's public reputation and social elitism. We access the electro magnetic holographic territory of our existence because we are one with it. As more and more individuals embrace and enjoy this inclusion any old patterns where territory is falsely claimed will bring forward challenges as the power of harmony invades false understandings of exclusive ownership. Connected models of self importance which have been qualified by false ownership of territory will lose the support which allowed them to be sustained in previous experiences. Artistic expression which contains the harmonic of holographic expansive inclusion reaches many portions of life and sends a signal throughout existence. The dynamics which we experience now, personally and socially, is the arrival or return of an original intention for Earth and humanity. All is called to be in entrainment with Universal Harmony.

With the unburdening of Mars (Uranus in Aries) we may be called to look at the quality of our own patience. What sort of ball game one is playing in may be hidden from their immediate awareness, however once certain impulses are acted upon and action is taken, attention is drawn. Unexpected ramifications provide the vehicle for clarity, all is a setup. The expansion of self awareness is upon us. One way or another we will be shown grander aspects of ourselves. No matter who is on the other team we are facing the quality of our own integrity.

With Pallas Athena retrograde in Scorpio sextile to Pluto in Capricorn at the Gemini new Moon phase some networking will imply that greater responsibility is needed in how resources are shared as an alternative wisdom and realism gains favor. A better fit for some past insight exists now. Discoveries in how sharing can reach greater fulfillment, which was once limited due to some social obstruction, is now given the opportunity to move. A deep felt sense of partnership connection, through balance of feminine and masculine impulses, leads to wisdom. It is this wisdom which now harmonizes with the need for current social and public changes. Something in the world has changed and what once seemed inappropriate or unrealistic becomes a real opportunity. The apparent acceptable means in which an individual can move their passion into a public realm opens up. From a personal perspective a dream or desire gets a clarity or wisdom boost and thus returns to color current experience. Riding along with the revolutionary wave sweeping through cultures the abandoning of some historic framework or boundary, which defines appropriateness, is less valid and thus challenged. It is the sheer passion and wisdom of a deeply felt sharing impulse acted upon which not only brings great joy to those aligned with this, it also advances the greater community. Mercury in Gemini is in-conjunct the Pallas Athena Pluto sextile forming a YOD. We already know that there are dynamic changes issued in by the Gemini Moon cycle affecting communication and networking dynamics. This emphasis increases with Mercury's YOD alignment. As a specific example some networking session will manifest a feeling triggered by content which appears unbelievably trite as the content being communicated no longer resonates with the individual's evolving self definition. Quite simply people are beginning to value who they are as defined by their feelings, allowing this emotional truth to be a valid aspect of their own significance. The unraveling of false self importance occurs as the validating individuals, the followers, become increasingly aware of the quality of joy they are privy to outside the perimeters of another's need for external validation.

If we feel inspired by the creative expression of another we can choose to acknowledge and support this creative expression. By choosing to focus on what we have in common we create harmonious socializing. If an individual is clear with their commitment to evolve and awaken a Sacred Spiritual Self their position and influence as to what is harmonious will perhaps change. Of course we do not all have the same opinion, what kind of boring life would we lead if we all had the same opinion? When we choose harmony we may be called to realize that we are of a differing opinion, we may decide that "this is not for me". However when something is to our liking our action to acknowledge this leads to the building and support of valuable networks of like minded individuals. When we choose to tune into the harmonic which exists between individuals we excite a merging of worlds. To facilitate a merging of worlds we are called to move into our feeling center, not with dread or fear but with acceptance of the adventure. After all it is our feeling center as opposed to our logic which tells us that the harmonic is there. The excitement we feel is the testimonial of our congruency with our expanding self, with the merging of Spirit which supports our intentions, and with the harmonic quality of a loving healthy community.

Birthdates

This Birthdates section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthdate is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthdate is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Saturday June 12th - New Moon in Gemini 7:16 AM

Our ability to communicate etherically increases dramatically as we recovery the use of sensitivity through personal commitments to evolve and advance our self awareness. The Moon, known for it's affect on our feelings, brings to our attention just what the intending individual commanded, and this is true no matter where the dial is set between denial and acceptance. Looking past this Moon cycle in Gemini, the ability to integrate and recover our natural propensity for ethertic networking will prove most adventurous and enjoyable. Is there a divine plan in action? The individual chooses their perspective and issues permission for existence to meet them via life's dynamics and dramas. It is through Gemini energy where we embrace the joy of teaming up with others, either socially or more intimately. In Gemini fashion established relationship harmony in our personal lives adds assurance to our public courage. Those who experience harmony in their personal relating experiences communicate with command and effect within public situations. The ability to move deeply into the electromagnetic realms of advanced organic networking occurs as the mind is elevated from the tethers and distractions of separation reasoning. How far can we stretch and reach into the ethers before we plant our flag in opinion land? This is for us to discover if we so choose.

02 Saturday June 12th - Moon enters Cancer 9:51 PM

Venus ingress Leo June 14th 4:51 AM

With the Moon now in Cancer we may notice how survival beliefs influence creative expression. When we network and connect with others we may find ourselves more sensitive than usual to the bold expressions of others. These expressions imply something, they imply a desire to fit in and connect to others, to be apart of a supportive relating experience. We may even experience some panic or impatience as it is broadcast from those who feel pressure concerning their personal security. Either way the expressions will be spontaneous in their delivery while at the same time implying the beliefs and influences which qualify them. The Moon affecting our feelings makes sure we notice what we need to. The supportive nurturing nature of Cancer works very much with the Moon as it is the Moon which shows us where others are signaling the need for support. Creative energy channeled into rejection expressions may rise, if so how willing is this person to take responsibility for their past choices? The thing to remember here is that it is not our job to save everybody who needs some nurturing, things could become very overwhelming. Instead we can say to ourselves, "okay why am I noticing this, what does it have to do with me?" "What type of support have I given to others in the past which made for a good mix then?" "How do I seek the nurturing impulse of others?" A discovery which can be made now is the nature of our most effective communications. If we discover that it is our intentions and feelings that give us our most realistic communications then we will become more aware as to the value of our sensitivity. Our sensitivity as the gateway to our inbox can serve us well once we become consistent in our awareness of how we most effectively communicate and network.

03 Monday June 14th - Moon enters Leo 11:55 PM

What we have noticed through the last couple of days effects our communication style now. Via our sensitivity what have we picked up upon? Now the Moon's journey through Leo sparks our feelings in how our self esteem is qualified. This may seem important as it can have a direct affect on the quantity and quality of our communications. When self esteem requires external validation things can get bumpy and so these bumps will show up in our emotional reactions. We flesh out the beliefs which we have unknowingly been giving energy to by trusting our feelings. Such a prudent look into the beliefs which imply self esteem will potentially free our ability to become clearer with our own networking and community sharing. Astrologically there has been lots of personal attention given to Leo and there still is considering Neptune's continued journey through Aquarius. The ability to fit into separation paradigm archetypes which are supposed to cause an individual to feel good about themselves have been showing us just how realistic these fits are, or are not. As we consider how our communications has been affected by this exaggeration of Leo influence lately we can make some choices now as to what best services us in terms of what we find ourselves paying attention to.

04 Thursday June 17th - Moon enters Virgo 1:42 AM

In this Gemini Moon cycle, while the Moon is in Virgo, we can choose to heal or repair our own communications network. As a bio-being we have an organic communications network. Just like as reflected in the techy world, as in the internet or our phone system. We may have noticed that virtually all valuable mechanical type inventions borrow their design from, or rely on, mother nature. There are many examples of this. Like crystals, crystals are at the heart and core of synchronizing computers, how much communications would we have without computers? Crystals act as frequency stabilizers for high speed data communications. Crystals also allow us to communicate with vaster aspects ourselves. Our communication network improves with our health and so knowing Virgo's association with health and healing we can allow the Moon's transit through Virgo to give us our own personal bio service report. Feeling reactions now may show us where our sensitivity has been over whelmed, or where we have been considering a mental logical aspect at the expense of not staying in tune with our body's opinion. Especially distracting to our natural, and quite amazing personal bio communication networking potential, is how the logical mind continually attempts to rationalize relating experiences from the perspective of separation implied beliefs. If this is the case we can count on the Moon to send us some feeling reactions to get our attention. In order to facilitate the feeling reaction some experience will need to be setup. We can cut to the chase by re-framing any drama which occurs now by paying attention to what the drama causes us to become aware of which we were not previously paying much attention to.

05 Saturday June 19th - Moon enters Libra 4:14 AM

Summer Solstice Sun ingress Cancer Monday June 21st 7:30 AM

The Moon in Libra will flesh out those feelings of wanting to move a partnership beyond socially defined restrictions and limitations. The power of a partnership exist in it's very real shared enthusiasm. A rather prudent assessment of a relationship may direct this power, this enthusiasm, to bold public action. Aligned with the need for some changes in public or community structures, opportunities open up for a partnership to move forward. The demise of false credit within the hierarchy of public authorities, for example, provides opportunity for some team players to assert their integrity within the makeup of a mutually supported action plan. Feed up with the lack of opportunity current social infrastructure facilitates an inspired idea, mutually supported within a partnership, busts through into public forum. Such an inspired plan can act as a catalyst, ultimately supporting the need for some new social directive. The beginning of summer may be just the tap on the shoulder some have been waiting for as they look to a friend or partner and say "Lets do something".

06 Monday June 21st - Moon enters Scorpio 8:15 AM

Since today is the first day of summer we can take this opportunity to acknowledge our creative playful self. As the South node is currently in Cancer as well as the Sun it is the merging of our child like self with our mature adult self which is being prompted into our personal experience. As this Moon in Scorpio is apart of the current Gemini Moon cycle we can look specifically at how we share ideas, how we communicate. We can intend to discover where our playful self and our practical self are harmoniously supported and integrated. Such an integration supports both increased clarity and an enthusiasm to share ideas with others. With both Pallas Athena and Pluto interacting here there is a potential reconstruction going on where the inventive wise self has the potential to step into a higher awareness of personal responsibility and make things right, especially where communications is concerned. The Moon in Scorpio will trigger our deep feelings, our sensuality. How our communications are linked to our desire to share on the deepest level can be looked into simply by trusting our feelings. The busting down of social structures, Pluto in Capricorn, may facilitate an opportunity where the individual can choose to move an urge to become personally committed to their sensual self and evolve their communication style such that their playful self can be given new avenues for adventure.

07 Wednesday June 23rd - Moon enters Sagittarius 2:11 PM

The Moon, now in Sagittarius, can launch teams into action. What are they ultimately after, as individuals, what is the foundational motivation? Ruling planet Jupiter now in Aries can cause some quick team building and action as the desire for Aries energy is associated with a team vision. The inspired motive behind a partnership brings the association to a place of value in terms of public image. As this is a Gemini Moon cycle the focus is on how we network and communicate. Why we say the things we do, in our associations with others, comes forward in feeling reactions now. The boldness which is exhibited spontaneously, is it working? The opportunity here is to identify and come to terms with the implied beliefs which are the foundation of inspired team plans. These foundational ideas may be so completely accepted that it can be difficult to bring them into question. The difficulty being that it may not occur to even question it. If the feeling reaction is trusted however then there is a likelihood that this is where it will lead the individual to look, at beliefs which imply public reputation .

08 Friday June 25th - Moon enters Capricorn 10:22 PM

Full Moon Lunar Eclipse Saturday June 26th 7:31 AM

This is a great opportunity to evolve an existing partnership or to support the coming together of a new one. The need for change may seem to be upon us. If this is indeed the feeling of some and if this feeling is mutually supported within a partnership then their value as an inspired team can now move into purpose. The need to do something, or to get going on something which has been feeling sluggish may come upon some. Such is the nature of Moon in Capricorn, hurry up, get going. Actually there is a pot of gold, sort of speak, at the end of the rainbow as the Moon's north node and Pluto are both in Capricorn. That is if you are into revolution and being apart of a team who is inspired to move on the wave of change which is being called for within the grander vision of the world today. With Saturn, planetary ruler to Capricorn, being in Virgo and soon to return to Libra a searching for rules and guidelines which define the self within a partnership situation may be calling one to be clearer with their communications in a partnership. Clearly shared and understood ideas in a partnership can move forward now.

09 Monday June 28th - Moon enters Aquarius 8:53 PM

If we are positioned to be a social inspiration our commitment to be responsible may well manifest on a new level. With this being a Gemini Moon cycle and Aquarius marks the ninth solar house relative to Gemini, our thinking and communicating can potentially enter an expanding world. There are particular astro alignments which qualify this potential. When self esteem is galvanized in some belief which qualifies social distinction the Moon in Aquarius will prompt an emotional reaction personalizing the need to pay attention to how one sees them self relative to social inclusion. With an adherence to one's commitment to evolve, emotional reactions which occur now offer the individual the opportunity to discover where they have been caught in some limiting belief which implies social distinction. Either being aware of the social distinction or oblivious to it the emotional reaction will testify to the value in calling attention to how self esteem is reliant upon the distinction.

10 Wednesday June 30th - Moon enters Pisces 9:11 PM

The Moon in Pisces now will trigger feelings associated with fantasies concerning public reputation. If we are feeling emotional reactions now we want to remember what has been recently discovered about social delusions. Some social distinction models and their associated identity archetypes have been getting rather thin in their value. "Been there done that" self identities leave the door open to new roles for self understanding. The fantasy connections made with the assistance of Moon in Pisces can tickle one's artistic self. Since the Pisces Moon ingress brings Gemini energy into the public eye we can expect some feelings which support a professional take on artistic interest to come forward. As there has been perhaps an upgrade in realism lately into who exactly the public forum is, or who it is not, the individual will perhaps choose wisely if they indeed intend on communicating their talent in a public way.

11 Saturday July 3rd - Moon enters Aries 9:45 AM

Jupiter and Uranus are now both in Aries, on the new Moon they were in conjunction. As the Moon transits Aries the presence of these planets in Aries will be shown to the individual through their feeling reaction. Uranus is the planet of freedom and Jupiter is a magnifier, Aries energy supports the impulse to go after things, and so we can add it up. Mars, currently in Virgo, is unburdened by Uranus and propelled into grander experiences with Jupiter. Mars in Virgo shows us that the immediate actions will be related to how relationships are rationalized. Our feeling reactions now that the Moon is in Aries will give us the personal scoop on how all this is relevant to our unique choices. This being a Gemini Moon cycle the Moon's ingress into Aries will reflect back to us our own beliefs about how courageous we are in regard to our social involvement. As this is applied to everyone we would be wise then to pay attention to what it is we have set ourselves up to experience in terms of community involvement and how this community involvement is linked to our need for security. In some cases we may be called to be patient with ourselves, or to take a second consideration before moving on the first impulse which occurs to us. If we have been clear with our commitment and have been able to discern what reflects our sovereignty as opposed to what implies our dependence on survival in a world defined by separation, then we are well equipped to move into freedom as if tethers have been removed.

12 Monday July 5th - Moon enters Taurus 8:30 PM

Defining thoughts as things, tangible as if they possess an independent existence, may seem odd and yet can be demonstrated by considering how facts are accepted. How opinions are accepted as facts gives us an example of how thoughts are things. Astrologically it is Taurus which correlates with the solidity of thought. With the Moon now in Taurus and Venus, ruling planet, in Cancer at the time of the new Moon and now in Leo, these tangible facts will be related to expressions which epitomize self esteem. The Moon will show us our feeling connection, our attraction, to prepackaged ideas which have to do with freely expressing creative impulses. Considering this Moon transit relative to the current Gemini Moon cycle we can begin to discover how our social networking and communication is influenced by a vast landscape of prepackaged ideas associated with self esteem. By paying attention to what gets our emotional attention now we can discover what established network of boxed thoughts we are connected to. This connection is at our command whether we are aware of it or not. If, for example, we are not fancy to some social values we can discover what beliefs we hold which attract those thoughts. We can also re-route our network as to what we connect with. We simply dial into our own vision and hold the frequency of that which is our choosing. Our ability to be such a holder of frequency, holder of vision, is related to our ability to know our self esteem independently from the vast array of thoughts which are swimming around out there in global self concept land.

13 Thursday July 8th - Moon enters Gemini 3:52 AM

Dark Moon begins Friday July 9th 5:07 PM

As the Moon returns to Gemini and we begin to absorb and integrate all we have experienced during this Moon cycle we may notice that our involvement in a grand network of communicating exists as a natural extension of who we are. The clarity of our receptivity to the many broadcasts, including our own, brings us to terms as to what we are creating for ourselves, our experiences, our intentions, and our opinions. The broadcasts referred to here are etheric broadcasts. It is through sensitivity and the stomach area where connection to this communication network is made. In our choices we direct the channel of our receptivity. In some cases, we may have, in the past, figured out how to be quick on our feet, and have showed an ability to move quickly from one demeanor or attitude to another. We are actually changing the dial. You will know because such actions involve one's sensitivity. Our sensitivity is our ability to objectively connect to the network. As we explore and consider this perspective we can look more deeply into the effect we have on our ability to make a clear connection when we move into particular character. When our sensitivity is overwhelmed for example we can consider what is it which is wanting to be shown to us which we may not be so willing to receive. Aggressive self judgment will also affect our ability to be a clear channel. When we are able to intend safety, to feel safe, we are able to better receive information. On the hand our mind will be displaced from our immediate experience if we are attempting to avoid accepting that broadcast which we have attracted. As the Moon now transits Gemini we have an opportunity to feel where we may be acting out old habits and programs simply to avoid feeling something, receiving something. Our ability to discover these habits and their associated beliefs parallels our self observation.

14 Saturday July 10th - Moon enters Cancer 7:39 AM

Now that the Moon is in Cancer and we are soon to experience a new Moon Solar Eclipse in Cancer we can spend a moment or two preparing for our reception and merging with this approaching moment. Looking ahead into this new Moon we can see a particularly interesting alignment where Jupiter in Aries will square Pluto in Capricorn. Since both ruling planets of these signs, Aries and Capricorn, are in Virgo we are about to be directed to our choice of logic, especially in how we justify partnership quality. Coming from this now ending Moon cycle in Gemini we have been given the opportunity to discover much about our communication style. As a natural flow of our personal evolution and self awareness moves us forward into increased clarity we are given an expanded glimpse of our networking capacity, we can feel our energetic connection with those we share our world with. Is in this evolved understanding which we will most joyfully move into our creative experience. The Jupiter Pluto square will seek common ground through rationalized comprehension. What is to be rationalized is the expanded action impulse of Jupiter in Aries as this is related to the revolutionary social changes occurring in all manners of established infrastructures. Cancer energy being nurturing in nature, is also creative and enthusiastic in it's expression. By embracing our sensitivity and intending a good time we will no doubt move into some very interesting adventures.

Soulstar Astrology Appointments

By adding confirmation to expanding self awareness we are able to identify our home station as a holographical being having a human experience. An awakening to a multi-faceted self can be likened to a discovery, a remembering. Soulstar Astrology readings are intended to assist an individual in paralleling this discovery by adding confirmation to what feels right to the individual.

There are many very special astrological alignments which signal the awakening of multi-dimensional memory. Many are incarnated now as this is a grand experience and party for those who are adventurous light beings. Neptune and Uranus are currently mutually accepted, in each others sign, and Pluto is beginning a lengthy hike through Capricorn. Freedom from electromagnetic patterns occurs as many layers of self identity are released from the folly of misunderstanding as to the true potential of what being human is. Every concept and self definition which has been learned through current human social conditioning is to be revamped and realigned to an evolving self identity. You have a home station. As a human you have a home station. Just like if you were to leave a busy shopping complex you would identify your car in the parking lot and drive to your home. You would not take the first car you come across and drive to any house or home. You take your car and drive to your home. As limiting patterns of self identity are released and a grander picture of potential and possibility is formulated your human vehicle is to be recognized from an expanded perspective. No two divine humans are the same and yet we are one within the grandness of Creator's presence.
